BINGO

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all who attended the Monday night bingo this 2021/2022 season. We appreciate all the desserts and snacks that were brought, making our breaktime that much more enjoyable. All seemed to have a great time and winning a little money is always fun! A special thanks to Tom Lenard, who took time out of his schedule to call for us. We hope to see everyone in the Fall when we start again and we are always looking for new players. All are welcome!

Get Well Wishes

Notes from Gary Smith:

- A note from Jody Gramley, Lot 104, (who is also my sister), who has been admitted to Morton Plant Hospital since Thursday April 14th

Subject: Thank you all!!

Hello to all of my Honeymoon Park Friends and Neighbors, I cannot express enough how much it means to me for all of the concern, well wishes and prayers. I know they are being heard. My doctors have all really delved into my care and aren't discharging me until they're sure it's safe. I'm doing better and working hard to get back home. Thank you again!! - Jody

- Iris Hoffman, Lot 32, was admitted to Mease Countryside Hospital on May 9th. We wish her well.

- Just received a phone call from Barb Potts, of Lot 46 on West Street, who was injured in late March and has been away from home receiving treatment since then. If all goes as planned, she is scheduled to return home mid-afternoon tomorrow May 13th. She also asked me to convey her sincere thanks for the many phone calls, cards, visits, and overall, well wishes received during her time away. She's looking forward to much better days ahead!!

When to Display the American Flag

The flag is a symbol of respect, honor, and patriotism.
 It may be displayed on any day of the year according to the following guidelines:

- The flag should not be displayed on days when the weather is inclement.
- The custom is to display the flag only from sunrise to sunset on flagstuffs in the open, but it may be displayed at night — if illuminated—to produce a patriotic effect.

The flag should be displayed on all days, especially on:

- New Year’s Day, January 1
- Inauguration Day, January 20
- Martin Luther King Jr.’s birthday, third Monday in January
- Lincoln’s Birthday, February 12/Presidents’ Day, third Monday in February; formerly Washington’s Birthday, February 22
- Easter Sunday (variable)
- Mother’s Day, second Sunday in May

- The flag should be displayed at every public institution and in or near every polling place on election days, and at schoolhouses during school days.

How to Properly Display the Flag:

As a symbol of the country and its people, the flag should be treated with respect and be honored when on display. In order to treat the flag with the dignity it deserves, the following display guidelines are recommended.

General Guidelines for Displaying the Flag:

- When the flag is hung vertically on a wall, window, or door, the Union (blue section) should be to the observer's left. When the flag is hung either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the Union should be to the observer's left.
- In a procession, the American flag should be to the right (the flag's own right) of any other flag or, if in a line of other flags, in front of the center of that line.
- When displayed from a staff projecting from a building, the union should be at the peak of the staff.
- When the flag is displayed otherwise than by being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out; or so suspended that its folds fall as freely as though the flag were staffed.
- When displayed over a street, the flag should be suspended vertically with the union to the north in an east and west street, or to the east in a north and south street.
- On a platform, the flag should be above and behind the speaker, with the union uppermost and to the observer's left.
- When displayed from a staff in a church or auditorium, the flag should occupy the position of honor and be placed at the speaker's right as he faces the audience.
- When the flag is used to cover a casket, the union should be at the head and over the left shoulder.

Hoisting and Lowering the Flag:

- The flag should be hoisted briskly and lowered ceremoniously.
- When flown at half-staff, the flag should be first hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered to half-staff position. It should again be raised to the peak before it is lowered for the day. Half-staff is one-half the distance between the top and bottom of the staff.

The flag must be flown at half-staff on all buildings on the death of any officer listed below, for the period indicated:

- For the President or a former President: 30 days from the date of death.
- For the Vice President, the Chief Justice or a retired Chief Justice of the United States, or the Speaker of the House of Representatives: 10 days from the day of death.
- For an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, a member of the Cabinet, a former Vice President, the President pro tempore of the Senate, the Majority Leader of the House of Representatives, the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives: From the day of death until interment.
- For a United States Senator, Representative, Delegate, or the Resident Commissioner from the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico: the flag should be flown in the metropolitan area of the District of Columbia, on the day of death and on the following day; in the state, congressional district, territory, or commonwealth of such Senator, Representative, Delegate, or Commissioner, from the day of death until interment.
- For a Governor: Within the state, territory, or possession, from the day of death until interment.

Displaying the American Flag on a Vehicle:

- The flag should not be displayed on a float except from a staff, nor draped over the hood, top, sides, or back of a vehicle.
- When the flag is displayed on a vehicle, the staff should be fixed firmly to the chassis.

Displaying the American Flag Alongside Other Flags:

- In the United States, no other flag should be placed above the American flag or, if they are to be placed on the same level, to the right of the American flag.
- The United Nations flag may not be displayed above or in a position of superior prominence to the United States flag except at United Nations Headquarters.
- The flag, when displayed with another against a wall—both from crossed staffs—should be on the right (the flag's own right), and its staff should be in front of the other staff.
- The American flag should be at the center and the highest point when displayed with a group of state flags.
- When flags of states, cities, etc., are flown on the same halyard, the American flag should be at the peak.
- When flags of two or more nations are displayed, they are to be flown from separate staffs of the same height, and the American flag should be hoisted first and lowered last.

How Not to Display the American Flag:

The flag and its likeness should be treated with respect. Its image should not be cheapened or tarnished by improper use.

- The flag should not be dipped to any person or thing, including government officials—even the President.
- The flag should never be displayed with the union (stars) down, unless as a signal of dire distress.
- The flag should never touch anything beneath it, such as the ground, the floor, water, or merchandise.
- The flag should never be carried flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free.
- The flag should never be fastened, displayed, used, or stored so that it might be easily torn, soiled, or damaged in any way.
- The flag should never be used as covering for a ceiling.
- The flag should never have anything placed on it.
- The flag should never be used for any advertising purpose, nor embroidered on cushions or handkerchiefs, printed on paper napkins or boxes, nor used as any portion of a costume.

How to Properly Dispose of an American Flag:

- When the flag is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem, it should be destroyed in a dignified and ceremonious fashion, preferably by burning.
- Most American Legion posts will conduct an annual ceremony, often on Flag Day (June 14) to retire old or worn flags; contact your local chapter if you are not able to dispose of the flag yourself.
- The local ACE Hardware will properly dispose of your worn and torn flag(s).

Neighborhood Watch Program – Vacation House Checks

This is also the time of year that many seasonal residents are preparing to return home for the summer. I wanted to remind everyone of the “Vacation House Checks” program. This is a free service that is offered by the Pinellas County Sheriff’s office. Deputies will schedule and perform house checks on your home during the entire period that you are away. Many people here participate in the program. This ensures that the deputies are often in the park performing these checks and their high visibility in the park also acts as a deterrent to crime. To sign up for this free service, call 727-582-6177 and state you wish to schedule house checks in your absence.

You will be asked to provide:

The date you will be leaving, and the estimated date of return. Should you arrive back earlier, call them to discontinue the service or risk interrogation by a deputy conducting the house check.

- Address of the house check is to be performed
- Name of homeowner
- Away phone number
- Away destination address
- Name, address, and phone number of a local contact. Preferable someone who has a key to the home
- Name of anyone with access to the home during your absence (friend, neighbor or relative).
- If you will leave lights on while away, and if you will have a vehicle in your driveway or if any non owned vehicles may be parked in your driveway
- Also mention if you are a Neighborhood Watch participant, which is not obligatory for this program

To those that are leaving soon, have a great and safe summer. To those residents residing here full time, also have a safe summer and thank you for also looking out for homes while we are away.

Lost Words from Our Childhood....

Murgatroyd! Do you remember that word? Would you believe the spell-checker did not recognize the word Murgatroyd? Heavens to Murgatroyd!

The other day a lady said something to her son about driving a Jalopy and he looked at her quizzically and said, "What the heck is a Jalopy?" He had never heard of the word jalopy! She knew she was old ... But not that old.

Well, I hope you are Hunky Dory after you read this and chuckle.

About a month ago, I illuminated some old expressions that have become obsolete because of the inexorable march of technology. These phrases included: Don't touch that dial, carbon copy, you sound like a broken record, and hung out to dry.

Back in the olden days we put on our best bib and tucker.

Heavens to Betsy! Gee willikers! Jumping Jehoshaphat! Holy Moley!

We were in like Flynn and living the life of Riley; and even a regular guy couldn't accuse us of being a knucklehead, a nincompoop or a pill. Not for all the tea in China!

We wake up from a short nap, and before we can say, "Well, I'll be a monkey's uncle!" Or, "This is a fine kettle of fish!"

Poof, go the words of our youth, the words we've left behind. Where have all those great phrases gone?

Long gone: Pshaw, the milkman did it. Don't forget to pull the chain. Knee high to a grasshopper. Well, Fiddlesticks! I'll see you in the funny farm. Wake up and smell the roses.

Leaves us to wonder where Superman will find a phone booth...

See ya later, alligator! Okeydokey.

You'll notice they left out Monkey Business!!!!

WE ARE THE CHILDREN OF THE FABULOUS 40's and 50'S ...

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
