THE FUNNIES

by Al Szynski

EATING IN THE FIFTIES

Pasta had not been invented. It was macaroni or spaghetti.

Curry was a surname.

A take-away was a mathematical problem.

Pizza? Sounds like a leaning tower somewhere.

Bananas and oranges only appeared at Christmas time.

All chips were plain.

Oil was for lubricating, fat was for cooking.

Tea was made in a teapot using tea leaves and never green.

Cubed sugar was regarded as posh.

Chickens didn't have fingers in those days.

None of us had ever heard of yogurt.

Healthy food consisted of anything edible.

Cooking outside was called camping.

Seaweed was not a recognized food.

'Kebab' was not even a word, never mind a food.

Sugar enjoyed a good press in those days, and was regarded as being white gold.

Prunes were medicinal.

Surprisingly, muesli was readily available. It was called cattle feed.

Pineapples came in chunks in a tin; we had only ever seen a picture of a real one.

Water came out of the tap. If someone had suggested bottling it and charging more than gasoline for it, they would have become a laughing stock.

The one thing that we never ever had on/at our table in the fifties ... was elbows, hats and cell phones.

MORE FUNNY STORIES

THANKSGIVING – Want to freak someone out? Add two extra legs to the turkey when it's in the oven!

CHARITY – A local charity had never received a donation from the town's banker, so the director made a phone call. "Our records show you make $500,000 a year, yet you haven't given a penny to charity," the director began. "Wouldn't you like to help the community?" The banker replied, "Did your research show that my mother is ill, with extremely expensive medical bills?" "Um, no," mumbled the director. "Or that my brother is unemployed? Or that my sister's husband left, leaving her broke with four kids?" "I ... I ... I had no idea." "So," said the banker, "if I don't give them any money, why would I give any to you?"

DUEL – A little boy came home from the playground with a bloody nose, black eye and torn clothing. It was obvious he’d been in a bad fight and lost. While his father was patching him up, he asked his son what happened. “Well, Dad,” said the boy, “I challenged Larry to a duel. And, you know, I gave him his choice of weapons.” “Uh-huh,” said the father, “that seems fair.” “I know, but I never thought he choose his big sister!”

A YOUNG WOMAN told her mother, “I’m going out with Joe again tonight.” “Him again,” her mother replied. “If you like his attentions so much, why don’t you marry him?” “Because I like his attentions.”

I ASKED my daughter if she’d seen my newspaper. She told me that newspapers are old school and handed me her iPad. The fly didn’t stand a chance!

A WOMAN rolled an elderly man in a wheelchair into the reception area of a doctor’s office. As she went to the front desk, the man sat there, alone and silent. Then a boy climbed off his mother’s lap and walked over to the wheelchair. Placing his hand on the man’s, the boy said, “I know how you feel. My Mom makes me ride in the stroller, too.”

AN ELDERLY PATIENT said to his doctor, “My leg aches all the time.” “That’s just old age,” the doctor replied. “Well, my other leg is exactly the same age, and it feels fine!”

WHERE DID Noah keep his bees? In the ark hives.

I LIKE TO GET the most out of mystery novels. I always start in the middle – not only do I wonder how it’ll end, I also wonder how it started.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

by JoLynn Kendzora

I would just like to say how blessed we all were with regards to Hurricane Ian taking a last minute turn and missing our area, saving our homes. We had no damage, no power outages and many residents were helping other residents -- putting shutters up and down, putting flower pots away and bringing them out again, helping friends find a safe place to go, etc. We live in a beautiful park with wonderful residents who are always willing to help each other out in any type of situation. We pray for those in the Fort Myers, Pine Island, Sanibel Island and Cape Coral areas as they got hit hard! But so thankful it missed us. ♥

PASTA ITALIANO

by Barbara Baker

- 1 lb. small shell pasta
- 1 ½ lbs. Italian sausage, mild or hot
- 1 lg. green pepper, seeded and chopped
- 1 lb. sliced mushrooms
- 3 (14 ½ oz.) cans diced tomatoes, with basil, garlic and oregano

Prepare pasta according to package directions. Sauté sausage in a large lightly oiled skillet over medium-high heat, breaking it up. For added flavor, use olive oil to sauté the sausage and vegetables. If sausage is oily, drain before adding vegetables. When sausage is almost done, add pepper and sauté for 3 minutes. Add mushrooms and cook another 2-3 minutes, or until softened. Add tomatoes and bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer for 10 minutes. Toss mixture with pasta and serve. Makes 8 servings.

SOUTHERN POTATO SOUP

by Marlene Dupler

- ½ lb. bulk sausage
- 2 stalks celery
- 1 medium chopped onion
- 2 chopped carrots
- 2 tbs. butter
- 3 c. water
- 5 chicken or beef bullion cubes, dissolved
- 6-8 potatoes, peeled and chopped
- ¾ tsp. seasoned salt

Accent

- ½ tsp. thyme
- ½ tsp. Rosemary
- ½ tsp. garlic powder
- 3 c. grated longhorn cheese
- 2-3 c. half & half

Combine all ingredients – except cheese and milk – and cook until potatoes are tender (about 1 hr). Remove from heat and add grated longhorn cheese and half and half. Place on low heat and warm slowly, so as not to scorch milk. Serve with crackers or good crusty bread.

NOVEMBER CALENDAR

American Diabetes Month. For the millions of people at risk for diabetes, November is a time to get educated, find resources, and make sure everyone is aware of their risk. And for the millions of people living with diabetes, it's a chance to tell their stories and awaken the world.

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. One in 10 people will have a seizure in life, and one in 26 will develop epilepsy during their lifetime. Emotional health is important for people with epilepsy, along with their family members, caregivers, and friends. With the power of community, we can bring hope to everyone experiencing the challenges of epilepsy.

National Native American Heritage Month. What started at the turn of the century as an effort to win a day of recognition for the first Americans and the significant contributions they made to the establishment and growth of the United States has resulted in a whole month dedicated to that purpose.

National Runaway Prevention Month. National Runaway Prevention Month is a public awareness campaign designed to spotlight the experiences of runaway and homeless youth who too often remain invisible, and to highlight the resources available to support youth in crisis around the nation.

Daily

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 5-11. There are approximately 3,500 animal shelters across the United States, housing the estimated 6-8 million homeless animals that seek refuge each year—only half of which are adopted. National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week is a perfect opportunity for you, your family, and your community to become acquainted with your local shelter and help homeless pets.

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, Nov. 12-22. Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is an annual program where people come together to draw attention to the problems of hunger and homelessness. Participating groups spend the week holding a series of educational, service, fundraising, and advocacy events.

National Nurse Practitioner Week, Nov. 13-19. National Nurse Practitioner Week is held annually to celebrate these exceptional health care providers and to remind lawmakers of the importance of removing outdated barriers to practice so nurse practitioners will be allowed to use the full extent of their experience and education.

Geography Awareness Week, Nov. 15-19. Established by presidential proclamation more than 25 years ago, this annual public awareness program encourages citizens young and old to think and learn about the significance of place and how we affect and are affected by it.
