From The President

Diane McSweeney

A great big welcome back to Pat Merl! Office hours will now be 9:00 to 12:00.

It is hard to believe that is February already. The park looks wonderful due to the resident's hard work. We are so fortunate to have so many folks who volunteer their time and energies to our community making this a wonderful place to live. We have so many committees and activities that we are thankful for their volunteer time. We also have some unsung heroes that are not as visible and they need to be recognized for their continued work. A special recognition to: Nita Anderson, who dedicates endless hours for volunteering and dedication in the office. David Middleton, who updates our website and creates posters for many of our events. Jack Rose is amazing in updating and checking our cameras continually helping the security of Holiday Shores. Skip Wagner spends hours maintaining the shuffleboard courts keeping them to a competitive standard for our folks. Jim Keady, who sets up and takes care of our tables in the clubhouse.

We have recently had the clubhouse tented and our termite invasion should be gone. It was cleaned thoroughly.

We are starting a Trusted Volunteer program in the park. These folks will be recognized by the board so they may be covered under our Workman's Comp policy. The trusted volunteers will be; Nita Anderson, Cline Stradley, Dr. Doug Kerr, John Gramatikas, Monty Slaybaugh and Jim Barton. These folks will be involved in various projects around the park. Water pressure testing for leaks will be one of their tasks.

Our costs continue to rise for maintaining the park. Water and sewer costs have risen considerably. Some ways to save money is to reduce car washing and lawn watering. Retrofitting an old toilet is a great way to reduce water usage, it can save 54 percent in toilet water use. A one hundred dollar rebate is available from Pinellas County. If you are thinking of swapping out the avocado green toilet or other color, please visit <https://tampabaywaterwise.org/en/pin/>. This site will allow you to get your refund.

From The Office

Pat Merl

March 20th is the first day of spring, or the spring equinox. This means longer days ahead for us to enjoy outdoor activities. Who can ask for more?!

A FEW REMINDERS:

Please be to be sure to register your arrival, or departure, with the office. If you plan to be away longer than a week and would like your important association documents to be sent to you, please be sure to let us know where you are.

Should you (or your guest) ever need a parking pass in order to park in the Clubhouse lot overnight and you find the office is closed, you can still park the vehicle in the lot and then do one of the following:

- Call the office and leave a message saying you have parked a vehicle, or boat in the lot.
- Write a note and put the note in the Office Mailbox (next to the postal mailbox on the corner by the office).

Be sure to provide this necessary information:

- o Make, color and year of the car
- o When it was parked there and how long it is going to be there

WHEN WE COME INTO THE OFFICE IN THE MORNING WE WILL ISSUE THE PARKING PASS AND CONTACT YOU FOR PICK UP.

Unfortunately, the office has received complaints about the neighbors failing to clean up after their pets. Not only is this unsightly, it can take a year to naturally decompose. The high nitrogen content can burn your grass, leaving brown dead spots. Their waste can also carry pathogens, bacteria and parasites as well as attract flies who could pass them on to humans and other animals - even worse, your pet's waste can get washed into waterways. Please be sure to clean up immediately after your pet eliminated the grounds.

Last, but not least, I would like to sincerely thank the board for allowing me a 60 day unpaid medical leave, in order to take care of my mom. Karl and I would also like to thank so many of you for your kindness, compassion, and empathy during this time – it is extremely touching. This sense of camaraderie is only one of the many reasons why I moved my family to Holiday Shores. I'm glad I did.

A CHENMED COMPANY

Have the Right Doctor? Ask Yourself These 10 Questions.

At Dedicated Senior Medical Center, we're committed to keeping seniors healthy, happy and at home. We understand these are scary times, but we're here to help. Dedicated doctors specialize in caring for seniors and that's why we make it easy for you to see a doctor.

Ask yourself:

1. Is your doctor's office still open?
2. Have you heard from your doctor in the past two weeks?
3. Is your doctor personally calling and texting to check on you?
4. Has your doctor called you to explain your risk of coronavirus?
5. Is your doctor's office offering doctor phone visits?
6. Does your doctor allow walk-in visits?
7. Are you able to call your doctor anytime, day or night?
8. Do you have any difficulty getting to and from your doctor?
9. Is your doctor helping to make sure you receive all of your prescription refills?
10. Is your doctor offering to help you get your medications delivered?

The new committee did a "Drive Around" of Holiday Shores in early February. While a few minor concerns were noted, (which are in the process of being addressed with the appropriate shareholders), the park presented as both attractive and well maintained. This indicates that "pride of ownership" is alive and well in our community. Also, as a result of the "Holiday Shores in Bloom" program being implemented this month, over 20 homes were recognized with signage for their attractive landscaping and gardens.

Holiday Shores Activities Association

Bernadette Drouin

Happy Saint Patty's Day to all!

We had an extremely busy February. They kicked off with a successful winter beach party. It was lots of fun because of all of you. A very special thank you to Patsy Whitten and Carol Hillier for donating such a beautiful raffle basket. The winner of the raffle basket was Doug Brown. We had two 50-50 winners of $55 each. Congratulations to Tom Moffatt and Dave Crosman.

A reminder that line dancing will be on Fridays from noon to 1 PM. Come join the fun and get some exercise.

We had a wonderful breakfast prepared by Bill Wall and his team on the 12th and we are ever so grateful!

The clubhouse was open for Super Bowl Sunday for good food, pools, fellowship and of course watching the game! Congratulations to all winners.

The activities team hopes you all enjoyed your Valentine's Day.

A huge thank you to Dave Crosman and his team for the 13th annual steak dinner! Wonderful job!

Due to the tenting our luncheon was pushed back to the 24th this past month and time was changed to early bird menu at Salt Rock Grill.

There is no rest for the wicked! When you're done enjoying your night at the Lovely Little Murder theater performance you can start going through all your stuff you want to get rid of. Our two day yard sale is March 18 and 19th. Sign-up sheet is on the activities board. If you need tables, you have to go to the office and request them. The tables are limited. Thank you to Doug Brown for taking leadership.

On March 17 we welcome back Danny Helou to celebrate Saint Patty's day. Dance is from 6:30 to 10 PM. Tickets are $10. We will sell every Tuesday and Thursday 11 AM until noon. We will also sell at activity meetings for your convenience. You will also be able to get your tickets at the door.

Stephanie Bowlin will be holding two more smaller paint and sip sessions March 15 and the 22nd at 1 PM. Please watch for the A-frames and sign up.

Our luncheon for March will be at the clubhouse on the 24th. A huge thank you to Steve and Rhonda Jones for taco Thursday. Again! Watch the A-frames and sign up! We don't want to leave anyone out! Lunch is at noon.

Smile everyone. It's spring!

GOLF: HOLIDAY CHIPPERS

Because of the way the Saturday's have fallen, February's results, Chippers report was in February's Monthly Media. Looking forward to seeing more residents participate in this event. There is equipment for you to use.

Sharing and Caring

Hello Friends and Neighbors of Holiday Shores Park.

One of our shareholder residents, Mary Sauer (10290 Broadview), recently passed away. Mary had lived in the Park since 2000. Our sincerest condolences go out to Vicky and Dave Nichols who were great neighbors to Mary and often looked out for her. Please keep the family of Mary, her friends and neighbors, in your prayers.

We were notified that Ruth Kredovski (Lot 331) 10419 Gazebo Drive passed away on February 13th. Please keep the family of Ruth, her friends and neighbors, in your prayers.

I'm sorry to report that the brother of Pat Dugal (who lived in Pennsylvania) recently passed away. Please keep Pat and the family in your prayers.

I am also very sad to report that Jeanne Cole's grandson (Ben) recently passed away. Please keep Jeanne and her family in your prayers.

Please call me (440-724-1488) if you are aware of any of our friends and neighbors who are ill, have had a death in the family, or have had a surgical procedure. I will keep you posted on any new developments. Please keep these friends and neighbors (and their families) in your prayers. Thank you.

Theater

David Middleton

The Way Off-Broadway Theatre has been in rigorous rehearsal for the March production of Lovely Little Murders. It's sure to be a night of great entertainment, filled with comedy and jam-packed with music.

It's all aboard as you set sail with the group from Edie's diner. As you may recall, in March of 2020, the WOB Theater's production of Eating at Edie's introduced us to the regulars at Edie's Diner, who in an effort to impress the person they thought to be a Hallmark Movie Producer, staged a talent show. The group is now off on a new adventure as they board the "Love Boat" for what could be an ill-fated cruise with a mystery writer who has murder on her mind.

If you haven't bought tickets, do so now...the production runs Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, March 7, 8 and 9, 2022. Tickets are $10.00 and will be on sale in the Clubhouse on Tuesday March 1st and Thursday, March 3rd, 11am to noon, and at the Activities Meeting, March 5th. Show time is 7:30 (Doors open at 7).

Lovely Little Murders stars many of your friends and neighbors: Linda Dunn, Peggy Bean, Vickie Nichols, Rose Maiolino, David Helms, Ken Abkemeier, Nita Anderson, Frank Karbowski, David Gonzales, Norma Murphy, Danny Murphy, Peggy Wallace, Juliet Dudinsky, Joyce Gonzales, Dolores Dwelis, Bernadette Drouin, Denise Duquet and John Gramatikas.

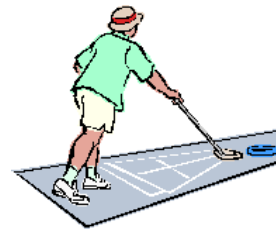

The show is written and directed by David Middleton with Judy Garneau as Stage Manager and Julie Pion as Production Assistant. Tickets Sales are managed by Vickie Nichols, Judy Matthews and Linda Burkey. And many thanks to the others who are helping with the production: Craig Drouin, Dale Duquet, Stephanie Bowlin, Gloria and Jim Monchilov, George and Anne Belanger, Jim and Lyne Barton, Jim Keady and Diane Wall.

It's a "don't miss" night of fun!

The wooden sword

One night a king changed out of his fancy robes for a walk outside his palace. On the edge of town he saw a man sitting in a small house singing as he cooked his modest dinner. Curious, the king knocked at the door, and the man let him in.

“How can you be so happy with such a small house and small meal?” the king asked.

“I make just enough money fixing people’s shoes to get by,” the man explained.

The king thought this poor man was very foolish. The next day he signed a law forbidding anyone to fix shoes for pay.

That night he visited the man again. “The king passed a law against fixing shoes,” the man explained, “so I got a job carrying water from the river.”

Annoyed, the next day the king passed a law against carrying water for pay.

The man took a job as a woodcutter. Losing patience, the king ordered all woodcutters to report to his palace and serve as guards. He gave them all swords.

The man, needing money, carved a sword from wood and sold his own sword to a peasant. But the next day the king spotted the peasant carrying a sword. Enraged, he arrested the man and then ordered his guards to the palace. Spotting the man he’d been talking to, he pointed his finger and said, “I order you to cut off this thief’s head.”

At first the man protested. “I have never killed even a fly.”

But the king insisted. So the man approached the peasant, his hands trembling. Then he had an idea.

He lifted his head and cried, “Oh, God, if this man is guilty, let my sword slice his head clean off. But if he is innocent, turn my sword to wood so that I may spare him!”

He drew his sword, and the people cheered, believing they had seen a miracle.

The king was suddenly moved by the man’s cleverness. Calling him over, he revealed that he had been the man’s visitor, and said, “Now that I see how wise you are, I would like you to come live in the palace and be my chief advisor. I have much to learn from you.”

Storytelling is the commonality of all human beings, in all places, in all times.

— Rives Collins

You may tell a tale that takes up residence in someone’s soul, becomes their blood and self and purpose. That tale will move them and drive them, and who knows what they might do because of it, because of your words. That is your role, your gift.

- What do you call a joke that isn't funny? A sentence.
- What's the opposite of artificial intelligence? Natural stupidity.
- What did the nearsighted optometrist say when he was sick? I can't see myself coming in today.
- Why are fewer people going into archeology? Career advancement is in ruins.
- What do you call 12 people doing the work of one? A committee.
- What's the problem with unemployment jokes? They don't work.
- Why are chemists great at solving problems? Because they have all the solutions.
- Have you heard about the guy who stole a calendar? He got 12 months.
- Why don't scientists trust atoms? They make up everything.
- Why did the taxi driver get fired? Passengers didn't like it when he went the extra mile.

Could be worse

James was walking down the street one day, and he happened to see his old high school friend, Harry. "Harry, Harry, how are you?"

"Not so good," said Harry.

"Why? What happened?"

"I just went bankrupt," Harry said, "and I don't know what I'm going to do."

"Could be worse," James replied calmly. "Could be worse."

A month or so later, James again encountered Harry, this time in a restaurant. "How are things now?" he asked.

"Terrible!" said Harry. "Our house burned down last night."

"Could be worse," said James again, and he went to sit down at his table.

A month later, James ran into Harry a third time. "Well, how goes it?" he inquired.

"Oh!" said Harry. "Things just get worse and worse. Now my wife has left me."

Harry nodded his head. "Could be worse."

This time, Harry grabbed James by the shoulders. "Wait a minute!" he said. "I'm not letting you off so easy this time. Every time I tell you about the latest disaster in my life you say the same thing: 'Could be worse.' This time, Harry, I want you to tell me: How in heaven's name could it have been any worse?"

James looked at Harry with a little wisp of a smile. "Could have happened to me."

At the height of laughter, the universe is flung into a kaleidoscope of new possibilities.

— Jean Houston

You can't deny laughter; when it comes, it plops down in your favorite chair and stays as long as it wants. — Stephen King
