THE MAY HOA MEETING WAS THE LAST MEETING UNTIL FALL. THE BOARD WILL CONTINUE TO MEET WITH MANAGEMENT MONTHLY TO WORK ON ISSUES.

WHY SHOULD YOU JOIN HOA AND PAY $15/YEAR DUES? - It's the best bargain in town. The HOA Board and members are a group of residents that really do care about our conditions and health and safety. These are volunteers that receive no benefit other than improving things in our community.

WHAT DOES THE HOA BOARD DO WITH THE DUES MONEY? The dues money is used to pay for things such as Liability Insurance for Social Club Activities, Corporation Registration with Florida, Bonding for Officers, Office Supplies to pay for sharing of information and keeping residents informed of issues such as this Monthly Media Guide. No money is spent for Officers time spent on HOA Activities or wasteful things. If you have any questions, talk to any board member. And please, join us in making this a better place to live.

AMBER GLADES SOCIAL COMMITTEE MEETING IN MAY WAS LAST ONE UNTIL FALL. RESIDENTS WILL CONTINUE TO BE NOTIFIED OF ACTIVITIES THROUGH THE MONTHLY MEDIA, FACEBOOK AND LEAFLETS.

- Barbecue grills outside the Clubhouse have new igniters, cooking grates and inside grill parts.
- A ladder with handrails has been purchased and placed in the Library. This ladder is for the use of the volunteers who currently work in the Library.

Although there will be no board meetings until the fall, the board is available for residents and will continue to meet with park management to discuss concerns and/or suggestions.

Park Management continues to review and investigate concerns. Residents are reminded to contact the office with their individual concerns so that they may take appropriate action.

WE ARE FLORIDA'S #1 RETIREMENT COMMUNITIES PARTNER!

AMBER GLADES JANUARY 2023 CRUISE

Did you ever want to traverse the Panama Canal? Here’s your chance to go thru the Eastern Locks into Gatún Lake and then return thru the same locks back to the Caribbean Sea. And, also visit Grand Cayman and Limón, Costa Rico.

HERE’S THE DETAILS.....CARNIVAL PRIDE -- Out of Tampa
8 days -- January 21 -- January 29, 2023

Mary Walsh will be your Vacation Specialist. She is a Dream Vacations’ Franchise Owner. Her mother, Carol, lives in Amber Glades. Call Mary with questions about this cruise and to make your reservation. 727-642-1270

Mary promises that we will be getting the best rates. If prices go down after you have booked and before we sail you will be able to take advantage of this reduction. In fact, Mary watches for this to happen so you always get the best deal.

At the time of this writing the prices are as follows:

- Balcony Cabin -- $3118 - $3160 per cabin of 2
- Ocean View Cabin -- $2608 per cabin of 2
- Interior Cabin -- $2308 -- $2358 per cabin of 2

These rates include port fees and taxes and are the total for the 2 persons staying in the room (NOT each).

Gratuities and Insurance are extra. Mary’s service fee is $19.95 per booking.

As stated above, this price includes port charges and taxes ($355 per person or $710 for both persons in the cabin). $200 per person of this alone is for the partial transit thru the Panama Canal. This ship fills up fast because it goes thru the Eastern locks of the canal.

When you are comparing prices of Panama cruises be aware that not all Panama Cruises actually go thru the locks. Some just stop in Panama and you can then do an excursion to see the locks.

You can sign up now with a down payment and make payments throughout the year.

GREETINGS FROM THE PLANT LADY

Greetings plant lovers. This month we'll talk about how to save your plants from pesky pests. Grow this natural pest control every year. These delightful flowers actually deter harmful bugs from your tomatoes, roses, peas and more. That's why French marigolds were probably in your grandmothers garden. Rediscover what they can do for you today. Plant French Marigolds among roses or tomatoes or plant roses or tomatoes where the French marigolds grew last year. Scientist have discovered that the roots of French marigolds produce compounds that can repel or kill infestation. Best results plant French Marigolds throughout your garden.

Protect your plants from Aphids with tea. Just follow these instructions: bruise two large handfuls of basil leaves and stems and drop them in 1 gallon jar. Pour in 1 gallon of water and let sit in the sun for 4 to 8 hours. Strain through a mesh strainer or use a section of pantyhose if you don't have one. And several drops of liquid hand soap and then shake to mix. Spray this tea remedy on your plants to fight aphids. Leaf hoppers, grubs, squash bugs, night cabbage loopers, and cucumber beetles.

Summon pest eaters to your garden. Some people fight fire with fire. You can fight bugs with bugs. Although some pest bugs eat or damage garden plants, other bugs eat these plants eating pests. Pest eating bugs are called beneficial, and you can invite them to be dinner by growing plants They produce plenty of pollen and nectar. For example, attract ladybugs to your garden by planting flowers like zinnias, Asters, daisies and sunflowers. Or herbs such as parsley, dill, coriander, anise or fennel. Grow these new plants and the ladybugs will reward you. They will eat the aphids, Mites, scale, and other pest right off your plants.

This tip for my animal loving, plant loving people. Enjoy a flea free yard without harmful chemicals. Try favorites like Penny Royal, fennel, rosemary and basil. Chrysanthemums may also help because they are source of Pyrethrum an insecticide used against fleas. For extra coverage where no flea fighting plants grow, harvest some fennel or rosemary, or crushed Pennyroyal or dried basil leaves. Then spread these herbs in your yard you can also scatter eucalyptus, cedar shavings, or ground red pepper.

Next month we'll continue to talk about chemical free repellents that banish mosquitoes and repel mice and ants naturally.

Happy gardening – The Plant Lady – Debra Santee, 843-290-8884 -

A LITTLE SICK HUMOR

80 Is The Worst Age: 3 nursing home residents were talking about aging outside of their nursing home. The 60 year old resident said “60 is the worst age to be. You constantly feel like you have to pee but most of the time nothing happens.” The 70 year old resident responds “That's nothing compared to being 70. You can't take a crap anymore. You eat all of the bran and take laxatives you can and still nothing happens.” The 80 year old said, “You're both wrong. 80 is actually the worst.” The 60 year old asked the 80 year old, “Do you have trouble peeing too?” He responded, “No. I go at 6 every morning. I have no problem at all.” The 70 year old asked him, “Do you have trouble taking a crap?” “No, I go at 6:30 each morning” the 80 year old responded. The 60 year old said “Let me understand you clearly. You go #1 every morning at 6am and #2 every morning half an hour later. What's so hard about being 80?” The 80 year old concluded, “All of those things are true, but I don't wake up until 10am.”

Old Couple Shares A Meal: An elderly couple went to McDonald's and ordered a burger, fries and a soda. A man next to them saw the old man split everything in half. He went over to the table and offered to buy them each a meal if they couldn't afford it. The old man appreciatively declined and said that him and his wife shared everything in the 40 years they were together. He went back to his own table and then noticed the old woman wasn't eating. She was just sitting there. He went back over to the couple and asked why she wasn't eating. She then said, “It's only because it's my husband's turn to use the teeth.”

SENIOR ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS:

Utility and cooling bill assistance can be provided from the Emergency Home Energy Assistance for the Elderly Program (EHEAP). Any household that has at least one member over 60 years of age, who is facing a crisis, and who meets income guidelines may qualify for financial assistance for paying their energy bills.

Emergencies that EHEAP can address may be from a shut off notice, lack of fuel, or disconnection of utilities. The state of Florida program can provide cash for paying cooling, air conditioning, or other utility bills. While funding may vary, in some cases up to $600 can be paid out to seniors. All funds paid out are made directly to your utility company and not to the applicant.

EHEAP in Florida is available as part of the United States Department of Energy nationwide assistance program. Low income senior citizens, including those living on disability or a pension, may be given a grant to pay their electric or air conditioning bills. Learn how to apply for funds from the LIHEAP crisis program.

Vouchers may also be provided to seniors. These can be used to buy fans, portable heaters, or blankets. Additional aid can pay for the repair or cooling or heating equipment, or for reconnection fees. To apply for the Emergency HoPrograms are developed to educate both seniors and their caregivers, to increase awareness about issues related to the health of elder Floridians, and to also deliver effective interventions and information on medical care to make a noticeable difference in elders' health.

Some specific programs include health risk assessment, gerontological counseling, mental health counseling and screening, health promotion, evidence-based health promotion programs, home injury control, disease information, transportation to doctor appointments, medication management, and counseling. The more information that someone has on their options, the more ability they have to receive high quality care at the lowest price possible.

Community nutrition service programs are coordinated by the Florida Department of Elder of Affairs. The agencies that run these services are normally private, non-profit agencies, senior centers, local Area Agency on Aging offices, or other charitable locations.

A number of services are offered. The frail, homebound or isolated older adults may receive meals delivered to their homes. Any Florida resident who is over 60 may be able to benefit from this program.

In addition to free food and meals, other aid provided can include education, counseling, and screening. Call your local office to benefit from the Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program, Home-Delivered Meals, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Pilot Program, Congregate Dining Facilities, Adult Care Food Program, and Nutrition Education.

Congregate Meals are offered across Florida in a number of communities and locations. Meals are distributed in churches, schools, senior centers, community centers and other private or public facilities where low income families and people can receive social services and/or other rehabilitative services.

Information and referrals is offered from Elder Helpline. Learn about elder services, government and public assistance, Medicare, free clinics, and much more.

The Florida Department of Elder of Affairs also has information on rent and housing assistance programs that are offered from the federal government Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). There are also non-profits that help the elderly in the state. HUD is the primary federal government agency that oversees low income and public housing, including section 8 rental vouchers. Not only does HUD have programs for paying for a portion of rent and housing costs, but they also provide information on selling, buying, and/or renting a home. Get details on stopping an eviction in Florida.

Free or low cost Florida Senior Legal Services may be offered for people who have serious civil matters and who can't pay for legal aid on their own. Sometimes people need legal assistance and representation from a trained attorney. The fact of that matter is that not all seniors can afford their own lawyer or attorney, and many do not even know where to turn to find help from one. A number of free legal resources are available in Florida to help seniors with addressing legal issues. Dial 1-888-895-7873 for more details or referrals.

This number will put you in touch with the Senior Legal Helpline, which will provide free legal advice and brief services by telephone. Services are offered for residents of Florida who are age 60 and older, for civil (not criminal) legal problems. Receive advice and potential solutions to help resolve legal problems and an attorney can also offer referrals to state government and local regulatory agencies. The hotline can help seniors find affordable or free legal providers in their communities.

Get help finding a job in Florida from the Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP). This federal government program is for people who are aged 55 or older, unemployed, low income and who are looking to reenter the workforce. The service can help people find, and be placed into, a part time job that will eventually lead to full time employment.

The U.S. Department of Labor works with the Florida Area Agency on Aging, and together they serve low-income and unemployed persons who are 55 and older and have poor employment prospects. If you apply and are found eligible, and if the program has funding available, participants will be placed into part-time community service positions with a goal of transitioning to full time, unsubsidized employment. Most of the jobs will initially be in Governmental entities or Public or private non-profit organizations.

Some benefits include that participants will receive community service assignments, orientation, training opportunities, are offered a free physical examination, and obtain other supportive services.

Get information on insurance and medical options from SHINE, which is known as Serving Health Insurance Needs of Elders. This is a free resource that is offered by the Florida Department of Elder Affairs in partnership with your local Area Agency on Aging.

The state of Florida SHINE program supports and works with the Florida Department of Elder Affairs' mission by providing unbiased and free health insurance counseling and advice through a dedicated network of volunteers and other specialists. The goal is to empower seniors in Florida to make informed health care choices, get information on clinics and medical bill assistance programs.

The program has on staff trained volunteers who can assist you with answering questions on your Medicaid, Medicare, and other health insurance questions by providing one-on-one counseling, advice and information. All information on SHINE services are free, unbiased, and confidential.

Prescription medication assistance and savings can be obtained from a free discount card. The state of Florida offers residents a card that can be used at most pharmacies and retailers across the state, and it provides up to 40% savings on brand name and prescription medications. The card is free to use, there are no income restrictions, and thousands of elderly and senior citizens benefit from it. Your Agency on Aging office may have more information, or learn more on the Florida Prescription Discount Card.

For more information or resources, call the Florida Department of Elder of Affairs at 1800-963-5337 for more information on these and other resources for seniors and disabled or; Area Agency on Aging of Pasco-Pinellas, 549 Koger Blvd N #100, St. Petersburg, FL 33702.
