From The President

Diane McSweeney

Dear Residents,

Well July is here and the park looks terrific! Many thanks to George Belanger for his positive approach with Standards. Tom Mikulka is assuming the role for the summer months. Tom is doing a wonderful job and many thanks to him also.

Our Memorial Day ceremony honored the veterans with a great presentation by Monty Slaybaugh. The event was well attended and enjoyed by all. Thank you to all who have served.

Pinellas County has approved an additional 13.9 million dollars for 13 parks involved in the sewer project. These new monies will included domestic water lines . The sewer /water line project is projected to begin in late 2023 to 2024. This news came before a major water break on Tahitian Lane. Thanks to all that were so patient while the water was off. A boil water advisory was a precaution until the water was turned off.

Hurricane season is upon us. It is very important that our residents near and far pay attention to the warnings. If your home has an item/s that could be projectiles, it is very important they be secured. Please contact who ever you listed to watch your home to make sure everything is secure if a hurricane warning is issued.

Have a wonderful summer. Diane McSweeney

From The Office

Pat Merl

Summer is here and the rains are coming in. As with every summer season, this means the lawns and weeds will begin to grow faster and have to be mowed once a week, or every Wednesday. Weeds become a major issue with Standards, so please be sure that you stay on top this area of your grounds. As the grass gets cut, the weeds grow higher – unless you address this on a regular basis. No weeds are permitted around your home, whether they are alive or dead. Once you kill them, please be sure to remove them. Thanks, very much for paying special attention to this ongoing issue.

LAWN CLIPPING

When working on your lawn and flowers, please do not sweep any clippings into the street. These, in turn, go into the storm drains and cause drainage issues and localized flooding. Instead, please sweep or rake them up and put them in the trash.

RESIDENT TREE REQUESTS

Due to the fact Holiday Shores Park has done a lot of tree maintenance, year to date, there will be no budget set aside for resident tree requests at this time. The remaining $3,425 in the Tree Budget needs to be reserved for potential hurricane tree damage that may occur this season. Once the season is over (end of November), the board will revisit the possibility of approving resident requests for the addition of a tree on their property.

**OFFICE SERVICES**

Regular office hours continue to be from 9am to noon, Monday through Friday.

HOLIDAY SHORES PARK WEBSITE

In an effort to save cost of ink, paper, and postage, the Holiday Shores Park monthly Board Meeting Minutes will now be posted on www.holidayshorespark.com Should you want a hard copy of the minutes, you may pick one up from the office.

Bernadette Drouin

Happy Independence Day!

The park looked beautifully decorated for Memorial Day. Thank you to all who participated. Activities will keep decorations up until after the 4th of July.

We thank Monty Slaybaugh once again for always doing a nice job preparing a Memorial Day service.

Thank you to Diane Gramatikas for planning a luncheon this past month at the Red Lobster restaurant.

Please watch the A-frames for a possible ice cream social or movie night. David Gonzalez has upgraded his movie screen.

Travel is Fun Tours information is posted on the bulletin board in the clubhouse for anyone who may be interested in signing up for upcoming trips.

A reminder to use your calendar and website for activities such as pool, cards and music on Thursday afternoons.

Summer is officially here. It will cruise by quickly. I hope everyone enjoys!

Struggles and strengths

---

A man found a cocoon resting on a branch. He sat and watched for several hours as the butterfly inside struggled to push its body through the small hole at the top.

Suddenly the butterfly stopped making any progress. It seemed to be stuck.

The man decided to help the butterfly. He used a knife to snip off the cocoon. The butterfly emerged with a swollen body and small, shriveled wings.

The man sat waiting for the wings to enlarge and support the butterfly. But that didn't happen. The butterfly was unable to fly, and it crawled around with its tiny wings and swollen body until it fell to the ground and died.

The man didn't understand that the butterfly's struggle to get free of the cocoon was nature's way of forcing fluid from its body into its wings to prepare it for flying once it was out of the cocoon.

Moral: Our struggles in life develop our strengths.

Serenity

Two newlyweds lay in bed a few days after their honeymoon. The man leaned over and whispered into his wife's ear, "I love you."

She smiled, and he smiled back. Then she said, "When I'm eighty years old and I'm thinking back on my entire life, I know I will remember this moment."

A few minutes later she drifted off to sleep.

The man lay in bed, listening to the soft sound of his wife's breathing, thinking about everything they had done together—from their first date to their recent wedding. All of their choices had led to this silent moment with each other.

The husband realized that it didn't matter what they had done or where they had gone, or where they were going.

The only thing that mattered was the serenity of that very moment.

In their nature

A monk was praying in the forest. There was a clean pond nearby. After getting up from his prayers, he started drinking from the pond, and he saw a bee flailing in the water, close to drowning.

He tried to lift the bee out, but as soon as his fingers got close, it stung him. Even after being stung many times, the monk kept trying to get it out.

A man standing nearby asked the monk, "Why are you taking her out if it's stinging you over and over?"

The monk replied, "Stinging is the nature of a bee. It's my nature to save a life."

Remember the right word

A man out in the country wanted to buy a horse. He finally found one owned by an elderly farmer. After some bargaining, they finally reached a deal, and the buyer eagerly climbed into the saddle.

“Now there’s one thing you should know,” the farmer said. “This horse only goes when you say, ‘Thank God.’ And it only stops when you say, ‘Amen.’ Remember that now.”

“Sure, sure,” the man said. “Thank God!” he commanded, and the horse walked out of the corral.

Later, the man wanted to find out how fast his new steed could run. So he said, “Thank God, thank God, thank God!” And the horse took off at a gallop.

Soon the rider noticed that the horse was headed toward the edge of a high cliff. In a panic, he realized that he couldn’t remember the word to make it stop. “Whoa! Stop! Cease! Desist!” he shouted desperately. But the horse raced forward.

Just inches from the edge of the cliff, the man finally remembered the word he’d been racking his brain for. “Amen!” he shrieked, and the horse skidded to a stop, overlooking the steep drop into the ravine below.

The man took a breath of relief. “Thank God.”

The secret life of cats

Ever wonder what your cat is thinking? Maybe it’s something like this . . .

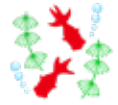

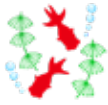

- “I could have sworn I heard a can opener.”
- “What’s with that irritating noise humans make with their mouths?”
- “Why doesn’t the government do something about dogs?”
- “No, really, that’s a can opener.”
- “How come they make tuna-flavored cat food and chicken-flavored cat food, but no mouse-flavored cat food?”
- “This looks like a good spot for a nap.”
- “If there is a God, how can He allow neutering?”
- “Without cats, humans would never have had any reason to invent sofas.”
- “I think I’ll be finicky this time just to let them know who’s boss.”

Storytelling is the most powerful way to put ideas into the world.
