PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Sandy Rasmussen, Social Club Committee

WOW this year has gone by very fast and ending soon. As a community, we have so many wonderful things happening and exciting things coming to our community.

We have over 300 followers on our page; let's show kindness to everyone.

We have our Christmas Dinner/Dance Saturday, December 10. You can look forward to Santa and cookies, and music on December 24. There will also be a golf cart parade and lots of holiday cheer and festivities too.

We are also looking for chairpersons for New Year's Eve, St. Patty's Day, and Valentine's Day events. Please let me know if you would like to chair one of these events.

If you have an interest in taking on a position on the social club board, please give me a call. I would love to sit and talk about what is involved. The upcoming election will be the second weekend in February.

Social Club Committee notice per bylaws:

Voting for officers and directors will be at the annual meeting in February. Please consider if you would like to run for an office or for the Board of Directors. You need to be a member of the social club to do either. If you wish to vote in the elections, your membership dues must be paid by January 31. No exceptions.

FREE Breakfast

FREE Breakfast with Procure Consulting December 3 at 9am in the clubhouse. Come and ask questions or just sit and socialize.

VETERANS DAY CELEBRATION

VETERANS DAY CELEBRATION was November 11 at the bay and lunch was served at the clubhouse. Thank you to Rob Lloyd and Sandy Rasmussen. Thank you to all the people in our community who are veterans. We appreciate you!

Christmas Trivia!

Vancouver, Canada claims to be the birthplace of the first “ugly Christmas sweater” party.

The reason we give presents is to symbolize the three wise men giving gifts to Jesus

The highest grossing movie about Christmas since 1980 is Jim Carrey’s “How the Grinch Stole Christmas”.

The first Christmas celebrated on American land was in 1539 in Tallahassee, FL. There was a religious mass and no presents given.

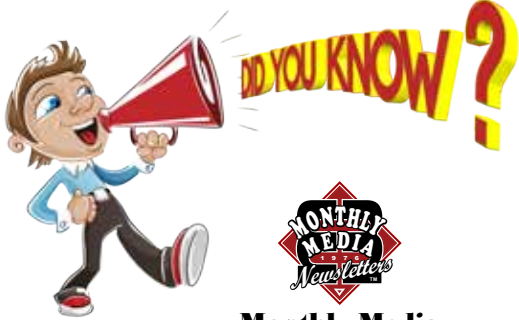

Visa cards are used about 6000 times every minute during the Christmas season.

Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer got his start as an advertising gimmick for Montgomery Ward in 1839.

Jingle Bells was originally a song about Thanksgiving in 1857. It was also the first song played in space by Walter Schirra Jr and Thomas Stafford.

The tallest Christmas tree ever displayed was in Seattle, Washington. It was 221 ft. tall.

Gifts

Christmas gift suggestions: To your enemy, forgiveness. To an opponent, tolerance. To a friend, your heart. To a customer, service. To all, charity. To every child, a good example. To yourself, respect.

— Oren Arnold

Each day comes bearing its own gifts. Untie the ribbons.
— Ruth Ann Schabacker

You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.
— Kahlil Gibran

All you have shall some day be given; therefore give now, that the season of giving may be yours and not your inheritors.
— Kahlil Gibran

Christmas Day

I sometimes think we expect too much of Christmas Day. We try to crowd into it the long arrears of kindness and humanity of the whole year. As for me, I like to take my Christmas a little at a time, all through the year. And thus I drift along into the holidays—let them overtake me unexpectedly—waking up some fine morning and suddenly saying to myself: “Why this is Christmas Day!”
— Ray Stannard Baker, pseud. David Grayson

“Maybe Christmas,” he thought, “doesn’t come from a store. Maybe Christmas... perhaps... means a little bit more.”
— Dr. Seuss, from How The Grinch Stole Christmas

Simple things

When we recall Christmas past, we usually find that the simplest things—not the great occasions—give off the greatest glow of happiness.
— Bob Hope

Compulsory holiday

A lovely thing about Christmas is that it’s compulsory, like a thunder-storm, and we all go through it together.
— Garrison Keillor

Throw the holiday party for your style and budget

Kraftfoods.com offers these tips for throwing a holiday party that will meet your needs and make your guests happy. You have to think about the kind of party that will make you feel good.

- You'll probably want to go buffet style if you want something that's casual or you don't have a lot of seating. People will walk around and mingle and have fun.
- Go for a sit-down dinner if something a bit more formal suits your style. If you enjoy dinner conversation and you have enough seating for everyone who will be in attendance, then this is a good choice for you.

After you decide what kind of party you're going to have, make a list of everything you will need. Then cross off everything that you already have and estimate the cost for each item you need. Add a few dollars for the inevitable extras that will pop up. If the estimated cost is over your budget for the party, then you can start eliminating things on your list until you get the figure you need.

A few facts about mistletoe

According to AllThingsChristmas.com, mistletoe has been revered since 200 years before the birth of Christ. Druid priests used it as part of their winter celebrations. The plant, which stays green all year even though it has no roots, was thought to be magical.

The Howstuffworks Web site says that Mistletoe is a parasitic plant. It lives in trees, and one mistletoe plant can grow on top of the other.

There are several stories that link mistletoe to the ritual of kissing under it. One is the myth of Frigga, the Viking goddess of love. Frigga's son was killed by his blind brother (who was actually tricked into shooting a dart of poison from the mistletoe into his brother.) Frigga was so stricken with grief that she cried and when her tears fell on a mistletoe plant the berries were turned from red to white (there are both red and white mistletoe berries) and this brought her son back from the dead. From then on Frigga kissed everyone who walked beneath the mistletoe because she was so grateful to have her son back.

Christmas

Christmas at my house is always at least six or seven times more pleasant than anywhere else. We start drinking early. And while everyone else is seeing only one Santa Claus, we'll be seeing six or seven.

Safety tips for preparing and serving community meals

Preparing and storing food for large groups has different requirements than preparing smaller meals. Here are some tips on how to prepare safe community meals from the USDA, Food Safety and Inspection Service:

- Make a good plan. Make sure that the location you pick has enough oven, stovetop, refrigerator and freezer space. Make sure there is also a source of clean water to use.
- Safely store and prepare food. Perishables need to be refrigerated or frozen within two hours of preparation or shopping. Always make sure you use separate areas to prepare raw and cooked foods. Remember to never place cooked food back on a cutting board or surface where something raw has been. Wash your hands, utensils and cutting boards frequently while you are preparing foods. Use hot soapy water.
- Make sure that the internal temperature of the foods you cook reaches a high enough temperature to kill bacteria. Use a food thermometer so that you can check internal temperatures accurately. Make sure you check in several places so that you get a true reading. Don't partially cook your food with the plan to finish cooking it later. This could encourage the growth of harmful bacteria.
- To transport food safely you will need to keep your hot foods hot and your cold foods cold. Use coolers for cold foods and make sure the temperature is 40 degrees or below. Keep your hot foods at a temperature of 140 degrees. Wrap it well and place it inside an insulated container.
- When you reheat your food make sure you bring it up to a temperature that makes it hot and steamy. Just warming it up is not safe. Bring the temperature of the food up to 165 degrees. Soups, sauces and gravies need to be brought to a boil.
- Use steam tables or warming trays to keep your hot foods hot—that means at or above 140 degrees. Keep your cold food at or below 40 degrees.
- If you know that food has been left out at room temperature for more than two hours, the safest thing to do is throw it out. If you have leftovers, you will want to place them in shallow containers and refrigerate or freeze them immediately.
