SOCIAL CLUB MEETINGS:

Congratulations to the newly elected Social Club Board members. President - Judi Farmer, Vice President – Barb Ashcroft, Secretary – Jo Stead, Treasurer – Kevin Tompkins, and Directors – Mary Antoszewski, Sylvia Dillard, and Gail Warner.

LOOK AT WHATS CHANGED:

Get your Groove on, new days and times. Monday, Wednesday and Fridays at 10:00am. This is a great low-impact, low-stress dance exercise that is loads of fun. The music makes your body want to move and groove. If you have bad hips, knees, back, or any other joints that give you problems, you can enjoy this movin and groovin while sitting in a chair. Just let your body flow with the groove.

Hey, MEN, this isn't just for ladies. You too can enjoy movin 'n' groovin to the beat.

BIKE RIDE:

Beginning in May, bike rides will be at random dates and times. If you would like to ride, contact Dennis or Mary Antoszewski. Their phone numbers and address can be found in the Harbor Lights directory.

SHUFFLING:

Charles Todaro is offering lessons, either on Wednesday nights at 7:00pm or privately. This is a fun way to learn the rules and how to play the game. Contact Chaz at 716-400-8267 if interested.

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN TO THINK ABOUT GETTING PREPARED FOR HURRICANE SEASON:

More information will be coming. Keep an eye on the Scuttlebutt, e-mails, facebook, and the weather channels.

BEING PREPARED FOR A HURRICANE

Hurricane season begins June 1 and ends November 30, more or less. We in mobile homes are in the area known as ZONE A. This designation means we must evacuate from our homes when/if a hurricane is expected to come to our area. Evacuation may be to a friend's or relative's home in a safe zone, going North and or inland or to a designated shelter. If you require assistance with transport during the emergency, arrangements can be clarified through the citizen's information center 727-464-4333 PRIOR TO THE NEED. Forms will be available to be completed then submitted to appropriate people at the EOC. This number is only available once the hurricane threat is posted. Paper pamphlets are being printed and will be available. Diane Piscopo will alert all when and where to pick them up. Any questions, call her at 716-479-9133.

To get updates on any storm it is suggested you sign up to receive emergency notifications by phone, text or email at www.pinellascounty.org/alertpinellas

To find updates on preparedness before, during and after the storm sign-on at www.pinellascounty.org/emergency.

If you have a pet you can contact www.pinellascounty.org/animalservices.

Information on general preparedness and live updates during emergencies can be seen from the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) and found on Spectrum 637, WOW! 18 or Frontier 44

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Something to ponder:

There are 1440 minutes in each day and 10,080 in a week. How do we spend them? Look at one or two days in your life now and calculate the time spent on each activity: cooking; eating; sleeping; working/doing chores; reading; playing; talking on the phone; watching TV; participate in physical games/activities.

It's amazing where the numbers fall! I used to do this with my Senior students in high school to awaken them on how time is often wasted, or out of focus once they go away to college or into the working world. We would also discuss proper etiquette, how to balance a checkbook, appropriate dress for certain occasions, writing a resume and good nutrition.

Did you know that by dialing 2-1-1 you are able to connect to information about critical health and human services available in our community?

These services address every-day needs such as food banks, shelters, clothing, rent assistance, utility assistance as well as crisis intervention and support groups, unemployment benefits, transportation assistance, adult day care, Meals on Wheels plus a list of volunteer opportunities. By dialing 2-1-1 there is no need to search for specific resource contact numbers. This is a FREE all-day, every-day resource in Pinellas County.

MAY FUN FACTS:

It is the third and last month of the season of spring. May in the Northern Hemisphere is similar to November in the Southern Hemisphere. May was once considered a bad luck month to get married. There is a poem that says “Marry in May and you’ll rue the day”. May was named for the Greek Goddess Maia. She was the goddess of fertility. The Romans had a similar goddess named Bona Dea. They held the festival for Bona Dea during the month of May. The Romans called the month Maius. The name changed over the years. It was first called May in the 1400’s near the end of the Middle Ages. The birthstone of May, the emerald, symbolizes success and love. The flowers for May are Lily of the Valley and Hawthorn. Zodiac signs are Taurus from April 20th to May 20th, and Gemini is from May 21st to June 20th. On May 1, 1931 the Empire State Building was officially opened.

MURPHY’S LAW:

If everything seems to be going well, you have obviously overlooked something.

QUOTE OF THE DAY:

“All your dreams can come true if you have the COURAGE to pursue them”. Walt Disney

LAWN CARE REMINDER:

Hope

Once there was a man who made and sold pottery to support his family. Unfortunately, his business suffered severe losses, and had to sell much of his property to keep it afloat. One day his son asked him, “Why are you still running this business when you’re losing so much money?”

Why don’t you shut it down and do something else?”

The father smiled and replied, “My son, life can bring us many challenges and push us down, but we need to have hope to overcome any problem.”

The son asked, “How can hope help us?”

The father said, “Let me show you.”

He took his son to a deep well in the back of his house and told him to jump.

In shock, the son said, “Father, I don’t know how to swim!” But his father pushed him to the well and walked away.

The son struggled in the cold water for close to five minutes. When he thought he was just about to drown, the father reached in and pulled his son out of the well.

The next day, the father again took his son to the well and told him to jump. At first the son hesitated, then jumped into the well. Again his father walked away.

The boy again struggled to keep from drowning. This time his father left him in the well for 15 minutes, but he managed to stay above the water until his father came and pulled him out.

The father asked, “Why were you fighting harder than yesterday?”

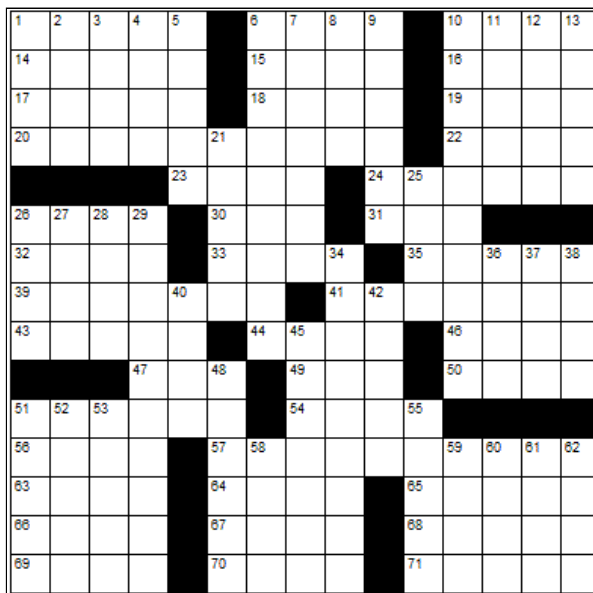

His son replied, “Yesterday, I did not know what to do. But today, I knew that you would come and save me before I drowned.”

Moral: When we push ourselves with hope, and trust the people around us, we can overcome anything.

The duck and the bartender

A duck walks into a bar and asks, “Do you have any grapes?”
The bartender says, “No, I’m sorry. We have cherries and olives, but no grapes.”

“Oh,” says the duck, and leaves.

Ten minutes later the same duck returns and asks the same bartender, “Do you have any grapes?”

“Like I said before, we have cherries and olives, but we don’t have grapes,” says the bartender.

“Oh,” says the duck, and leaves.

Ten minutes later the duck returns and again asks, “Do you have any grapes?”

“Listen, beak lips!” yells the bartender. “We have no grapes! We will never have grapes! And if you ask me again, I am going to nail your little webbed feet to the floor!”

“Oh,” says the duck, and leaves.

Ten minutes later, the door swings open and the duck returns again. The bartender is furious. He slams a bottle of beer down on the bar, stares menacingly at the duck and screams, “What?”

“Uh ... uh ... do you have any, uh, nails?” the duck asks.

“Nails? Nails? No, we don’t have nails,” answers the bartender.

“Oh,” says the duck. “So, do you have any grapes?”

A few one-liners

- I bought some shoes from a drug dealer. I don’t know what he laced them with, but I’ve been tripping all day.
- My wife told me to stop acting like a flamingo. So I had to put my foot down.
- I poured root beer in a square glass. Now I just have beer.
- My friend said to me, “What rhymes with orange?” I said, “No, it doesn’t.”
- So what if I don’t know what “Armageddon” means? It’s not the end of the world.
- Why did the old man fall in the well? Because he couldn’t see that well.
- This is my stepladder. I never knew my real ladder.
- My friend asked me to help him round up his 37 sheep. I said, “40.”
- I’ve been told I’m condescending. That means I talk down to people.
- Some people think it’s romantic to carve their names on trees while on a date. I’m more worried about why they’re bringing a knife on a date.

All you need in the world is love and laughter. That’s all anybody needs. To have love in one hand and laughter in the other.
