SUMMER IN THE PARK

submitted by Pat Jones

August begins the coffee hours again, We started out first on August 6th and combined it with a social club meeting. The next coffee hour will be on September 3rd at 9 a.m.

Once again we will inform of events in the planning, Under discussion on August 6th was the upcoming Happy Hour, Volunteers were recruited to sell tickets. The cost was just five dollars per person and that entitled you to taste and then vote for your top 3 favorites. The money collected was then divided and presented to those winners. Appropriate beverages were available,

A request was made for someone to organize and host the Labor Day Party. Carole S. has graciously agreed to host and has recruited a team to help her, Way to go Carole.

Some ideas for new or different events were presented and vetoed. However, we all agreed to a HOLIDAY MARKET in the clubhouse. Resident's may reserve a table to present their wares. For example: crafters may reserve a table, Avon people or other types of vendors may reserve a table. People looking to do odd jobs may reserve a table (although if reservations are going well, we may put 3-4 of those persons at one table), Others may have a few items that would normally be yard sale stuff, then reserve a table. You are responsible for setting up, selling and removing your stuff at the end of the time. Tables will be on a first come first served basis, If you have a friend from outside the park wanting to participate, there will be a fee for them, resident's will have their table for free. If any of the clubs are interested, this might be a good opportunity to get your message out, perhaps your membership up, or use it as a fund raiser. Clubs will also be restricted to one table. PLEASE RESERVE YOUR TABLE BY NOVEMBER 1st

If you are interested in reserving a table please submit the following to Pat at 1009 or any social club board member.

SEPTEMBER CALENDAR

Baby Safety Month. Keeping your baby safe is your No. 1 priority as a parent or caregiver. Whether you're expecting your first baby, adding to your family, or enjoying being a grandparent, now is the ideal time to take some simple steps to keep your baby healthy and safe.

Hunger Action Month. For tens of millions of people in America, a daily meal isn't a choice between different dishes. It's a choice between food and other crucial needs—like medicine, electricity, or child care. This September, join Feeding America for Hunger Action Month by choosing to stand against hunger.

National Happy, Healthy Cat Month. One of the easiest ways to make a cat happy is with a new toy. Not all toys have to be store bought. Paper sacks, wadded up paper, and empty boxes will entertain cats for hours.

Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month. Ovarian cancer is a leading cause of cancer-related death in American women, largely because early ovarian cancer often has no symptoms. Age and a family history of the disease are the strongest risk factors. Screening for ovarian cancer is difficult, but pelvic imaging and blood tests are currently the best tests for diagnosing ovarian cancer.

Daily

Labor Day, Sept. 5. Celebrate the contributions of the American worker.

National Iguana Awareness Day, Sept. 8. Iguanas make great pets for people cramped for space or who don't want to spend a lot of time looking after a pet. These cold-blooded reptiles can be amazing and affectionate pets for many decades if they are given proper care and attention.

National Sober Day, Sept. 14. Getting sober at any age is one of the hardest, messiest, happiest, and most exhilarating experiences a person can have.

National Public Lands Day, Sept. 24. Celebrated annually at public lands in the United States on the fourth Saturday of September. A signature event of the National Environmental Education Foundation, it promotes both popular enjoyment and volunteer conservation of public lands.

National Psychotherapy Day, Sept. 25. Therapy is an effective, economical, natural, and meaningful way to improve lives.

No bull

An official from the government pulled into a ranch in Texas. “I need to inspect your ranch here for illegally grown drugs,” he told the owner.

The rancher shrugged. “Fine with me. Just don’t go into that field over there.”

The government man reached into his pocket and showed the rancher his badge. “See this? This badge means I am allowed to go wherever I wish, on any land, no questions asked. Have I made myself clear?”

The rancher nodded politely. “Whatever you want, officer.”

An hour later, as he was doing his chores in the barn, the rancher heard loud screams coming from the field. He ran out and saw the government man racing toward the fence with a big, angry bull in hot pursuit. The bull was gaining on the officer with every step.

“Help!” the man yelled. “Help! What do I do?”

The rancher dashed to the fence and yelled at the top of his lungs: “Your badge! Show him your badge!”

Bait and switch

A little girl walked into her Sunday school class half an hour late. When the teacher asked why she was so tardy, the young girl replied, “I wanted to go fishing with my Daddy, but he said I had to come to Sunday school.”

Pleased with the father’s spiritual dedication, the teacher asked, “And did he tell you why he wanted you to come here?”

“He said he didn’t have enough bait for the two of us.”

Your body cannot heal without play. Your mind cannot heal without laughter. Your soul cannot heal without joy.

Estate planning

A sixth-grade teacher was giving her class an arithmetic problem: “A wealthy woman died with an estate worth $10 million. She left one-fifth to her daughter, another one-fifth to her son, one-sixth to charity, and the rest to her second husband. Now, what does each person get?”

A smart girl in the back of class answered, “A lawyer.”

Too much of a good thing?

Two sea monsters were prowling the waters of the North Atlantic looking for food. They spotted a ship on the horizon, dived beneath the surface, and attacked. The sailors were all able to reach their lifeboats, but the creatures happily gorged on the cargo of potatoes that stuffed the ship’s hold.

Soon after, they spied another ship and attacked again. Once more the sailors escaped, and once more the sea monsters feasted on a load of potatoes.

Hours later, a third ship approached. And the sea monsters once again capsized it. They again found another cargo of potatoes. By now their stomachs were full, and they were feeling bloated and ill. The first sea monster said, “Why do we keep doing this?”

The second replied, “Well, everyone knows you can’t eat just one potato ship.”

In their genes

Humor was a family business for the Marx Brothers. They traveled the country with their parents as part of a vaudeville act, playing the role of “children” until they were 20. Their mother insisted they be charged half-fare and routinely told everyone she met that her children were only 13 years old.

One day a railroad conductor came to her seat and demanded full fare. Mrs. Marx informed him that her sons were 13. The conductor replied sarcastically, “Well, one of your 13-year-olds is in the washroom shaving, and another one of them is in the club car smoking a cigar.”

The Marx mother just shook her head. “They grow up so fast.”

Laughter is the sun that drives winter from the human face.

What to know about September

It's September! Summer is over, school has started, and the leaves are starting to turn. As we're getting ready for fall and winter, remember these factoids about the ninth month of the year:

- September was originally the seventh month, according to the ancient Roman calendar, and that's where it gets its name. It became the ninth month after the calendar changed in 451 B.C.
- The Romans associated September with Vulcan, the god of fire, possibly because as the seventh month it was in the middle of the hot summer.
- The Anglo-Saxons called September Gerst Monath, which meant “Barley Month,” because barley was harvested at that time of year. The barley was also brewed as a popular beverage in celebration of the harvest.
- In another calendar change, the British eliminated Sept. 2–14 in 1752 to bring the month in accordance with the Gregorian calendar, which replaced the Julian calendar.
- Fall begins in the northern hemisphere on the equinox, which falls between Sept. 21–23. In the southern hemisphere, the equinox signifies the beginning of spring.

What is Labor Day all about?

Labor Day is a yearly celebration of the American worker. Created by the labor movement, it's a national tribute to workers' contributions to the social and economic achievements of the United States.

There is some uncertainty about how Labor Day began. Some records show that Peter J. McGuire, general secretary of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and a co-founder of the American Federation of Labor, was first to suggest a day to honor those “who from rude nature have delved and carved all the grandeur we behold.” Other sources suggest that machinist Matthew Maguire, later the secretary of Local 344 of the International Association of Machinists in Paterson, N.J., proposed the holiday in 1882 while serving as secretary of the Central Labor Union in New York.

The first Labor Day holiday was celebrated on Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1882, in New York City, in accordance with the plans of the Central Labor Union.

In 1884, the first Monday in September was selected as the official holiday.

The first governmental recognition of Labor Day came through municipal ordinances passed in 1885 and 1886. The State of Oregon passed the first law recognizing the Labor Day holiday on Feb. 21, 1887. Four more states—Colorado, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and New York—followed suit that same year.

On June 28, 1894, Congress passed an act making the first Monday in September of each year a legal holiday in all the states, the District of Columbia, and all U.S. territories.
