CLEARWATER CASCADE CHRONICLE AUGUST, 2022 C

FROM THE PRESIDENT

By Mark Vetter

Balancing Our Progress

Hello Friends,
August, 2022

We hope that you are having a delightful summer. Whatever your summer activities, I wish you all the best that life can bring.

I am pleased to report that we've made an extra payment towards paying off our mortgage. This was recommended by our Finance Committee and approved earlier this year by your Board. While the mortgage does not get re-amortized, it will be beneficial in paying off the mortgage sooner. We also received our updated Reserve Study which will help guide us and future Boards in maintaining the physical and aesthetic needs of our park.

Many of you like myself, love the beauty throughout Clearwater Cascade, from the tree lined entrance to the rock and water feature that greets us as we arrive along with our beautiful pools and common areas. These were the vision of previous Boards and residents who paid the bills but also wanted to make our park a most desirable place to live and enjoy life. We must continue to build on what has previously been done to update and improve our community for both our current and future residents.

These are exciting times. We look forward to our future and embrace those tasks that lay before us for the betterment of Clearwater Cascade. Have an awesome August!

MANAGER'S MESSAGE

By Bobbi Gumm CMCA

Hurricane Season – In the event of a hurricane, the office has put together some information for our residents. In addition to preparing your home in the event of a hurricane, we have attached the shelters in our area and shelters that allow pets. We also have a Special Needs and Pet Registration forms for those that may need it. Please stop by the office to pick one up or you may request to have one emailed to you.

Homes for Sale – We have had many of homes bought and sold this past year. Please remember to let the office know if you plan to sell your home in Clearwater Cascade and provide the office with a flyer describing your home, price and contact information. We receive calls and walk-ins from potential buyers all the time!

Streetlights – If you notice a streetlight out, you can report it directly to Duke Energy on their website or let the office know and we will be happy to report it for you.

Emergency Contact Information – It’s important that we have up to date contact information on our residents. If you have not turned in an Emergency Contact form to the office, please stop by and we will give you the form.

OneSource – Did you know you can get your account information, forms, meeting minutes and the HOA documents online? If you have not signed up for OneSource, please contact the office and we will provide you with the instructions to do so.

Violations – If you receive a violation on your home, please remember to let the office know when the work has been completed. Also, if you need more time than the date it’s due to be completed, please let the office know so we can put those comments on the violation so you do not get a second letter. For seasonal residents, please know you are still responsible for your home even if you are away. Some of the most common issues are weeds and pressure washing.

That is all I have for this month!

FROM THE EDITOR

By Donna Collins

There are two ladies in our park who go about working to submit columns for the Chronicle. They both deserve a HUGE thank you for their work.

First, we have Marilyn Jones. She has been submitting individuals and couples who are celebrating birthdays and anniversaries. As long as I have been in the park (since 2011), she has had a sign-up sheet in the clubhouse or library where people can write this information for submission. The pandemic and the growth of members who are on the Clearwater Cascade Facebook page, the numbers have dwindled. Therefore, Marilyn and myself have come to the conclusion that this will be the final issue for the Birthdays and Anniversaries column. Thank you, Marilyn, for all you have done to keep this column going.

Next, we have Doreen Fournier. On behalf of the Social Club, Doreen has been sending Get Well, Thinking of You, and Sympathy cards to people and families who have had need of some kind words. This has been a “word-of-mouth” situation, that relies on Doreen being notified of the need for these cards. So, if you hear of anyone who could use a kind word for any of these situations, please let Doreen know - cosmodustmop@gmail.com, 727-385-2712, Unit 61.

HOWEVER, Doreen has decided to retire after five years of doing this column. Her last submission will be in the December, 2022 issue. Thank you so very much for doing this job for the Social Club, Doreen.

If we wish to continue with this program, a new coordinator is needed. If you think this might be something you might like to do, please talk to Doreen and submit your name and contact information to April Loomis, Social Club President.

Dog Walkers’ Reminder

Do you like walking barefoot on the road during the summer? I’m sure you don’t, hopping from one foot to the other. Please, remember that if it is too hot for you to walk on the pavement in your bare feet, it is too hot for your pets as well. Let them walk on the edge of the grass and PICK up after them. Your dogs will love you and your neighbors will thank you.

BEAUTIFICATION

By Donna Miller

A beautiful August to all of our neighbors, whether near or far! Last month I mentioned the Heliconia beds in front of the office - that plan was to combine the plants into one bed and put something new in the other one. However, GOOD NEWS! New Heliconia plants have finally become available, purchased and planted in both beds. Hopefully, these plants will not be trampled when the new windows are finally completed.

A huge thank you to Neil Pickrem who has done a wonderful job weeding and mulching the garden at the corner of 66th Street. This is a hot, dirty job and I greatly appreciate it - Thanks Neil !!!

At the time of this writing, we have been having some of our rainy season and the park is greening very nicely. We are hopeful that the rains will continue! We pray that all of you are having a beautiful summer too!

CROSS BAYOU

By Sandy Draper

Our committee is continuing to go through the obstacles of getting the Bayou problem corrected.

Our committee members spoke on the phone, decided to contact the Pinellas County Engineers Department due to the fact that part of the canal is in the care of the county and we've discovered they have plans for part of the canal and until we speak to them, we will hold off on contacting any other companies for proposals. They can direct us into what we need to do.

SOCIAL CLUB

By April Loomis, President

“Summertime, and the living is easy!” So goes the song, and it sure fits the CWC lifestyle. So, while you are basking in the sun or relaxing in air conditioning, think up an act you can perform in the Gong Show on Saturday, August 6th at 6 PM. In the clubhouse. Bonnie Barnes is the host of the show, so contact her if you have a skit, song or other talent you want to share. If you just want to watch, that’s okay too. We are asking everyone to bring a dessert to share during the social hour after the show.

Looking forward, we are planning a picnic dinner for September to round out the summer events. Details will be posted.

Many thanks to the summer events committee for all their ideas and hard work. What a blessing to have such dedicated volunteers.

Just to pique your curiosity, a theme has been chosen for next year’s variety show and plans are in place for an entertaining evening. Watch the Chronicle for more information on when we will hold the first meeting for anyone interested in taking part.

Hope everyone stays safe, happy and healthy! Enjoy the summer!

LIBRARY NEWS

By Ann Vetter

I hope you have found some great books to enjoy this summer. We are waiting on the work that is being done at the library to finish, so in the meantime we have set up both the cart and a small bookcase to make a small selection of books available. We are looking forward to being able to put the library back together. It should be sometime this fall.

VOLUNTEERS

By Jane Boucher

It is so nice to be back home after a two-month adventure visiting family and friends in Massachusetts and our family in North Carolina. Our CWC Social Club has kept our community busy with activities and we are looking forward to the CWC GONG Show August 6th at 6:00 PM in our Clubhouse.

Bunco is still happening every Thursday at 6:00 PM in our Clubhouse. Love the Farmers Market happening on the 2nd Tuesday of each month in our Clubhouse from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM. Marilyn keeps our Water Aerobics going year-round Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, during the summer months from 9:30 AM to 10:30 AM.

If anyone is interested in Bocce or Horseshoes, there are sign-up sheets in the Clubhouse on the bulletin board. We'd like to reactivate our Veterans group, so if anyone is interested, put your name, phone number or email on the sheet in the Clubhouse.

One of the goals of our Veterans group is to honor one of our Veterans each month, so if you are a Veteran, or know of someone in our community who is a Veteran, please send their name and contact information to Jane Boucher, email: janeboucher29@gmail.com, or add their name to the sheet in the Clubhouse. We welcome your ideas and suggestions for what our Veterans group could do for our community. When we first moved here one year ago, we were fortunate to have friends in this community who steered us to the Bay Pines VA Medical Center in Seminole. It's a huge complex and we've had exceptional service and we'd like to help our fellow Veterans navigate through the system. We also plan to help display the USA flag in CWC on the following holidays:

Jack	Bus driver for Royal Limousine Service
Detective Rathburn	In charge of the investigation

“As you may or may not recall readers, we have had quite a day at the Cascade casino and Hotel. Autumn has been found murdered and in a closet in the luggage storage room. Jack has not yet been located, Stanley is missing, Agnes' suitcase has an unidentified stain on it and last but not least, Marian has revealed that Fernando is her stepbrother and has paid for this trip for him. What on earth could possibly happen next? Ahh, here is the police detective wanting to address the group.”

“Ladies and gentlemen. If I could have your attention, please? I am Detective William Rathburn and I realize that this is a most difficult and stressing situation. However, it is necessary for everyone to remain in this room as we interview each of you individually.” There is a groan of distress as Detective Rathburn continues, “We realize the inconvenience but this is usual procedure. If anyone needs to leave the room for certain reasons, then an officer will accompany you. He looks around the room puzzled, “wasn't there another gentleman here a while ago?”

“Yes,” answers Fernando, “Stanley Macintyre is not here.”

“Does anyone know where he is or might have gone?” There were denials all around. Detective Rathburn went over to talk with the officers and Officer Mason left the room. “Now would Ms. Katherine Williamson please go with Detective Kowalski and Ms. Agnes Summerville please come me. Officer Darrell Barkley, Officer Janice Mason, when she returns, and Officer Melissa O'Brien will stay here with the rest of you.”

Agnes and Katherine nervously leave with the detectives and the others seemed to huddle closer together.

"This is certainly a tragic situation. There is much speculation about motive and suspects and secrets. Katherine is upset because Agnes invited Autumn.

Autumn has recognized someone. I wonder who?

Stanley is upset because Autumn snubbed him and was rude to him.

Jack seems to be missing. Where, if at all, does he fit in?

Fernando is worried about his roommate, Stanley having disappeared. He is glad that Marian has acknowledged him as her stepbrother but is still feeling inferior with having the handyman job and being Mexican.

Marian is nervous about the possibility that Julie may be her and Johnny's daughter and how will people react if the truth comes out.

What a tangled web this has become. Will any of it become untangled?"

Julie approaches Marian and quietly asks her if they could talk away from the others. "Certainly, Julie, I was thinking the same," answers Marian. They move to a quieter part of the room, sitting across from each other. Julie hesitates and then asks Marian if they can talk about some of the coincidences that seem to be surrounding them.

"I would very much like to do that, says Marian. "I think a good way to start is for me to tell you, my story." She proceeds to tell Julie about Johnny and her and their previous relationship which resulted in her having a baby girl when she was 17, that only her parents, aunt and uncle, and the high school where she spent her senior year knew anything about. Julie listens intently, taking in all this information and gasps when she hears that Marian's baby was born in Fort Wayne on the same day and year of Julie's birth. Marian explained that her parents had worked with a private adoption agency and that an arrangement was made with a couple who had been wanting a baby for a very long time and lived in Fort Wayne.

"Julie," asks Marian seriously, "do you want to know about your birth parents? Are your adoptive parents comfortable with you finding out? They must fear losing you if you did know."

Julie was silent for several long seconds. Finally, she looked at Marian, "my parents have no reason to fear losing me. They raised me well, they love me as I do them. I am the person I am today because of them. However, I am curious about the two people whose genes created the biological person I am. I would like to get to know them as people whose love created me. With their blessing and yours and Johnny's, I would like to pursue the path to finding out the truth. Would you and Johnny consider having your DNA tested along with mine?"

Marian immediately burst into tears which prompted Johnny to rush to her side. "Julie would like us to have a DNA test along with her to see if we are her biological parents.! What do you think about that, Johnny?"

With no hesitation, Johnny agreed that it would be an excellent idea, if her adoptive parents were also in agreement.

At that moment Detective Rathburn returned with Agnes and Katherine and requested Rosie Clark and Fernando Ramirez come with him and Detective Kowalski to be interviewed.
