Message from Park Manager

Speeding and Cameras: I am seeing a lot of speeding, not stopping at stop signs, and going the wrong direction on one way streets. This has become a real issue. You are on camera!! The cameras are monitored from the office and are recording 24-7. I have already sent out a few letters pertaining to this. If you are caught not following signs and speeds and it becomes habitual you can/will be banned from driving in the Park. Please follow the rules. They are in place for your safety.

Weeds: Please be sure to hire someone to care for your Unit and surrounding areas if you will be away for extended periods of time. The amount of weeds this year due to rain is excessive and unacceptable. You are responsible for your Unit and surroundings. I would like to thank the Residents who follow the rules and keep their property looking presentable.

Respectfully,
Christine Roberts, LCAM

Agent for the Board of Directors

The Cookbook Club is Back!

If you enjoy exploring delicious new foods, you will want to join the Cookbook Book Club. Each month we select a cookbook and everyone chooses a recipe from that book to prepare for our wonderful dinner parties where we taste and discuss each delectable dish.

SHEET PAN SUPPERS is this month's cookbook and it features simple, surprising, hands-off recipes that combine pure ease (easy prep, easy process, easy cleanup) and interesting sophisticated flavors.

These amazingly versatile recipes allow you to prepare complete meals, or serve with, appetizers/small bites or creative desserts on one sheet pan. "Sheet pan cooking" means roasting, baking, and broiling, three methods that concentrate and intensify flavor. It offers the simplicity and ease of a one-pot with the flexibility to get creative.

If you would like to join our next dinner party:

1. Review the recipes from Sheet Pan Suppers (it's in the Activities Room in the Clubhouse)
2. Pick a recipe and enter your selection on the sign-up sheet
3. Prepare your dish
4. Bring it with you to the dinner party at the Clubhouse on Monday, November 14th at 6:00 pm

The First Thanksgiving Menu

Today, the traditional Thanksgiving dinner includes any number of dishes: turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes, candied yams, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie. But if one were to create a historically accurate feast, consisting of only those foods that historians are certain were served at the so-called “first Thanksgiving,” there would be slimmer pickings. “Wildfowl was there. Corn, in grain form for bread or for porridge, was there. Venison was there,” says food historian Kathleen Wall. “These are absolutes.”

Edward Winslow, an English leader who attended, wrote home to a friend:

“Our harvest being gotten in, our governor sent four men on fowling, that so we might after a special manner rejoice together after we had gathered the fruit of our labors. They four in one day killed as much fowl as, with a little help beside, served the company almost a week. At which time, amongst other recreations, we exercised our arms, many of the Indians coming amongst us, and among the rest their greatest king Massasoit, with some ninety men, whom for three days we entertained and feasted, and they went out and killed five deer, which they brought to the plantation and bestowed on our governor, and upon the captain and others.”

William Bradford also described the autumn of 1621, adding:

“And besides waterfowl there was great store of wild turkeys, of which they took many, besides venison, etc. Besides, they had about a peck of meal a week to a person, or now since harvest, Indian corn to that proportion.”

Turkey was not the centerpiece of the meal, as it is today. Though it is possible the colonists and American Indians cooked wild turkey, she suspects that goose or duck was the wildfowl of choice. It is possible that the birds were stuffed, though not with bread. The Pilgrims instead stuffed birds with chunks of onion and herbs. In addition to wildfowl and deer, the colonists and Wampanoag probably ate eels and shellfish, such as lobster, clams and mussels.

10 Veterans Day Facts Everyone Should Know

-  Veterans Day was originally called Armistice Day.
-  It marked the one-year anniversary of the temporary cessation of hostilities between the Allied nations and Germany during World War I.
-  The armistice went into effect at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918.
-  In 1926, Congress passed a resolution to make Veterans Day an annual occurrence.
-  It became a federal holiday in 1938.
-  In 1954, President Dwight D. Eisenhower changed the name from Armistice Day to Veterans Day so it would honor all veterans rather than commemorate the end of a single war.
-  While Memorial Day honors Americans who died in the line of duty, Veterans Day commemorates all Americans who have served their country honorably, both living and deceased.
-  During the Veterans Day commemoration at Arlington National Cemetery, guards lay a wreath on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and veterans organizations hold a parade of colors.
-  March 13 is National K9 Veterans Day, which honors American military and working dogs throughout history.
-  Veterans Day honors all American troops who served honorably—regardless of whether they did so during war or peacetime.

Koffee Klatch

Koffee Klatch is a wonderful time to gather and hear about all the happenings in the park and to meet your wonderful neighbors.

K.K. as we like to call it, is held every Wednesday morning at 8:30 am. Bring your coffee cup and you will be served your choice of a huge donut and a fresh cup of coffee. Have a seat and meet and enjoy the fellowship that our great park is known for.

The meeting will begin at 9 am and here is where you will learn of any cancelled activities or new ones not in the media news. Also from time to time the Park Manger will add some news for the park such as new speed bumps going in. Also you can submit your email address to receive KK recaps in case you cannot make the Wednesday morning meeting.

So come join the fun and see what you are missing

Daylight Saving Time

Well folks, this will probably be the LAST year for turning our clocks back 1 hour every autumn. The U.S. Senate passed legislation this year that would make daylight saving time permanent starting in 2023, ending the twice-annual changing of clocks in a move promoted by supporters advocating brighter afternoons and more economic activity.

The Senate approved the measure, called the Sunshine Protection Act, unanimously by voice vote. The House of Representatives, which has held a committee hearing on the matter, must still pass the bill before it can go to the President to sign.

Election Day 2022

The 2022 United States elections will be held on Tuesday, November 8, 2022 (Election Day). During this midterm election year, all 435 seats in the House of Representatives and 35 of the 100 seats in the Senate will be contested. Thirty-nine state and territorial gubernatorial elections, as well as numerous other state and local elections, will be contested. The results will determine the 118th United States Congress. This will be the first election affected by the redistricting that will follow the 2020 census.

Joke of the Month

A lady was picking through the frozen turkeys at the grocery store for Thanksgiving Day, but she couldn't find one big enough for her family. She turned to the stock boy and asked, "Do these turkeys get any bigger?" "No, ma'am," he replied. "They're dead."

Recipe Roundup – Cranberry Fruit Salad

This fruit salad goes together quickly, which is a plus on such a busy day, and is an easy, light dish for holiday get-togethers. Frozen, thawed fruit may be used in place of fresh fruit.

Ingredients

- 🍷 1 - 12 oz package fresh or frozen cranberries
- 🍷 ¾ C water
- 🍷 ½ C sugar
- 🍷 5 medium apples, diced
- 🍷 2 medium firm bananas, sliced
- 🍷 1 ½ C blueberries, thawed
- 🍷 1 - 11 oz can mandarin oranges, undrained
- 🍷 1 C raspberries
- 🍷 1 C strawberries

Directions

- 🍷 In a large saucepan, combine the cranberries, water and sugar. Cook and stir over medium heat until berries pop, about 15 minutes. Remove from the heat; cool slightly.
- 🍷 In a large bowl, combine the remaining ingredients. Add cranberry mixture; stir gently. Refrigerate until serving.
