Fairway Social Committee (FSC)

Sherry Moore

As the summer continues and the temperature rises, we have a month of Social Fun in our beautiful cool Clubhouse.

The month begins with a 4th of July Party hosted by Brenda and Steve Ford. Next will bring you one of our great Summer Fun Parties hosted by Susan Bagg. Then of course our monthly Koffee Klatch, to sweeten up the month, hosted by Sharon Graham and Melinda Baker.

During the past few weeks, I have been appealing to the public for volunteers in various areas, and as per Fairway tradition we are very pleased to advise the following.

Charlotte Franco has agreed to take the position as District #7 Alternate Representative, and has already secured a date for the 2023 District Party. Christine Nuttall has stepped up to take the position of Inventory Resource Person. Debra Dragon has come forward to take charge of decorating our Clubhouse for the Christmas season, she is hoping for lots of help. Mary Blackmon has agreed to make tickets for events, and Ed Watzel has once again stepped forward with the Monday's Game Night. Drop by and see what he has in store.

Unfortunately, due to unforeseeable circumstance the Lead for the Labor Day Party has had to withdraw. Therefor we are looking for someone to take on the position of Lead on this event. If you can help, please contact me at sherrymoore94@gmail.com

Feel free to contact me at any time. I may not know the answer to your question; however, I will find one. Thanks again for all you do, support is crucial to having such a vibrant community to live in.

Cheers and Stay Safe

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. This manual is available from the office or may be downloaded from the FVRA website (Fairway Info; Home Buyers information, ARC revised P and P). Before you begin your project, please obtain a home replacement or Modification Request form from the FVRA office or download it (page 12, Exhibit D, in the manual) and return the completed form to the FVRA office. The ARC, which meets most Mondays in the Clubhouse, looks forward to working with you in replacing your home or planning the changes to the outside of your home.

Struggles and strengths

A man found a cocoon resting on a branch. He sat and watched for several hours as the butterfly inside struggled to push its body through the small hole at the top.

Suddenly the butterfly stopped making any progress. It seemed to be stuck.

The man decided to help the butterfly. He used a knife to snip off the cocoon. The butterfly emerged with a swollen body and small, shriveled wings.

The man sat waiting for the wings to enlarge and support the butterfly. But that didn't happen. The butterfly was unable to fly, and it crawled around with its tiny wings and swollen body until it fell to the ground and died.

The man didn't understand that the butterfly's struggle to get free of the cocoon was nature's way of forcing fluid from its body into its wings to prepare it for flying once it was out of the cocoon.

Moral: Our struggles in life develop our strengths.

Serenity

Two newlyweds lay in bed a few days after their honeymoon. The man leaned over and whispered into his wife's ear, "I love you."

She smiled, and he smiled back. Then she said, "When I'm eighty years old and I'm thinking back on my entire life, I know I will remember this moment."

A few minutes later she drifted off to sleep.

The man lay in bed, listening to the soft sound of his wife's breathing, thinking about everything they had done together—from their first date to their recent wedding. All of their choices had led to this silent moment with each other.

The husband realized that it didn't matter what they had done or where they had gone, or where they were going.

The only thing that mattered was the serenity of that very moment.

In their nature

A monk was praying in the forest. There was a clean pond nearby. After getting up from his prayers, he started drinking from the pond, and he saw a bee flailing in the water, close to drowning.

He tried to lift the bee out, but as soon as his fingers got close, it stung him. Even after being stung many times, the monk kept trying to get it out.

A man standing nearby asked the monk, "Why are you taking her out if it's stinging you over and over?"

The monk replied, "Stinging is the nature of a bee. It's my nature to save a life."

In the service

One Sunday morning, a pastor was strolling through his church’s foyer between services and noticed a little girl staring up at a plaque next to the door. The plaque held the names of everyone in the community who had given their lives serving in the military, and two small American flags were mounted on the wall beside it.

“Good morning, young lady,” the pastor said.

“Pastor, what is this?” the little girl asked.

“Well, it’s a memorial to all the brave men and women who have died in the service.”

The girl nodded solemnly. Then she asked, “Pastor?”

“Yes, child?”

“Which service was it — the 8:30 or the 11 o’clock?”

Question the assumption!

For the final exam in philosophy, the professor placed a chair on his desk and told the class: “Now, using everything you’ve learned over the course of this semester, prove that this chair does not exist.”

After three hours, all the students turned their papers in, but only one of them got an A for the exam. It went to the woman who wrote: “What chair?”

What every staffer must know

The CEO addressed a group of new employees. “There are two things we take very seriously around here,” he said. “One is cleanliness. How many of you wiped your feet on the mat outside before you came in to work today?”

Almost every hand went up.

“Good,” said the boss. “That brings me to the other thing that’s important in this company: Honesty. There is no mat outside.”

All you need in the world is love and laughter. That’s all anybody needs. To have love in one hand and laughter in the other.

— August Wilson

JULY DAYS

Independence Day, July 4. Celebrating the U.S. Declaration of Independence and the founding of the United States of America.

Simplicity Day, July 12. Choosing to live a life of simplicity is not about choosing to live in poverty; it's about living in balance.

Bastille Day, July 14. The anniversary of the storming of the Bastille on July 14th, 1789, a major event of the French Revolution.

World Snake Day, July 16. There are about 3,400 known species of snakes living in almost every region in the world playing a vital role in maintaining the well-being, sustainability, and biodiversity of various ecosystems.

National Disability Independence Day, July 26. Commemorating the signing of the Americans with Disabilities Act in 1990, assuring Americans with disabilities access to civic and economic opportunities.

Share these facts about the Declaration of Independence

You know July 4th is for fireworks and parades, but how much do you know about its history? The facts may surprise you. The Automatic Payroll Systems website shares these little-known facts about the nation's founding:

- The Declaration of Independence wasn't signed on July 4. The Second Continental Congress voted on the Declaration on July 2, 1776, and it was finalized on July 4, but it wasn't signed by a majority until Aug. 2. Because of all this, John Adams, the 2nd president of the United States, didn't recognize or celebrate July 4th as Independence Day.
- The vote was not unanimous. Richard Henry Lee proposed a bill declaring independence on June 7, 1776. Twelve of the 13 colonies voted to adopt it; New York abstained. On July 4, only nine of the colonies voted in favor of the declaration; Pennsylvania and South Carolina voted against it, New York abstained again, and Delaware was undecided.
- The declaration had a strategic purpose. The point of the formal declaration was to attract foreign allies in the fight for independence. The signers wanted to present the 13 colonies as a united front, or they felt other countries like France wouldn't take them seriously.

About the signers: Fifty-six people signed the document. Eight were born in Britain; the rest were born colonists (all were still technically British subjects at the time of the signing). One signer recanted after being captured by British forces. The last person to sign was Matthew Thornton, on Nov. 4, 1776.
