Steven Rickman — Licensed Sales Agent

Manager's letter for July 2022

Happy summer everyone! Let's see what is on the list this month...

- We have sent out to each resident a pet information form so that we can have the most current information on your pets. Please return to the office at your earliest convenience. Even if you do not have a pet, please just check the "no pets" box and return. Thank you for your cooperation.
- Please observe the speed limit in the park. We get quite a few concerns about people going too fast.
- If you have any issues or concerns about someone not following the rules, please do not confront the person yourself. Please fill out a complaint form (available in the office) and let us handle it. We have a process to follow for managing these concerns. If you can take a video or picture of the person violating the rules, even better – just email the video/picture to hillcrestflorida@equitylifestyle.com. We will then have something concrete with dates and times the violation occurred.
- Please do not feed the wildlife in the park – whether through bird feeders, bowls of water and food, or just putting food out on the grass. This just increases more unwanted animals coming onto the grounds. It also attracts rats and other unwanted vermin and bugs. Another issue to consider is that wild animals may have rabies, which can be passed along to our domesticated animals through direct contact with saliva or brain/nervous system tissue (such as through broken skin or mucous membranes in the eyes, nose, or mouth) from an infected animal. People and other animals usually get rabies from the bite of a rabid animal.

Potluck in May

submitted by Pat Jones

May kicked off with a Cinco de Mayo feast. And feast we did. There were tacos, empanadas, quesadillas, refried beans, guacamole, and all the toppings you could want. There was a "guess the colonels" jar of corn. This was won by Butch who realized there may have been many kernels in the jar, but sadly no colonels. After dinner there was a short trivia contest and this was won by Randy. As always on the first potluck of the month there was a birthday cake to celebrate the May birthdays.

The second potluck was a variation of Salisbury steak, with mushroom gravy, veggies, potatoes etc. etc, etc.

If you come, bring a side dish with 4 - 6 servings, you don't have to plan to feed all. Bring your dish ready to serve as the host/hostess will be using the stove and microwave to complete the entree. You also need to bring your place setting including utensils. We get money to cover the entree from the office but not for plates, cups, and plastic ware. If you are not sure what to bring there is a list in the Purple sign up book to help you decide, or the host/hostess may have some ideas. You must sign up by Tuesday of the potluck week to give the host enough time to have the needed amount of entree.

We are always looking for volunteers to host a potluck. There is a sign up sheet on the social club bulletin board or just see me, Pat at 1009. Potluck is held the second and fourth Thursday of the month with very few exceptions.

Just a reminder: The PURPLE sign up book is now in the billiard room.

Social Club

submitted by Pat Jones

May was a fun month.

It started with coffee on the first Saturday of the month. We will be holding coffee the first Saturday of the month only, for the summer. Bring your cup and $2.00 for coffee and donuts, muffins, cakes

May ended with a Memorial Day Pool Party, an ELS sponsored event. This was well attended by residents. There were quite a few volunteers as well.

So I begin with shout outs to the volunteers, in no particular order other than how they pop into my head. If I miss anyone I apologize. First to Carole and Clair for decorating the clubhouse. Nice patriotic job! Next to Carole and Karen for helping with food preparation. A big thank you to the chef, Butch. The pool party part of the day was organized by Emma C. and Joy B. There were games and prizes and of course cooling down in the pool. And finally a shout out to Sonja who DJ'd the music. I thank everyone for their help and support.

Be sure to sign up by July 1 for the party. No final details yet. Watch the bulletin boards and Facebook page for more information.

To make it easier for everyone to sign up the PURPLE SIGN UP BOOK has been moved to the billiard room. Now you can access it even if you can't get into the clubhouse.

Hope to see many residents at the next social event.

JULY CALENDAR

Eye Injury Prevention Month. Of the approximately one million eye injuries in the United States each year, health experts say 90% are preventable. The leading causes of eye injury are sports accidents, fireworks, yard and workshop debris, and household chemicals.

National Hot Dog Month. The warm summer months are perfect for grilling, and what better food to toss on the grill than a juicy hot dog? National Hot Dog Month was founded by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce about 65 years ago. Since that time, the National Hot Dog and Sausage Council promotes this monthlong celebration each year.

Park and Recreation Month. Since 1985, Americans have celebrated Park and Recreation Month in July to promote the importance of parks and recreation in health and wellness, conservation, and social equity. Parks are the cornerstone of nearly every community, serving millions of people as places anyone can go to be active and healthier, connecting with nature and gathering together.

World Watercolor Month. Grab some watercolors and make a watercolor painting each day during the month. Share your work online for others around the world to enjoy. Use the hashtag #WorldWatercolorMonth when posting your art and use it to meet other watercolor artists around the globe.

Week

National Therapeutic Recreation Week, July 10–16. Established by the National Therapeutic Recreation Society, this week is intended to raise awareness of therapeutic recreation programs and services that improve the health and well-being of people with physical, mental, and emotional disabilities.

National Cancer Survivor Sibling Week, July 10–16. Celebrated annually the second week in July, National Cancer Survivor Sibling Week raises awareness of the psychological and other challenges faced by siblings of cancer survivors.

National Zoo Keeper Week, July 17–23. National Zoo Keeper Week focuses on the need to protect and preserve our wildlife and vanishing habitats via conservation messages created by their institutions. During the third week of July each year, celebrate National Zoo Keeper Week; both keepers and animals deserve recognition.

National Moth Week, July 23–31. National Moth Week celebrates the beauty, life cycles, and habitats of moths. “Moth-ers” of all ages and abilities are encouraged to learn about, observe, and document moths in their backyards, parks, and neighborhoods.

JULY DAYS

Independence Day, July 4. Celebrating the U.S. Declaration of Independence and the founding of the United States of America.

Simplicity Day, July 12. Choosing to live a life of simplicity is not about choosing to live in poverty; it's about living in balance.

Bastille Day, July 14. The anniversary of the storming of the Bastille on July 14th, 1789, a major event of the French Revolution.

World Snake Day, July 16. There are about 3,400 known species of snakes living in almost every region in the world playing a vital role in maintaining the well-being, sustainability, and biodiversity of various ecosystems.

National Disability Independence Day, July 26. Commemorating the signing of the Americans with Disabilities Act in 1990, assuring Americans with disabilities access to civic and economic opportunities.

Share these facts about the Declaration of Independence

You know July 4th is for fireworks and parades, but how much do you know about its history? The facts may surprise you. The Automatic Payroll Systems website shares these little-known facts about the nation's founding:

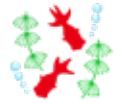

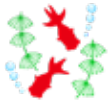

- The Declaration of Independence wasn't signed on July 4. The Second Continental Congress voted on the Declaration on July 2, 1776, and it was finalized on July 4, but it wasn't signed by a majority until Aug. 2. Because of all this, John Adams, the 2nd president of the United States, didn't recognize or celebrate July 4th as Independence Day.
- The vote was not unanimous. Richard Henry Lee proposed a bill declaring independence on June 7, 1776. Twelve of the 13 colonies voted to adopt it; New York abstained. On July 4, only nine of the colonies voted in favor of the declaration; Pennsylvania and South Carolina voted against it, New York abstained again, and Delaware was undecided.
- The declaration had a strategic purpose. The point of the formal declaration was to attract foreign allies in the fight for independence. The signers wanted to present the 13 colonies as a united front, or they felt other countries like France wouldn't take them seriously.

About the signers: Fifty-six people signed the document. Eight were born in Britain; the rest were born colonists (all were still technically British subjects at the time of the signing). One signer recanted after being captured by British forces. The last person to sign was Matthew Thornton, on Nov. 4, 1776.

In the service

One Sunday morning, a pastor was strolling through his church’s foyer between services and noticed a little girl staring up at a plaque next to the door. The plaque held the names of everyone in the community who had given their lives serving in the military, and two small American flags were mounted on the wall beside it.

“Good morning, young lady,” the pastor said.

“Pastor, what is this?” the little girl asked.

“Well, it’s a memorial to all the brave men and women who have died in the service.”

The girl nodded solemnly. Then she asked, “Pastor?”

“Yes, child?”

“Which service was it — the 8:30 or the 11 o’clock?”

Question the assumption!

For the final exam in philosophy, the professor placed a chair on his desk and told the class: “Now, using everything you’ve learned over the course of this semester, prove that this chair does not exist.”

After three hours, all the students turned their papers in, but only one of them got an A for the exam. It went to the woman who wrote: “What chair?”

What every staffer must know

The CEO addressed a group of new employees. “There are two things we take very seriously around here,” he said. “One is cleanliness. How many of you wiped your feet on the mat outside before you came in to work today?”

Almost every hand went up.

“Good,” said the boss. “That brings me to the other thing that’s important in this company: Honesty. There is no mat outside.”

All you need in the world is love and laughter. That’s all anybody needs. To have love in one hand and laughter in the other.

— August Wilson

Remember the right word

A man out in the country wanted to buy a horse. He finally found one owned by an elderly farmer. After some bargaining, they finally reached a deal, and the buyer eagerly climbed into the saddle.

“Now there’s one thing you should know,” the farmer said. “This horse only goes when you say, ‘Thank God.’ And it only stops when you say, ‘Amen.’ Remember that now.”

“Sure, sure,” the man said. “Thank God!” he commanded, and the horse walked out of the corral.

Later, the man wanted to find out how fast his new steed could run. So he said, “Thank God, thank God, thank God!” And the horse took off at a gallop.

Soon the rider noticed that the horse was headed toward the edge of a high cliff. In a panic, he realized that he couldn’t remember the word to make it stop. “Whoa! Stop! Cease! Desist!” he shouted desperately. But the horse raced forward.

Just inches from the edge of the cliff, the man finally remembered the word he’d been racking his brain for. “Amen!” he shrieked, and the horse skidded to a stop, overlooking the steep drop into the ravine below.

The man took a breath of relief. “Thank God.”

The secret life of cats

Ever wonder what your cat is thinking? Maybe it’s something like this . . .

- “I could have sworn I heard a can opener.”
- “What’s with that irritating noise humans make with their mouths?”
- “Why doesn’t the government do something about dogs?”
- “No, really, that’s a can opener.”
- “How come they make tuna-flavored cat food and chicken-flavored cat food, but no mouse-flavored cat food?”
- “This looks like a good spot for a nap.”
- “If there is a God, how can He allow neutering?”
- “Without cats, humans would never have had any reason to invent sofas.”
- “I think I’ll be finicky this time just to let them know who’s boss.”

Storytelling is the most powerful way to put ideas into the world.
