Daily

Columbus Day October 10 - second Monday of October

Commemorates the landing of Christopher Columbus on October 12, 1492 marks the beginning of recorded history in America and opened relations between the Americas and the rest of the world.

Sweetest Day Oct.15 - on every October 15th

A day to be sweet by sharing a kind thought, small gift or a gesture of kindness.

Bosses Day Oct. 16 - always on the 16th of October

A day to thank bosses for being kind and fair though out the year.

Halloween Oct 31- always on the 31st of October

Halloween can be traced back to the ancient Celtic Festival known as Samhain (pronounced sow-in) who lived 2000 years ago. which was held on Nov. 1 on the contemporary calendars.

Our Labor Day Party

I hope everyone enjoyed our Labor Day party. It sure was a success! We all enjoyed the food and all the great singing voices for karaoke.

Thank you to everyone who came and brought sides, everyone that helped pull it all today including Greg, Lisa and Barb! Special thanks to Mike for bringing all the pork and sausage without even being asked! Thanks to everyone who helped clean up especially Eric and Barb. And I really appreciated everyone following the no open containers of alcohol and no coolers in the clubhouse. Congratulations to Kevin for winning the 50/50 and Sue for the winning the basket. Here are some pictures to enjoy for those who couldn't make it. Next up is our Pancake breakfast!

PS. Thanks Donnie for setting up the TV so we could see our Buckeyes beat Notre Dame. LOL!!

Please watch your calendar and the Bulletin board in the club house for all the upcoming events. And don't forget to sign up for all.

Recipes For October

Stuffed Acorn Squash

INGREDIENTS

3 small acorn squash
3 tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil, divided
Kosher salt
Freshly ground black pepper
1 c. farro
2 c. plus 2 tablespoons apple cider, divided
2 sprigs fresh thyme
1/2 lb. sweet Italian sausage
1/2 yellow onion, chopped
2 stalks celery, chopped
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 tbsp. fresh thyme, chopped
1 bunch lacinato kale, stems removed and chopped

DIRECTIONS

Preheat oven to 400°. Cut each end off squash and halve.

Use a spoon to remove seeds and brush all over with 2 tablespoons olive oil. Season with salt and pepper and roast until tender, 30-35 minutes.

Meanwhile, make farro: in a medium sauce pan, combine farro with 2 cups cider, 1 cup water, and thyme sprigs. Bring to a simmer and cook, stirring occasionally, until liquid is evaporated and farro is tender, 25 to 30 minutes. If your liquid is evaporated and farro is not yet tender, add more water a ¼ cup at a time. Remove thyme sprigs.

Meanwhile, make filling: in a large skillet over medium heat, heat remaining oil. Add sausage and cook, breaking up with a wooden spoon and stirring occasionally until golden and cooked through, 5 minutes. Remove sausage with a slotted spoon onto a paper-towel lined plate.

Drain most fat from the skillet, reserving about 1 tablespoon for cooking. Add onion and celery and cook until soft, 6 minutes. Season with salt and pepper. Add garlic and chopped thyme and cook until fragrant, 1 minute more.

Add kale and cook, stirring frequently. Add remaining 2 tablespoons cider after 4 minutes of cooking, then cook 4 minutes more, or until kale is tender.

Add cooked farro and sausage to skillet with vegetables and stir to combine. Taste and adjust seasoning as needed. Divide mixture among the 6 squash halves. Switch oven to broil and broil until tops are golden and filling is warmed, 2 to 3 minutes.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

The crucial difference

A heart surgeon took his car to his local garage for a regular service. "So tell me," said the mechanic, "I've been thinking about what we both do for a living, and how you get paid a lot more than me."

"Yes?" said the surgeon.

"Look at this," said the mechanic as he opened the hood. "I open it up, check how it's running, fix the valves, and put it all back together so it works good as new. We basically do the same job, don't we? But you get paid ten times more than I do. How do you explain that?"

The surgeon thought for a moment, then smiled. "Try it with the engine running."

First confession

After twenty-five years in the same parish, Father O'Riley was retiring. At his retirement dinner, an eminent member of the congregation — a leading politician — had been asked to make a short speech, but he was late. So the priest took it upon himself to fill the time, and stood up to the microphone:

"I remember the first confession I heard here 25 years ago and how it worried me as to what sort of place I'd come to," Father O'Riley said. "That first confession remains the most troubling I've ever heard. The chap confessed that he'd stolen a TV set from a neighbor and lied to the police when questioned, successfully blaming it on a local scallywag. He said that he'd stolen money from his parents and from his employer; that he'd had affairs with several of his friends' wives; that he'd taken hard drugs.

"However, I'm pleased to say that as the days passed I soon realized that this sad fellow was a frightful exception and that this parish was indeed a wonderful place full of kind and decent people."

At this point the politician arrived and apologized for being late. Eager to take the stage, he immediately stepped up to the microphone and pulled his speech from his pocket:

"I'll always remember when Father O'Riley first came to our parish," said the politician. "In fact, I'm pretty certain that I was the first person in the parish that he heard in confession ..."

Hearing returned

An elderly gentleman had a serious hearing problem for a number of years. He went to the doctor, who fitted him for a set of hearing aids that help the gentleman's hearing gradually return to 100%.

The elderly man went back to the doctor a month later for a checkup. The doctor performed some tests, and then said, "Your hearing is perfect. Your family must be really pleased that you can hear again."

The gentleman smiled. "Oh, I haven't told my family yet. I just sit around and listen to them talk. I've already changed my will three times!"
