PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association President

It was a delight to see so many new faces at the October meeting to support our park association. And, it is OUR park - not the association officers park, nor the seasoned residents park, nor the newer residents park – we all have a voice and we all share the responsibility of ensuring that our goal of promoting an environment where good neighborliness prevails and everyone feels welcomed at social events; so thank you for joining us and being anxious to participate in this process as active members.

If you did not come to the October potluck dinner, you missed a good one – the baked ziti was to die for (that’s not just my opinion, it was voiced by many others as well). Thanks to Lei Crance for not only suggesting it but for helping to prepare and serve it. It was a sparse crowd, due in part to the fact that it was postponed at the last minute because of the threat of Hurricane Ian, nevertheless happy sounds of friendship prevailed throughout the evening. Don’t miss the next one, sign up for the November potluck on the clubhouse bulletin board.

What about that Halloween Karaoke Party hosted by Johnnie & Carla Corley! I will fall on my sword and admit that I posted it to my calendar on the wrong night resulting in much confusion, but everyone eventually got the word and the partying began. The costumes, the music, and the fellowship resulted in a fun night for all. This was not a one and done event, they will be hosting karaoke monthly on Saturday nights over the next several months, so watch the calendar for their schedule. It will also be posted on Lake Haven Happenings Facebook – look for it.

The November calendar is full as it is the start of the busy social season. Veteran’s Day is the 11th and we extend a very special thank you to our veterans for their service. Then that fabulous feast day known as Thanksgiving comes along, and on the following Saturday morning at 9:30AM everyone who can, please join us in the clubhouse as we do our best to make it festive for the holiday season. We’ll have two trees to decorate along with any other space we can find to place Christmas décor. And there’s the pool to decorate as well. Every year without fail I manage to break a couple of things, sometimes it’s on purpose as we tend to save decorations that have far outlived their original beauty and it’s time to say goodbye, other times it’s just because I tend to be klutzy.

On Saturday, November 12 from 9AM-1PM the Ladies Hobby Club will host its annual Arts & Craft Sale. This will be their 11th annual sale – stop by to see their handiwork, and if you want to purchase something for yourself or as a gift, they would be overjoyed. Even if you don’t want to buy anything, feel free to stop by to say hello, but truly how could one ignore this golden opportunity to make a dent in their holiday gift list?? 😊

Our Christmas Dinner Party is Saturday, December 10th, in the clubhouse. Tickets for Park #1 Association members are $17, non-members and guest tickets are $25 and will be available for purchase until November 28. We did not want to increase the ticket price but as everyone is aware the cost of everything has gone up creating a domino effect. However consider that going out to dine would cost at least as much if not more – and dinner is followed by music and dancing. Traditionally speaking, this catered event is the highlight of our holiday seasonal activities.

Again this year, Park #1 Association will sponsor a food drive for Dunedin Cares Food Bank. Boxes will be set out in the clubhouse for your donations; we welcome donations from the other parks as well. This season is a time of great need, your generosity in supporting this local community organization is appreciated. We will deliver your contributions to the food bank on Friday, November 18.

We are in the process of updating the Community Directory; if you received a form requesting permission to publish your name, lot number and telephone number, and have not yet returned it, please call me and I will stop by to pick it up. My number is 727-733-3755.

Have a great month – enjoy the cooler weather. Be a responsible citizen – don't forget to vote.

THANK YOU LAKE HAVEN VETERANS FOR YOUR SERVICE TO OUR COUNTRY
HAPPY THANKSGIVING DAY -- WE HAVE MUCH TO BE THANKFUL FOR

LAKE HAVEN MOBILE HOME OWNERS, INC.

Members of the HOA board continue to meet weekly to prepare the Amendment to the Lake Haven Prospectus and Rules & Regulations. We have completed the task of meeting with residents for input and identifying areas in our current documents that we will request to be added/deleted/revise to create the new Park Prospectus. Our current task is comparing this revised data with the “boilerplate” prospectus ELS has approved for all their locations and has encouraged us to use as a guide in preparing our final document. The HOA does not agree with many of the rules defined in the boilerplate but will incorporate the portions we do concur with. The action following this comparison process will be writing new Prospectus text which Carrie Goetz has graciously volunteered to input on-line so that everyone will have an opportunity to review it. We will notify you when this document is available on the Facebook page (Lake Haven Prospectus) for your review. Following that, a membership meeting will be called for an open discussion, and if there is strong agreement on the new Amended Prospectus as written, a vote will be called. Once a positive vote is accomplished, the HOA board will present it to our Community Manager and ELS Regional Manager for their review and approval/disapproval process. This project will undoubtedly extend into next year. Thank you for your patience throughout this arduous and complex task.

As a result of the many ongoing complaints about the lawn service, Community Manager Penny Riley-Garcia is documenting all complaints which she forwards to the contractor. In each clubhouse there is a rack containing COMMENTS FOR LANDSCAPE COMPANY forms. If you experience dissatisfaction with your service, for example: missed mowing a section of your yard or missed your yard entirely, complete the form and submit it to the office. Barring this, explain your issue in an email to:

penny_rilely-garcia@equitylifestyle.com

ELS is aware of resident dissatisfaction with the lawn service, however has a multi-year, multi-location contract which is difficult to legally get out of; following this procedure could help ELS's ability to opt our park out of the contract, but is no guarantee this will happen.

The HOA Board extends best wishes for a happy Thanksgiving Day.

TREASURE COVE PARK 2 HAPPENINGS

Greetings Everyone! I have just returned from a trip back north where I got to enjoy spectacular fall foliage and crisp cool weather. However, it is November and before you know it snow will start to fall. Knowing this and having lived in it all my life I was thrilled to return back to my little community in paradise. I missed the constant sunshine and palm trees. I feel like this is the time of year that starts to move really fast. Halloween décor was out very early. Poor Thanksgiving barely gets a nod and Christmas décor is everywhere!

We also just missed Hurricane Ian which was headed right for us at one point. Thank God we were spared but our hearts and prayers go out to those that did not fare so well. There are lots of charities out there that we can donate to that will help those affected. It could be money or just items you have at home that are no longer needed. Every little bit helps.

Our Park 2 Christmas Party will once again be held at the Dunedin Country Club. It will be held on Sunday, December 4. Last year was a huge success! Great music and dancing, great food and great company. Details will be coming regarding time, price and tickets so keep a lookout. We hope to have a great turnout again.

Elections will be coming in January for anyone that's interested in a position on the Park 2 board. If you like to be involved in planning parties and other social events for the park you might want to be a board member. For more information contact Lori Witkin lot 254 or Susan Regan lot 501.

Lastly, may your blessings be multiplied this year and throughout all your life. Happy Thanksgiving wishes to you!

Guana Cay News and Updates

Rob Peacock – Park 3 Association President

Happy November everyone!

Holidays are fast approaching; I hope everyone had a fun October. There were many great things to do and see.

Welcome back to our friends and family returning from the North! Always good to see you back.

Our thoughts and prayers continue to go out to our friends and businesses to the South. Many thanks to all the volunteers and aid from all over the country. God Bless.

There are so many days in November to recognize. All Saints Day and All Souls Day November 1st and 2nd, Election Day November 8th for senate, congress and our own governor.

Of course, Thanksgiving Day, November 24th. Park 3 will host its annual Thanksgiving Day feast with a lot of great side dishes you all contribute.

We then have black Friday and cyber-Monday for all the early holiday shoppers. We hope you all have a great November!

I have just a few reminders... There is no dumping in the dumpster area, HOA and ELS are working on an alternative list of salvage companies. Please “scoop the poop”, there are bags and cans throughout the parks. Please remember to put the umbrellas down in the pool area before you leave. Automatic locks have been installed at each clubhouse. Hours of operation are 8am to 10pm daily, closed only when management declares a situation such as weather-related emergencies.

VETERANS DAY
By Cheryl Dyson

On Veterans Day we honor all,
Who answered to a service call.
Soldiers young, and soldiers old,
Fought for freedom, brave and bold.
Some have lived, while others died,
And all of them deserve our pride.
We're proud of all the soldiers who,
Kept thinking of red, white and blue.
They fought for us and all our rights,
They fought through many days and nights.
And though we may not know each name,
We thank ALL veterans just the same.

The logo features a circular design with a blue top half containing three white stars and a red bottom half with white stripes. The text 'Remember Our VETERANS' is written across the center in white and red.

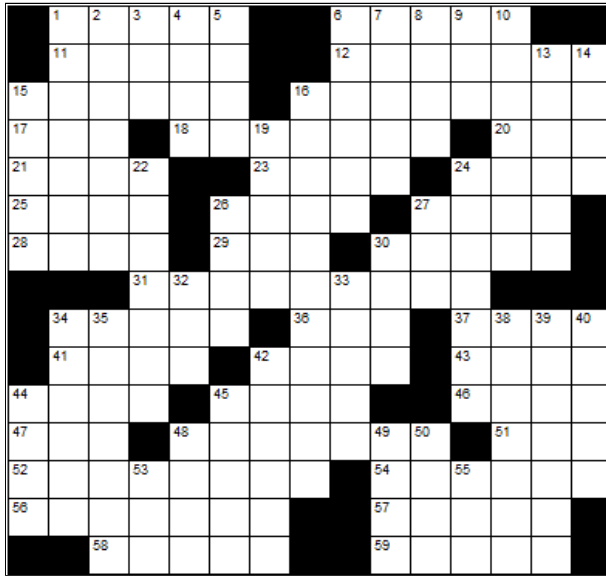

Remember -
our fallen heroes.
They are the reason that we are free.

NOVEMBER CALENDAR

American Diabetes Month. For the millions of people at risk for diabetes, November is a time to get educated, find resources, and make sure everyone is aware of their risk. And for the millions of people living with diabetes, it's a chance to tell their stories and awaken the world.

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. One in 10 people will have a seizure in life, and one in 26 will develop epilepsy during their lifetime. Emotional health is important for people with epilepsy, along with their family members, caregivers, and friends. With the power of community, we can bring hope to everyone experiencing the challenges of epilepsy.

National Native American Heritage Month. What started at the turn of the century as an effort to win a day of recognition for the first Americans and the significant contributions they made to the establishment and growth of the United States has resulted in a whole month dedicated to that purpose.

National Runaway Prevention Month. National Runaway Prevention Month is a public awareness campaign designed to spotlight the experiences of runaway and homeless youth who too often remain invisible, and to highlight the resources available to support youth in crisis around the nation.

Daily

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 5-11. There are approximately 3,500 animal shelters across the United States, housing the estimated 6-8 million homeless animals that seek refuge each year—only half of which are adopted. National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week is a perfect opportunity for you, your family, and your community to become acquainted with your local shelter and help homeless pets.

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, Nov. 12-22. Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is an annual program where people come together to draw attention to the problems of hunger and homelessness. Participating groups spend the week holding a series of educational, service, fundraising, and advocacy events.

National Nurse Practitioner Week, Nov. 13-19. National Nurse Practitioner Week is held annually to celebrate these exceptional health care providers and to remind lawmakers of the importance of removing outdated barriers to practice so nurse practitioners will be allowed to use the full extent of their experience and education.

Geography Awareness Week, Nov. 15-19. Established by presidential proclamation more than 25 years ago, this annual public awareness program encourages citizens young and old to think and learn about the significance of place and how we affect and are affected by it.

Long ago, two brothers owned a small cattle ranch. One of their bulls died unexpectedly, and they needed to buy another one, but they only had $500.

The older brother said, "I'll go to the market in the next town and see if I can find one for under that amount. If I do, I'll send you a telegram to come with the truck to pick it up."

He walked to the market 12 miles away and found a bull for $499. Having only one dollar left, he went to the telegraph office and found out that a telegram would cost $1 per word. He was stumped on how to tell his brother to bring the truck to town.

Finally he told the telegraph operator to send the word "comfortable." Skeptical, the operator asked, "How will he know to bring your truck here from just that one word?"

The brother replied, "He'll figure it out. It means, 'Come for ta bull.'"

A very bad day

A man sat at a bar just looking at his glass for a half hour. Suddenly a big trucker marched up, grabbed the glass, and drank it down.

The man started crying. The truck driver felt bad and said, "Come on man, I was just joking. Here, I'll buy you another drink."

"No, it's not that," the man replied, wiping his tears. "This day is the worst of my life. First, I oversleep and I go in late to my office. My boss fires me. When I leave the building to go to my car, I find out it was stolen. The police say they can't do anything. I get a cab to go home, and when I get out, I leave my wallet on the seat. I run down the street, but the cab driver just drives away. Then I go inside my house where I find my wife in bed with my best friend. So I leave and come here to this bar."

He sighed. "Then, just when I get the courage to put an end to my life, you show up and drink my poison."

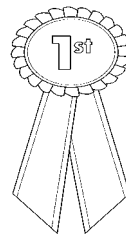

And what is laughter anyway? Changing the angle of vision.

The winning essay

One night a teacher was correcting essays written by her students. As she read one essay, tears began streaming down her cheeks. Her husband looked up from the TV and asked her what the matter was.

She handed him the essay she was reading. In the essay, the child wrote that he wished he was a TV so he could win the love and attention of his parents. He told how his mother watched the TV to be happy and how his father watched it for hours to rest after coming home from work. The child wished to be a TV so he could be the center of attention and earn the love of his parents.

The husband turned and said, "What a poor kid! Such horrible parents!"

She looked at him and said, "That essay is by our own son."

No time like now

A rabbi was walking with some of his disciples when one of them asked, "Rabbi, when should a man repent?"

The rabbi replied, "On the last day of your life."

"But," protested the disciple, "we can never be sure which day will be the last day of our life."

The rabbi smiled. "The answer to that problem is very simple. Repent now."

The unwanted gift

One day a wise monk was walking through a village. A very angry and rude young man came up and began insulting him, hurling all kinds of rude words at him, intended to ridicule and demean him.

The monk continued his walk, paying no attention to the insults, and the young man grew enraged at being ignored. "Why don't you say something?" he demanded. "How can you keep walking as if I were silent?"

The monk stopped and asked the young man, "Tell me, if you buy a gift for someone, and that person does not take it, to whom does the gift belong?"

The young man was surprised that the monk was now addressing him. "It would belong to me, because I brought the gift," he said.

The monk smiled. "That is correct. And it is the same with your anger. If you become angry with me and I do not get insulted, then the anger falls back on you. You are then the only one who becomes unhappy, not me. All you have done is hurt yourself."

After nourishment, shelter, and companionship, stories are the thing we need most in the world. —Philip Pullman

The Armistice Day Blizzard rocked the nation

Nov. 11 is Armistice Day (called Veterans Day in the United States), the date in 1918 that marked the end of World War I. It's also the date of one of the biggest snowstorms ever to hit the U.S.—the Armistice Day Blizzard of 1940, which killed 150 people and thousands of livestock in the Midwest.

According to the National Weather Service website, a strong weather system originating in the Pacific Northwest destroyed the Tacoma Narrows Bridge on Nov. 7, and moved across Colorado by Nov. 10, headed for the central states. In Minnesota and western Iowa, Nov. 11 started out with temperatures in the 50s, prompting many duck hunters to head out in search of game. At first these hunters were pleased with the number of ducks and waterfowl flying overhead, not realizing they were fleeing the oncoming storm.

When temperatures dipped rapidly, falling rain turned to sleet and snow, and hunters in boats encountered 15-foot swells and winds of 70-80 mph. Hundreds lost their boats, and many drowned or froze to death when the early moderate temperatures dropped below freezing.

The storm created drifts of snow up to 20 feet high across the Midwest, burying cars and stranding passenger trains. Three large ships in the Great Lakes sank, with a loss of 58 sailors. Iowa's apple industry was devastated by the storm, causing farmers to shift from orchards to fields of corn and soybeans.

The storm forced the National Weather Service to revise its forecasting procedures. Instead of being directed by the Chicago office, forecasting responsibilities shifted to regional centers that could offer more timely and accurate weather predictions.

On the scene at the first Thanksgiving

We all know the story of the first Thanksgiving—how the pilgrims who settled in Plymouth, Massachusetts were aided by a Pawtuxet native named Squanto who taught them how to cultivate corn, catch fish, avoid poisonous plants, and other necessary skills for survival.

After the pilgrims' first successful corn harvest in November of 1621, Governor William Bradford invited the Native Americans living around the colony to a feast of celebration. Here's how one Pilgrim, Edward Winslow, recorded the event:

"Our harvest being gotten in, our governor sent four men on fowling, that so we might after a special manner rejoice together, after we had gathered the fruits of our labors; they four in one day killed as much fowl, as with a little help beside, served the Company almost a week, at which time amongst other Recreations, we exercised our Arms, many of the Indians coming amongst us, and amongst the rest their greatest king Massasoit, with some ninety men, whom for three days we entertained and feasted, and they went out and killed five Deer, which they brought to the Plantation and bestowed on our Governor, and upon the Captain and others. And although it be not always so plentiful, as it was at this time with us, yet by the goodness of God, we are so far from want, that we often wish you partakers of our plenty."

And that's what Thanksgiving is all about.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
