Just Another Day at Daytona Speedway!!!

While vacationing for a few days in mid-September I decided to experience the "NASCAR Driving Experience" at the Daytona Speedway. A 45-minute driver training video session followed by about 1/2-hour Q&A. I suited up for a 3-lap ride-a-long with a professional driver to get the feel of a NASCAR racing machine in car #24. Then an 8-lap drive by myself in car #23 guided by a spotter in the tower not to exceed 4800/5000 rpm-150 mph. I averaged 143.25 mph. I could have gone a little faster but stayed at a speed I was comfortable with. Wait 'til next time!!!

Nancy attended the instructions with me but didn't want to have anything to do with getting into a car.

The most difficult thing was getting into the car through a small window (pictured).

The experience was more exciting than Sky Diving, also 3 times more expensive. At my age it was well worth the experience!!!!

- Tom Lenard

NOVEMBER CALENDAR

American Diabetes Month. For the millions of people at risk for diabetes, November is a time to get educated, find resources, and make sure everyone is aware of their risk. And for the millions of people living with diabetes, it's a chance to tell their stories and awaken the world.

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. One in 10 people will have a seizure in life, and one in 26 will develop epilepsy during their lifetime. Emotional health is important for people with epilepsy, along with their family members, caregivers, and friends. With the power of community, we can bring hope to everyone experiencing the challenges of epilepsy.

National Native American Heritage Month. What started at the turn of the century as an effort to win a day of recognition for the first Americans and the significant contributions they made to the establishment and growth of the United States has resulted in a whole month dedicated to that purpose.

National Runaway Prevention Month. National Runaway Prevention Month is a public awareness campaign designed to spotlight the experiences of runaway and homeless youth who too often remain invisible, and to highlight the resources available to support youth in crisis around the nation.

Daily

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 5-11. There are approximately 3,500 animal shelters across the United States, housing the estimated 6-8 million homeless animals that seek refuge each year—only half of which are adopted. National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week is a perfect opportunity for you, your family, and your community to become acquainted with your local shelter and help homeless pets.

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, Nov. 12-22. Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is an annual program where people come together to draw attention to the problems of hunger and homelessness. Participating groups spend the week holding a series of educational, service, fundraising, and advocacy events.

National Nurse Practitioner Week, Nov. 13-19. National Nurse Practitioner Week is held annually to celebrate these exceptional health care providers and to remind lawmakers of the importance of removing outdated barriers to practice so nurse practitioners will be allowed to use the full extent of their experience and education.

Geography Awareness Week, Nov. 15-19. Established by presidential proclamation more than 25 years ago, this annual public awareness program encourages citizens young and old to think and learn about the significance of place and how we affect and are affected by it.

Clever code

Long ago, two brothers owned a small cattle ranch. One of their bulls died unexpectedly, and they needed to buy another one, but they only had $500.

The older brother said, "I'll go to the market in the next town and see if I can find one for under that amount. If I do, I'll send you a telegram to come with the truck to pick it up."

He walked to the market 12 miles away and found a bull for $499. Having only one dollar left, he went to the telegraph office and found out that a telegram would cost $1 per word. He was stumped on how to tell his brother to bring the truck to town.

Finally he told the telegraph operator to send the word "comfortable." Skeptical, the operator asked, "How will he know to bring your truck here from just that one word?"

The brother replied, "He'll figure it out. It means, 'Come for ta bull.'"

A very bad day

A man sat at a bar just looking at his glass for a half hour. Suddenly a big trucker marched up, grabbed the glass, and drank it down.

The man started crying. The truck driver felt bad and said, "Come on man, I was just joking. Here, I'll buy you another drink."

"No, it's not that," the man replied, wiping his tears. "This day is the worst of my life. First, I oversleep and I go in late to my office. My boss fires me. When I leave the building to go to my car, I find out it was stolen. The police say they can't do anything. I get a cab to go home, and when I get out, I leave my wallet on the seat. I run down the street, but the cab driver just drives away. Then I go inside my house where I find my wife in bed with my best friend. So I leave and come here to this bar."

He sighed. "Then, just when I get the courage to put an end to my life, you show up and drink my poison."

And what is laughter anyway? Changing the angle of vision.
