PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association President

We survived the hottest July in the annals of Florida and August did not seem that much cooler, but hope is on the way as autumn officially starts on the 22nd and I for one am eager to usher in those cool breezes from the north. I promise to not complain about the weather again until perhaps December – unless we get hit with one of those rare late season hurricanes – then all commitments are off.

Accolades to Peggy Lyter for preparing her mom's secret Sloppy Joe recipe for the August potluck dinner. It certainly lived up to her pre-dinner bragging as there was not even a spoonful left over to take home. Thanks, Peggy, you obviously learned from one of the best. As a reminder, please remember to remove your name from the signup form if you find that your plans have changed and you will not be able to attend an event.

In keeping with tradition, on Monday, September 5, Park #1 will host a Labor Day BBQ which is open to all three parks. You can purchase tickets from me at Lot #53 or call me to reserve a ticket (727-733-3755). The cost is $5 and all you need to bring is your beverage of choice. If it is a warm day, and I assume it will be, a cover-up over your bathing suit and flip flops is acceptable attire.

Wendy King is hosting something special for the ladies of Lake Haven on Saturday, September 10 at 10:00AM in Park #1. She will demonstrate how to do manis and pedis at home with nail strips which require no special tools or drying time. To quench your thirst, she will provide orange juice, but if you want something to fill the other half of the glass the Park R&Rs require that you bring it. Did I mention that she is giving out samples?? She is! So please RSVP to Wendy at 954-658-1969 so you won't be left out.

Attention bingo players, here's the announcement you have been waiting for: weekly bingo will begin on September 15 at 7PM in Park #1 Clubhouse. Cards remain at 50 cents each, and yes we will have ticket drawings and refreshments; however remember to place a donation in the basket if you wish to indulge in the refreshments and have not brought something to share. Many thanks.

Advance notice: Park #1 monthly Association Meetings begin October 1st in the clubhouse. Coffee and donuts available at 8:30AM, the meeting convenes at 9:00AM. Please attend as we will discuss plans for social events for the season, the annual Christmas Party, and talk about possible Association leadership candidates for the January election. We have many new residents in Park #1 and invite them to attend even if they have not yet joined the Association.

Have a great September! Remember no trash pickup on Labor Day.

LAKE HAVEN MOBILE HOME OWNERS, INC.

Humana hosts food pantries throughout Pinellas County and the HOA has teamed with them to host a food pantry in Lake Haven on October 25. At this event will be prepackaged bags filled with food items donated to Tampa Bay Harvest. The bags normally include produce, meats and non-perishables but is dependent on what was donated that day. This event is entirely free to all residents.

Due to the current economic condition demand for this program is extremely high. The HOA has asked that 100 bags of food be available for distribution at this trial event. In order to be fair, sign-up forms have been posted in all three clubhouses; when all 100 slots are filled the forms will be removed.

The food truck is scheduled to arrive in Lake Haven Park #1 Clubhouse at noon on October 25. To receive a bag, you must be present to pick it up and your name must be on the list; one bag of food per person. Dependent on participation, the HOA will schedule this event on a regular basis.

Humana also has a Laundry Day event available but unless there is a demand from the residents, we have opted out of the program as Humana obtains most laundry related items from the Dollar Store and the quantity sizes are small.

By now ELS should have completed the 360s in all three parks. If you find that some areas of your home require improvement to meet Prospectus standards, and you are physically unable to do the work required, please remember that Lake Haven has an active volunteer program available to help you.

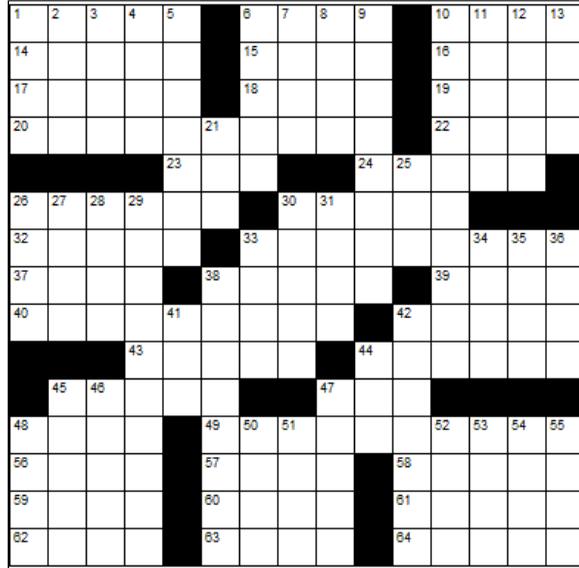

ELS has installed electronic locks on the clubhouses, pool gates and workout center. These facilities will be remotely opened and closed based on the times stated in our Prospectus – 8:00AM – 10:00PM.

SEPTEMBER CALENDAR

Baby Safety Month. Keeping your baby safe is your No. 1 priority as a parent or caregiver. Whether you're expecting your first baby, adding to your family, or enjoying being a grandparent, now is the ideal time to take some simple steps to keep your baby healthy and safe.

Hunger Action Month. For tens of millions of people in America, a daily meal isn't a choice between different dishes. It's a choice between food and other crucial needs—like medicine, electricity, or child care. This September, join Feeding America for Hunger Action Month by choosing to stand against hunger.

National Happy, Healthy Cat Month. One of the easiest ways to make a cat happy is with a new toy. Not all toys have to be store bought. Paper sacks, wadded up paper, and empty boxes will entertain cats for hours.

Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month. Ovarian cancer is a leading cause of cancer-related death in American women, largely because early ovarian cancer often has no symptoms. Age and a family history of the disease are the strongest risk factors. Screening for ovarian cancer is difficult, but pelvic imaging and blood tests are currently the best tests for diagnosing ovarian cancer.

Daily

Labor Day, Sept. 5. Celebrate the contributions of the American worker.

National Iguana Awareness Day, Sept. 8. Iguanas make great pets for people cramped for space or who don't want to spend a lot of time looking after a pet. These cold-blooded reptiles can be amazing and affectionate pets for many decades if they are given proper care and attention.

National Sober Day, Sept. 14. Getting sober at any age is one of the hardest, messiest, happiest, and most exhilarating experiences a person can have.

National Public Lands Day, Sept. 24. Celebrated annually at public lands in the United States on the fourth Saturday of September. A signature event of the National Environmental Education Foundation, it promotes both popular enjoyment and volunteer conservation of public lands.

National Psychotherapy Day, Sept. 25. Therapy is an effective, economical, natural, and meaningful way to improve lives.

No bull

An official from the government pulled into a ranch in Texas. “I need to inspect your ranch here for illegally grown drugs,” he told the owner.

The rancher shrugged. “Fine with me. Just don’t go into that field over there.”

The government man reached into his pocket and showed the rancher his badge. “See this? This badge means I am allowed to go wherever I wish, on any land, no questions asked. Have I made myself clear?”

The rancher nodded politely. “Whatever you want, officer.”

An hour later, as he was doing his chores in the barn, the rancher heard loud screams coming from the field. He ran out and saw the government man racing toward the fence with a big, angry bull in hot pursuit. The bull was gaining on the officer with every step.

“Help!” the man yelled. “Help! What do I do?”

The rancher dashed to the fence and yelled at the top of his lungs: “Your badge! Show him your badge!”

Bait and switch

A little girl walked into her Sunday school class half an hour late. When the teacher asked why she was so tardy, the young girl replied, “I wanted to go fishing with my Daddy, but he said I had to come to Sunday school.”

Pleased with the father’s spiritual dedication, the teacher asked, “And did he tell you why he wanted you to come here?”

“He said he didn’t have enough bait for the two of us.”

Your body cannot heal without play. Your mind cannot heal without laughter. Your soul cannot heal without joy.

— Catherine Rippenger Fenwick

Nothing else can quite substitute for a few well-chosen, well-timed, sincere words of praise. They’re absolutely free and worth a fortune.

Estate planning

A sixth-grade teacher was giving her class an arithmetic problem: “A wealthy woman died with an estate worth $10 million. She left one-fifth to her daughter, another one-fifth to her son, one-sixth to charity, and the rest to her second husband. Now, what does each person get?”

A smart girl in the back of class answered, “A lawyer.”

Too much of a good thing?

Two sea monsters were prowling the waters of the North Atlantic looking for food. They spotted a ship on the horizon, dived beneath the surface, and attacked. The sailors were all able to reach their lifeboats, but the creatures happily gorged on the cargo of potatoes that stuffed the ship’s hold.

Soon after, they spied another ship and attacked again. Once more the sailors escaped, and once more the sea monsters feasted on a load of potatoes.

Hours later, a third ship approached. And the sea monsters once again capsized it. They again found another cargo of potatoes. By now their stomachs were full, and they were feeling bloated and ill. The first sea monster said, “Why do we keep doing this?”

The second replied, “Well, everyone knows you can’t eat just one potato ship.”

In their genes

Humor was a family business for the Marx Brothers. They traveled the country with their parents as part of a vaudeville act, playing the role of “children” until they were 20. Their mother insisted they be charged half-fare and routinely told everyone she met that her children were only 13 years old.

One day a railroad conductor came to her seat and demanded full fare. Mrs. Marx informed him that her sons were 13. The conductor replied sarcastically, “Well, one of your 13-year-olds is in the washroom shaving, and another one of them is in the club car smoking a cigar.”

The Marx mother just shook her head. “They grow up so fast.”

Laughter is the sun that drives winter from the human face.

What to know about September

It's September! Summer is over, school has started, and the leaves are starting to turn. As we're getting ready for fall and winter, remember these factoids about the ninth month of the year:

- September was originally the seventh month, according to the ancient Roman calendar, and that's where it gets its name. It became the ninth month after the calendar changed in 451 B.C.
- The Romans associated September with Vulcan, the god of fire, possibly because as the seventh month it was in the middle of the hot summer.
- The Anglo-Saxons called September Gerst Monath, which meant "Barley Month," because barley was harvested at that time of year. The barley was also brewed as a popular beverage in celebration of the harvest.
- In another calendar change, the British eliminated Sept. 2–14 in 1752 to bring the month in accordance with the Gregorian calendar, which replaced the Julian calendar.
- Fall begins in the northern hemisphere on the equinox, which falls between Sept. 21–23. In the southern hemisphere, the equinox signifies the beginning of spring.

What is Labor Day all about?

Labor Day is a yearly celebration of the American worker. Created by the labor movement, it's a national tribute to workers' contributions to the social and economic achievements of the United States.

There is some uncertainty about how Labor Day began. Some records show that Peter J. McGuire, general secretary of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and a co-founder of the American Federation of Labor, was first to suggest a day to honor those "who from rude nature have delved and carved all the grandeur we behold." Other sources suggest that machinist Matthew Maguire, later the secretary of Local 344 of the International Association of Machinists in Paterson, N.J., proposed the holiday in 1882 while serving as secretary of the Central Labor Union in New York.

The first Labor Day holiday was celebrated on Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1882, in New York City, in accordance with the plans of the Central Labor Union.

In 1884, the first Monday in September was selected as the official holiday.

The first governmental recognition of Labor Day came through municipal ordinances passed in 1885 and 1886. The State of Oregon passed the first law recognizing the Labor Day holiday on Feb. 21, 1887. Four more states—Colorado, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and New York—followed suit that same year.

On June 28, 1894, Congress passed an act making the first Monday in September of each year a legal holiday in all the states, the District of Columbia, and all U.S. territories.

Winning words

A good vocabulary may not guarantee success, but it's definitely an asset if you're competing in the Scripps National Spelling Bee. Here are a few of the words that competitors in past years have spelled correctly to win the contest:

- Stromuhr. A medical instrument that measures blood flow through an artery (noun).
- Guerdon. Reward (noun), or to reward (verb).
- Serrefine. A small forceps used to clamp a blood vessel (noun).
- Autochthonous. Native or indigenous, especially relating to animals or plants (adjective).
- Succedaneum. Substitute or successor (noun).
- Euonym. An especially appropriate name (noun).
- Cymotrichous. Having wavy hair (adjective).

Be careful before taking any financial advice

Financial advice is easy to come by in the internet age, but not all of it is trustworthy or appropriate for everyone. Follow these tips from the Mis-soulian website for not getting steered the wrong way:

- Work with professionals. Don't take stock market tips from strangers. Look for certified financial planners or other qualified professionals who don't receive any commission from your financial decisions. Learn as much as you can from them so you can make informed choices about handling your money.
- Consider your own situation. You don't have to automatically follow any advice. Before acting, think about how it will affect you. You don't want to place all your money in an investment where you can't get at it in case of an emergency, for example, or move to a city where property is cheaper but where you don't have a job or any contacts.
- Be skeptical. Don't jump at advice that sounds too good to be true. Double-check everything before moving forward. Every financial decision carries some risk, so don't fall for "risk-free" promises or guarantees that don't hold up to close examination.

It is labor indeed that puts the difference on everything.
— John Locke

Work isn't to make money; you work to justify life.
— Marc Chagall

Doing your best — is it enough?

Tom Peters, co-author of the influential book In Search of Excellence, learned a very important lesson while serving as a Navy SeaBee in Vietnam. As he writes in his blog, one time he was sent back to headquarters for a short meeting with the commandant of the Marine Corps, General Chapman.

Chapman and Peters spoke briefly, and as he dismissed Peters, Chapman asked, almost as an afterthought, “Tom, are you taking care of your men?” Peters led a detachment of 20 sailors.

“I’m doing my best, sir,” he answered.

Chapman’s face darkened. “Mr. Peters, General Walt and I and General Buse are not interested in whether or not you are ‘doing your best,’” Chapman said. “We simply expect you to get the job done—and to take care of your sailors. Period. That will be all, Lieutenant.”

It was a powerful message: Don’t settle for “doing your best.” A leader’s responsibility is to accomplish his or her task—no excuses.

Be yourself always

A rabbi named Zusya was a quiet man who concealed more than he revealed. One day he stood before his congregation.

“When I die,” he said, “and I have to present myself before the celestial tribunal, they will not ask me, ‘Zusya, why were you not Moses?’ Because I would say, ‘Moses was a prophet, and I am not.’”

He continued, “And they will not say ‘Zusya, why were you not Jeremiah?’ For I would answer, ‘Jeremiah was a writer, and I am not.’”

“And they will not ask, ‘Why were you not Rabbi Akiba?’ I would tell them, ‘Rabbi Akiba was a great teacher and scholar, and I am not.’”

Then he said, “But they will ask me, ‘Zusya, why were you not Zusya?’ And to this I will have no answer.”

The riches inside

A man walking by the seashore found a canvas bag half-buried in the sand containing hundreds of small clay marbles. After sifting through the marbles for a while, the man strolled along the beach, flinging them one at a time into the water until he had only a few left.

Sitting down, he pounded one marble between two rocks. When the clay cracked, he found a diamond inside. Excited, he broke open the rest of them and found a ruby, an emerald, and another diamond.

Then he realized that he’d just thrown a fortune in precious stones into the waves.

Be careful about what—or who—you discard. You never know what wonders might be inside.

Prevent injuries as your body ages

As our bodies grow older, the risk of musculoskeletal injuries increases. Falls are frequently the cause, especially for people over 55. The NextAvenue website offers these tips for preventing injuries as you inevitably age:

- Check with your doctor. Before you start on any exercise program, or if you're just concerned about potential injuries, talk to your primary care doctor, an orthopedist, or a physical therapist. They'll help you decide what kind of physical activity is safe. This is especially important if you're feeling pain anywhere.
- Practice aerobic exercise. Aerobic exercises like swimming, brisk walking, jogging, and bicycling improve heart health, blood flow and lung capacity. They also help your body release endorphins, which can improve your mood and general sense of well-being.
- Manage your weight. Extra weight is a strain on your heart, knees, hips, and even your fingers. Watch your diet and work with a nutritionist to develop healthy eating habits.
- Avoid falls. Remove tripping hazards like loose rugs. Don't let clutter build up on your floors. Install night lights in hallways and bathrooms so you can walk around safely at night. Wear shoes that support your feet. Always watch where you're walking, both at home and outside.
- Check your medications. Some medicines, including over-the-counter drugs, can make you dizzy or drowsy, increasing the risk of losing your balance and falling. Pay attention to their effect on your body, and talk to your doctor to find out what's safe.

We are healthy only to the extent that our ideas are humane.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
