NOVEMBER CALENDAR

American Diabetes Month. For the millions of people at risk for diabetes, November is a time to get educated, find resources, and make sure everyone is aware of their risk. And for the millions of people living with diabetes, it's a chance to tell their stories and awaken the world.

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. One in 10 people will have a seizure in life, and one in 26 will develop epilepsy during their lifetime. Emotional health is important for people with epilepsy, along with their family members, caregivers, and friends. With the power of community, we can bring hope to everyone experiencing the challenges of epilepsy.

National Native American Heritage Month. What started at the turn of the century as an effort to win a day of recognition for the first Americans and the significant contributions they made to the establishment and growth of the United States has resulted in a whole month dedicated to that purpose.

National Runaway Prevention Month. National Runaway Prevention Month is a public awareness campaign designed to spotlight the experiences of runaway and homeless youth who too often remain invisible, and to highlight the resources available to support youth in crisis around the nation.

Daily

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 5-11. There are approximately 3,500 animal shelters across the United States, housing the estimated 6-8 million homeless animals that seek refuge each year—only half of which are adopted. National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week is a perfect opportunity for you, your family, and your community to become acquainted with your local shelter and help homeless pets.

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, Nov. 12-22. Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is an annual program where people come together to draw attention to the problems of hunger and homelessness. Participating groups spend the week holding a series of educational, service, fundraising, and advocacy events.

National Nurse Practitioner Week, Nov. 13-19. National Nurse Practitioner Week is held annually to celebrate these exceptional health care providers and to remind lawmakers of the importance of removing outdated barriers to practice so nurse practitioners will be allowed to use the full extent of their experience and education.

Geography Awareness Week, Nov. 15-19. Established by presidential proclamation more than 25 years ago, this annual public awareness program encourages citizens young and old to think and learn about the significance of place and how we affect and are affected by it.

Riddle me this

A few riddles to brighten your day:
Did you hear about the first restaurant to open on the moon?

It had great food, but no atmosphere.

Do you want to hear a construction joke?
Sorry, I'm still working on it.

Did you hear about the fire at the campground?
It was in tents!

What's the difference between a hippo and a Zippo?
One is really heavy and the other's a little lighter.

Why did the bullet lose its job?
It got fired.

The honest woodcutter

Once there lived a woodcutter, Ramu, who led a very simple life in the forest near a river. He was poor but he worked hard. One day while chopping down a branch, Ramu's axe slipped from his hands and fell into the river. He tried searching, but the axe was lost.

Ramu sat down by the riverbank and started weeping. Hearing his cries, an angel appeared and promised to help him find his axe. She dove into the water and retrieved an axe made of gold.

"That's not my axe," Ramu said.

The angel dove again and returned with a silver axe. Ramu refused it again, saying that his axe was made of steel. The angel went into the water a third time and returned with Ramu's steel axe. Elated, Ramu thanked the angel profusely.

Impressed by his simplicity and honesty, the angel gave Ramu the gold and silver axe too. Ramu went home a very happy woodcutter.

*If you wish to glimpse inside a human soul and get to know a man, just watch him laugh.
If he laughs well, he's a good man.
— Fyodor Dostoyevsky*

Follow these habits for a long life

All of us want to live a long and healthy life. Fortunately, it's not just a matter of genetics and luck. CNN suggests taking these steps for safeguarding your health and happiness for a long time to come:

- See your doctor regularly. Get screenings for prediabetes and other health conditions so you can take action before a problem becomes serious. Consistent visits help you and your doctor get to know each other, building trust and allowing your doctor to spot potential problems early.
- Exercise consistently. Regular physical activity can reduce your risk of high blood pressure, heart disease, stroke, and other complications as you grow older. Try to get about two and a half hours of moderate to vigorous exercise a week to stay fit.
- Eat right. Limit your consumption of processed foods and eat more fruits, vegetables, legumes, whole grains, and nuts. Your plate should be at least half fruits and/or vegetables at mealtimes. A plant-based diet supplies more antioxidants, which relieve stress and fight the buildup of plaque in your arteries.
- Pay attention to mental health. Stress, anxiety, depression, and other mental health issues can have a negative impact on sleep, digestion, and your overall physical health. Practice meditation and other relaxation techniques. See a therapist to deal with underlying issues.
- Get enough sleep. Lack of sleep can lead to higher levels of stress hormones, blood sugar, and blood pressure. Get at least seven hours of sleep every night. Regular exercise and a consistent sleep routine can help.
- Cut down on alcohol and cigarettes. Heavy alcohol use can cause weight gain, high blood sugar, heart disease and more. Tobacco use increases your risk of different types of cancers. Limit or eliminate your use of both substances to extend your lifespan.

Three smart uses for rubbing alcohol

Rubbing alcohol has many uses for health and well-being. Check out these from the Healthgrades website:

- Wounds and bites. Use rubbing alcohol or alcohol pads for minor wounds that puncture the skin. Be careful, though; alcohol can slow skin healing, kill new cell growth, and dry out your skin. (It may also sting!)
- Tick bites. After removing the tick from your skin with tweezers, clean the site of the bite with rubbing alcohol (or soap and water). Place the tick in alcohol or flush it down the toilet. Call your doctor if a rash or fever develops.
- Swimmer's ear. If your ear canal becomes inflamed, mix a solution of one part alcohol and one part vinegar. Apply a few drops to your ear. Again, call your doctor if the condition doesn't improve.

What we like about ice cream

Everybody loves ice cream, but what flavor is our favorite? The International Dairy Foods Association surveyed ice cream makers and processors from its membership, along with 1,000 consumers, to find out. Among makers and sellers of ice cream, the top flavors are:

1. Cookies and cream
2. Vanilla
3. Chocolate
4. Mint chocolate chip
5. Strawberry

However, among consumers, the top five are:

1. Chocolate
2. Cookies and cream
3. Vanilla
4. Strawberry
5. Chocolate chip

In other results, the survey found consumers prefer waffle cones to sugar cones (32% to 12%), although more consumers (37%) prefer eating ice cream from a bowl. Chocolate is most popular topping sauce at 26%, followed by caramel at 18%. For dry toppings, nuts are the favorite—15%—followed by sprinkles (14%). For those who like fruit topping, strawberries are tops—48%—and bananas come in second, at 36%.

The Armistice Day Blizzard rocked the nation

Nov. 11 is Armistice Day (called Veterans Day in the United States), the date in 1918 that marked the end of World War I. It's also the date of one of the biggest snowstorms ever to hit the U.S.—the Armistice Day Blizzard of 1940, which killed 150 people and thousands of livestock in the Midwest.

According to the National Weather Service website, a strong weather system originating in the Pacific Northwest destroyed the Tacoma Narrows Bridge on Nov. 7, and moved across Colorado by Nov. 10, headed for the central states. In Minnesota and western Iowa, Nov. 11 started out with temperatures in the 50s, prompting many duck hunters to head out in search of game. At first these hunters were pleased with the number of ducks and waterfowl flying overhead, not realizing they were fleeing the oncoming storm.

When temperatures dipped rapidly, falling rain turned to sleet and snow, and hunters in boats encountered 15-foot swells and winds of 70-80 mph. Hundreds lost their boats, and many drowned or froze to death when the early moderate temperatures dropped below freezing.

The storm created drifts of snow up to 20 feet high across the Midwest, burying cars and stranding passenger trains. Three large ships in the Great Lakes sank, with a loss of 58 sailors. Iowa's apple industry was devastated by the storm, causing farmers to shift from orchards to fields of corn and soybeans.

The storm forced the National Weather Service to revise its forecasting procedures. Instead of being directed by the Chicago office, forecasting responsibilities shifted to regional centers that could offer more timely and accurate weather predictions.

On the scene at the first Thanksgiving

We all know the story of the first Thanksgiving—how the pilgrims who settled in Plymouth, Massachusetts were aided by a Pawtuxet native named Squanto who taught them how to cultivate corn, catch fish, avoid poisonous plants, and other necessary skills for survival.

After the pilgrims' first successful corn harvest in November of 1621, Governor William Bradford invited the Native Americans living around the colony to a feast of celebration. Here's how one Pilgrim, Edward Winslow, recorded the event:

"Our harvest being gotten in, our governor sent four men on fowling, that so we might after a special manner rejoice together, after we had gathered the fruits of our labors; they four in one day killed as much fowl, as with a little help beside, served the Company almost a week, at which time amongst other Recreations, we exercised our Arms, many of the Indians coming amongst us, and amongst the rest their greatest king Massasoit, with some ninety men, whom for three days we entertained and feasted, and they went out and killed five Deer, which they brought to the Plantation and bestowed on our Governor, and upon the Captain and others. And although it be not always so plentiful, as it was at this time with us, yet by the goodness of God, we are so far from want, that we often wish you partakers of our plenty."

And that's what Thanksgiving is all about.

Clever code

Long ago, two brothers owned a small cattle ranch. One of their bulls died unexpectedly, and they needed to buy another one, but they only had $500.

The older brother said, "I'll go to the market in the next town and see if I can find one for under that amount. If I do, I'll send you a telegram to come with the truck to pick it up."

He walked to the market 12 miles away and found a bull for $499. Having only one dollar left, he went to the telegraph office and found out that a telegram would cost $1 per word. He was stumped on how to tell his brother to bring the truck to town.

Finally he told the telegraph operator to send the word "comfortable." Skeptical, the operator asked, "How will he know to bring your truck here from just that one word?"

The brother replied, "He'll figure it out. It means, 'Come for ta bull.'"

A very bad day

A man sat at a bar just looking at his glass for a half hour. Suddenly a big trucker marched up, grabbed the glass, and drank it down.

The man started crying. The truck driver felt bad and said, "Come on man, I was just joking. Here, I'll buy you another drink."

"No, it's not that," the man replied, wiping his tears. "This day is the worst of my life. First, I oversleep and I go in late to my office. My boss fires me. When I leave the building to go to my car, I find out it was stolen. The police say they can't do anything. I get a cab to go home, and when I get out, I leave my wallet on the seat. I run down the street, but the cab driver just drives away. Then I go inside my house where I find my wife in bed with my best friend. So I leave and come here to this bar."

He sighed. "Then, just when I get the courage to put an end to my life, you show up and drink my poison."

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
