FROM THE BOARD

By Tim Caddell

My wife, Tracy and I have lived in Pinellas Park for over fifty years. We have watched the city grow and progress into a caring community where people look out for each other and share successes and setbacks without judgement. We last lived about two miles north of Clearwater Cascade. Our voting precinct included CC and we voted in the clubhouse for years. Everyone was so friendly, and the park was well kept and inviting. We decided then that this felt like home. Five years ago, we purchased a share and put our shiny new home on lot 315.

We attended a few board and town hall meetings and learned about this wonderful park. I have served on the board for three years and found everyone to be dedicated and cordial. We certainly did not agree on every issue, but we got things done. Today, five years later, Clearwater Cascade is as beautiful as ever but things have changed.

Maybe we're all getting old and have less patience, or maybe the lack of activities and socialization caused by two years of COVID protocols has dragged us down. Maybe the new car smell has just worn off and people are simply not as nice as they used to be. The point is that I liked it better when we were nice to each other. It's not everybody, I know that, but too many people seem to build themselves up by tearing others down. Instead of recognizing our CAM and staff for the excellent job they do, we try to find fault with everything, to show we know more than everyone else. Some of us are rude and make it difficult for others to be nice, but it is worth the effort to try. We are blessed to live in a marvelous community, but we have forgotten how to simply be nice. A friendly smile and a wave brightens even the darkest day. Feel good about yourself. Appreciate the blessings around you. Stop and think. Everyone wants the best for our park and our residents. If you spend all day looking for the worst, you will miss the best. Believe me, we are surrounded by the best of everything.

Safe travels to our northern friends as you head home and thanks to all our year-round folks who keep the fires burning here.

Phone Directory – The 2022 phone directories have arrived. Stop by the office and pick up one. If you are up north, we will save one for you, or send us a 6” by 9” self-addressed envelope with postage and we will be happy to mail one to you.

Golf Carts – I see more and more golf carts driving around in the community and no wonder; it is a fun mode of transportation! Be sure you register your golf cart with the office and remember the same rules for cars and trucks also pertain to golf carts.

Window Project – We had a delay with the library area windows. They are custom windows that had to be ordered; when they arrived, they were damaged, so we wait again! The office and Board Room windows have been replaced. The new windows look very nice, and it is so nice to look out clean windows! We tried everything to get the old windows clean, but nothing worked.

Social Events – It is so nice to learn that some social events and activated will continue this summer. That is one complaint the office received from year around residents, “Why do all activities stop just because the snowbirds left for the summer?”

Mailbox Keys – The office still has approximately 20 mailbox keys that have not been picked up. I think most belong to residents that haven’t been in the park this year, but I wanted to send a reminder.

Garbage & Trash – If you have large items to dispose of, please call the City of Pinellas Park at 727-369-0690 and schedule a special pick up. You can also call this number if your home was skipped on trash pick-up day.

Leaving Florida – Be sure to notify the office, if you are returning to your northern residence soon. PLEASE be sure to store any lawn furniture, lawn ornaments, trash cans and any objects that could become a missile if we were to experience a severe storm this summer. Hurricane Season begins June 1st and last until November 30th.

That is all I have for May. Stay safe & healthy and happy Mother’s Day to all the ladies.

FROM THE EDITOR

By Donna Collins

As I look at the May calendar, it is heartwarming to see how many activities are continuing into the summer months. As things happen, I would be love to receive any stories and pictures so that I can share with everyone. collinsdonna12@gmail.com.

You may notice a new column this month entitled MYSTERY CORNER?. This story appeared on my door steps and it seemed like an interesting diversion for the next few months. I hope you enjoy it.

After six years of handling the SUNSHINE position for the Social Club, Doreen Fournier is passing on the baton at the end of the year. Talk to Doreen, #61, about what the job entails. If you are interested, submit your name to April Loomis or to me. Thank you for considering this position

ASK MIKE

By Mike Hoit

Lately we've seen an influx of new residents in Clearwater Cascades. As you would expect, these new neighbors are much younger than the neighbors they've replaced. They have also introduced an uptick in the number of golf cart type vehicles and I've been asked to investigate the rules surrounding their use in and out of the park.

First of all, the term golf cart in the Florida statutes refers to the carts that are used on golf courses. Carts used for other purposes are referred to as "Low Speed Vehicles (LSV) in the statutes.

The CCHOA Rules and Regulations have some rules that apply to golf carts (LSV's) used in the Park. The first of which is:

All vehicles being used at night should have proper light, reflectors, etc. These include bicycles, handicapped vehicles, golf carts, etc.

Another rule pertaining to golf carts is:

A valid driver's license is mandatory to drive any type of motorized vehicle in the Community (handicapped scooter excluded).

A third rule for golf carts as well as other forms of transportation:

Motorcycles, motor bikes, motor scooters, go-carts, ATVs, trikes, or similar types of internal combustion powered forms of transportation are prohibited from the Community. The only exception being if they are stored on a trailer or RV in the compound. The Community reserves the right to ban from the Community any other machines including excessively noisy or unsafe trucks and automobiles. Electricpowered scooters (either 2 or 3 wheel) and battery-powered golf carts are allowed but must adhere to all Florida rules of the road and may be driven ONLY BY ADULT PARK RESIDENTS.

As you can see, this rule allows battery powered bikes, scooters and golf carts driven by ADULT PARK RESIDENTS but prohibits any gasoline powered vehicle other than cars and trucks with compliant exhaust systems.

Lastly, use of these vehicles is limited to roadways in the park. The grassy, common area around the office, clubhouse and pavilion is for walking only.

For golf carts driven outside of the Park, the Florida Statutes outlines requirements for registration, licensing, etc. Hopefully this information will help assist everyone in safe operation in the Park.

Census 2022

Hello Residents,

Our 2022 Census has been completed. During March 7th, through March 18th, fifteen volunteers pounded our streets to gather signatures. On behalf of the Board and myself, I want to deeply thank our volunteers.

Also, "Thank You" to the residents of CC for being kind and cooperative during this important process. See you in 2024 for the census update.

BEAUTIFICATION

By Donna Miller

Well, it looks like we have lost a lot of our neighbors now - to our Canadian neighbors, we are glad you were all able to make it down here this year! To our US northern neighbors, we look forward to seeing you next season! Thank you to all of you that helped to keep our community beautiful while you were here! I have also received several donations of plants as people have left to go home - they will nicely enhance the park. Thank you!

In trying to keep the Butterfly Garden looking nice, it has been noted that, once again, the soaker hose has broken and needs to be replaced. Rather than keep having to remove the mulch and rework new hoses around each plant, I am asking for suggestions on how to keep this area watered sufficiently. If you have any help to offer, please let me know!

Till next time, enjoy the beauty you see all around you this time of year!

SOCIAL CLUB

By April Loomis

Last month, we celebrated three lovely ladies; Emma (Dolly) Vincent, Annie Bockholt, and Gwen D'Epiro. Dolly and Annie are 99 in April and May and Gwen will be 100 in August. We also had an Easter parade.

For May, we have decided to hold a Hawaii theme pool party. It will be held about the fourth week. All the details have to be worked out so watch the Clearwater Facebook page for updated information.

We are looking for ideas and volunteers for activities for the months of June and July. Please call me with your suggestions.

Let's keep the park active over the summer!

VOLUNTEERS

By Jane Boucher

The Social Committee has provided us with some outstanding activities this season: You could hear peals of laughter during the First Flaming-Cha-Ching, and the monthly dances provided music to soothe our souls and get us all out on the dance floor. The Spring Picnic and the sports activities were well attended. It was fun having the chance to play at all of the sports activities, spurring us on to join the fun when the activities start back up.

The recent rains upended the surface of the Bocce courts and we hope to have this repair completed in the next few weeks.

Bible Study will continue through the month of May, will take a break through the summer months and start back up in the Fall.

Note that some of our activities will continue through the summer months, i.e., Bunco, Cornhole, Fun Shuffleboard, and water aerobics...and perhaps a few more, so check the Calendar to see what's happening.

The new horseshoe pits are all set and ready for you to start tossing. Howard, Keith, Lucy, Dick & Jane had fun building the new pits. Although we may need a bit of clay to add to the sand so the horseshoes don't sink quite so much. Enjoy and we will restart the tossing next September/October.

Each committee and or team can always use more volunteers to help get activities going, so if you want to help out you can either contact the committee chair or me and we'll get you connected to the right person.

Fernando	Park Handyman, guest of ?
Stanley	A new resident, a bit of a know-it-all
Archie	Narrator and Park historian
Edith	Archie's wife
Jack	Bus driver for Royal Limousine Service

“Henry, where is your mask?”
 “Oh, for Pete’s sake, Martha. Can’t you let the mask thing go?”
 “You’d like that, wouldn’t you, Henry.”

Welcome to the Flamingo and Loon Mobile Home Park.

From across the pool widowed sisters, Betty and Judy watch this argument with mild amusement. listening to the usual nagging and sighing.

“You know Judy, it, would be nice if there were some other topics of conversation around here.” “Agreed” said her sister. “What we need is a diversion.”

Judy grinned. “Good luck with that my dear, our Social Club has tried and tried but you know you can’t please everyone. Inside, outside, mask no mask...sheesh what’s the solution? Hey, is that a new guy over there?”

Deep in thought Betty ignored her sister’s remark. “How about a trip?” she mused, Like, say a bus trip...Mask on the bus, no masks at the destinations.”

“Great idea, Betty and I know just the place! I heard about this sooper, dooper new casino where you can gamble outside. Wouldn’t that be just great? You wouldn’t have to wear a mask. And there would probably be lots of single men there.”

Betty rolls her eyes at her sister, “and where did you hear that?” she asks suspiciously.

“Oh, I don’t remember, but that doesn’t matter, does it?”, replied Judy.

“Well, actually, it does sound like a good idea. We could organize a bus trip. I’ll go and make some phone calls,” states Betty, “then we can invite people to sign up.”

“How should we advertise it? There’s no sense putting it in the Newsletter. No one reads it anyway. Or maybe I’ll just put it on Facebook,” exclaimed Judy.

“Well now doesn’t that sound like fun, a bus full of seniors on their way to a casino.

Welcome readers. Do I sound a little skeptical? Well, I just might be... Please allow me to introduce myself, I am Archie Reynolds, a resident here at F & L Park. I keep to myself, but I watch closely and I hear things and I remember things. I’m going to share some of those things with you.

I have been listening to this conversation with amusement. You can be assured those two ladies will plan a bus trip. I can even tell you who will sign up and I am quite sure that I know who will be first in that line. What the lovely sisters don't know is that secrets abound here at F & L. With everyone together a few are sure to come out. Let's wait and see if I'm right."

Sign-up day dawned bright and sunny, as only it can in Florida.

There was quite a lineup at the outside registration table where Judy and Betty had set up shop, looking very important and excited to see so many people who wanted to "cash" in on this outing. It didn't take long for the fourteen-seater bus to be down to the last two left.

"I see there are several of the more interesting residents going on this trip. I think I will purchase the last two tickets to keep the wife, Edith from complaining about not going anywhere and to satisfy some of my own curiosity. I think this trip will be amusing if nothing else. We shall see."

Finally, Casino Day arrived with high hopes from all attending that this would be an exciting and profitable trip.

"Oh, my goodness," exclaimed Betty, "look at how excited everyone is. Wasn't it clever of me to plan this outing? Good morning, Rosie."

"Good morning, ladies," said Rosie, looking carefully around the bus. Wanting to be where she could listen to all the conversations, she hurried aboard and decided to take a seat in the middle of the bus.

"Welcome aboard Agnes, where's Harry today?"

"Oh, he wouldn't come," answered Agnes. "He thinks bus trips are long, boring, and not for him, so I brought along my close friend, Autumn. I haven't seen her for ages, so this is very exciting."

"Glad to have you with us. Enjoy yourself", said the sisters.

"Welcome to you too Autumn"

"Surely", sniffed Autumn. She hesitates as she gets on and addresses the bus driver. "You look familiar. Have I seen you before?" The bus driver replies "Not unless you have taken one of these buses before, ma'am," He noticeably avoids eye contact. Autumn then mumbles to the sisters as she walks past them and into the front seat across from Agnes "actually, what Harry said was that buses are dangerous, especially without seatbelts and he would never go on a trip like this" She took a card from her pocket, looked at it and put in a pocket on her suitcase. "It is him, I just knew it," she thought to herself.

"How rude was that, to contradict Agnes that way. Why would she do it?" grumbled Judy. "Thinks she is so special."

“Quiet”, whispered Betty as she turned to the next person.

“Good morning, Marian. Are you playing hooky from your library duties? Wonderful, and with Mr. Wright, at that? How cozy,” smiled Betty.

“Is our editor of The Park News out looking for stories today?”

“Of course, Betty”, said Johnny Wright, “I must keep up-to-date with events, so I don’t let our readers down. You never know what tidbits one might hear.”

“Do you really think they are dating,” whispered Judy as Marian and Johnny took their seats. “I was thinking about having a run at Johnny myself.” “Oh, really Judy...is that all you ever think about?”

"Ahh, secrets dear readers – Marion has a secret I’m sure, why she...never mind I’ll keep that for later.

This trip is going to be entertaining."

Katherine steps forward, with a scowl on her face.

“My dear”, whatever is the matter?” asked Betty kindly.

“Umph”, and here I thought Agnes and I were going to have a good time together and she brings that...that snob. Whatever she sees in that woman, is beyond me.”

“I’m sure you will have a good time regardless,” answered Betty. “Look, there is a seat next to Rosie. She’s good company. You two can share stories.”

“I suppose so,” said Katherine. “Maybe Rosie can tell me what’s so special about that shrew...”

Betty quickly changes the subject. “Ah, here comes Stanley. I can’t quite figure out his reason for coming on this jaunt, he’s so new to the Park and doesn’t really know anyone,” mused Betty. “It doesn’t seem to be his thing. Oh well, he helps fill up the bus. Have a good time, Stanley,” she calls as he boards.

Looking around, Stanley glances at the driver who looks a bit familiar and then heads for the seat behind Autumn. She turns to him, “Don’t you dare sit there,” she snarls. “Move further to the back.” Stanley glares at her but does as she demands.

“What was that all about,” thinks Rosie to herself. “I didn’t think they even knew each other.”

“Why did you say that”, Agnes questions her friend.

“I think he’s interested in me and I am definitely not interested in him. Do you see how scruffy he looks?” sneers Autumn. Agnes looks at her friend strangely.

“Clyde, welcome,” declares Judy. “And who might this pretty lady be?”

“Hello Judy, this is Julie, a friend of mine from up north. She decided that she wanted to see what this southern living was all about so she has come for a visit. Julie, this is Judy and her sister, Betty. They organized this excursion. Thank you for that, ladies. Shall we find ourselves some seats, Julie. See you later ladies.”

“Well, he’s in a happy, chatty mood,” whispered Judy. “I wonder if it is the company.”

“Don’t be silly, Judy, she’s much too young for him.” Betty whispered back.

As Clyde and Julie move down the aisle, Johnny quietly speaks to Marian. “Wow, that woman with Clyde looks a lot like you did in high school.” Marian glares at him. “Don’t be ridiculous, Johnny, she looks nothing like me.”

“Now, here comes a surprise”, Betty exclaims as Fernando, the Park handyman approaches. “It’s so nice to have you with us,” gushes Judy. “I certainly hope you have a wonderful and profitable day.”

“Imagine seeing you here, Fernando,” declares Agnes. “I hear that someone paid for your trip. I wonder who that could have been.” Embarrassed, Fernando growls, “It’s not for you to know and for me to tell. My business is my own.” And he stomps down the aisle. Rosie watches with interest at this exchange and then witnesses a strange glance pass between Fernando and Marian. Hmm, I wonder what that was for, Rosie thinks to herself.

“Well, last but not least”, smiles Betty, as Archie and his wife, Edith, prepare to board. “I never thought of you two as casino types. I hope you enjoy your outing.”

“Oh, I’m sure we will,” replies Archie, with a sly grin on his face. Edith nods politely to the sisters and climbs the stairs.

“After you, my dear,” as Betty gestures to Judy to board the bus and then climbs on after her.

Archie turned to the window and smiles to himself.... “This is going to be a very interesting trip, very interesting indeed.”

Next month – What happens at the casino? Will everyone make it back to F & L MHP? Stay tuned....
