ISLAND WITCHES DANCE TROUPE

by Karen Durbin

Thursday, July 28th, was our daughter Tanela's birthday. I wanted to celebrate her by sharing what I've been doing since I've not been at Card Bingo on Thursday nights.

Drum roll, please...I'm a Witch! ;-)

The Island Witches Dance Troupe was formed to celebrate women and raise monies for local charities. I joined this Dance Troupe earlier this year, while Mark continued the Card Bingo game.

We have raised funds for the Friends of the Island Parks, as well as the Red Tent Initiative. Our next beneficiary is Creating Champions for Life.

This Coven of delightful Witches is having great fun, celebrating womanhood, life, family & giving back! If you have an event for which you would like us to perform, please don't hesitate to contact the Witches' Event Enchantress, Nicole, at 727-631-2985 or islandwitchesdancetroupe@gmail.com

On behalf of Mark & myself, thank you for allowing The Island Witches Dance Troupe to entertain you! We hope you enjoyed them.

Don't forget to be on the lookout through Halloween, as you never know who's a Witch in YOUR neighborhood! Ha! Ha! HAHa!!

Karen

VERMONT'S SUMMER GET TOGETHER

by Debbie Griffith

We've been in Vermont visiting our LH friends!! It's been such fun, enjoying the sites and visiting everyone!! Julie and Big have been our wonderful tour guides and we celebrated their 42nd anniversary with them!! ON our way to Vermont, we stopped to visit Jeanne Bole and guess who showed up for breakfast? Dick Aucoin! Today, we all had a yummy cookout / potluck at Ron and Rose Noble's place. It was a great time had by all! We took a group picture which turned out really silly!! Just beautiful country!!

AUGUST PIZZA PARTY WAS A GREAT SUCCESS!!

A big thank you to all who organized the pizza party and to those who came .. a whopping 69 people!!! A great time was had by all -- inside and out of the heat! Special thanks to Liz and George Longhurst who delivered meals to 20 who couldn't make it, and to Tom Wilson who did the music – it was great!! And Joan Bernier won the 50/50!!! Now that's a pile of pizza boxes!!

BROCCOLI SALAD

by Shirley Greer

2 heads broccoli (3 pcs each)
½ large purple onion, chopped
½ lb. provolone cheese (cubed)

1/3 lb. sharp cheese (cubed)
Bacon (fried crisp and crumbled)
Combine above ingredients

Dressing:

2 c. Miracle Whip
2 tsp. white vinegar
1/3 c. sugar

Combine dressing ingredients and combine with salad ingredients.

BEEF IN BEER

by Bev Bistor

3-4 lbs beef brisket or boneless chuck roast
1 onion sliced
¼ c. chili sauce
1 clove garlic, minced
2 T. brown sugar
1 can 12 oz. beer
2 T. flour

Trim fat from meat. Season with salt and pepper. Place in a 9 x 13 baking dish. Cover with onion slices. Combine chili sauce, garlic, sugar and beer – pour over meat. Cover with foil and bake at 350 degrees for 3 ½ hrs. Uncover and bake 30 minutes more, basting occasionally with juices. Remove meat, skim fat. Measure liquid and add water to make 1 cup. Blend flour and ½ cup water, combine with drippings in a saucepan. Cook stirring constantly over medium heat until thickened and bubbly. To serve, cut meat across grain, and pass the gravy. Makes 8-10 servings.

FUNNIES

from Becky Holender

Apparently, this notice can now be found in all French churches (English translation):

“It is possible that on entering this church, you may hear the Call of God. On the other hand, it is not likely that he will contact you by phone. Thank you for turning off your phone. If you would like to talk to God, come in, choose a quiet place, and talk to him. If you would like to see him, send him a text while driving.”

FUNNIES

from Al Szyanski

Until 1964, chicken wings were considered a waste product and discarded. Teresa Bellissimo, co-owner of the Anchor Bar in Buffalo, New York, had the idea to fry the wings and dip them in her husband Frank's sauce recipe, thus inventing buffalo wings.

In the 19th century, it was considered cruel and unusual punishment to serve lobster to prisoners, as lobsters were basically the 1800s equivalent of rats.

According to the Centre for Retail Research, cheese is the most commonly shoplifted good in the world.

The reasons peppers taste so hot is because they contain a chemical compound called capsaicin, which “tricks” sensory nerves into thinking they're being burned by fire.

Doing your best — is it enough?

Tom Peters, co-author of the influential book In Search of Excellence, learned a very important lesson while serving as a Navy SeaBee in Vietnam. As he writes in his blog, one time he was sent back to headquarters for a short meeting with the commandant of the Marine Corps, General Chapman.

Chapman and Peters spoke briefly, and as he dismissed Peters, Chapman asked, almost as an afterthought, “Tom, are you taking care of your men?” Peters led a detachment of 20 sailors.

“I’m doing my best, sir,” he answered.

Chapman’s face darkened. “Mr. Peters, General Walt and I and General Buse are not interested in whether or not you are ‘doing your best,’” Chapman said. “We simply expect you to get the job done—and to take care of your sailors. Period. That will be all, Lieutenant.”

It was a powerful message: Don’t settle for “doing your best.” A leader’s responsibility is to accomplish his or her task—no excuses.

Be yourself always

A rabbi named Zusya was a quiet man who concealed more than he revealed. One day he stood before his congregation.

“When I die,” he said, “and I have to present myself before the celestial tribunal, they will not ask me, ‘Zusya, why were you not Moses?’ Because I would say, ‘Moses was a prophet, and I am not.’”

He continued, “And they will not say ‘Zusya, why were you not Jeremiah?’ For I would answer, ‘Jeremiah was a writer, and I am not.’”

“And they will not ask, ‘Why were you not Rabbi Akiba?’ I would tell them, ‘Rabbi Akiba was a great teacher and scholar, and I am not.’”

Then he said, “But they will ask me, ‘Zusya, why were you not Zusya?’ And to this I will have no answer.”

The riches inside

A man walking by the seashore found a canvas bag half-buried in the sand containing hundreds of small clay marbles. After sifting through the marbles for a while, the man strolled along the beach, flinging them one at a time into the water until he had only a few left.

Sitting down, he pounded one marble between two rocks. When the clay cracked, he found a diamond inside. Excited, he broke open the rest of them and found a ruby, an emerald, and another diamond.

Then he realized that he’d just thrown a fortune in precious stones into the waves.

Be careful about what—or who—you discard. You never know what wonders might be inside.

Estate planning

A sixth-grade teacher was giving her class an arithmetic problem: “A wealthy woman died with an estate worth $10 million. She left one-fifth to her daughter, another one-fifth to her son, one-sixth to charity, and the rest to her second husband. Now, what does each person get?”

A smart girl in the back of class answered, “A lawyer.”

Too much of a good thing?

---

Two sea monsters were prowling the waters of the North Atlantic looking for food. They spotted a ship on the horizon, dived beneath the surface, and attacked. The sailors were all able to reach their lifeboats, but the creatures happily gorged on the cargo of potatoes that stuffed the ship’s hold.

Soon after, they spied another ship and attacked again. Once more the sailors escaped, and once more the sea monsters feasted on a load of potatoes.

Hours later, a third ship approached. And the sea monsters once again capsized it. They again found another cargo of potatoes. By now their stomachs were full, and they were feeling bloated and ill. The first sea monster said, “Why do we keep doing this?”

The second replied, “Well, everyone knows you can’t eat just one potato ship.”

In their genes

Humor was a family business for the Marx Brothers. They traveled the country with their parents as part of a vaudeville act, playing the role of “children” until they were 20. Their mother insisted they be charged half-fare and routinely told everyone she met that her children were only 13 years old.

One day a railroad conductor came to her seat and demanded full fare. Mrs. Marx informed him that her sons were 13. The conductor replied sarcastically, “Well, one of your 13-year-olds is in the washroom shaving, and another one of them is in the club car smoking a cigar.”

The Marx mother just shook her head. “They grow up so fast.”

SEPTEMBER CALENDAR

Baby Safety Month. Keeping your baby safe is your No. 1 priority as a parent or caregiver. Whether you're expecting your first baby, adding to your family, or enjoying being a grandparent, now is the ideal time to take some simple steps to keep your baby healthy and safe.

Hunger Action Month. For tens of millions of people in America, a daily meal isn't a choice between different dishes. It's a choice between food and other crucial needs—like medicine, electricity, or child care. This September, join Feeding America for Hunger Action Month by choosing to stand against hunger.

National Happy, Healthy Cat Month. One of the easiest ways to make a cat happy is with a new toy. Not all toys have to be store bought. Paper sacks, wadded up paper, and empty boxes will entertain cats for hours.

Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month. Ovarian cancer is a leading cause of cancer-related death in American women, largely because early ovarian cancer often has no symptoms. Age and a family history of the disease are the strongest risk factors. Screening for ovarian cancer is difficult, but pelvic imaging and blood tests are currently the best tests for diagnosing ovarian cancer.

Daily

Labor Day, Sept. 5. Celebrate the contributions of the American worker.

National Iguana Awareness Day, Sept. 8. Iguanas make great pets for people cramped for space or who don't want to spend a lot of time looking after a pet. These cold-blooded reptiles can be amazing and affectionate pets for many decades if they are given proper care and attention.

National Sober Day, Sept. 14. Getting sober at any age is one of the hardest, messiest, happiest, and most exhilarating experiences a person can have.

National Public Lands Day, Sept. 24. Celebrated annually at public lands in the United States on the fourth Saturday of September. A signature event of the National Environmental Education Foundation, it promotes both popular enjoyment and volunteer conservation of public lands.

National Psychotherapy Day, Sept. 25. Therapy is an effective, economical, natural, and meaningful way to improve lives.
