Managers Moment

Carol Alvey

Garbage: The garbage problem has gotten out of control!!! We will no longer except big sofas, sofa sleepers unless you chop them up. It would also be helpful if you would do the same for big chairs.

Lawns: The lawn service company is NOT obligated or required to mow lawns in the back yards of residents who are in the pet section.

Back gate: PLEASE do not put tape over the eye to keep the back gate open. Every time this is done when the tape is removed the eye is damaged and the gate won’t work, going forward management will turn off the gate when it needs o be opened for special events,

Next year Manager will hold a meeting every other month to discuss park happenings, updates and any other needed information. (Ed. Note: This is not designed to be a bash session but a way for us all to keep updated on any information or concerns.) Refreshments will be provided. Date will be announced soon.

Flea Market / Bake Sale

The flea market/Bake sale will be held on November 5th. Tables will be limited to 2 per person and price is $10.00 each. Tables will be awarded to the general public after October 1st, so reserve yours now. There will be 30 tables available,

The Hours will be 8-1, set up will be November 4th from 9-11PM and on the 5th at 7-8AM. Tables are 4x8 and your items should fit on the table or in front of it.

We need Bake sale donations also.

Call Paige at 727-543-9871 or stop at Lot 113 to reserve your table today!

Mr. Larson has agreed to furnish turkeys and ham for a Thanksgiving Dinner this year. We will be posting a sign-up sheet looking for donations of stuffing, mashed potatoes, green beans and rolls. If you prefer you can also sign up for any other potluck side dishes you want to share, or you can just bring something for your table. We are also looking for pies and any other dessert options you wish to share. You must sign up by the 15th of November, so we know how much to purchase.

This is free of charge open only to the Residents of Bay Ranch.

Time is at 2pm, so make sure you sign up in advance as there will be raffles and of course a 50/50.

(Ed note: If you want to make a cash contribution to help out, I'm sure they will be happy with that also)

FROM THE EDITOR

Phone numbers: It seems more residents want the phone numbers back in the directory. I need your help!!! On the board in the clubhouse is a listing of residents in alphabetical order. If you want your number in the next directory, simply go in and enter it after your name.

I thank you in advance for all your help and co-operation in this.

Looking for some good news or feel-good stories for next month's publication. See someone do something good? Shoot me an email and let's share some good news at Bay Ranch.

JUST SAYIN'

Jeanne Hunter

Time has passed since that long, bad month I went through, and things are looking rosier. Hey, I walked into a room this morning and remembered why I was there. It was the bathroom, but still...

I actually have a lot to talk about so get your coffee, relax and read on.

Important news: there is a government program that gives you $30 off your internet bill monthly if you qualify. Income qualification is $27,180 annually for single family households or $36,620 for two person households. I think a lot of our residents qualify. Both Spectrum and Wow are in the program. Here's what you must do. Go to affordableconnectivity.gov Apply online and they give you a code. Then just call Spectrum or Wow and tell them you want the discount. They will need that code number. Next month your bill should drop $30. I have even heard some people just called Spectrum without getting the code first and the operator gave them the discount. Please, if you have a neighbor who is not internet savvy, help them with the online steps. Let's save some money!!

My daughter is still on a waiting list for the new Ford Lightning (all electric Ford 150 truck). They called her in August to schedule a test drive. The next available spot is December 26! At least it's this year.

Earlier today I saw a bumper sticker that said, "I'm a veterinarian, therefore I can drive like an animal." Suddenly I realized how many proctologists are on the road.

I now own a smart (er than me) phone, bed, coffee pot, tv and car. And I think my Alexa is trying to unionize them! Biggest news I have this month is I have a new car. Even bigger than that is that my daughter and son-in-law bought it for me. They took me out to test drive and find what I liked. And my girl made me pay special attention to how easy each one was to get in and out of. I figure it will take me about six months to figure out all the icons, lights, and warning beeps it makes. It was manufactured a Kia, but I may decide it's a Corvette. Then it would be a trans model car. No, wait, I think my insurance would go up, so I'm transitioning back to a Kia.

There's one new alert on the car which is genius and I applaud the car company for it. This alert activates if I open my back door when getting in the car for any reason. After turning off the engine and opening my door to get out, the car ding, ding, dings. In turn, I look at the dash to see what's up and there is an onscreen message telling me to check my backseat. I wonder how many babies will be saved, not forgotten, because of this brilliant new tool.

Did you ever think about how weird our justice system is? We jail the petty thieves and appoint the great ones to public office.

I also just got a new K Supreme Plus Smart Keurig coffee pot. Not only does it make good coffee, but it also makes me exercise my brain each day. There are 14 buttons – 14 – on top of it and a window to display messages! When I put a pod in, the window display shows the brand and type of coffee, and it decides for me the optimal way to make the coffee. It does however give me the option to make changes. There are 5 or 6 different strengths and temperatures and a choice of 4-to-12-ounce cup sizes. Does Keurig not know that before I drink the coffee my brain is not functioning? This is way too many decisions. Where is Mr. Coffee when I need him?

My bed frame is smart too. I get a report on my phone each morning on how many hours I slept, how much I snored, how often I was awake, in deep sleep and REM sleep, my heart rate and breathing rate and some other stuff and then gives me a grade on the quality of my sleep. I no longer wake up and think I did or didn't sleep well last night. Now I sit up, read the report, and let my phone decide how I feel.

There was a very rich old man who was having health problems. He realized he didn't have a lot longer to live and didn't want to lose all his wealth. So, he fervently prayed to God every morning and night to let him bring his money with him. After months of this, God answered and told the man he could bring one small suitcase with him into heaven. After much thought, he decided to pack it with gold bars, high value in a small bag. Finally, his time came, and he peacefully died in his sleep. He appeared at the pearly gates and St. Peter welcomed him, but seeing the suitcase, told him he couldn't bring anything in with him. The man said God had given him permission to bring one small suitcase. St. Peter checked with God and told the man he could bring in his bag. Curiously, he asked what was in the bag. With a smirk, the rich man opened his bag to show St. Peter the gold bars. Confused, St. Peter asked, "You brought pavers?"

A few words of wisdom. Don't be worried about your tv and smart phone spying on you. Your vacuum has been collecting dirt on you for years.

Don't take the Bait?

By Carol Raabe

As elders, we are often targets for scams which can sometimes cost us tons of money. Some of us are just so trusting (people are good, right)—or other might say naïve. Or even worse, gullible.

That would be me. Dare I admit it? I've been “taken” more than once. TG my dear Jan has my back. Once (I was going to say “the first time,” but was it?), I gave out personal information over the phone. As soon as the words were out of my mouth, I knew what I had done. Horrors!

As soon as I hung up on the scammers, I called the woman manning the fraud desk at the South Dakota Attorney General's office. She was not patient with me. Besides her decidedly impatient tone of voice, she gave a long, loud sigh as I answered each of her questions. Sometimes she moaned. And the upshot was that I had to freeze my credit rating accounts and give permission each time I want someone to access them. I was unhappy with myself. On the other hand, freezing access to credit rating accounts sounds like a good idea.

Another time (I was going to say, “the next time,” but was it?), I got caught up in a “too good to be true” situation. Responding to an ad on Facebook Marketplace for an item at a VERY good price, I ended up traipsing all over Largo to buy gift cards for the payment. Some of you are rolling your eyes already because you know what's coming.

I probably never would have caught on, but ever watchful Jan was sure something was wrong, and we abandoned the effort. Turns out, scammers make you pay in gift cards because the cards can't be traced, and payment can't be cancelled so the scammers don't have to send the goods. Nobody said scammers were dumb. On the other hand, the stores we went to were ALL aware of the scam. I just ignored them.

Unfortunately, there are so many scams out there, we could be taken every day. One of the most horrific is the grandchild in trouble scam. The grandchild is in trouble or in jail or (fill in the blank) and needs money immediately and “Please don't tell Mom and Dad.” But PLEASE DO hang up and ignore the call. Or if you are me, go to great lengths to verify the situation and don't worry about keeping it secret.

Another common scam is a phone call from an authority asking for personal information. Please note that neither government nor businesses ask for personal information over the phone. Your phone company doesn't call to “fix” your cell remotely. Medicare doesn't ask for your Medicare number. Amazon security doesn't need information from you. Your energy company doesn't call to ask you to pay by phone. Neither does the IRS. Or Social Security.

It can be a dangerous world out there. Scammers are constantly phishing. We just mustn't take the bait.

9 Fun Facts About Thanksgiving

The first Thanksgiving was celebrated in 1621 over a three day harvest festival. It included 50 Pilgrims, 90 Wampanoag Indians, and lasted three days. It is believed by historians that only five women were present.

Turkey wasn't on the menu at the first Thanksgiving. Venison, duck, goose, oysters, lobster, eel, and fish were likely served, alongside pumpkins and cranberries (but not pumpkin pie or cranberry sauce!).

Abraham Lincoln proclaimed Thanksgiving a national holiday on October 3, 1863. Sarah Josepha Hale, the woman who wrote “Mary Had A Little Lamb,” convinced Lincoln to make Thanksgiving a national holiday after writing letters for 17 years.

The history of U.S. presidents pardoning turkeys is patchy. Harry Truman is often credited with being the first president to pardon a turkey, but that’s not quite true. He was the first to receive a ceremonial turkey from the National Turkey Federation – and he had it for dinner. John F. Kennedy was the first to let a Thanksgiving turkey go, followed by Richard Nixon who sent his turkey to a petting zoo. George H.W. Bush is the president who formalized the turkey pardoning tradition in 1989.

There are four towns in the United States named “Turkey.” They can be found in Arizona, Texas, Louisiana, and North Carolina.

The average number of calories consumed on Thanksgiving is 4,500.

Butterball answers more than 100,000 turkey-cooking questions via their Butterball Turkey Hotline each November and December.

The tradition of football on Thanksgiving began in 1876 with a game between Yale and Princeton. The first NFL games were played on Thanksgiving in 1920.

More than 54 million Americans are expected to travel during the Thanksgiving holiday this year. That’s up 4.8% from last year.

Random Thoughts

As I was lying in bed pondering the problems of the world, I rapidly realized that I don't really give a rat's hiney. It's the tortoise life for me! And here is why.

1. If walking is good for your health, the postman would be immortal.
2. A whale swims all day, only eats fish, drinks water, and is fat.
3. A rabbit runs and hops and only lives 15 years.
4. A tortoise doesn't run and does nothing, yet it lives for 450 years. And you tell me to exercise?? I don't think so.

God grant me the senility to forget the people I never liked, the good fortune to run into the ones I do, and the eyesight to tell the difference.

Now that I'm older and wiser, here's what I've discovered:

1. I started out with nothing, and I still have most of it.
2. My wild oats have turned into prunes and all-bran.
3. I finally got my head together, and now my body is falling apart.
4. Funny, I don't remember being absent-minded.

7. It is easier to get older than it is to get wiser.

9. I wish the buck topped here; I sure could use a few.
