FROM THE PRESIDENT

By Mark Vetter

Thank You for Volunteering

Happy Labor/Labour Day

September, 2022

Thank you one and all for the volunteer work that you do here as well as anywhere in the community(ies) where you live. Your contributions here at Clearwater Cascade or wherever you call your home are invaluable.

It has been a busy summer down here in Florida. We've had an Ice Cream Social, a Scavenger Hunt, a Hawaiian Party, a Gong Show (oui, oui). On September 3rd, we are having another Ice Cream Social and an end of summer dinner on October 1. Thank you all; it has been a great summer for sure.

There has been some other important work done as well. We have a new CAM with a familiar face, Bobbi Gumm and replacing her as the Administrative Assistant is Allison Anderson. Both Bobbi and Allison have jumped into their new roles with positive enthusiasm and vigor. I am enjoying working with both of these ladies and so happy they are here for us.

The Board has focused much of their attention on the Rules and Regulations and the Policies and Procedures governing documents. At this writing, we are about to wrap up the Rules and Regulations and will finish the Policies and Procedures in September. Both of these were goals for the Board this year and it has been a herculean effort for the entire Board. Thank you one and all.

We have also worked to rid our community of several people who did not belong here. With the help of our attorney, we have been working to remove those who sought to live here without meeting our HOA's requirements. Additionally, our Treasurer, Linda Rhodes has been very busy. She has worked diligently on the finances including preparing for the audit which was returned back to us in mid-July. This was outstanding. She has also been keeping any eye on all of our financial accounts and has been diligently working on delinquent payments.

Joel and Bob tackled many of their regular summer responsibilities. They also have just completed a beautiful makeover of our Spa Room. Be sure to check it out.

A couple of new lots are opening up. Both #337 and #338 are scheduled for demo soon. This is a good thing, as our vacant lots within the park are nearly filled.

More parcel boxes will soon be in both mailrooms ahead of the influx of our seasonal residents and the anticipation that additional parcel boxes will be needed. Also circulating fans have gone up in both mailroom/laundry facilities to help with the summer heat, as we had a mail person nearly suffer heat exhaustion. It is also beneficial to those doing their laundry.

Lastly, we are seeking a better audio solution to our Zoom meetings. We will be testing some equipment from AV Specialists for the August Board Meeting, which falls after my deadline for my article. Hopefully, their equipment will be the answer.

MANAGER'S MESSAGE

By Bobbi Gumm CMCA

Windows Update – The rest of the windows for the library are scheduled to come in at the beginning of October. It's been a long wait! The office will keep the residents updated as we get the information.

2021 Financial Audit – By now you should have been notified that the 2021 Financial Audit is available for viewing. You can upload it from Onesource, request a copy via e-mail or pick one up in the office.

Spa – The spa is going through a make-over! The spa has a fresh new coat of paint, new border pavers line the back corners filled with seashells. We eliminated the front corner, so the door now opens fully. A new spa sign will be coming and some new décor!

Meetings – Going forward, if we have a ZOOM ONLY meeting, we will set it up in the clubhouse for those residents that want to participate but may not be able to use Zoom. We will remind you if this happens.

VOLO – We use VOLO to communicate with our residents. If your phone number or e-mail changes, please let the office know so we can update our list.

Labor Day – The office will be closed on Monday, September 5th in observance of Labor Day. Fun fact, In the late 1800's at the height of the Industrial Revolution, Americans worked 12-hour days, 7 days a week! Children as young as 5 or 6 toiled in mills, factories and mines! On September 5th, 1882, 10,000 workers took unpaid time off to march from City Hall to Union Square in New York, holding the first Labor Day parade in U.S. History. Labor Day is a celebration of workers and their achievements.

That is all I have for this month!

FROM THE EDITOR

By Donna Collins

Confession time. This column is usually the last one to be added to the Chronicle. However, I have been sitting here for I don't know how long with my fingers on the keyboard and there is nothing happening. It must be the lazy days of summer that are quickly coming to an end. How is it that we think we have lots of time to get things done and before we know it, that time is gone? There is a lesson in there somewhere. The "To Do" list seems to get longer no matter how busy we are or do we just keep pushing the unpleasant tasks to the bottom? Maybe that means that we are just doing the things we enjoy. I suppose that isn't a bad idea but eventually we have to pay the piper. So here is my little piece of "wisdom". Get the unpleasant things done first and you will enjoy the fun things in a much more relaxed frame of mind. Donna Collins- are you listening?

Have a great month!

BEAUTIFICATION

By Donna Miller; Chair

With the rainy season upon us, the gardens are in full bloom. Even some of the weeds have beautiful little flowers on them (I really hate to pull them)! All in all, the park is absolutely beautiful. With the fountain, memory garden, serenity garden, map area and sidewalk gardens on the east side and the butterfly garden and spinner garden in the center, we felt that “something” was needed on the west side of the park. With the removal of the two big oak trees by the small pool, two Adonidia palms were previously placed as close to that space as we were able, but it hasn't seemed to be “enough”. So, three Areca palms were purchased and planted along the sidewalk by the big transformer box and bike rack. If you look at Facebook, you can see some beautiful pictures (in color) that Mark Vetter took of the new trees. So far, everyone says they are beautiful - we hope you do too!

Once again, I want to thank Neil Pickrem for his work along Orleans Way. Neil has planted, trimmed, and mulched all along this street and has made a huge difference in its appearance. If you see Neil, give him big THANK YOU!

We hope you all like the additions and changes we have made to the park! Have a beautiful Summer!

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

By Maddie Haber, Co-Chair

I'm excited to let everyone know about a new form that is available at the office. The Community Activities Committee (CAC) is introducing Form CA-001, which is available to use starting immediately.

Do we need chalk for shuffleboard? Use this form.

Do we need new noodles at the pool? Use this form.

Do you want a new activity to start in the Park? Use this form.

Would you like to sponsor a fundraising event? Use this form.

I'm sure you get the idea. This form essentially is used for all activities in the Park which are not sponsored by the Social Committee. Just stop in the office and ask Allison for the Community Activities form. After it is filled out, return it to the office. You will hear from the Committee shortly after the form is returned.

Our intent is not to make things more difficult, but to make activities easier for you to get involved. We certainly understand that everyone doesn't play games, use the pools, or want to be an organizer of an event. However, you can make your Park a fun place to live by just participating. So many of our events are just a gathering of residents and friends. Just come out and support the people who are working hard to entertain you.

Over the last several months your CAC has brought you a number of awesome activities. This is just the beginning; with all of your involvement, our Park can be better than good... we can be great! Here are some of the activities we have had, some that are in the works, and games either started or "on deck".

Ice Cream Social (combined effort of Social Club and residents)

Bunco

Cornhole (currently suspended due to the heat)

Hawaiian Pool Party (combined effort of Social Club and residents)

SOCIAL CLUB

By April Loomis, President

If you missed the Gong Show last month, you missed out on a fun time! Many thanks to Bonnie Barnes for organizing the show and hosting the event. Her team of helpers ensured a smooth event. The raffle raised money for community activities and the desserts were plentiful. Thanks to all who attended because your support is vital to continue these activities.

This month, we are having another ice cream social on the 3rd at 3:00 in the clubhouse. The cost is $2.00 per person.

October 1, we are having a “end of the summer events “, with a pot luck dinner. This is a free event and we are asking everyone to bring a dish to pass and their place setting. We will supply drinks and chicken. There is a sign-up sheet in the clubhouse so we know how much chicken to order. Because of the heat, we will hold it in the clubhouse at 4:30.

Hope everyone is enjoying a wonderful summer! See you at the ice cream social!

VOLUNTEERS

By Jane Boucher

We are nearing the end of Summer and looking forward to cooler weather and the revival of more activities throughout our community.

Some of our year-round activities:

Ø Bunco has been thriving each Thursday evening from 6:00 PM to around 8:00 PM in our Clubhouse, thanks to Debbie Creighton and her faithful volunteers, and the desserts are scrumptious.

Ø Water Aerobics is at the main pool Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. During the Summer months the hours are 9:30 AM to 10:30 AM, and later in the Fall the hours move to 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM.

We have a new group in our Community: The CWC Veterans Group is spearheaded by Jack Moore (Lot 187). This group meets the 1st Sunday of each month, starting September 4, 2022, from 3:00 PM to 4:00 PM in the Library. Also note they will be hosting a Veterans Day Celebration November 11, 2022, in the Clubhouse from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM. It will be a pot-luck so plan to bring your favorite food, beverage, and/or dessert. All are welcome to honor our Veterans.

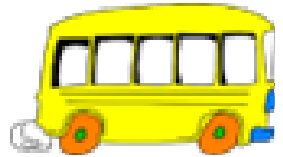

Mark your calendars for the CWC Craft Fair to be held in our Clubhouse in November. The date hasn't been set yet, but it's in the early planning stages and we need vendors and volunteers for this annual event. We will have more information on this event in next month's Chronicle.

MYSTERY CORNER?

A Deadly Excursion

Chapter Five

Katherine and Agnes have returned to the room after their interrogation by the detective. They sit apart from the group and are quite subdued and not inclined to talk to the others. Fernando and Rosie have been summoned and the group have settled down in their chairs hoping to get a bit of sleep.

Waking with a start, Archie sees that he really did nap and only 30 minutes have passed and Rosie and Fernando haven't returned. "I wonder where Stanley has gotten to?"

In the meantime, Stanley has been looking for Jack. He had recognized Autumn from his time working at XYZ, but he also knew he had seen Jack before. Seeing the two together jogged his memory and he realized that Jack was the one Autumn accused of stealing. Jack had been tried and found guilty based on circumstantial evidence. About a year later the truth had come out and Jack had been exonerated, but not before he lost his job and family. "Is all of this connected?" he speculated as he decided to try and find Jack. "Had he killed Autumn, was he afraid that he would be accused, or did he even know she was dead?" he wondered to himself.

He headed first for the casino but after checking every gambling area and came up empty he tried the restaurant and bar. Again, there was no sign of the driver. The front desk wouldn't give him Jack's room number but did phone up and got no response. This didn't totally satisfy Stanley but for the time being he would keep looking. The luggage storage room was next, thinking that the police were likely finished in there wouldn't see him. Again, nothing except luggage carts, some blood stains and police tape. "I wonder?" he thought as he headed out to the parking lot to check out the bus. All was quiet, but to his surprise, the bus was unlocked. He carefully pushed open the door and climbed the steps. Hearing a noise that sounded like snoring, he cautiously crept toward the back, checking each seat as he passed. As he approached the rear, there stretched out across the back seat was Jack.

"Jack," Stanley whispered. He didn't want to startle him too much so he didn't touch him but whispered again, "Jack, wake up."

With a frightened jerk, Jack sat up, staring at Stanley without recognition. When his eyes focused, he stared at him with grief and fear on his face.

"It's just me Jack, Stanley, he said in a quiet voice. "Why are you out here? Something has happened that you need to know about."

Jack stared at him blankly and then started to shake. "I know what happened," he stammered, "I did it."

"WHAT, oh, Jack no, I was afraid of this. I remembered you finally, from XYZ and that it was Autumn who accused you of stealing. I know about everything and was worried that you might do something crazy. The police don't know where we are but it's only a matter of time before they find us. Tell me what happened.

Jack dropped his head into his hands and started to cry. "I was bringing two luggage carts out here and that woman followed me saying she wanted to make sure I didn't damage her precious suitcase. When she got closer, I realized who she was. I lost my cool and started yelling at her.

"You, vile woman," I screamed. "Do you have any idea what you did to me? I lost my job, I was arrested, went through a trial, put in jail for eight months until my determined lawyer finally managed to clear my name and I was freed. By then my wife had divorced me and moved away taking our kids with her, I yelled. I grabbed her by the shoulders and shook her, when, Oh God, she fell and hit her head on the curb. I checked her out but she was dead. I panicked, wrapped her in a blanket and put her on the cart with the luggage. There was blood!

I took the carts inside, put her in a closet, and left the carts there for the porters to take upstairs." He stopped to catch his breath and looked up at Stanley, "It was an accident, Stanley, I hated her but I didn't intend to kill her. I just wanted her to know what she had done to my life. Now I'll go back to jail forever," he sobbed.

"Pull yourself together, man. You have to tell the police exactly what happened. They will likely see that it was an accident. If you go to them and be up front things will be better for you.

I'll stand by you, Jack. I know what she was like and how she treated you. Running or hiding will only make you look guilty. Come on, I'll go with you.

Jack nodded his head, pulled himself together and they headed back to the Red Room. Stanley approached the Officer at the door.

"I am Stanley Macintyre and this is Jack McGraw. We need to talk with Detective Rathburn please." Startled by their appearance, he nodded and opened the door to summon Officer Mason. He asks her to please get Detective Rathburn as these two men need to talk with him.

Officer Mason eyes the two suspiciously and closes the door. A very few moments later the Detective appears and requests that Jack and Stanley follow him to another room.

"Gentlemen, this interview will be recorded. Present are Detective William Rathburn," gentlemen, your names please," "Stanley Macintyre", "Jack McGraw," they both state. It is 9:05 PM on Sunday, March 6, 2022. So, Mr. Macintyre, why are you here and not with the others in the Red Room?"

Stanley takes a deep breath and begins, "I knew Jack looked familiar when I got on the bus. It wasn't until you told us Autumn was dead that I remembered why. The three of us had worked briefly for XYZ some time ago. Autumn accused Jack of stealing from the company. Jack can better fill you in on what happened as a result. When I heard about Autumn's death and the fact that no one had seen Jack, I was worried and went looking for him. I found him on the bus and he told me what had happen with Autumn so I convinced him to come and see you."

"Thank you, Stanley. Now, Jack, let's have your story from the time you were arrested for theft."

Jack swallowed hard, cleared his throat and began...

An hour and a half later Detective Rathburn and Stanley entered the Red Room. Everyone, many of whom had been dozing, suddenly became alert.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I can now tell you that everyone is free to go about the rest of your evening. Mr. McGraw is being detained in connection with Ms. Hadfield's death. I'm sure that Mr. Macintyre will be able to fill you in on the details. Royal Limousine Service will be arranging another driver for your return to the Flamingo and Loon MHP."

"Well, that was not the ending I was expecting. I will surely sit in on Stanley's story with the rest of our group. Read the Epilogue next month to see how things are resolved. It has been a tragic but interesting time."

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

SHUFFLEBOARD

By Patti Ranslow

Hi Everyone,
Here's hoping everyone had a great summer. It was hot.
We are getting closer to thinking about the 2023 season of Shuffleboard.
I will let you know when I'll be figuring out the schedules. Teams will stay the same.
I'm sure there will be many changes.
Looking forward to seeing you all in January.
