SUMMER DANCE:

The Summer Dance held on August 28th was well attended. Music by Steve Mullis was great for listening and dancing. Everyone enjoyed the evening and had a great time. Thank you to everyone for lending a hand where needed to make this a success...

EUCHRE:

Euchre will be returning after a month hiatus. Woohoo!! Thursday, October 6th at 6:30pm in the Clubhouse. Come see what the excitement is all about.

BINGO...BINGO:

Bingo will begin its season on Tuesday, October 18, 2022 at 7:00pm. Cards are 2 for $1.00. This is not a high stakes game, but it does lend itself to a great atmosphere for socializing, meeting new residents in the community, and a chance to win some money beside, this is a BYOB.

We are in need of Bingo callers this season. Please contact Judi Farmer if you are interested.

There will be a sign up sheet for callers on the inside bulletin board with the Tuesdays Bingo nights listed.

SOCIAL CLUB MEETING:

The first Social hour of the year will be held on Wednesday, October 26, 2022 at 9:00am. Coffee will be served, and is always free. Bring your coffee mug. This is the perfect time to meet new residents who have joined our community, and visit with returning residents.

Following will be the first Social Club Meeting of the season at 10:00am. These meeting are designed to provide information of activities that are being held, and will be held in the community throughout the year. You will be introduced to the Board members.

Social Hour and Social Club Meetings are held every Wednesday of the month, with Social Hour at 9am, and the meeting following at 10am.

Looking forward to seeing everyone there.

The crucial difference

A heart surgeon took his car to his local garage for a regular service. "So tell me," said the mechanic, "I've been thinking about what we both do for a living, and how you get paid a lot more than me."

"Yes?" said the surgeon.

"Look at this," said the mechanic as he opened the hood. "I open it up, check how it's running, fix the valves, and put it all back together so it works good as new. We basically do the same job, don't we? But you get paid ten times more than I do. How do you explain that?"

The surgeon thought for a moment, then smiled. "Try it with the engine running."

First confession

After twenty-five years in the same parish, Father O'Riley was retiring. At his retirement dinner, an eminent member of the congregation — a leading politician — had been asked to make a short speech, but he was late. So the priest took it upon himself to fill the time, and stood up to the microphone:

"I remember the first confession I heard here 25 years ago and how it worried me as to what sort of place I'd come to," Father O'Riley said. "That first confession remains the most troubling I've ever heard. The chap confessed that he'd stolen a TV set from a neighbor and lied to the police when questioned, successfully blaming it on a local scallywag. He said that he'd stolen money from his parents and from his employer; that he'd had affairs with several of his friends' wives; that he'd taken hard drugs.

"However, I'm pleased to say that as the days passed I soon realized that this sad fellow was a frightful exception and that this parish was indeed a wonderful place full of kind and decent people."

At this point the politician arrived and apologized for being late. Eager to take the stage, he immediately stepped up to the microphone and pulled his speech from his pocket:

"I'll always remember when Father O'Riley first came to our parish," said the politician. "In fact, I'm pretty certain that I was the first person in the parish that he heard in confession ..."

Hearing returned

An elderly gentleman had a serious hearing problem for a number of years. He went to the doctor, who fitted him for a set of hearing aids that help the gentleman's hearing gradually return to 100%.

The elderly man went back to the doctor a month later for a checkup. The doctor performed some tests, and then said, "Your hearing is perfect. Your family must be really pleased that you can hear again."

The gentleman smiled. "Oh, I haven't told my family yet. I just sit around and listen to them talk. I've already changed my will three times!"

Seven wonders

A teacher asked her students to make a list of what they considered the seven wonders of the world. After a few minutes of discussion, they came up with this list:

- Egypt's Great Pyramids
- The Taj Mahal
- The Grand Canyon
- The Panama Canal
- The Empire State Building
- St. Peter's Basilica
- The Great Wall of China

The teacher noticed that one young girl hadn't participated. She asked for the girl's own thoughts.

"I couldn't make up my mind," the student said, "because there are so many."

"Why don't you tell us what they are, and maybe we can help you choose?" the teacher suggested.

The girl hesitated, and then read her list:

- To see
- To hear
- To touch
- To taste
- To feel
- To laugh
- To love

Moral: The things we overlook as simple and ordinary, that we take for granted, are the most truly wondrous.

No single answer to leadership

Leadership consultant and blogger Tim Milburn likes to tell this story about the noted leader John C. Maxwell:

As he finished up a speech, Maxwell was approached by a young man with a determined expression on his face: "Dr. Maxwell, what's the one thing I need to know in order to be an effective leader?"

Appreciating the young man's sincerity, Maxwell replied with the same determination: "Young man, the one thing you need to know is that there is more than one thing you need to know."

In anything that counts, success is based on lots of factors. Looking for one simple answer will rarely get you what you need.
