BETTER HEARING STARTS HERE

Area 51

Late one afternoon, Air Force officers at Area 51 were very surprised to see a small Cessna landing at their “secret” base. They immediately impounded the aircraft and hauled the pilot into an interrogation room.

The pilot told them that he’d taken off from Las Vegas, got lost, and spotted the base just as he was about to run out of fuel. The Air Force started a full background check on the pilot and held him overnight during the investigation.

By the next day, they were finally convinced that the pilot really was lost and wasn’t a spy. They gassed up his airplane, gave him a terrifying “you-did-not-see-a-base” briefing, complete with threats of spending the rest of his life in prison, gave him directions to Las Vegas, and sent him on his way.

The day after that, to the total disbelief of everyone at the base, the same Cessna showed up again. Once again, MPs surrounded the plane on the ground, only to find this time that there were two people in the plane.

The same man jumped out and said, “Do anything you want to me, but you have to tell my wife where I was last night!”

Language is funny

A linguistics professor was lecturing his class one day. “In English,” he said, “a double negative forms a positive. In some languages, though, a double negative is still a negative. However, there is no language wherein a double positive can form a negative.” A loud voice from the back of the room piped up, “Yeah, right.”

Hall of mirrors

Once a dog sneaked into a museum filled with mirrors. Seeing his reflection everywhere, he froze at the sight of a whole pack of dogs surrounding him from all sides.

The dog bared his teeth and barked. All the reflections responded to it in the same way. Frightened, the dog barked frantically; the dog’s reflections imitated the dog and increased it many times. The dog barked even harder, but the echo was magnified. The dog ran from one side of the museum to another while his reflections followed him, snapping at his heels.

The following day, the museum guard found the miserable dog, surrounded by thousands of reflections of helpless dogs. There was nobody to harm the dog. He had exhausted himself by fighting with his own reflections.

Charity case

The president of a local charity realized that he had never received a donation from the town's most successful lawyer. The president gave him a call. "Our research shows that out of a yearly income of more than $10 million, you give not a penny to charity. Wouldn't you like to give back to the community in some way?"

The lawyer thought this over for a moment and replied, "First, did your research also show that my mother is dying after a long illness, and has medical bills that are several times her annual income?"

Embarrassed, the president mumbled, "Uh, no."

"Second, that my brother, a disabled veteran, is blind and confined to a wheelchair?"

The stricken president began to stammer an apology, but the lawyer interrupted him.

"Third, that my sister's husband died in a traffic accident, leaving her penniless with three children?"

The humiliated president, completely beaten, said simply, "I'm sorry, I had no idea—"

The lawyer cut him off once again. "And I don't give any money to them, so why should I give any to you?"

Warning light

During a trial that involved a car accident at a train track, an engineer insisted that he had given the driver ample warning by waving his lantern back and forth for nearly a minute. He even stood and convincingly demonstrated for a full minute how he'd done it. The court believed his story, and the suit was dismissed.

"Congratulations," the lawyer said to the engineer when it was over. "You did superbly under cross-examination."

"Thanks," he said. "But the plaintiff's lawyer sure had me worried."

"Why is that?"

"I was afraid he was going to ask if the lantern was lit!"

The essence of teaching

A retired teacher ran into a former student in a coffee shop one day. “It’s good to see you!” he said. “What have you done with your life?”

“I’m a teacher,” the young man said.

“Wonderful! What made you decide to become a teacher?”

The man smiled. “Actually, you inspired me.”

“Really? How did I do that?”

The young man told him a story:

“One day, a friend of mine came to class with a nice new watch, and I decided I wanted it, so I stole it. When my friend noticed his watch was missing, he immediately complained to our teacher — you.

“You addressed the class and said, ‘This student’s watch was stolen during class today. Whoever stole it, please return it.’ But I didn’t give it back because I was scared.

“Then you closed the door and told us all to stand up and form a circle. ‘I am going to search your pockets one by one until I find the watch,’ you said. But you told us to close our eyes while you searched. You went from pocket to pocket, and when you got to my pocket, you found the watch and took it. You kept searching everyone’s pockets, and when you were done you said, ‘Open your eyes. We have the watch.’”

The young man continued, “You didn’t tell on me, and you never said who stole the watch. You never said anything, or scolded me, or took me aside to give me a lecture.

“I received your message clearly. That day I decided not to become a thief or a bad person. Thanks to you, I understood what a real teacher does.”

He finished, “Do you remember that, sir?”

The old teacher nodded. “Yes, I remember that day. I just didn’t remember that it was you who stole the watch.”

“Why not?”

The teacher said, “Because I also closed my eyes while looking. That is the essence of teaching. If you have to humiliate someone, you don’t know how to teach

Learn to tolerate the pain

During a long winter many animals were dying because of the cold. A group of porcupines decided to huddle together to keep each other warm. Unfortunately, their quills kept wounding their closest companions, so they split up.

Soon they began to die from the cold. They realized they had to make a choice: Either accept their companions’ quills or choose death. Wisely, they decided to come back together. They learned to live with the few wounds caused by their close relationship to receive the warmth of their togetherness. This way, they were able to survive.
