Social Committee Tidbits

Mary Gilmore

Hope everyone in our Boca Ciega family had an enjoyable Canada Day or Independence Day. The all year rounders got together at Roosterfish Grill. Our server, Mike, started us off by taking our drink order and then he proceeded to refer to each of us by the name of our drink like Raspberry, Margarita and Heineken. Can you guess who Heineken was? Roosterfish Grill offers a variety of dishes on their menu from seafood to pasta to spareribs. We all enjoyed our dinner and each others' company. We did raise our glasses for a toast to our independence from Great Britain. The neighbors who attended were Kathleen, Shirley, Virginia, Betty, Norine, Bob, Ervin, Marlene and me.

For a while this summer, our area did not receive any rain. Sections of our lawns were turning brown and getting crunchy. Now, we have received measurable amounts of rain and our lawns are green again. Our new landscape service, Lawns and Palms, is doing a good job. The men start their day early in the morning trying to avoid the heat and humidity later in the day.

Near the end of our recent season, Susan told me that the area in the backyards of the homes on the south side of Michigan Avenue, where our men worked so hard, should now be referred to as Boca Ciega's meadow. The meadows that I see in Maine have beautiful wild flowers like Queen Anne's lace, marsh mallows, black eyed susans and lupine. I walked the meadow recently from the clubhouse to Marlene and Ervin's backyard. I was looking for a wild flower and saw one, a Florida petunia, like the ones that I have in my side garden. Now that the grass has filled in, the meadow is being mowed. Homes adjacent to the meadow have gained perhaps 10 to 12 feet of additional lawn. Since it has started raining again, the meadow is absorbing the heavy downpours in a matter of hours. That's good news.

One big reason why our park chose to plant foxtail palms is that these palms take care of themselves. However, when one of their fronds turn brown and drop off with a piece of the "bark", it has to be picked up and put in the dumpster. Young foxtails have short fronds and older foxtails have rather substantial fronds in length and weight. Bob picks up these fronds and disposes of them. Thanks Bob for doing what you do.

Our hurricane season extends from June 1st. to November 30th. The active period seems to be from mid-August through to late October and the "official peak of the hurricane season is September 10th." We need to be able to put our awnings down. Make sure that you have a sufficient number of wing nuts and that the plate, where the wing nut is attached, is secure on your home. One evening, as we were playing dominoes at the clubhouse, we heard a banging noise. At first we didn't know what was making the noise. It was discovered that one of the clubhouse shutters had been put down and not secured. Virginia asked Eric if he had a drill that worked on cement and would he put a plate on to fix the banging shutter. He offered to do the job. He did some shopping at the mobile home store and then he and Sheila secured the shutter properly. Thanks for the help, Eric and Sheila.

I've included some more pictures from around our park. I know that some of you were interested in seeing the century plant in Joe and Liz's side yard actually bloom. I must tell you that we had a heavy rain and wind event that broke off the stalk just below the branches that had all of the buds. Howard and I checked out the fallen stalk and found it to be quite heavy. Howard, Terry, Shirley and I each took a small branch. We wanted to see if the buds would open. Shirley told me that hers bloomed, but they didn't look like flowers. Mine finally bloomed and I understand what Shirley was saying. The bloom was made up of what looked like a bunch of pistils with no petals.

June's impatiens that are growing out of a crack in the cement are still thriving. Pete and Denise have a crown of thorns bush, but instead of the usual red flowers, these flowers are yellow. Betty's bushes in front of her home are in full bloom and beautiful. Mark and Mabel have found the plants that thrive in our Florida heat and humidity and only Mother Nature waters them while they are away.

I found a short simple prayer as I was going through the drawers of my desk and decided that I would like to share it with you. It touched my heart.

Hope all is well with you folks up north. If you have a story to tell about something you did this summer, please send it to Paula and Darryl to put in our newsletter.

SPRING-CLEANING COOKIES

Doris's family call these cookies Clean Out the Fridge Cookies. Doris puts just one cookie sheet in her oven at a time. Depending on what she has left over to use, the cookies can taste different each time

Hands-on: 30 minutes
Total: 45 minutes
Makes 30 cookies

“Get creative with these cookies that use leftover chips or pretzels, chocolate, whatever dried fruit you have on hand, and that last handful of mixed party nuts. You might just create a new signature snack.”

1 cup flour	1 cup chocolate chips (dark, semisweet, milk, white, or a mix)
½ tsp Baking powder	½ cup regular rolled oats
½ tsp baking soda	½ cup chopped nuts (pecans, almonds, peanuts, walnuts, hazelnuts, or a mix)
¼ tsp salt	1/3 cup mini pretzels or potato chips, coarsest crushed
¼ cup butter, softened	¼ cup sweetened coconut flakes
¼ cup vegetable shortening	¼ cup small dried fruit (such as raisins, dried cranberries, or chopped dried apricots or figs)
½ cup white sugar
½ cup packed light brown sugar
1 egg
1 tbsp milk
1 tsp vanilla extract

1. Position racks in upland lower thirds of oven; preheat to 375F degrees, line 2 baking sheets with parchment paper.
2. Stir together flour, baking powder, baking soda, and salt in a medium bowl. In a large bowl, beat together butter, shortening, and sugars with an electric mixer until light and fluffy, about 2 minutes. Beat in egg. Stir in milk and vanilla. Stir in flour mixture until just combined. Stir in chocolate chips, oats, nuts, pretzels, coconut, and dried fruit. Drop rounded tablespoonfuls of dough, 2 inches apart, onto prepared baking pans.
3. Bake cookies until golden brown, 11 to 12 minutes, rotating pans halfway through. Cool slightly on baking sheets, about 2 minutes, before transferring to wire racks to cool completely

Area 51

Late one afternoon, Air Force officers at Area 51 were very surprised to see a small Cessna landing at their “secret” base. They immediately impounded the aircraft and hauled the pilot into an interrogation room.

The pilot told them that he’d taken off from Las Vegas, got lost, and spotted the base just as he was about to run out of fuel. The Air Force started a full background check on the pilot and held him overnight during the investigation.

By the next day, they were finally convinced that the pilot really was lost and wasn’t a spy. They gassed up his airplane, gave him a terrifying “you-did-not-see-a-base” briefing, complete with threats of spending the rest of his life in prison, gave him directions to Las Vegas, and sent him on his way.

The day after that, to the total disbelief of everyone at the base, the same Cessna showed up again. Once again, MPs surrounded the plane on the ground, only to find this time that there were two people in the plane.

The same man jumped out and said, “Do anything you want to me, but you have to tell my wife where I was last night!”

Language is funny

A linguistics professor was lecturing his class one day. “In English,” he said, “a double negative forms a positive. In some languages, though, a double negative is still a negative. However, there is no language wherein a double positive can form a negative.” A loud voice from the back of the room piped up, “Yeah, right.”

Hall of mirrors

Once a dog sneaked into a museum filled with mirrors. Seeing his reflection everywhere, he froze at the sight of a whole pack of dogs surrounding him from all sides.

The dog bared his teeth and barked. All the reflections responded to it in the same way. Frightened, the dog barked frantically; the dog’s reflections imitated the dog and increased it many times. The dog barked even harder, but the echo was magnified. The dog ran from one side of the museum to another while his reflections followed him, snapping at his heels.

The following day, the museum guard found the miserable dog, surrounded by thousands of reflections of helpless dogs. There was nobody to harm the dog. He had exhausted himself by fighting with his own reflections.

The essence of teaching

A retired teacher ran into a former student in a coffee shop one day. “It’s good to see you!” he said. “What have you done with your life?”

“I’m a teacher,” the young man said.

“Wonderful! What made you decide to become a teacher?”

The man smiled. “Actually, you inspired me.”

“Really? How did I do that?”

The young man told him a story:

“One day, a friend of mine came to class with a nice new watch, and I decided I wanted it, so I stole it. When my friend noticed his watch was missing, he immediately complained to our teacher — you.

“You addressed the class and said, ‘This student’s watch was stolen during class today. Whoever stole it, please return it.’ But I didn’t give it back because I was scared.

“Then you closed the door and told us all to stand up and form a circle. ‘I am going to search your pockets one by one until I find the watch,’ you said. But you told us to close our eyes while you searched. You went from pocket to pocket, and when you got to my pocket, you found the watch and took it. You kept searching everyone’s pockets, and when you were done you said, ‘Open your eyes. We have the watch.’”

The young man continued, “You didn’t tell on me, and you never said who stole the watch. You never said anything, or scolded me, or took me aside to give me a lecture.

“I received your message clearly. That day I decided not to become a thief or a bad person. Thanks to you, I understood what a real teacher does.”

He finished, “Do you remember that, sir?”

The old teacher nodded. “Yes, I remember that day. I just didn’t remember that it was you who stole the watch.”

“Why not?”

The teacher said, “Because I also closed my eyes while looking. That is the essence of teaching. If you have to humiliate someone, you don’t know how to teach

Learn to tolerate the pain

During a long winter many animals were dying because of the cold. A group of porcupines decided to huddle together to keep each other warm. Unfortunately, their quills kept wounding their closest companions, so they split up.

Soon they began to die from the cold. They realized they had to make a choice: Either accept their companions’ quills or choose death. Wisely, they decided to come back together. They learned to live with the few wounds caused by their close relationship to receive the warmth of their togetherness. This way, they were able to survive.
