Social Committee Tidbits

Mary Gilmore

Boca Ciega is in fine shape. To be honest with you, when I saw all of the divisions in my country and in Canada, I prayed that the residents of Boca Ciega would work and play together as we have in the past. We are doing just that.

On February 6th, our Meet & Greet, sponsored by the Social Committee, was held in our clubhouse parking lot. In spite of the cool, damp weather, we had over fifty residents gather together. The new residents who attended were cheered as Santo introduced them. We enjoyed each other's company while snacking on cheese and crackers, vegetables and dip, fresh fruit and a wine or a beverage of our choice.

★ RATED AREAS #1 MOBILE WASHER

I'm going to be going back and forth between the first three months of this year. Back in January, Boca Ciega had its first Rummage Sale in two years. We got to see some of our regular customers again. Because of COVID, Lore and Rob Bocchinfuso and their numerous helpers, set up most of the sale outside in the parking lot and in a few of the carports close to the clubhouse. Inside the clubhouse, Ingrid's helpers sold women's and men's clothing and linen. Because the sale went so well, I think that this set up could be used next year. The net profit was $2,310.40.

On February 12th, we had our barbecue and corn-hole tournament in the clubhouse parking lot. Our tent had been put up to shelter the tables and chairs put out for the residents. Other folks brought their own chairs taking places either in the shade of our trees along the west fence or out in the sunshine anywhere they found a nice spot. The weather that day was beautiful. Marty, Joe and Jimmy were at the grill. Debbie, Gail, Bonny, Patti and Michelle were at the tables serving us our choice of either a hamburger or a hotdog, along with coleslaw, chips, and a chocolate chip cookie. It was a friendly gathering. We are thankful for the times that we are able to get together. We still don't know all of our new neighbors, but we're getting there.

Between our barbecue and the corn-hole tournament, we took time out for an abbreviated Social Committee meeting primarily to elect the members who would serve from March of 2022 to March of 2023.

Here are your members of the Social Committee:

Chairperson: Joe Dennis, volunteered by his wife Allison, 1st Vice Chairperson: Barb Thomas, 2nd Vice Chairperson: Lore Bocchinfuso, Secretary: Mary Gilmore, and Treasurer: Dennis Eby.

We were told by Dennis that four pairs of corn hole boards were built this season. The men who helped in building them were Dale Lenss, Joe Dennis, Larry Charette, Gary McQuestion, and Dennis Eby. New bean bags were bought. This equipment is primarily being stored in the first shed after you go out the back door of the clubhouse. Another pair are being stored in the shuffleboard shed. Here are the rules. You get 3 points if the bag falls through the hole and 1 point if it lands and stays completely on the board. Play continues until a team reaches or exceeds a score of 21. The corn-hole tournament was fun to watch and you could hear a lot of oohs and ahs for shots made. Shouts of "corn hole" were heard throughout the tournament. First place winners were Meg and Rob, second place winners were Gary and Debbie, the birthday girl, and the two tied third place winners were Greg and Susie and Steve and Gail. Lore and Rob and Debbie and Jimmy thank everyone who helped them before, during and after the social event. It was a great afternoon.

Coming up in March are three events. On Sunday, March 6th is a barbecue followed by the Lucky Duck Races. On Saturday, March 12th is Casino and Pizza and Beer afternoon and on Thursday, March 31st is our End of the Year party. Time sure goes by fast and before you know it our season is coming to an end.

PHYLLIS BRADFORD

April 24, 1926-January 25, 2022

Mindy and I want to share some sad news with our Boca Ciega friends and neighbors. Yesterday evening, January 25, 2022, my mother, Phyllis Bradford, passed away peacefully, in her sleep at Oak Hills Senior Living in Spring Hill, Florida. She was a memory care patient at Oak Hills since October, and was under hospice care there for the past week.

Phyllis was born on April 24, 1926, in Berlin, NH, to Clarence and Jennie (Manzer) Robinson. She grew up on Cascade Hill in Gorham, NH, along with four brothers and one sister. She graduated from Gorham High School in 1946, and attended nurses training at St. Louis Hospital in Berlin, NH (operated by The Sisters of Mercy) where she earned her RN degree. She later joined The Salvation Army Nurse's Corps and attended training college in New York City. She was ordained as a Lieutenant in The Salvation Army, first serving at a home for unwed mothers in Jersey City, NH. Later, while serving with the Salvation Army in Cincinnati, OH, she met her future husband, U.S. Army Sergeant Lloyd "Brad" Bradford and started a family of her own.

Her "baby" brother was former Boca Ciega resident and board member, Barney Robinson.

She is survived by her children, Brad Bradford Jr. (Mindy) of Largo, FL, Gayle Kreitzer of Spring Hill, FL, stepson Thomas Smith (Brenda) of Burlington, KY, along with grandchildren, Christopher, and Nicolas Bradford, Michael Pearson, Amanda Simpson, Dawn Potter, John Libby, Carle Libby, and Derrick and Trent Smith. She is also survived by her brother-in-law John Bradford and his wife Shirley, of Erlanger KY. Some of you may remember that John and Shirley wintered here for several years. She was also blessed with around a dozen great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her parents, her sister, Vivian Logan and her four brothers, Arthur, Howard, Kenneth and Bernard Robinson.

Phyllis had a strong and abiding Christian faith, and claimed the Apostle Paul's letter to The Philippians as her favourite book of the Bible. She rests today in the comfort of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Her earthly remains will be laid to rest in Florida National Cemetery along with husband, Lloyd "Brad" Bradford, Sr., later this year.

Thank you to each and every one of you who have been keeping her in your prayers and thoughts over the past year. She loved all of her Boca Ciega friends greatly!

Brad and Mindy Bradford, Lot 121

Doris May (Hower) Brookhart

*Harrisburg, Pennsylvania
January 25, 2022*

Doris May (Hower) Brookhart, age 90, of Mechanicsburg, PA, and formerly of Largo, FL, entered into God's eternal care on Tuesday, January 25, 2022, after a long and courageous battle with a chronic lung condition. Doris's devotion to her family and her firm belief in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ supported her in the struggle, encouraged all those around her and ultimately gave her peace. She was born in Turbott Township near Port Royal, Juniata County, PA, the daughter of Blaine and Ruth Hower. After graduating from Newport Union High School, she married her husband, Jesse Merrill, with whom she shared 55 years of marriage before his passing in 2005. She was a member of Shiremanstown UMC and an associate member of Chapel on the Hill, Seminole, FL. Doris worked as a bookkeeper, in childcare, as a teacher's aide for special needs children, and as a licensed practical nurse in long-term care. She was an accomplished seamstress who also enjoyed re-upholstering and re-finishing furniture alongside her husband. Together they enjoyed camping ranging from their early times with family and friends at many of Pennsylvania's state parks and in Sea Isle City, NJ, to their cross-country US treks after retirement. Doris and Merrill also spent many years as campground hosts at both Gifford Pinchot and Codorus State Parks - serving fellow campers and entertaining their grandchildren before permanently relocating to Largo, FL. Family and friends were important to Doris, and she enjoyed keeping in touch with everyone especially appreciating the calls and visits from her grandchildren; past friends from PA and Florida across the US and Canada; and her many nieces, nephews and their children. Despite her chronic condition, Doris also loved staying active as she walked and rode her bike almost every day. With her servant's heart, she was always willing to lend a hand to family or friends and provided countless hours of volunteer service to her church, the VA Medical Center in St Petersburg, FL, and various other organizations. Doris was predeceased by her husband, Jesse Merrill Brookhart, Jr., her brother and sister Alton Hower and Patricia (Hower) Kluck. She is survived by her son Michael, his wife, three grandchildren and three great-granddaughters; her brothers William Hower and Earl Hower and his wife Barbara; her sister-in-law Jean Clemens and many loved nieces and nephews. A memorial service will be held in Newport, PA, at the convenience of the family later this year with the joint interment of Doris and Merrill's remains immediately following. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations made in memory of Doris to the American Heart Association, the Central PA Food Bank or the Shriners Hospitals for Children.
