FOR MANUFACTURED/MOBILE HOME OWNERS ON RENTED LOTS

Our accomplishments are numerous and include the creation of Florida Statute 723, "The Florida Mobile Home Act", which safeguards your rights as homeowners on rented lots in Florida.

Most recently we've successfully lobbied for the extension of The Mobile Home Tie-Down Program for 10 more years.

Church of the Good Shepherd - Thrift Store Volunteers Needed!
Sally Miller, of Lot 18 in Honeymoon Park (phone 229-400-5610), is helping her church to obtain Volunteers to work in their Thrift Store. The store, about 5 miles from The Park in Clearwater, needs additional Volunteers Tuesday through Saturday each week from 12-3 PM. If available, please contact Sally in person or by phone. All profits from the Thrift Store go to local charities, including Dunedin Cares Food Pantry. Any help will be much appreciated!!

Message from Ken Simms, Neighborhood Watch Coordinator

Snowbirds Returning
The summer is now behind us and many snowbirds are contemplating the return to Honeymoon Park for the winter months. If you had registered for house checks by the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office during your absence over the summer months, and if you return earlier than expected, please don't forget to contact the sheriff's office to let them know of your early arrival. This will avoid having to answer to the deputy performing your scheduled house check. Wishing safe travels to all those returning.

Medicine Collection

Collection efforts keeps medications out of our water supply, which occurs when they are flushed down the toilet, and out of the hands of potential people who might be tempted to take the medications if they're found in your home.

Spectrum Scam

This year, the FTC has gotten thousands of reports — including many from older adults — about scammers pretending to be Spectrum to try to trick people out of their money or personal information.

Here’s how the scam often works: You get a phone call, recorded message, or text with an offer to lower your monthly payments. The caller or the person who picks up when you call the number, they give you says you need to “prepay” part of your bill to qualify. They tell you to pay using gift cards because they’re partnering with a company for a promotion, and to call them back with the gift card number. Once you do, they collect that and other personal information over the phone.

If you get a call like this, here are a few things to know:

- Never give out your personal, account, or payment information to someone who contacts you out of the blue and demands it. Hang up. It’s a scam.
- Don’t trust caller ID. Scammers can fake caller ID so it shows a company’s name or phone number. And never call back a number from a recorded message or listed in an unexpected email or text.
- Don’t pay for anything with a gift card. Gift cards are for gifts. If anyone tells you to pay with a gift card, or to buy gift cards for anything other than a gift, it’s a scam. You’ll lose your money, and you won’t be able to get it back.

For more information on these types of scams, visit ftc.gov/imposters. And if you spot this, or any scam, report it to the FTC at ReportFraud.ftc.gov.

Thanks to the Center for Elder Law and Justice for sharing reports about this scam through the FTC’s Community Advocate Center (CAC). This program helps groups that provide free or low-cost legal services with reporting fraud and other bad practices on behalf of their clients. For more information about the Community Advocate Center, visit ReportFraud.ftc.gov/community.

Park Humor

Submitted by RC

I was out shopping at a local retailer, and while in the restroom just as I closed my stall door, a voice from the next stall said, “Hi! How are you?” Embarrassed I said, “I’m alright!” The voice said “So, what are you up to?” I said, “Hmmm, just trying to handle a little private business over here!” Then I hear, “Can I come over?” Annoyed I said, “Excuse me?” Then the voice said, “Listen, I will have to call you back. There’s an idiot in the next stall answering all my questions.”
