ONE MAN SHOW

On Saturday February 5th, about 20 Park Residents visited Rosie’s Tavern in Downtown Dunedin to watch our very own Resident Celebrity, Jesse Allen, perform his one man show. Jesse sang everyone’s favorite songs by Willie Nelson, Garth Brooks and Jimmy Buffet - just to name a few. Those remembering the lyrics were singing along. It was a cool evening and everyone kept warm with some tavern spirits! There was also a surprise drop-in performance by the Dunedin High School Scottish Highlander Band. It was great to see them!

Jesse’s upcoming schedule is March 5th, 7-10 PM at Rosie’s Tavern at 730 Broadway Downtown Dunedin and March 20th, 2-5 PM at American Legion Post on 360 Wilson Street, Dunedin. Next month Jesse will be performing on April 2nd, 7-10 PM at Rosie’s Tavern and April 24th at American Legion from 2-5 PM. His wife Denise will help you find a seat at any performances.

By Dave DesRoches

And here are a few laughs from my friend John in Indiana.....

Hold your wife's hand in the mall because if you let go, she'll start shopping. It looks romantic, but it's actually economic.
I hate when I see some old person then realize we went to high school together.

I'm not sure if I washed the spider down the drain in my shower or if he took one look at me naked and then leapt willingly to his death.

Never be afraid to try something new. Remember, amateurs built the ark; professionals built the Titanic.

If you eat well...and get lots of sleep...and do exercise...and drink lots of water...you'll die anyway! Open the wine!!!

Teach your kids about taxes. Eat 30 percent of their ice cream.

Alcohol may not solve your problems, but neither will water or milk.

Respect your parents. They passed school without google.

My daughter wanted a Cinderella-themed party so I invited all her friends over and had them clean my house.

Remember when you could refer to your knees as right and left? Instead of good and bad.

Growing old is hard work...the mind says “yes” but the body says “what the hell are you thinking”.

Kids today don't know how easy they have it. When I was young, I had to walk 9 feet through shag carpet to change the TV channel.

KOFFEE KLATCH

According to Darlene Orvis, Board Vice President and Activities Director, a good crowd turned out for the first Koffee Klatch since the latest Covid suspension. Darlene was pleased to announce that Dottie Kittle bowled a 222 game, with seven strikes in a row!! That just might be a record for Honeymoon bowlers! Way to go, Dottie!

A NOTE FROM PAM NEWMAN AND LINDA RENNIE:

Line dancing at 10:30 on Mondays will be outside on 2nd Street weather permitting. Otherwise, it will be in the Clubhouse. Thanks.

Sixth Street Party

Another event you don't want to miss is the annual Sixth Street Party on Saturday, March 26 starting at 1pm. Fred Clyne and his Sixth Street neighbors provide all the food, drinks and entertainment. Everyone is welcome. Bring your lawn chair and your dancing shoes!

CHARLEY

The other day I had the opportunity to visit with my neighbor, Charley Chamarro. You may recall that Charley celebrated his 100th birthday on November 29th, 2021! That is an amazing accomplishment!

Charley was born in Summerlee, WV. His parents came to America from Spain, and I remember his wife Betty once telling me proudly that Charley is a Spaniard!

Like most young men of that time, Charley was drafted into the Army and was stationed in Germany and Austria during WWII. In 1944 he was in Florida for harbor training, and Charley thought then that when he retired he would come to Florida.

When the war ended, Charley returned to West Virginia where he met and married Betty in 1950.

The only work available in West Virginia was in the coal mines. He soon decided he was not going to spend his life working in the mines, so at the urging of his brothers, he moved to Clarkston, Michigan where jobs were plentiful in the auto industry. He worked at GM, first unloading box cars, then working in several “cribs”, until retiring in 1984.

The Clearwater area is a popular retirement spot for folks from the Detroit area. Charley was waiting for a condo to become available on Clearwater Beach, when he heard from a friend that #11 on First Street was available. Soon after they purchased #68 on Second St. That's how Charley and Betty came to Honeymoon. But when he first saw the sign for our park, he thought it was only for people on their honeymoon!

Charley loves gardening, and had a huge garden at his home in Michigan. He grew everything, even had fruit trees and berry bushes. He was generous with his extra produce, and at least once helped a neighbor with a large family keep food on the table during hard times.

What can you do for fun in Michigan in the winter? Snowmobile, of course! Charley and Betty had a snowmobile and two snowmobile suits. At winter family gatherings, all would take turns riding that snowmobile, two at a time, sharing the two snowmobile suits.

In 1985, Charley and Betty became Snowbirds here at Honeymoon MHP. At that time there was no Pinellas Trail, it was a working train track. There was no fence around the park, so it was easy to wave at the trains as they went by. The park had lots of rules back then. The pool was pretty popular, and you had to be covered up when walking to the pool. Also, visiting kids had to be out of the pool by 1:00pm so as not to interfere with the ladies swim time. No dogs, motorcycles, or pick up trucks were allowed. Your car had to be parked under your carport, not hanging out over the sidewalk.

Did you know that there used to be a Winn Dixie grocery across the street at Caledesi Shopping Center? Did you know there was a night club and bar in the Publix Shopping Center?

Shuffleboard was very popular back then. In fact, the park had two teams, one just for fun, the other for serious competitions. Charley was a very good player on the fun team, but quit altogether when they insisted he move over to the competitive team.

Charley loves to play cards – Euchre, Texas hold-em, and poker. I hear he is pretty good at all of them. And Charley loves to dance. Before the pandemic, when we were having dances, you could always find Charley “cutting the rug”!

Charley says there were lots of parties and dances. The pot-lucks started on First St. The next month there would be another carry-in on Second Street. And so on and so forth.

When asked the usual question about what he attributes his longevity to, he answered that he never smoked or drank liquor and always walked and exercised.

Charley has been coming to Honeymoon for 38 years, and that is longer than any other resident. He still enjoys a walk around the neighborhood, so keep an eye out for him and say hello!

WATER TOWER TURTLE

From our house here on Second Street we have enjoyed watching the changes to the water tower on Curlew Rd. It looks like the preliminary work is nearly finished – it's been scraped and is getting a coat of white paint. The mural of a pair of turtles is to be painted by our St. Petersburg artist, Tom Stovall.

Henry, the gopher tortoise, is named after Henry Scharrer, a Swiss immigrant and nature lover who lived on Caladesi Island from 1892 to 1934. Sylvia, the sea turtle, is named after Sylvia Earle, an oceanographer who was raised in Dunedin.

The breakout turtle design “Henry and Sylvia” is intended to provide Dunedin citizens a striking and meaningful environmental portrait that encourages protection and survival of sea tortoises and gopher turtles, according to city art consultant Elizabeth Brincklow.

Hopefully the artist will soon be able to start work on Sylvia and Henry. So I can watch!

From the Editor's Desk

by Susie Buckley

This is the end of the line, my swan song, my farewell as the editor of the Honeymoon Gazette.

For the most part, it's been a fun and rewarding experience. The first issue came out in April of 2013!

I was a lot younger then! I want to thank everyone who helped me out by sending stories, photos, recipes or ideas over the past 9 years.

And now I want to introduce you to the new editor, who will be taking over with the April issue.

Dave DesRoches, lot #117, phone #813-316-7120. Continue to send your photos, etc. to theHoneymoongazette@gmail.com, Dave is a year-round resident and has a full-time job, but is ready to meet his neighbors and continue reporting the “news” of the park.

Thank you, Dave. Life is good!

Happy St. Patrick's Day

Could be worse

James was walking down the street one day, and he happened to see his old high school friend, Harry. "Harry, Harry, how are you?"

"Not so good," said Harry.

"Why? What happened?"

"I just went bankrupt," Harry said, "and I don't know what I'm going to do."

"Could be worse," James replied calmly. "Could be worse."

A month or so later, James again encountered Harry, this time in a restaurant. "How are things now?" he asked.

"Terrible!" said Harry. "Our house burned down last night."

"Could be worse," said James again, and he went to sit down at his table.

A month later, James ran into Harry a third time. "Well, how goes it?" he inquired.

"Oh!" said Harry. "Things just get worse and worse. Now my wife has left me."

Harry nodded his head. "Could be worse."

This time, Harry grabbed James by the shoulders. "Wait a minute!" he said. "I'm not letting you off so easy this time. Every time I tell you about the latest disaster in my life you say the same thing: 'Could be worse.' This time, Harry, I want you to tell me: How in heaven's name could it have been any worse?"

James looked at Harry with a little wisp of a smile. "Could have happened to me."

At the height of laughter, the universe is flung into a kaleidoscope of new possibilities.

— Jean Houston

You can't deny laughter; when it comes, it plops down in your favorite chair and stays as long as it wants. — Stephen King

Not so dumb

A young boy enters a barber shop, and the barber whispers to his customer, “This is the dumbest kid in the world. Watch while I show you.”

The barber puts a dollar bill in one hand and two quarters in the other, then calls the boy over and asks, “Which do you want, son?”

The boy takes the quarters and leaves.

“What did I tell you?” said the barber. “That kid never learns!”

Later, the customer sees the same young boy coming out of an ice cream parlor. “Hey, son! May I ask you a question? Why did you take the quarters instead of the dollar bill?”

The boy licks his cone and replies: “Because the day I take the dollar, the game is over!”

Quite a scare

A taxi passenger tapped the driver on the shoulder to ask him a question.

The driver screamed, lost control of the car, nearly hit a bus, went up on the sidewalk, and stopped inches from a shop window.

For a second, everything was quiet in the cab. Then the driver said, “Look, don’t ever do that again. You scared the living daylights out of me!”

The passenger apologized and said, “I didn’t realize that a little tap would scare you so much.”

The driver replied, “Sorry, it’s not really your fault. Today is my first day as a cab driver. Before this, for 25 years, I worked in a funeral home and drove a hearse.”

The professor

A professor was taking a boat across a wide river. The boatman, humming a happy tune as he rowed, was clearly no scholar, so the professor decided to test him.

“My man, can you read?” he asked.

“Nope.” The boatman shook his head. “Never had time to learn.”

“Then you’ve lost one quarter of your life. Can you write?”

“No, sir. Too busy making a living.”

“Then you’ve lost another quarter of your life. Can you do arithmetic?”

“No. Never saw much use for it on the river.”

“Pity. Now you’ve lost another quarter of your life. Do you know how much that is?”

“No, sir. But may I ask you a question?”

“Certainly, my man.”

“Can you swim?”

The professor smiled. “No. In my learned profession, there was never any need for that.”

“Well, sir,” the boatman said, “you’re about to lose all your life, because this boat’s leaking and we’re going to sink.”
