WELCOME BACK RESIDENTS, and WELCOME NEW RESIDENTS:

As our Snowbirds and Vacationers begin to return, we are pleased to say, welcome home.

To all new residents, Welcome to harbor Lights, a great community in which to live. To find out what activities/events are taking place in the park, keep an eye on our Facebook page, e-mails that are sent out, monthly issues of the Scuttlebutt (that are delivered to your door by the 1st of each month), and the bulletin board next to the main entrance doors of the Clubhouse.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!

Iam personally sending out a huge THANK YOU to the volunteers in our park that deliver the Scuttlebutt to each home every month during the year. Words cannot express how much I appreciate that you give your time each month to do this for me, and our community. Thank you to the following volunteers, and please if and when you see these people around the park, tell them Thank You.

Sam Battaglia, Debbie Boso, Melodie Marco, Joan Martini, Lee Mills, Donna Quackenbush, Lisa Rudolph, Andrea Snow, Frank Sprada, Karol Wilson, and Patty Wood.

From: Judi Farmer

GOOD BYE:

We said Good Bye to Mark Mead in October. He had worked at Harbor Lights for 28 years, and is embarking on a new journey in his life. We wish him all the best, and know he will be missed.

BINGO...BINGO:

Bingo is every Tuesday night beginning at 7:00pm. Come a little early to purchase your cards.

Cards are 2 for $1.00. This is not a high stakes game, but it does lend itself to a great atmosphere for socializing, meeting new residents in the community, and a chance to win some money beside, this is a BYOB.

We are in need of Bingo callers this season. Please contact Judi Farmer if you are interested.

There will be a sign up sheet for callers on the inside bulletin board with the Tuesdays Bingo nights listed.

The winning essay

One night a teacher was correcting essays written by her students. As she read one essay, tears began streaming down her cheeks. Her husband looked up from the TV and asked her what the matter was.

She handed him the essay she was reading. In the essay, the child wrote that he wished he was a TV so he could win the love and attention of his parents. He told how his mother watched the TV to be happy and how his father watched it for hours to rest after coming home from work. The child wished to be a TV so he could be the center of attention and earn the love of his parents.

The husband turned and said, "What a poor kid! Such horrible parents!"

She looked at him and said, "That essay is by our own son."

No time like now

A rabbi was walking with some of his disciples when one of them asked, "Rabbi, when should a man repent?"

The rabbi replied, "On the last day of your life."

"But," protested the disciple, "we can never be sure which day will be the last day of our life."

The rabbi smiled. "The answer to that problem is very simple. Repent now."

The unwanted gift

One day a wise monk was walking through a village. A very angry and rude young man came up and began insulting him, hurling all kinds of rude words at him, intended to ridicule and demean him.

The monk continued his walk, paying no attention to the insults, and the young man grew enraged at being ignored. "Why don't you say something?" he demanded. "How can you keep walking as if I were silent?"

The monk stopped and asked the young man, "Tell me, if you buy a gift for someone, and that person does not take it, to whom does the gift belong?"

The young man was surprised that the monk was now addressing him. "It would belong to me, because I brought the gift," he said.

The monk smiled. "That is correct. And it is the same with your anger. If you become angry with me and I do not get insulted, then the anger falls back on you. You are then the only one who becomes unhappy, not me. All you have done is hurt yourself."

Riddle me this

A few riddles to brighten your day:

Did you hear about the first restaurant to open on the moon?

It had great food, but no atmosphere.

Do you want to hear a construction joke?
Sorry, I'm still working on it.

Did you hear about the fire at the campground?
It was in tents!

What's the difference between a hippo and a Zippo?
One is really heavy and the other's a little lighter.

Why did the bullet lose its job?
It got fired.

The honest woodcutter

---

Once there lived a woodcutter, Ramu, who led a very simple life in the forest near a river. He was poor but he worked hard. One day while chopping down a branch, Ramu's axe slipped from his hands and fell into the river. He tried searching, but the axe was lost.

Ramu sat down by the riverbank and started weeping. Hearing his cries, an angel appeared and promised to help him find his axe. She dove into the water and retrieved an axe made of gold.

"That's not my axe," Ramu said.

The angel dove again and returned with a silver axe. Ramu refused it again, saying that his axe was made of steel. The angel went into the water a third time and returned with Ramu's steel axe. Elated, Ramu thanked the angel profusely.

Impressed by his simplicity and honesty, the angel gave Ramu the gold and silver axe too. Ramu went home a very happy woodcutter.

*If you wish to glimpse inside a human soul and get to know a man, just watch him laugh.
If he laughs well, he's a good man.

NOVEMBER CALENDAR

American Diabetes Month. For the millions of people at risk for diabetes, November is a time to get educated, find resources, and make sure everyone is aware of their risk. And for the millions of people living with diabetes, it's a chance to tell their stories and awaken the world.

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. One in 10 people will have a seizure in life, and one in 26 will develop epilepsy during their lifetime. Emotional health is important for people with epilepsy, along with their family members, caregivers, and friends. With the power of community, we can bring hope to everyone experiencing the challenges of epilepsy.

National Native American Heritage Month. What started at the turn of the century as an effort to win a day of recognition for the first Americans and the significant contributions they made to the establishment and growth of the United States has resulted in a whole month dedicated to that purpose.

National Runaway Prevention Month. National Runaway Prevention Month is a public awareness campaign designed to spotlight the experiences of runaway and homeless youth who too often remain invisible, and to highlight the resources available to support youth in crisis around the nation.

Daily

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 5-11. There are approximately 3,500 animal shelters across the United States, housing the estimated 6-8 million homeless animals that seek refuge each year—only half of which are adopted. National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week is a perfect opportunity for you, your family, and your community to become acquainted with your local shelter and help homeless pets.

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, Nov. 12-22. Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is an annual program where people come together to draw attention to the problems of hunger and homelessness. Participating groups spend the week holding a series of educational, service, fundraising, and advocacy events.

National Nurse Practitioner Week, Nov. 13-19. National Nurse Practitioner Week is held annually to celebrate these exceptional health care providers and to remind lawmakers of the importance of removing outdated barriers to practice so nurse practitioners will be allowed to use the full extent of their experience and education.

Geography Awareness Week, Nov. 15-19. Established by presidential proclamation more than 25 years ago, this annual public awareness program encourages citizens young and old to think and learn about the significance of place and how we affect and are affected by it.
