PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association President

April's Chicken Parmesan Potluck Dinner proved to be a challenge. We initially thought the oven was just taking longer to heat up then determined it was not working at all. So with 40 hungry folks waiting for dinner - which was scheduled to be served in 30 minutes - the oven kaput and the chicken raw - what to do??? A couple of us decided to scrambled home in the pouring rain (and not just pouring rain - it was torrential!) to bake the chicken in our ovens; fortunately chicken doesn't take long to cook. I am forever grateful to Vern who drove by to pick up both Peggy and me and the cooked chicken, and we were ready to serve a mere 10 minutes late. Thanks everyone for your patience, and special thanks to Peggy for racing home to cook, Vern for coming to our aid to drive us back to the clubhouse, and to Lei and Toni for holding down the fort, cooking the spaghetti and sauce, setting out the appetizers and especially for keeping the crowd pacified - team work at its best! What could have been a disaster ended well.

We will forego the May Potluck dinner and replace it with the Kentucky Derby Party. This annual event, hosted by Lei & Richard Crance, is always a fun time - especially if your horse is among the winners. Bring your beverage, a food item to share, and of course, your wagering and 50/50 contributions. And, ladies and gentlemen wear your most outlandish creation for the Hat Parade - there will be a prize for the winner. We absolutely believe in equality, so this year by popular demand, for the very first time men will have an opportunity to participate. I can just picture the guys strutting down the runway flaunting their finest headwear - it should be a hoot. Event open to all three parks, no ticket to purchase, no sign up list, just show up and enjoy a good time. Hope to see you there.

The women's hobby club held a traditional Afternoon Tea to honor departing 25-year member Irene Haskell. Irene was instrumental in initiating this annual hobby event and the members took advantage of this opportunity to recognize her for her many contributions over the years not only to hobby but to the Park #1 Association. She and Bruce will be sorely missed as they have chosen to reside full time in their Vermont home. We extend best wishes for their health and happiness, and thank them for their friendship and service to our community.

Lei Crance taught a class in hobby on the art of alcohol ink painting. Such a fun lesson; it was amazing that by simply dropping ink on treated paper then blowing through a straw to move the ink around could create such amazing blends of colors and designs. Everyone's picture was unique and beautiful. Thanks Lei for an hour of fun - and we had a take-home original work of art to display.

Chip King is interested in organizing a men's poker night - possibly on a Wednesday evening in Park #1. Sign up forms are posted in the clubhouses to determine interest.

Special Bingo, scheduled for April 21, had to be postponed as both game callers had unexpected situations arise. It's been rescheduled to May 5th; hope to see you there. In May bingo will start the summer schedule - conducted the first two weeks of May, then once monthly on the third Thursday through September.

Don't forget – Karaoke on May 14 at 6PM – get those vocal cords warmed up and join the fun. Bring your beverage and if you can a snack to share. John & CC always put on a great show – I promise you will have a good time.

Memorial Day is Monday, May 30 – this is a National holiday, so no garbage pickup. It is the day set aside to honor those who fought gallantly to provide for our safety and freedom. Fly your flags proudly as we remember those who sacrificed their lives for us. Veterans: THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE. Traditionally we have hosted a cookout on Memorial Day – check your tubes for flyers to determine if an event has been scheduled.

To all the moms, grandmothers and great-grandmothers, we wish you a very happy Mothers' Day. Enjoy all the attention – you have earned it.

See you at the monthly Association Meeting on Saturday May 7th – coffee and donuts at 8:30; meeting at 9:00. Come and spend a short while with your neighbors – we look forward to your participation.

Guana Cay News and Updates

Rob Peacock – Park 3 Association President

W elcome May!

Beautiful weather, spring has come to life. It's great to see so many people out in the community now, walking, biking and carting around. Many beautiful flowers and plants blooming. The streets in our town are crowded. So many activities going on. Baseball is back, a movie being made, breweries full of activities. Watch for Cinco De Mayo and Memorial Day weekend events throughout our town.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Margaret (Chickie) Thomas for her dedication and sometimes nerve-racking job of treasurer of park 3. She is retiring from this position, and I'd like to introduce Mr. Kim Conley as the new treasurer of park 3. Thank you both!

April events included the last BBQ of the season for Park 3 and the continuing of Bar Poker. Beginning in May, Bar Poker and Bar Bingo will be moved to Wednesday Nights, we will see if we can continue through the summer depending on attendance. I urge you to come and check it out. Horseshoes and men's poker is done for the season.

We wish all the mother's a very special Mother's Day, a time to thank them for their hard work and dedication in raising their families and all they have endured. You've got to admit, some of us were quite the handful to raise! Thank you, mothers, have a wonderful day.

I want to remind everyone to help keep our yards and waterways clear of debris. Winds will be strong at times so please secure your garbage and belongings.

With the ongoing 360 inspections going on, please remember the Neighbors Helping Neighbors program in mind for any help you might need.

The HOA board is urging all of us to refrain from putting any large items in the dumpster area. Please use other alternative sites for those items that won't fit in the dumpsters. The garbage costs is getting very expensive and that expense is absorbed by all of us.

I hope you all enjoy your May activities!

Show dignity and respect toward one another and the world would be a much better place.

Wildfires damage ozone layer

The world's ozone layer, which protects Earth from the sun's ultraviolet radiation, was seriously damaged by the catastrophic Australian wildfires of 2019 and 2020, the Science News website reports. An analysis of data from the lower stratosphere has found that smoke particles shot up into the high atmospheric region and started a series of chemical reactions that drastically altered the balance of gases up there.

Concentrations of ozone in the stratosphere at first rose in early 2020, caused by chemical reactions that create ozone pollution at ground level and can be caused by smoke from wildfires.

The ozone layer was damaged for a long time by chlorofluorocarbons and other substances, but recovered after an international agreement was made to reduce emissions. As massive wildfires caused by climate change occur more frequently, scientists warn that the ozone could start to disappear again.

Tiny 'drug factory' boosts immune system to fight cancer

Scientists have built a minuscule “drug factory” capsule that can manufacture and release medications inside the body and boost the immune system against cancer, the Science Focus website reports.

The capsules, implanted into mice, create doses of a compound called cytokine, a natural substance produced by bodies that tells the immune system when and where to act against infection. The capsules, which are spherical, have an outer layer made of a polymer that's compatible with a human body, covering an inner “factory” of cytokine-producing cells derived from humans. The porous capsule allows nutrients inside to feed the cells, and lets the cytokines out into the body to fight cancer. The drug factories only have to be administered once, and they continue manufacturing and releasing the dose until the cancer is eradicated.

The researchers say that after determining the right number of capsules to implant in mice used as test subjects, they were able to eliminate tumors in 100% of mice with ovarian cancer, along with seven out of eight mice with colorectal cancer.

Science never solves a problem without creating ten more.

Guard yourself against carjackers

Carjackings are all too common these days, and many people are nervous about the possibility of becoming a victim. The Philly Voice website offers these tips for staying safe from carjackers:

- Watch your surroundings. Be extra careful in areas and situations where carjacking is more likely. These include when you're getting into and out of your vehicle, in parking lots and garages, at gas stations and ATMs, and on poorly lit streets.
- Don't linger. Start up and drive away immediately after getting into your car.
- Lock up. Keep your windows and doors locked at all times.
- Hang onto your phone. Don't leave your cell phone in your vehicle. Keep it in your pocket so you can immediately call the police if your vehicle is stolen.
- Don't stop. If you see a stranded motorist on the road, don't pull over. Call 911 to report their location to the police.
- Don't resist. If you're confronted by a carjacker, don't fight or argue. Give up your car and let them leave.
- Pay attention. Do your best to memorize the carjacker's appearance so you can provide a detailed description to the police.
- Child on board? Tell would-be carjackers if you have a small child in the back seat. Most won't want to drive away with a child and risk a kidnapping charge.
- Beware of "bump and runs." A team of carjackers bumps your car with their own vehicle. When you get out to check for damage, one of them jumps in your car and steals it. Instead, stay inside with your flashers on and call the police, or drive to the nearest police station.

The ground beneath you is shifting, and either you get sucked in by holding on to old ways, or you take a giant step forward by taking some risks and seeing what happens.

— Bonnie Hammer

To live, to truly live, we must be willing to risk. To be nothing in order to find everything. To leap before we look.

— Mandy Hale

Investing in cryptocurrency

Have you dabbled in cryptocurrency? Do you even know what it is? The Pew Research Center reports that 86% of Americans say they've heard at least a little about Bitcoin, Ether, or other forms of cryptocurrency, and 24% say they've heard a lot about them. And 16% say they've invested in cryptocurrency, or traded it, or used it for themselves.

They tend to be younger—about 31% of Americans 18-29 say they've invested in, traded, or used cryptocurrency. They're more likely to be men overall—22%, versus 10% of women. Only 3% of people 50+ have done anything with cryptocurrency.

U.S. consumers want 500 miles for their electric cars

Electric cars may be getting more popular, but not all Americans are in a rush to buy one. One factor: Driving range. Deloitte's 2022 Global Automotive Consumer Study, which surveyed 26,000 people of driving age worldwide (1,031 of them American), found that Americans, on average, won't be comfortable with an electric vehicle unless it has a range of 518 miles between charges.

So far, only one car on the market, the Lucid Air, can satisfy that demand, with an EPA-certified range of 520 miles for its Dream Edition—which sells for $169,000.

Drivers in other countries aren't quite as demanding. German drivers surveyed said they'd be satisfied with an average of 383 miles, and Chinese drivers would be OK with just 258 miles.

Man had been given a brain that could think in numbers, and it could not be coincidence that the world was unlocked by that very tool.

The duck and the bartender

A duck walks into a bar and asks, “Do you have any grapes?”
The bartender says, “No, I’m sorry. We have cherries and olives, but no grapes.”

“Oh,” says the duck, and leaves.

Ten minutes later the same duck returns and asks the same bartender, “Do you have any grapes?”

“Like I said before, we have cherries and olives, but we don’t have grapes,” says the bartender.

“Oh,” says the duck, and leaves.

Ten minutes later the duck returns and again asks, “Do you have any grapes?”

“Listen, beak lips!” yells the bartender. “We have no grapes! We will never have grapes! And if you ask me again, I am going to nail your little webbed feet to the floor!”

“Oh,” says the duck, and leaves.

Ten minutes later, the door swings open and the duck returns again. The bartender is furious. He slams a bottle of beer down on the bar, stares menacingly at the duck and screams, “What?”

“Uh ... uh ... do you have any, uh, nails?” the duck asks.

“Nails? Nails? No, we don’t have nails,” answers the bartender.

“Oh,” says the duck. “So, do you have any grapes?”

A few one-liners

- I bought some shoes from a drug dealer. I don’t know what he laced them with, but I’ve been tripping all day.
- My wife told me to stop acting like a flamingo. So I had to put my foot down.
- I poured root beer in a square glass. Now I just have beer.
- My friend said to me, “What rhymes with orange?” I said, “No, it doesn’t.”
- So what if I don’t know what “Armageddon” means? It’s not the end of the world.
- Why did the old man fall in the well? Because he couldn’t see that well.
- This is my stepladder. I never knew my real ladder.
- My friend asked me to help him round up his 37 sheep. I said, “40.”
- I’ve been told I’m condescending. That means I talk down to people.
- Some people think it’s romantic to carve their names on trees while on a date. I’m more worried about why they’re bringing a knife on a date.

All you need in the world is love and laughter. That’s all anybody needs. To have love in one hand and laughter in the other.

— August Wilson

MAY CALENDAR

MAY

ALS Awareness Month. Numerous organizations and communities get together to spread awareness of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), a rare neurological disease affecting nerve cells that control voluntary muscle movement. Though there is no cure for ALS, early detection can help in improving the quality of life of those with the disease.

Lupus Awareness Month. An opportunity for the lupus community to join together across the country to raise funds and awareness of the physical, emotional, and economic impact of lupus. There are many ways to help make lupus visible in May, from sharing your story on social media to starting a fundraiser or making a donation.

Military Appreciation Month. Congress designated May as National Military Appreciation Month in 1999 to ensure the nation was given the chance to publicly show its appreciation for troops past and present. May was chosen because it has many individual days marked to note the military's achievements.

National Inventors Month. National Inventors Month was started in 1998 to help promote a positive image of inventors and the contributions they give to this world. "We want to recognize those talented, brave individuals who dare to be blatantly creative, and therefore different, and whose accomplishments affect every facet of our lives," says Joanne Hayes-Rines, editor of Inventors' Digest and a sponsor of National Inventors Month.

Week

Be Kind to Animals Week, May 1–7. The American Humane Association created Be Kind to Animals Week in 1915 to encourage humanity towards animals. Each year, animal shelters all over the country hold special events to raise awareness about animals in their communities.

EMS (Emergency Medical Services) Week, May 15–21. The 2022 EMS Week theme is "EMS: Rising to the Challenge." This theme reminds people that every day, EMS workers are faced with new challenges, and yet they still respond, support, and care for the needs of their communities.

Bike to Work Week, May 16–22. Forty percent of all trips in the U.S. are less than two miles, making bicycling a feasible and fun way to get around.

American Craft Beer Week, May 16–22. Head over to your local brewpub or taproom and enjoy a pint, or grab a sixer or growler to go. Here's to American craft beer!

The diet

A man was overweight, so his doctor put him on a diet. "I want you to eat regularly for two days, then skip a day, and repeat the procedure for two weeks. The next time I see you, you'll have lost at least five pounds," he instructed.

When the man returned, he'd lost nearly 20 pounds.

"This is amazing!" the doctor said. "Did you follow my instructions?"

The man nodded. "I'll tell you, though, I thought I was going to drop dead after a few days."

"From hunger, you mean?" said the doctor.

"No, from all that skipping," replied the man.

How I learned to mind my own business

A man was walking past a school one day when he heard voices shouting beyond a tall fence: "Thirteen ... thirteen ... thirteen ..."

Curious, he walked up to the fence. It was too high for him to see over, but he found a gap in the planks, so he bent over to peer inside.

Someone poked him in the face with a stick, and then everyone inside started shouting, "Fourteen, fourteen, fourteen ..."

Laughter heals all wounds, and that's one thing that everybody shares. No matter what you're going through, it makes you forget about your problems. I think the world should keep laughing.

A little extra

A man always bought oranges from an older woman at the town market. She would weigh them on a scale and place them in a bag and tell him the price. After he paid, the man usually took one orange out of the bag, peeled it, and tasted one piece. Then he'd say, "This orange is sour," and hand it back to the woman.

She bit into it. "It tastes sweet to me," she always said, but she gave him a few extra oranges to make up for it.

The man's wife went to the market with him every day and saw this happen time after time. One day she asked her husband, "Why do you do that every time? The oranges are always sweet."

The man replied, "That old woman hardly eats. This way I get her to eat one orange a day for her health."

A merchant in a vegetable stall saw the exchange happen every day too. One day she asked the old woman, "Why do you let him get away with that? He always complains about your oranges, and you always give him extra. Why do you put up with it?"

The woman smiled. "He always pays me a little extra when I weigh his bag. That way he can feed me and pretend I don't know what he's doing. His love pays for the extra orange."

Hope

Once there was a man who made and sold pottery to support his family. Unfortunately, his business suffered severe losses, and had to sell much of his property to keep it afloat.

One day his son asked him, "Why are you still running this business when you're losing so much money?"

Why don't you shut it down and do something else?"

The father smiled and replied, "My son, life can bring us many challenges and push us down, but we need to have hope to overcome any problem."

The son asked, "How can hope help us?"

The father said, "Let me show you."

He took his son to a deep well in the back of his house and told him to jump.

In shock, the son said, "Father, I don't know how to swim!" But his father pushed him to the well and walked away.

The son struggled in the cold water for close to five minutes. When he thought he was just about to drown, the father reached in and pulled his son out of the well.

The next day, the father again took his son to the well and told him to jump. At first the son hesitated, then jumped into the well. Again his father walked away.

The boy again struggled to keep from drowning. This time his father left him in the well for 15 minutes, but he managed to stay above the water until his father came and pulled him out.

The father asked, "Why were you fighting harder than yesterday?"

His son replied, "Yesterday, I did not know what to do. But today, I knew that you would come and save me before I drowned."

Moral: When we push ourselves with hope, and trust the people around us, we can overcome anything.
