FROM THE PRESIDENT

By Mark Vetter

Happy October friends
October, 2022

Although our Annual Meeting and Election of Officers are still a few months away, I want to mention this because it's not too early to be thinking about running for the Board. Board work is not just a cushy position of recognition. There is real work done by Board Members that many times is not even realized by our residents. I would encourage you before making a decision to run, to talk with a Board Member about the time commitment that comes with the position. If you are thinking about running, consider why. Having an axe to grind or wanting to promote your own agenda is not a good reason to run. Rather, candidates should be about working together with other residents for the good of Clearwater Cascade.

We recently hired Staebler Appraisal and Consulting to conduct an updated Reserve Study for the community.

A reserve study provides a current estimate of expenses for repairing and replacing major common area components (such as roofs, pavement, sidewalks, windows, etc.) over an extended period of time. Ideally, all major repairs and projects should be included to the best of knowledge. A forecast of the costs of these repairs and projects is provided and funds should be set aside by the association as reserves so that funds are there when needed.

The forecast looks at our current facility's assets and makes an educated analysis of how long they will last and when they will need replaced. If information is provided to the company doing the study, it will also take into consideration any upcoming projects.

The reserve study also helps to gauge our current and future financial conditions. So, the "reserve fund" is like a savings account where funds go for our costly repairs and replacements. It is a very important tool that is used by the Board of Directors to make crucial decisions concerning the community. By maintaining a 'healthy' level of reserves, we limit the risk of needing to ask residents to approve additional (special assessment) funding.

Lastly, a reserve study has a "shelf life" and it needs to be updated every few years because things change; assets (in the form of buildings, roofs, roads, etc.) age and depreciate along with the costs of labor and materials. As a result, we hire a company to conduct this study every three to four years.

MANAGER'S MESSAGE

By Bobbi Gumm CMCA

MANAGER

Welcome Back - Several of our seasonal residents have begun returning to their winter home at Clearwater Cascade. It has been nice to see everyone again! Don't forget to either stop in, call or e-mail the office that you have returned.

Spa - The spa has had a makeover! We repainted, put new trim around the windows and seashells in the corners. We should have new signage soon.

Library Windows - We should have the rest of the windows installed in October. They are hurricane rated and more energy efficient.

Library Makeover - A lot of work has been done in the library! We expanded the weight room. The flooring is rubber, which will be more comfortable for those who do floor exercises. The main area has new flooring and new paint. The library has new shelving so the books will fit much better on the shelves. We hope all our residents will love the new look!

Violations - Most violation letters come from weeds and power washing. It has been a very hot summer! With the weather starting to cool off a bit, now is a great time to get to those projects you have been putting off! Remove the weeds, plant some flowers, have your home power washed, clean your driveway or repaint it. With just a little work, your home will look great! Don't forget, if you get a letter, please let the office know when the work will be completed.

Mobile Home Titles - If you have not provided the office with a copy of your mobile home title(s), please bring it/them into the office so we can make a copy to keep on file. You may also e-mail a copy to office@clearwatercascade.com.

That is all I have for this month. I hope you all have a fun and safe Halloween!

How can it be? October already. Happy Thanksgiving to our Canadian Snowbirds on Monday, October 10, or the 8th or 9th, whenever you celebrate.

After reading many of the articles in this issue, I am really looking forward to returning to my second home. Seeing the changes that have been made in the library and exercise room and having the windows done by the time we get there, the beautification that is ongoing, and especially seeing old friends and meeting new ones is an exciting time. Communicating with and seeing many of the people who are taking on the numerous tasks for the benefit of all who live in Clearwater Cascade, makes me

Mystery Corner?

A Deadly Excursion Epilogue

“Hello again, dear friends, a year has passed at the Flamingo and Loon MHP and much has happened in that time. A month ago, Edith and I attend the wedding of Marian Thompson and Johnny Wright. The maid of honor was their, newly discovered daughter, Julie Parker with the best man being Julie’s fiancé, Clyde O’Reilly. Next month the roles will be reversed as Julie and Clyde head to the alter. Julie’s adopted parents, Sam and Lily Parker will be in attendance. Both sets of Julie’s parents have met several times and a friendship has developed between them. Happiness abounds.”

At the pool, the widowed sisters, Betty and Judy are again enjoying the Florida sunshine and chatting with Agnes, Katherine and Rosie.

“I think we should have another excursion,” suggests Rosie.

“I’m all for that,” agreed Betty, “as long as it isn’t to the casino”.

“I will second that,” adds Judy. “One dead body is quite enough.”

“You can come across a body anywhere,” murmurs Katherine, “I personally don’t want to go through that situation again.”

“Agreed,” answer the other three. “Let’s all put on our thinking caps,” suggests Betty.

“I wonder how Jack is doing? I felt so sorry for him. He seems like such a nice man to have had all his troubles,” sighs Judy. “Imagine being arrested for manslaughter and having to go through another trial. I don’t think he should have been found guilty. If that woman hadn’t treated him the way she did, he wouldn’t have gotten mad enough to shake her that way. She’s the one who stumbled.”

“Judy!” exclaims Betty, “she wouldn’t have fallen if he hadn’t been shaking her and after all she’s the one who’s dead.”

“I know,” sighs Judy again, “I’m just glad he got a light sentence and is now on probation. Did anyone hear if he got his job back at the Limo company? Maybe Stanley would know.”

“Probably,” says Katherine, “they seem to have become good friends. I’m glad of that, too. Didn’t they already know each other from XYZ?”

Maybe we should take a trip to Disney World,” she exclaims excitedly.

Stunned silence and then, “Are you kidding?” from the others. “I guess I was,” Katherine says quietly. Then loudly, “No, actually I wasn’t. I think it would be fun. We could pick our times when the kids are in school and it is cooler.”

The others look at her, unsure if she is serious or not. “I would have to think about it,” states Betty. “Me too,” adds Agnes. I think it sounds like fun; you never know who you could meet! said Judy.

“It was just a thought,” says Katherine. “Say Rosie, I’ve been meaning to ask you how many times have you actually been married and why won’t you want to talk about it?”

“I just would rather not think about it or discuss it, ever again,” Rosie says quietly.

“You know,” says Betty, “we are here for you if you ever do want to talk about it. Sometimes it better to get bad things out and let them blow away.”

Judy gets up, “Well, I’m going to cool off in the pool and then head home for a while.”

The others agree and follow her into the pool.

“So, honestly, Disney World? With that bunch one never knows. The mouse better be prepared.

Have a good day, friends and I’m betting we’ll be seeing each other soon! Disney World. REALLY?

Profound!

When TV came to my house. I forgot how to read books.
When the car came to my doorstep, I forgot how to walk.
When I got the mobile in my hand, I forgot how to write letters.
When computer came to my house, I forgot spellings
When the AC came to my house, I stopped going under the tree for cool breeze.
When I stayed in the city, I forgot the smell of mud.
By dealing with banks and cards, I forgot the value of money.
With the smell of perfume, I forgot the fragrance of fresh flowers.
With the coming of fast food, I forgot to cook traditional cuisines.
Always running around, I forgot how to stop.
And lastly when I got 'whatsapp', I forgot how to talk.

When we die, our money remains in the bank.
Yet, when we are alive, we don't have enough money to spend.
In reality, when we are gone, there is still a lot of money not spent.
One business tycoon in China passed away. His widow, was left with $1.9 billion in the bank and she married his chauffeur.
His chauffeur said: - 'All the while, I thought I was working for my boss ... it is only now, that I realize that my boss was all the time, working for me !!!'
The cruel reality:
In a high-end hand phone, 70% of the functions are useless!
For an expensive car, 70% of the speed and gadgets are not needed.
If you own a luxurious villa or mansion, 70% of the space is usually not used or occupied.
Your wardrobes of clothes? 70% of them are not worn!
A whole life of work and earning ... 70% is for others to spend.

So, we must protect and make full use of our 30%.
Go for medical check-ups even if not sick.
Drink more water, even if not thirsty.
Learn to let go, even if faced with grave problems.
Endeavour to give in, even if you are in the right.
Remain humble, even if you are very rich and powerful.
Learn to be contented, even if you are not rich.
Exercise your mind and body, even if you are very busy.
Make time for people you care about.

BEAUTIFICATION

By Donna Miller

Happy Fall Y'all! As I write this message, I am in Virginia babysitting our new granddaughter. While away from our little community, a couple of other full-time residents (Neil Pickrem and Jane Boucher) have volunteered to take care of some of the things I do in the park. I can't thank them enough! If you see them out and about working on beautification of the park, please make sure to thank them as well. Here's to our beautiful park and our wonderful residents - thanks, again, Neil and Jane!

SOCIAL CLUB

By April Loomis

Cascade Social Club became a not-for-profit corporation in 1997. The purpose was and still is, to provide and conduct social activities for the residents of the park.

The Communication Committee was formed in 2017 with the intent to develop methods of better communication within the park.

The Community Activities Fund was created in 2017 to provide the community with funds for assisting in the operation of the activities that Social Club didn't provide such as darts and shuffle board.

In 2020, it became evident that a number of this type of activity were falling by the wayside because no one was willing to step up and organize them. So, the Communication Committee group took on the organizing of these events as well as providing some new activities. When they had expanded to that degree, it was recommended that they change the name to Community Activities Committee and revamp the operation of the committee. They needed to ensure any money made through fund raising was done properly and within required guidelines. A proposal was made to the Board and was passed in 2022.

It has become evident, that in the past two years, our demographics have changed. We now have more year-round residents than snowbirds and residents are looking for year-round activities. Since the majority of Social Club Directors are snowbirds, activities were seasonal. Members of the Community Activities Committee volunteered to organize many fun filled summer activities in conjunction with the Social Club which were very well attended.

Each group has a directive under which they operate. If and when it is possible, it would be wonderful to blend these groups. Imagine what could happen if we all work together!

DID YOU KNOW?

- Grapes light on fire in the microwave.
- McDonald's once created bubblegum-flavored broccoli to encourage people to eat vegetables. It was a failure.
- The 1939 novel Gadsby is the longest book ever published that doesn't contain the letter 'e.'
- Bubble wrap was originally invented as wallpaper.
- The top speed of the winning car in the first U.S. race was seven miles per hour. Frank Duryea reached a top speed of 7 mph when he raced the second car he had ever built with his brother, Charles, on Thanksgiving Day, November 27, 1895.
- Crowds at one Louisiana State University football game once cheered so loudly that it registered as an earthquake on a local seismograph.
- A lifeboat drill was canceled the morning of the Titanic tragedy.
- "Q" is the only letter that doesn't appear in any U.S. state name.

PAST EVENTS

Ice Cream Social Facebook comments and pictures

From Theresa Parson: Thank you to Ann Vetter who hosted the Ice Cream Social today! And a Big Thank You to all who helped make this event a great success!! We couldn't have done it without you!

We had 63 people attend! Thank you to all who attended! It was wonderful seeing some new faces!

From Jesse Ray: It was amazing the people involved in the ice cream social just can't help showing the community how much they care and want everyone to be involved and have fun so everyone who did not come to the ice cream social come to the next event you will be welcomed with open arms and have so much fun.

From Jeanette Gordon: It was a great treat. Thank you

From Bonnie Barnes: It was so yummy 😊 thanks everyone!

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,
The Florida Anchor & Barrier Team
