Social Committee Tidbits

Mary Gilmore

In November, the Social Committee met with the chairpersons of our social activities for the 2022-2023 Boca Ciega season. There will be some events this season that haven't been held for the last two or more years. These include a Coffee Social to be held the first Saturday of every month at 9:00am, a Pancake Breakfast put on by the men of Boca Ciega on the last Saturday of each month, Thanksgiving Dinner, and Christmas Dinner.

Ingrid got some folks together to help clean the tables and decorate the clubhouse for autumn and Thanksgiving. When the storage boxes were taken out of the shed, we all realized that these decorations hadn't been used in a long time. Sorting out items and working together, the clubhouse was transformed into a warm and cozy place to relax and enjoy. Ingrid was helped by Virginia, Susan, Terry, Greg and me. After Thanksgiving, these decorations will be taken down and we will decorate for Christmas. Many hands make light work, and if you want to help out, let one of us know.

Virginia has been organizing our Monday Breakfasts all summer, and now into the fall. The last two outings have been to Acropol and Benedict's.

We enjoyed good service and breakfasts at both restaurants. Our server at Benedict's was Morgan and she took two pictures of our group. The folks who had breakfast at Acropol are Shirley, Kathleen, Joe, Alison, Susan, Ingrid, Terry, Virginia, Bobby, Joy, Pat, Don, his daughter, Denise, and his son-in-law, Dwayne and me. Thank you, Virginia, for making up posters each week, keeping track of everyone who wanted to go, calling and making reservations, and making sure everyone had a ride. Since our group is getting too large now that more residents are returning, these last two outings will be the last ones of the season.

There are many new residents who bought their homes during Covid or recently just last season, who have never attended a function at Boca Ciega. There are also some of us who might have forgotten how information about our functions is shared and what we might have to do or bring to a function. So let's see if you can follow me.

Christmas Dinner and Pot Luck Dinners

1. If you want to attend, sign up on a sheet on the bulletin board in the clubhouse in the hallway near the ladies washroom.
2. Then write down what dish you plan to bring in the appropriate column.
3. The night of the dinner bring your beverage of choice, the right glassware, your plate for dinner and one for dessert and your knife, fork, and spoon.

Coffee Social

1. You don't need to sign up, just come.
2. Bring your coffee cup and a plate.
3. Bring a $1 for your food.
4. If you wish to take a chance on a raffle, bring another $1.

Early Bird Dinner

1. This event is usually on the third Thursday of the month.
2. Sign up on the bulletin board in the clubhouse.
3. A menu from the restaurant that we will be going to will be there for you to read.

The most important thing to tell you is that all notices of events can be found in two places.

1. Look at the calendar in the monthly newsletter that is delivered to your home and put in your park mailbox or basket.
2. Look at the outside bulletin boards by the dumpsters in our park or at the outside bulletin board by the front door of our clubhouse.

Our first Early Bird Dinner was to be held on Thursday, November 10th. As you probably remember, this was the day that Tropical Storm Nicole hit us. In late afternoon, Susan's rain gauge read 5 3/4 inches. That's a lot of rain in a relatively short period of time. Our roads in the park and our meadow were able to efficiently handle this amount of rain. Our park never lost power. If you remember the unbelievably tall century plant in Joe and Liz's side yard, well that plant survived the storm, but Heidi and Glen's huge cactus in their front yard got blown over. I know that some of us wish we had put our awnings down as we listened to them rattle during the storm. November hurricanes are rare in Florida. The last one that hit was in 1935.

Last December, the first Peoples' Choice Award for the favorite Christmas decorations in the park was won by Ervin and Marlene Winczewski in #29. This year, at the Poolside Barbecue on December 10th, ballots will be handed out, one vote per household, for the 2022 People's Choice Award. Our park was beautiful last Christmas and I look forward to seeing all of the lights and decorations this year.

I wish you a Merry Christmas and a happy and healthy 2023.

GARBAGE GARBAGE GARBAGE RECYCLE RECYCLE RECYCLE

Ingrid Eby

This is your friendly reminder about what should and shouldn't go into each of those green bins that are in two places in the park. There are garbage bins and ONE recycle bin. The garbage ONLY goes into the bin marked garbage. Garbage must be bagged and placed in that container. Branches and yard waste must be no longer than 30 inches. No televisions, electrical items or furniture can be thrown away in the bins. If you have large items to dispose of, take them to the city dump. Ask anyone on the board for directions to their site.

There is only one recycle bin and it is clearly marked with a sign explaining what will be accepted at the recycling center. In order to be compliant with their rules, we ask that NO glass be discarded in that bin. Styrofoam is not accepted as well as plastic bags of any kind. In order to conserve space in the bin, thus less money for us, we ask that you crush your plastic water bottles and remove the caps. Those caps become missiles when they go thru the machines. Also break down all boxes so they lay flat. You would be surprised at the amount of space that saves.

Finally, I know many of you follow the guidelines and do your part so we don't lose the recycling privilege. However, there are some that don't and this is a problem. I for one, and there are others, that are tired of dumpster diving to fish out Styrofoam and wine bottles that have been placed in wrong bin. The buckets that are on the side of the bins are for aluminum beer and soda cans. These are crushed by fellows in the park and taken to the recycle facility. They are weighed, and the money is given to us, which is also used to supplement our social expenses. Owners must inform your guests of the guide lines especially if you are not with them when they stay in Boca Ciega.

Remember, that everyone needs to do their part to keep our little piece of heaven in ship shape operating condition.

SATURDAY COFFEE SOCIAL

Ingrid Eby

In the past we have had Saturday morning coffee gatherings to learn what is going on in the park, what events are upcoming, and hear about anyone who is sick or has passed away. At that time, we were doing it every Saturday, but attendance started to drop off. Many of you read the newsletter and put it somewhere and forget it. All of a sudden there is a Social Event and we have forgotten all about it. If we have a coffee hour the first Saturday of every month, hopefully we can remember what is happening. Because of Covid, all events were cancelled for almost two years. Now we are going to try something different. The first Saturday in December (the 3rd), we will have coffee and doughnuts provided for $1.00. This is a time to chat with your neighbors, meet new people, of which there are many, and find out what is happening in the park. We will meet at 9:00 am in the Club House. Bring your own coffee cup and plate. This saves on paper product expenses and less landfill. We also have a modified 50/50 raffle. The proceeds help to supplement the expenses for the coffee and doughnuts. One ticket for a $1.00 or 6 tickets for $5.00.

The first coffee hour is planned for December 3rd. There is a signup sheet on the board at the Club House for volunteers to put their name up to host in January through April for Saturday morning coffee. One couple could do it easily or two couples is fine. I will be happy to work with anyone who has never done this before. My unit number is 114 and my phone # 989-573-3987. There will also be a signup sheet in the Club House to make sure how many will be coming. We don't want to buy six dozen doughnuts and have six people show up or buy three dozen doughnuts and have sixty people show up. Hope to see you December 3rd.

DINNER THEATER

Ingrid Eby

Once again because of COVID we have not been able to enjoy our annual Dinner Theater outing at Ed Fletcher's Early Bird Dinner Theater. For those of you who are new to the park, and a reminder to those of us who are not new, this is a delightful evening filled with a lot of laughs and good food.

We meet at the theater at 4:00 pm and take our seats at tables of eight that are reserved. Alcoholic beverages are available to purchase, otherwise tea, coffee and soda are provided. Our first course is a salad buffet, and then in an orderly fashion, tables are invited to the main course buffet. Entrees include Virginia baked ham, carved top roast beef, with au jus and horseradish, salmon, season sides include rice, potatoes, vegetables, rolls and butter, seasonal chicken, and meatballs in marinara sauce or baked ziti. After all that, there is a wide variety of desserts.

As soon as all the dishes are cleared they dim the lights and the performance begins. The play we will be enjoying is Birthday Club. Five women get together for their birthdays, each with her own story, to drink, celebrate, commiserate and support each other as they negotiate through marriage, work, divorce, birth and kids, while solving the problems of the world. When one of them admits she went out with another's husband, the vodka hits the fan. Will the new member of "birthday club" make the cut? Come celebrate the ups and downs of friendship in this humorous romp.

We will see this hilarious comedy on Sunday January 29th, 2023. Yes, 2023 is almost here. You will need to reserve your seat by seeing me, Ingrid Eby, unit 114, before January 21st. The cost is $50.00 per person and includes dinner, the play tax and tip. I would prefer cash, because the theater doesn't accept checks or credit cards. I will start taking money to reserve your spot on January 1st. This has always been a fun evening and we hope you will join us for some good food and laughs.

A life lesson from the mountains

A young boy and his grandfather were taking a walk through the mountains. The boy was looking at the mountains when he tripped and fell down. As he fell he called out, "I'm afraid."

To the boy's surprise he heard his words come back to him from the mountain, "I'm afraid."

Startled and frightened, the boy called out—"Who is there?"

Again his words traveled back to him asking the same question he had asked—"Who is there?"

The boy was angry now at whoever was evading answering his question, "Chicken," he called out.

"Chicken," the response came back to him.

The boy looked frightened and asked his grandfather what was happening. The old man laughed and said to listen. He called out, "You are wonderful!"

The voice answered back, "You are wonderful!"

The grandfather smiled and said, "You're amazing!"

"You're amazing!" came tumbling back out of the mountains.

The boy looked back at his grandfather, still wearing a look of confusion. "I do not understand, grandfather," the boy said.

The old man laughed again, and said, "My child, this is called an echo. But pay attention, because it is really life.

"Life will give back to you everything you say and do. Life is a reflection of our thoughts and actions.

"So if you want other people to do your bidding and think well of you, then you must think good thoughts about others and do good deeds for other people.

"If you want other people to be better at what they do, then you must make yourself better at what you do.

"Remember, life gives you back everything you give to it. Your life will be a reflection of you."

Before you can inspire with emotion, you must be swamped with it yourself. Before you can move their tears, your own must flow. To convince them, you must yourself believe.
