Social Committee Tidbits

Mary Gilmore

When our Boca Ciega residents from Canada and from the States return in November, they will drive through the park and see that the park is the same as they left it in the spring. We are thankful that our park in Pinellas County did not have to face the unbelievable strength of Hurricane Ian that came ashore Wednesday, September 28 in Lee County. Wind was recorded at 155 mph. Storm surge was from around 12 feet to 16 feet. Water was pushed on to the land in Lee County, whereas in Tampa, the bay was emptied out again. Unbelievable.

As you know, for the longest time, Tampa was thought to be where Ian would make landfall. Our neighbors, Karen and Mark evacuated to a friend's home in St. Augustine. They drove both of their cars to that destination that turned out to be where Ian also travelled as it headed north. You just don't know. Other neighbors were invited to spend the night at a family member's home. Some neighbors did choose to stay in their own home. Most residents chose to shelter in our clubhouse.

To prepare for our residents arrival, Eric and Sheila and Aldo and Terry moved the high lounge chairs to the clubhouse. The remaining chairs were put in the pool. Umbrellas were taken down and stored and the remaining shutters were put down and secured at the clubhouse. Inside the clubhouse, Virginia made sure that necessary supplies were available like water, cups and toilet paper. The TV was turned on to Bay News 9. Residents brought up their pillows and blankets and air mattresses. They brought food from their homes and someone brought a coffee pot. I learned that dinner was made on Wednesday night and breakfast was made on Thursday morning. A good cook is always welcomed. The gas stove in our clubhouse kitchen was put to use. The park never lost power that night. There were gusts of wind to 80 mph and rain. Some residents passed the evening playing Rummikub before they hit the sack. All went back to their homes Thursday morning and were thankful to see that the park was okay.

On the scene, after Ian's wide berth of passing by, was our super hero residents again. Eric and Sheila and Aldo and Terry, joined by Bobby. They put the park back in order. Eric and Sheila went around each street in the park and picked up any debris in our front yards. Our lawn service later picked up any debris in our backyards. As the days went by, residents started returning to the park. Earl in #44, on his hands and knees, weeded the stones around our 14 foxtail palms in the front of our park. Sounds like another super hero resident to me.

Each month of the hurricane season, I have included a Prayer for the Protection from Hurricanes. Prayer is powerful. We are praying now for the people who have lost so much in the state of Florida. Shirley has a brother in Naples and I have a brother in Fort Myers. Both of their homes had severe water damage. I had to relay a family concern to my brother, Gerry, and I guess I was getting way into the problem when Gerry said to me, "Mary, do you have floors, do you have walls, do you have lights, do you have water? Okay, you're right Gerry, everything that I was concerned about is not much at all. Thanks. I love you."

We are now looking forward to getting together and celebrating Thanksgiving at the clubhouse. Already, Ingrid is asking for help in decorating the hall. Never too early to start.

Thank you to everyone who answered all my questions as I was trying to learn about our park while I was away.

Prayer For The Protection From Hurricanes

God our Father, Creator and Lord of the Universe, you have set the Earth on its foundation and all the elements of nature obey your command. We humbly ask you to keep us safe from all dangers and calm the storms that threaten us. May we be secure in your loving protection and serve you always with grateful hearts. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

Thanksgiving Dinner Social - Thursday, November 24, 2022

Judy Amenta

We are planning to organize a Thanksgiving Dinner for those residents that will be in the Park at this time. We will be cooking both turkey and ham as well as all the side fixings.

This is just an early notification so that residents can plan accordingly. In mid-November we will be putting up notices to promote the event and also lists for people to sign up to attend. In previous years, we have used volunteers to cook the turkeys and hams and all the other attendees sign up to bring various other fixings such as potatoes, salads, vegetables, rolls, desserts etc. This is the plan going forward. Please plan to attend if you wish.

Remember to vote in the midterm elections. Send in your Official Balloting Material or get out to vote at your polling place. Do one or the other in a timely manner.

"The 2022 United States elections will be held on Tuesday, November 8, 2022. During this midterm election year, all 435 seats in the House of Representatives and 35 of the 100 seats in the Senate will be contested."

NOVEMBER CALENDAR

American Diabetes Month. For the millions of people at risk for diabetes, November is a time to get educated, find resources, and make sure everyone is aware of their risk. And for the millions of people living with diabetes, it's a chance to tell their stories and awaken the world.

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. One in 10 people will have a seizure in life, and one in 26 will develop epilepsy during their lifetime. Emotional health is important for people with epilepsy, along with their family members, caregivers, and friends. With the power of community, we can bring hope to everyone experiencing the challenges of epilepsy.

National Native American Heritage Month. What started at the turn of the century as an effort to win a day of recognition for the first Americans and the significant contributions they made to the establishment and growth of the United States has resulted in a whole month dedicated to that purpose.

National Runaway Prevention Month. National Runaway Prevention Month is a public awareness campaign designed to spotlight the experiences of runaway and homeless youth who too often remain invisible, and to highlight the resources available to support youth in crisis around the nation.

Daily

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 5-11. There are approximately 3,500 animal shelters across the United States, housing the estimated 6-8 million homeless animals that seek refuge each year—only half of which are adopted. National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week is a perfect opportunity for you, your family, and your community to become acquainted with your local shelter and help homeless pets.

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, Nov. 12-22. Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is an annual program where people come together to draw attention to the problems of hunger and homelessness. Participating groups spend the week holding a series of educational, service, fundraising, and advocacy events.

National Nurse Practitioner Week, Nov. 13-19. National Nurse Practitioner Week is held annually to celebrate these exceptional health care providers and to remind lawmakers of the importance of removing outdated barriers to practice so nurse practitioners will be allowed to use the full extent of their experience and education.

Geography Awareness Week, Nov. 15-19. Established by presidential proclamation more than 25 years ago, this annual public awareness program encourages citizens young and old to think and learn about the significance of place and how we affect and are affected by it.

Riddle me this

A few riddles to brighten your day:

Did you hear about the first restaurant to open on the moon?

It had great food, but no atmosphere.

Do you want to hear a construction joke?

Sorry, I'm still working on it.

Did you hear about the fire at the campground?

It was in tents!

What's the difference between a hippo and a Zippo?

One is really heavy and the other's a little lighter.

Why did the bullet lose its job?

It got fired.

The honest woodcutter

Once there lived a woodcutter, Ramu, who led a very simple life in the forest near a river. He was poor but he worked hard. One day while chopping down a branch, Ramu's axe slipped from his hands and fell into the river. He tried searching, but the axe was lost.

Ramu sat down by the riverbank and started weeping. Hearing his cries, an angel appeared and promised to help him find his axe. She dove into the water and retrieved an axe made of gold.

"That's not my axe," Ramu said.

The angel dove again and returned with a silver axe. Ramu refused it again, saying that his axe was made of steel. The angel went into the water a third time and returned with Ramu's steel axe. Elated, Ramu thanked the angel profusely.

Impressed by his simplicity and honesty, the angel gave Ramu the gold and silver axe too. Ramu went home a very happy woodcutter.

*If you wish to glimpse inside a human soul and get to know a man, just watch him laugh.
If he laughs well, he's a good man.

The winning essay

One night a teacher was correcting essays written by her students. As she read one essay, tears began streaming down her cheeks. Her husband looked up from the TV and asked her what the matter was.

She handed him the essay she was reading. In the essay, the child wrote that he wished he was a TV so he could win the love and attention of his parents. He told how his mother watched the TV to be happy and how his father watched it for hours to rest after coming home from work. The child wished to be a TV so he could be the center of attention and earn the love of his parents.

The husband turned and said, "What a poor kid! Such horrible parents!"

She looked at him and said, "That essay is by our own son."

No time like now

A rabbi was walking with some of his disciples when one of them asked, "Rabbi, when should a man repent?"

The rabbi replied, "On the last day of your life."

"But," protested the disciple, "we can never be sure which day will be the last day of our life."

The rabbi smiled. "The answer to that problem is very simple. Repent now."

The unwanted gift

One day a wise monk was walking through a village. A very angry and rude young man came up and began insulting him, hurling all kinds of rude words at him, intended to ridicule and demean him.

The monk continued his walk, paying no attention to the insults, and the young man grew enraged at being ignored. "Why don't you say something?" he demanded. "How can you keep walking as if I were silent?"

The monk stopped and asked the young man, "Tell me, if you buy a gift for someone, and that person does not take it, to whom does the gift belong?"

The young man was surprised that the monk was now addressing him. "It would belong to me, because I brought the gift," he said.

The monk smiled. "That is correct. And it is the same with your anger. If you become angry with me and I do not get insulted, then the anger falls back on you. You are then the only one who becomes unhappy, not me. All you have done is hurt yourself."

After nourishment, shelter, and companionship, stories are the thing we need most in the world. —Philip Pullman
