Co-Op Update

By Roz La Rocco

With us taking a break for June but having a regular Board meeting in July not much has been happening. With the shutting down of the committees until the fall, there isn't much to report. I'm hoping by the time this media guide comes out, we will have heard something on the ADA Pool chair being installed. I'm not holding my breath!

We are still waiting on the IITS lease to be finalized with Ralph and his lawyer. There shouldn't be any major issues with that, so I expect it to go forward. I know not everyone will agree but it is convenient to have a Real Estate office in the community. I know when my husband and I looked at other parks it was hard because some had books on homes for sale but you had to contact whatever Real Estate was listed. So you know you weren't seeing any houses that day. We had come from out of state, we were here for only a short amount of time. We pulled into the office and there was an agent, Johnny Mike Bosko, who took us out that day to show us some homes and we came back another day to see more. I think it's great they have someone there 7 days a week. Also, having them here, helped me to get another home for my sister. I really do believe it's a good thing. They can help you buy or sell your home and get top dollar for it.

I went for the first time to the Food Shopping program that comes here with fresh vegetables, fruits and other grocery items. I was really impressed!! I want to give a "shout out" to Denise Donohue and her Caring Hearts for arranging this. Thank you so much for providing this to the whole community.

Try to stay cool and hydrated in this wonderful hot weather!! Until next month...

HOA-BOD

By Linda LaVine

While summer tends to be a "down" time in our community, the Board has several items of interest to pass on to everyone. First is some good, and bad, news in regards to Board members. First, the Board was pleased to name Cyndy Oxnard to the Director's position vacated earlier this year by Tinker May.

Cyndy is a fairly recent transplant to Florida from Connecticut and is jumping into involvement in our community "feet first"! She is currently being tutored to become a back-up caller for bingo, a position that everyone is delighted to see filled.

On a less happy note, the board has accepted the resignations of Ken Hopkins and Lou Kluzynski. We wish Lou all the best in his struggles with a bad back (at our age, many of us certainly know how problematic that can be!) and thank them both their contributions to the Board and our community as a whole.

From all reports, the Pre-Father's Day Breakfast was a rousing success with over a hundred residents in attendance. In fact, it was such a success that you should be on the look-out for information regarding a follow up event in the near future!

And if it's Paradise Island Canteen food you crave, remember that Bingo is ongoing every Thursday evening with the kitchen being open for service between 4 and 6 p.m. If you aren't a bingo player you are still welcome to come for a quick meal! We are trying to throw in some specials to peak your taste buds but remember, we only prepare a limited number of any special item so if you see a special advertised, get there early so you won't be disappointed!

Plans, and a specific date, for a Hurricane Preparedness Seminar are awaiting word from the Largo Fire Department before being finalized.

By now you should all have Saturday, November 12th marked on your calendar for the Indoor Community Yard Sale. Sale of tables is ongoing...$15 each, see Ken Hopkins, 727-303-3417 to secure one or more! And yes, even though Ken is no longer on the board he has graciously agreed to continue heading up this event! This event will be open, and advertised, to the public but only our residents will have access to selling.

Finally, our summer rains seem to be making their appearance regularly these days so don't forget to turn off your sprinklers when Mother Nature has taken care of the watering chores!

Communication Reminders

By HOA Alliance Committee

The HOA Alliance Committee is working to enhance communication across our wonderful community. We have numerous methods of providing information and want to make sure residents are aware of ALL of the resources that are available to them.

First and foremost all residents should be familiar with the Paradies Island rules and regulations. If you do not have your copy please contact the Co-op office to obtain a copy, 727-535-2172.

The current communication structure includes the following:

- The Monthly Media booklet issued to each resident on the first of the month.
- Spectrum Channel 732 streaming information throughout the day.
- One Call System which includes automated phone and email messages. You can sign up for One Call by contacting the office, 727-535-2172 or email: piadmin@paradiseislandlargo.com
- Paradise Island Main Website. www.paradiseislandlargo.com
- Paradise Island Largo Facebook Page
- PIFAN, Facebook Page
- Clubhouse Bulletin Board

We hope you will check into these resources to help you remain informed about all the happenings in our community. If anyone needs assistance to connect to any of these resources contact the Co-op office at 727- 535-2172. The HOA Alliance committee will strive to identify additional resources and will always appreciate any ideas you may have.

Social Committee Update

By Diane Billman

Is this summer flying by or what? Here it is already August and I hope everyone is staying cool in this hot summer we have already had so far. This is when we envy our northern residents who are enjoying some much cooler temps than we are.

The June Movie Night, Ruthless People, was enjoyed by a few residents as we were competing against The Stanley Cup game. Unfortunately, our Tampa Bay Lightning didn't win for the 3rd year in a row. As of this writing our July 22nd Movie Night has not yet happened, nor the August 27th Movie Night. The July 9th pool party was fun and had a great turn out. Good food and pool fun was enjoyed by all who attended. Thank you Nancy and Steve Sullivan for all you do for our community and of course all their volunteers. The next Pool party is scheduled for August 13th so I hope everyone comes out to enjoy their neighbors, meet some new people and have a good time. The Blue Grass Jams are now scheduled for every Sat afternoon from 1pm to 4 pm in the clubhouse. Come out and listen to the music or participate in the jam if you play one of the Blue Grass instruments. As long as the clubhouse isn't reserved for another event, the BG Jams will be held every Sat through at least Sept. We will evaluate then as to whether we will continue and on what schedule.

We are getting a few applications in for the Social Committee Director's and Secretary positions that are open. If you are interested in submitting an application, please call me at 727-434-0048. The current board will vote at our first fall meeting. We are always looking for volunteers to help chair our many activities and some are looking for people to train to take over. These being 1. Flea Market (need someone in training for 2023 to take over in 2024, 2. Pool Parties and 3. Dances to also take over in the next 1-2 years. Learn the ropes under some great leaders who have been doing these activities for many years. It is time to step up and help serve your community! We also have several activities that are in need of a chairperson. Call me or someone on the SC BOD for more information. We are all listed inside of the front cover of the Monthly Media

Reach out to one of your new neighbors and invite them to a SC activity and introduce them around. We have had quite a few new residents so far here in 2022 so I am sure we all have at least 1 new neighbor!

That's all for now folks. Hope you all stay safe, cool and most of all healthy!

VETERAN'S CORNER

By Bob Behm

Not good news for those of you who might be utilizing Military Hospitals like MacDill etc. This is all part of a plan that started several years ago. More than 155,000 military family members and retirees will be moved from the military hospital system to civilian health providers starting later this year, a process expected to last through mid-2026, according to a new Defense Department report. Under a revised plan, however, at least 29 facilities that were slated to serve only active-duty patients may still see some active-duty family members to sustain their staffs' clinical skills. This should not affect the VA but there is also some downsizing there also.

In a report sent to Congress on July 1, Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness Gil Cisneros said that the number of facilities scheduled for downsizing has changed and active-duty family members might be kept in the military system, depending on location and training needs. The plan gives 29 clinics the option of keeping some active-duty family members "as appropriate for provider skill sustainment."

The facilities will "generally transition non-active duty Service member Primary Care to the purchased care component of the Tricare program," including the provider network and those in Tricare for Life, the defense health program that serves as a wraparound for Medicare, according to the report to the congressional defense committees. But unlike the original recommendations, all 29 will "enroll active-duty family members as appropriate." The changes are part of an effort that began a few years ago to reform the military health system to slow the rising cost of health care, sending more patients to the private sector, paid for by Tricare, and focusing military providers mainly on active-duty personnel and training. The DoD process called for downsizing or closing dozens of hospitals and clinics. According to the report, the military treatment facilities will continue to care for patients until they have a primary care manager. Those who are in a case management program will be reviewed for remaining in the program and continue in the program or transition to private care. And those with complex medical needs who transition will receive a "warm hand off" with their new primary manager.

Visitors at the VA will be required to: Take a COVID antigen test (BinaxNOW), which will be administered by a staff member from the CLC, prior to visiting a resident. Visitors should enter at building 101 entrance. Visitors will be assessed for COVID-19 symptoms and have their temperature taken at the door. Visitors will be given a Level 3 mask to wear while in the CLC. Visitors will be taken to the library area and have a COVID antigen test performed by a licensed staff member. Visitors will wait approximately 20 mins for the test results.

If the result is negative: Visitors will be asked to exit the CLC and re-enter the CLC at building 71 Pedway Entrance. Visitors will sign in and obtain a visitor badge. Staff will be contacted to escort the visitor to the place of visitation. Visitors should complete hand hygiene before and after visit. Visitors will keep their mask on during the entire visit.

If the result is positive: The visitor will be asked to leave the CLC and encouraged to seek medical assistance from their personal provider.

James E. Akin, Lot 562, passed away on June 30, 2022. Jim is survived by his wife, Judy; 3 sons, Shane E., James W., and Thomas Russell; and 4 grandchildren. Jim and Judy were married for 56 years. His sons and grandchildren all live in the Largo area.

Jim served on the Paradise Island Co-Op Board of Directors for 6 years. He loved his home and his community and worked hard to make Paradise Island the best it could be.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, July 30th at 1:00 pm at the Largo Community Center, 400 Alt Keene Rd., Largo. (Located just north of Bay Dr, east of Highland Ave and east of the Palms of Largo)

Herbert “Roy” Marsh

6/25/22

Lot #685

Roy left us on June 25, 2022 at 93 years of age. He is no longer in pain. Roy is predeceased by his wife, Toni and faithful companion, Webster. He is survived by his loving friend, Mark Gillanders. He is also survived by all of the Paradise Island community who he considered his friends and family.

Roy was proud of his service as a Marine. He was in food services. The Marine Corps flag flies below the US flag in front of his house daily.

Roy lived in Paradise Island forever, well, for a very long time. He was well known around the community as a handyman and for his daily morning rounds with Mark (you could set a clock by their golf cart ride).

We will surely miss him and his sense of humor. He will be sorely missed by all of his 4-legged friends too. Please stop and give them a dog cookie for him.

A celebration of his life is being planned and more information will be posted soon.
