HOME MAINTENANCE

We would like to give a shout out to all the residents who have been keeping your homes maintained and looking fabulous. We appreciate you maintaining the beauty and charm of Sugar Creek. In the month of April, we will be looking at washing and or painting your home. Of course, we are also looking at your entire lot. A special thank you goes out to those who we didn't have to send a notice in the last few months.

SUGAR CREEK RESIDENTS

We love our park! We want to thank the residents who are complying with the park rules and regulations, you are keeping Sugar Creek the beautiful place we all love. Our park is one of the best parks around and we want to keep it this way. The rules are here for a reason. This is NOT a trailer park or a campground, this is a 55+ mobile home community that we are proud of. We have residents who live here year-round; this is their only home. We also have snowbirds who come here to enjoy what our Park has to offer. We all choose to live here! Let's be respectful to our neighbors and get along. This can be our "happy place", but it takes a little effort from YOU!

*IN CASE YOU MISSED IT IN FEBRUARY* DRIVING ON SIDEWALKS

DANGER!!! Golf carts, vehicles, bikes and motorcycles are driving on the sidewalks to avoid the speed bumps or to pull up to get the mail. This is dangerous! DO NOT drive on the sidewalks.

DOGS

The Sugar Creek Rules and Regulations state that you must avoid walking on or through the lots of other residents. Whether you have a dog or not, please respect your neighbor's privacy and stay off their lot. If you are walking your dog to the dog park on Robin Drive, stay on the street only. Use waste bags when picking up your dog's waste. Always keep your dog on a leash when not in the home. Do not walk on the grass around the pond, the grass around the clubhouse, the laundry area grass, or the mailbox area grass. Thank you for following these rules.

CATS

If you own a cat, it MUST be kept indoors. If you are feeding cats that are outside, according to Pinellas County, they are your cats, you are responsible for them so you will need to bring them indoors or STOP feeding them.

The Bocce ball court is waiting for you! Come on down and play! The bocce balls are in the clubhouse hall closet. Please put them back when you are finished.

HOME SALES

We are proud to say that we have zero homes for sale in the park so far this year. We often have people come to the office telling us it is a desirable community, so thank you to our residents for making Sugar Creek a friendly and welcoming environment for all. If you are considering selling your home, just let Daniel or Vicki know and we can walk you through the process or answer any questions you have. We are here to help: 727-586-2002.

SUGAR CREEK HOA

It was nice to see such a good turnout for our February meeting. I was a little disappointed with the lack of number of questions submitted, but it was our first try at it. Extremely disappointed with the lack of volunteers for the HOA Board. Involvement during the year is normally minimal with a few meetings. Then late summer it gets active with the upcoming rent increase meetings and preparing for our meeting with the owner to discuss the rent. It is rather a thankless job except for those that say I'm thankful someone else is doing it and not me". I hope some of you will reconsider and volunteer. If you do, give me a call.

SUGAR CREEK LIBRARY:

HI Everyone,

A great big thank you to Marilyn Lemon for taking care of the Sugar Creek Library while she was here. As we all know, Marilyn is quite generous with her time and always ready to lend a hand. Thanks again!

All residents are invited to visit our library in the Clubhouse. Please feel free to take out as many books as you wish or sit and read in the comfort of the reading area. Return your book to the basket provided. Also, please do not leave any periodicals or magazines, as we do not have room to store them. Happy Reading.

The coolest Beatle

When drummer Phil Collins was 19, according to a story from The Poke website, he got a call to go out to former Beatle George Harrison's house to play the congas for a track on Harrison's album All Things Must Pass. Collins was excited, but when the album came out, the song had no congas in it.

Twenty years later, Collins met Harrison at an event and reminded him of the session, asking him what happened to the conga track. Harrison said he didn't remember, but he still had the master tapes and promised to take a look.

Three weeks later Collins got a package from Harrison with the master tapes from the session. When he listened, though, he realized that the congas sounded terrible. He also heard Harrison tell producer Phil Spector, "Get rid of that lad with the congas, he's absolute crap."

Mortified, Collin called Harrison to apologize. After a few minutes, though, Harrison started to laugh. "Those tapes I sent you, they're not the real sessions." He'd hired a band to re-record the song and played the congas himself as badly as he could, then said the line about Collins being useless. "I wish I could have seen your face," Harrison said. "I'll send the real sessions to you, you sounded great."

George Harrison had taken a day out of his schedule just to pull a prank on Phil Collins — proving he was the coolest Beatle.

The black dot

One day a professor entered the classroom and announced a surprise test. The students got nervous. The professor distributed a sheet of paper to each one, then told them to turn the page over and start the test.

To everyone's surprise, there were no questions in the test paper, just a black dot in the center of the page. Startled, the students looked at the professor in confusion. The professor told the students: "I want you to write a few lines about what you see on the paper."

The students were puzzled but started writing.

Once everyone was finished, the professor collected all the papers and started reading each answer aloud in front of the whole class. Without an exception, all the students had written about the black dot, describing its position, size, etc.

After reading all the answers, the professor addressed the students:

"Don't worry, none of you will be graded on this test. I just want you all to think about something. All of you wrote about the black dot, but none of you wrote about the white paper."

"This is what happens in our lives. We're surrounded by things to celebrate and learn from—our parents, friends, family, good health, and so forth—but we limit ourselves by focusing only on the dark spots: our disappointments, frustrations, fears, and anxieties. We take the rest for granted.

"Take your eyes away from the dark spots in your life. Focus on the bright parts all around you and let positivity guide your thoughts."
