FROM THE EDITOR

From the Editor

Please enjoy your June 2022 issue of the Island In The Sun Sentinel. I welcome any articles, input or ideas from our residents to include in future issues. Photos from around the community or from IITS events are welcome too. Please let me know if you find any information that needs to be updated on the calendar or in the publication, I appreciate your input.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The goals of the 2022 IITS Board are to continue to improve communication and to get issues resolved for our community. We are encouraged by the improving community interest and participation and have added many new HOA members in April and May. Thank you for your support and for making us a stronger force.

If you haven't yet, please be a part of the solution and join the HOA. $15 a year provides a two-person household HOA membership, discounted event tickets, voting rights and access to the Official Island in the Sun HOA page. This is where you find HOA-related updates and view the live stream of our monthly board meetings. You can get your membership card from any board member - our contact information is on the front inside cover. We also have cards available at any HOA Board Meeting or event.

Please join us for the June 7th HOA Board Meeting at 7pm at the clubhouse with your issues, concerns and suggestions on how we together make IITS a better community.

Great Turnout for the IITS HOA Kentucky Derby Party!

A party crowd of 140 residents, friends and family attended the May 7th IITS HOA Kentucky Derby Party. A huge community THANK YOU to our host Tammy Jackson for her time and creativity in making this fun event a success! Also, a big THANK YOU to the HOA Board, committee members and our generous volunteers who all gave their time to ensure their fellow residents had a great evening.

Don't Miss the IITS HOA Spaghetti Dinner

Saturday, June 18th the HOA is sponsoring a Spaghetti Dinner at the clubhouse. The proposed menu is spaghetti with tomato sauce, meatballs and garlic bread. More details such as the time, cost and a finalized menu will be shared as plans are confirmed. Mark your calendars and watch for further details!

Resident Spotlight

Michael McKeown & Rene Lavoie

In July of 2021, Michael and Rene joined the IITS community when they purchased Lot 223. They began renovating and had their new residence painted inside and out, installed wainscoting, upgraded their Florida room, replaced windows and improved the landscaping to make it into their home.

Michael is originally from Pennsylvania and Rene is from Connecticut, and they lived in the Los Angeles, Orange County, California for 27 years before they made their way to Florida. The couple will be celebrating 31 years together this September and were married in Delaware 9 years ago. Michael formerly worked as an Accounting Supervisor for Home Savings of America (known as Savings of America in Florida). Rene was a Payroll Accountant in the hospital industry, then for Del Taco, Long Beach Transit and Orleans Homes. Both are now enjoying their full retirement.

Cruising is their favorite way to vacation and earlier this year they traveled on the Sky Princess to Mexico, Honduras and Belize. They have enjoyed multiple Caribbean cruises and found their favorite cruise line to be Holland America and their favorite locations to be Puerto Rico, Jamaica and St Martin. Michael says they really enjoy the food and entertainment and are always saving up for their next cruise!

Rene has many hobbies and enjoys arts and crafts, crocheting and building intricate models out Diamond Bricks, which are tiny Lego-like blocks. He is interested in finding other IITS

Remember these at your next party

- I just got my doctor’s test results and I’m really upset. Turns out I’m not going to be a doctor.
- As I get older, I remember all the people I lost along the way. Maybe my career as a tour guide was not the right choice.
- I visited my friend in his new apartment. He told me to make myself at home, so I threw him out. I hate having visitors.
- My parents raised me as an only child, which really annoyed my sister.
- I threw a boomerang a few years ago. I now live in constant fear.
- I’ll never forget my grandfather’s last words to me just before he died: “Are you still holding the ladder?”
- My relatives liked to tease me at weddings, saying things like, “You’ll be next!” They stopped once I started saying the same to them at funerals.
- I childproofed my house. Somehow they still got in.

Beware the anti-riddle

Some jokes can be funny precisely because they’re not jokes. It’s a paradox, but these riddles prove it:

- What do you call a joke that isn’t funny? A sentence.
- What did one Frenchman say to the other Frenchman? I don’t know, I don’t speak French.
- I told my friend she was drawing her eyebrows too high. She looked surprised.
- How is a laser beam like a goldfish? Neither one can whistle.
- What did the man say when he lost his truck? “Where’s my truck?”
- What’s the one thing in life you can always count on? A calculator.
- What did one ant say to the other ant? Nothing, ants can’t speak.
- Do you know what always makes me smile? Face muscles.
- How tall is the Empire State Building? One Empire State Building tall.
- Do you know what’s odd? Every other number.

A smile starts on the lips, a grin spreads to the eyes, a chuckle comes from the belly; but a good laugh bursts forth from the soul, overflows, and bubbles all around.

— Carolyn Birmingham

At the height of laughter, the universe is flung into a kaleidoscope of new possibilities.

The elephant's tale

A man was visiting the zoo one day. As he was passing the elephant enclosure, he suddenly stopped. The majestic creatures were restrained by only a small rope tied to their front leg—no chains, no cages. It was obvious that the elephants could, at any time, break free, but for some reason, they did not.

He saw a trainer standing nearby and asked why the elephants made no attempt to get away.

“Well,” trainer said, “when they are very young and much smaller, we use the same size rope to tie them. At that age, it’s enough to hold them. As they grow up, they continue to believe they cannot break away. They think the rope can still hold them, so they never try to break free.”

The visitor was amazed. These enormous beasts could break free from their bonds whenever they wanted, but because they thought they couldn’t, they were stuck right where they were.

Like the elephants, how many of us go through life hanging onto a belief that restrains us, simply because it held us back once before?

First things first

A team of high-powered executives hired a consultant to help them develop a better work-life balance. In the conference room, the consultant set a one-gallon glass jar on the table and filled it with large stones. He asked the team if the jar was full. The executives agreed that the jar was pretty full.

Then he pulled out a bag of smaller pebbles and poured them into the jar. The smaller pebbles fell into the spaces between the large stones. Again he asked, “So, is the jar full?”

The team was more hesitant, but they eventually answered that yes, the jar seemed full now.

Then the consultant pulled out a bag of sand and poured it into the jar. “Now is the jar full?”

A smart woman in the front row raised her hand and said, “No, you can still pour water into the jar.”

So the consultant did, filling it to the top.

The woman in the front row said, “I get it. The point is that no matter how busy our schedule is, you can always cram something else in, right?”

The consultant smiled. “Not exactly. My point is that you should put the big items into the jar first. If you don’t focus on the big things, like spending time with your family and having a spiritual life, the little things will always seep in and take up all the space.”
