MESSAGE FROM EDITOR

December Messenger is the last messenger that I will be the Editor. When this edition comes out I will be back in Niagara Falls, New York. I enjoyed doing this and will miss all of you.

The new Editor is Kathy Meyers, Lot 15, 614-570-2772 kmm43081@aol.com She will also do the Calendar and Hall Reservations.

Also, I will not be doing the phone directory. You should have the new ones by now. Rick Martin is taking it over. He's at Lot 597, 717-439-1530 Richardmartin9@gmail.com

Homeowners of Oak Crest / Acorn Residents, Inc.

Jill Chambers, Vice-President, Lot 234 440-318-4738

It's hard to believe that it's the end of the year but December is here along with the holidays. I hope 2022 was a good year for you and that you're looking forward to 2023.

The new plan for Trugreen is now in effect. If you do not want spraying done, please contact the office for the red flags otherwise they will do it three times a year.

This would be a good time to check in with the office and make sure your phone numbers and emergency numbers are all up-to-date. If there is an emergency at your house such as a fire they can contact the office who will give them phone numbers of who to call. Let's hope it never happens. Please be aware of the speed signs and be careful when driving through the park. Many of us are a little hard of hearing and not always as aware as we should be when we're out bike riding or walking.

Election for new board members will be held at the meeting on January 23rd. This meeting will be held the fourth Monday of the month due to our bylaws for election. It will be a regular HOA meeting with election. Voting process will be run by a committee that does not include members of the HOA board. Please attend the December 12th HOA meeting for more information. If you are interested in being on the HOA board this is the day you declare you wish to run.

Also don't forget that there is a suggestion box at the back shelf in the clubhouse under the bulletin boards and we do share all your suggestions with management. If you don't sign them we can't get back to you personally but that is your option. Also you can contact a board member for help with a problem you are having and perhaps we can offer suggestions. Enjoy the Holidays.

Next HOA meeting is December 12th at 7 pm.

Humana Healthy Food Bags

Due to the holidays there will be no December healthy food bags, but everything will be back and running in January. Humana will bring in the food on the fourth Friday of each month with January's being January 27.

Humana all the Fixin luncheon December 8, 2022, 1pm

Humana will be sponsoring a Hot buffet luncheon with all the fixings for up to 100 lucky residents. They are the ones that set the number of guests and we have no control over it. This will be on Thursday, December 8th in the clubhouse. In order to ensure fairness and let you know ahead of time we're going to have a lottery drawing. In the clubhouse back by the bulletin board will be our lottery tickets. Fill one out and drop it in the box. The box and tickets will be available for you to stop by the clubhouse from November 23rd until December 3rd. PLEASE ONLY one ticket per lot but all residents that live there are included. (We will check to make sure that you have not put in extra lottery tickets) On December 3 we will draw lottery tickets and keep drawing till we have 100 people. Then we will post a sheet with lot numbers so you can check if you won. Also will post it on Facebook page Oakcrest Acorn 2018/2019. You may also text 440-318-4738 and ask if your lot number won. Also text this number if you won and can't attend so we can make sure someone else is included.

We have scheduled the Eagles Wings motorcycle group to ride through our park on December 16th. They will start at approximately 6:30 p.m. They will ride through the park but can only go down the main streets, so if you live on a side street with only one way in or out, you need to go to the nearest through street. They ride through pretty fast so be outside early. The whole month of December they go to many mobile home parks as well as other places. These people are amazing!

For those of you who are new in the park these people come here every year for charity. All proceeds go to the John Hopkins All Children's Hospital. anyone would like to donate clothes for the kids, please bring them to the clubhouse on December 16th. around 6:p.m. Our club donates $100 for their charity.

After they ride through the park the Eagles Wings will stop at the clubhouse for about an hour. They will leave the motorcycles lights on so you can look at them up close. We will be serving refreshments to all. We are in need of people to donate goodies. Any kind of goodies would be nice. We will be serving coffee also.

Activities Committee

Karen Stancick, Lot 205, 610-349-7614

Happy Holidays everyone. Our diversity allows us to celebrate many different types of holidays. Enjoy every minute of your Celebrations!

Our first December event is painting the windows of the clubhouse for the holidays. That will take place on Friday, Dec 2 beginning at 8:30 am. We use stencils so no artistic ability is needed. Bring your own brushes and something to keep you from getting paint on yourself !! A light lunch is provided for the painters.

Saturday, Dec. 3rd is our Breakfast. Pecan pancakes and bacon will be a part of the usual menu.

There will be a box at the Clubhouse for Christmas cards starting on Friday December 2nd if you would like to send some cheer to your friends and neighbors in the park. Each card Must Include the recipients name, street name, and Lot number. They cannot be delivered without this information. It can all be found in your yellow directory. We could also use many plastic grocery bags to sort the cards for each home.

A life lesson from the mountains

A young boy and his grandfather were taking a walk through the mountains. The boy was looking at the mountains when he tripped and fell down. As he fell he called out, "I'm afraid."

To the boy's surprise he heard his words come back to him from the mountain, "I'm afraid."

Startled and frightened, the boy called out—"Who is there?"

Again his words traveled back to him asking the same question he had asked—"Who is there?"

The boy was angry now at whoever was evading answering his question, "Chicken," he called out.

"Chicken," the response came back to him.

The boy looked frightened and asked his grandfather what was happening.

The old man laughed and said to listen. He called out, "You are wonderful!"

The voice answered back, "You are wonderful!"

The grandfather smiled and said, "You're amazing!"

"You're amazing!" came tumbling back out of the mountains.

The boy looked back at his grandfather, still wearing a look of confusion. "I do not understand, grandfather," the boy said.

The old man laughed again, and said, "My child, this is called an echo. But pay attention, because it is really life.

"Life will give back to you everything you say and do. Life is a reflection of our thoughts and actions.

"So if you want other people to do your bidding and think well of you, then you must think good thoughts about others and do good deeds for other people.

"If you want other people to be better at what they do, then you must make yourself better at what you do.

"Remember, life gives you back everything you give to it. Your life will be a reflection of you."

Before you can inspire with emotion, you must be swamped with it yourself. Before you can move their tears, your own must flow. To convince them, you must yourself believe.

Ask yourself if your expectations are too low

Do you know what the Pygmalion effect is? It is how our expectations of others often end up becoming a self-fulfilling prophecy. For instance, according to Edith Hamilton's classic, Mythology, Pygmalion was a young and gifted sculptor, and he set out to make a beautiful statue of a woman. He worked and worked and had such high expectations of his statue that he began to treat it as if it were a real woman. Eventually, through his own desire and treatment of his creation and with the help of Venus, the statue was actually transformed into a flesh-and-blood woman.

The principle is also illustrated in George Bernard Shaw's play Pygmalion. In that story, Eliza Doolittle, a Cockney flower girl, is taken on by a professor who says that he can pass her off as a duchess. He pulls it off, but Eliza has this to say to his friend: "You see, really and truly, apart from the things anyone can pick up (the dressing and the proper way of speaking and so on), the difference between a lady and a flower girl is not how she behaves, but how she's treated. I shall always be a flower girl to Professor Higgins, because he always treats me as a flower girl, and always will, but I know I can be a lady to you because you always treat me like a lady, and always will."

In an experiment conducted in 1968 by psychologist Robert Rosenthal, the same principle was illustrated. All of the children in the experiment were given a nonverbal test of intelligence. This test was disguised, according to Rosenthal, as a test that could predict whether or not a child would bloom intellectually. About 20 percent of the children in the study were chosen randomly. The teachers of these children were told that according to their test scores these children were about to undergo an intellectual growth spurt and make surprising gains over the next eight months. There was no difference in the children from the experimental group and the control group—except what their teachers thought about them. Finally at the end of the school year, the children were retested. Rosenthal says he found that the children who were in the experimental group, where false high expectations had been planted in their teachers' minds, showed significantly greater gain than the control group.

Are you unwittingly expecting too little out of the people in your life? Are you imposing your belief about someone in a way that is holding him or her back?
