SONG OF THE MONTH

Laughter In The Month

Strolling along country roads with my baby
It starts to rain it begins to pour
Without an umbrella we’re soaked to the skin
I feel a shiver run up my spine
I feel the warmth of her hand in mine

- OO, I hear laughter in the rain
- Walking hand in hand with the one I love
- OO, how I love those rainy days
- And the happy way I feel inside

After a while we run under a tree
I turn to her and she kisses me
There with the beat of the rain on the leaves
Softly she breathes and I close my eyes
Sharing our love under stormy skies

LADIES LUNCHEON

The May ladies' luncheon was hosted by Debbie Ranta and was held at Outback Steakhouse. There were 19 attendees, which was a good number considering it was past snowbird season. Mike Matheny and Ron Russell came to keep us ladies under control and were given a small thank you gift. As a party favor, each lady was given a set of notecards, which included one of Debbie's handmade cards.

The June 8th luncheon will be hosted by Amy Skura, Angela Robinson's daughter, Lot 1501. If you wish to call to make your reservation, please call Angela at 203-505-3321. Thanks to all who attended. It was a blast!

LIBRARY

Just imagine you are at work doing your job and a black SUV pulls up and out walks two FBI agents, they take you into custody. No explanations and no reason. You are put on a plane, treated like a suspect for lord only knows what and taken across country. Why? Because a captured serial killer says he will only talk to you! Do you know him? No! FBI wants to know the connection and until they do you will be treated as a suspect. This is what happens to Alex McKnight in the book "Dead Man Running" by Steve Hamilton. Believe it or not the reason this happens is because someone posted something on Facebook

Steve Hamilton was born and raised in Detroit, Michigan. He graduated from the University of Michigan. Steve lives in New York with his wife and children. He wrote his first 12 books at night after all were in bed while working for IBM. Best known for his Alex McKnight books but has some standalone novels also.

Don't forget the library is open daily 10 -6. Right now, we are trying to get WIFI back in there and the air conditioner needs work. When it rains, it pours!

There is a Memorial Day fundraiser, a Hot Dog Roast, to get the Wi-Fi back on and repair/replace the a/c units; see Roy for tickets, $5 each; Hot Dog, Chips, Baked Beans, Brownies, Soda, or Water ($1 for an extra hot dog)...and what would an Embassy event be without a 50/50?

FROM THE OFFICE

Jessie Buchholtz, Park Manager

Hopefully by the time you read this, the Park Office will be up and running...or very close to it! Thanks to everyone for respecting my privacy and only coming during office hours, but please forget where I live now, all Embassy business will be conducted during office hours!

Throughout this temporary situation, some of you may have gotten Joelle and my cellphone numbers, even my home phone number. Please know that the park DOES NOT pay for our phones, so they are not to be used for park business unless we personally tell you to call us back on it. I have given my cellphone to some people for emergencies or other reasons, not to have park complaints during all hours of the day and night. We will block you!

Speaking of office hours, during renovation we retrieved voicemails on a regular basis; a lot of them could not be understood or were from someone so drunk I couldn't understand them, or no name or Lot number. It is hard enough for Joelle and I to put a name, face, and Lot number together with over 400 lots, let alone identify a voice!

If you are making a complaint, you must identify yourself, the person, lot number and the problem. The reason for this is that I cannot make a court eviction case for rule violations unless you are willing to come forward if I have to take it to court. A lot of times I can fix something you complained about, and I would like to update you on the steps that I took.

Something to be thankful for...that you can walk wherever you want, and that your mobility is not limited to an electric scooter! It is often difficult to maneuver scooters in the Clubhouse; the easiest way for them to be out of the way is to sit (park) at the end of the tables. All disabilities are not visible, and most importantly, not everybody's business! Please respect the residents who are dealing with limited disabilities when they attend park functions. Electric Scooters on the street should be operated the same as a car, on the correct side of the street and observing all the stop signs.

A reminder about wasting water...”In Park” car washes are limited to twice a week,(Rule 16C) the same goes for jet skis and boats; most boat ramp areas provide hoses to wash off the salt water; use them instead of doing it in the Park! Higher water bills can increase rent, so do your share in keeping the water bills down. Once a month, maintenance walks the entire park looking for leaks, leaking hose bibs, valves, etc. in an effort to keep the bills lower. The lawn mowing is on an “every other week” basis; it will go to weekly once the daily rains begin.

Famous fathers and their offspring

Father's Day celebrates the special bond between fathers and their families. Every dad is a celebrity in his child's eyes, of course, but in some families fame and fatherhood go hand in hand. Take a look at some of these well-known fathers and their successful children from the world of movies, music, and sports:

- Kirk Douglas and Michael Douglas (acting)
- Tony Curtis and Jamie Lee Curtis (acting)
- Lloyd Bridges, Beau Bridges, and Jeff Bridges (acting)
- Archie Manning, Payton Manning, and Eli Manning (football)
- Jon Voight and Angelina Jolie (acting)
- Bob Dylan and Jakob Dylan (music)
- Frank Sinatra and Nancy Sinatra (music)
- Ken Griffey and Ken Griffey Jr. (baseball)

Flag Day trivia

Flag Day is June 14th, when Americans proudly display their patriotism by flying the U.S. flag far and wide. The design of the U.S. flag was originally established by the Second Continental Congress on July 14, 1777. The Flag Resolution stated:

“Resolved, that the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation.”

Remember these at your next party

- I just got my doctor's test results and I'm really upset. Turns out I'm not going to be a doctor.
- As I get older, I remember all the people I lost along the way. Maybe my career as a tour guide was not the right choice.
- I visited my friend in his new apartment. He told me to make myself at home, so I threw him out. I hate having visitors.
- My parents raised me as an only child, which really annoyed my sister.
- I threw a boomerang a few years ago. I now live in constant fear.
- I'll never forget my grandfather's last words to me just before he died: "Are you still holding the ladder?"
- My relatives liked to tease me at weddings, saying things like, "You'll be next!" They stopped once I started saying the same to them at funerals.
- I childproofed my house. Somehow they still got in.

Beware the anti-riddle

Some jokes can be funny precisely because they're not jokes. It's a paradox, but these riddles prove it:

- What do you call a joke that isn't funny? A sentence.
- What did one Frenchman say to the other Frenchman? I don't know, I don't speak French.
- I told my friend she was drawing her eyebrows too high. She looked surprised.
- How is a laser beam like a goldfish? Neither one can whistle.
- What did the man say when he lost his truck? "Where's my truck?"
- What's the one thing in life you can always count on? A calculator.
- What did one ant say to the other ant? Nothing, ants can't speak.
- Do you know what always makes me smile? Face muscles.
- How tall is the Empire State Building? One Empire State Building tall.
- Do you know what's odd? Every other number.

A smile starts on the lips, a grin spreads to the eyes, a chuckle comes from the belly; but a good laugh bursts forth from the soul, overflows, and bubbles all around.

— Carolyn Birmingham

At the height of laughter, the universe is flung into a kaleidoscope of new possibilities.
