46th Year

A photograph of a person fishing on a beach at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright, shimmering path of light across the water. The person is silhouetted against the bright light, standing in the shallow surf. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds.

Happy New Year!

PRESIDENTS LETTER

Sandy Rasmussen

Merry Christmas everyone! I love this time of year. Mark and I have enjoyed spending our holiday season with all of you the past eight years. Our time at Bayside Waters is coming to an end soon and it is bittersweet. We have loved putting events together with decorating, cooking and having loads of fun with everyone. We will miss you all very much and again we are excited about our next chapter on being snowbirds, I know our grandkids are ecstatic. We have lifetime friends here so I can't see that we will be strangers in the park. We will be in the park until sometime in January. My last event will be New Year's Eve and I look forward to seeing you all there. If you are new to the community, I hope you consider investing yourself in the events and gatherings here at the park. We found it quite rewarding and an amazing way of staying active, creative and, I believe it gave us a better quality of life, giving of ourselves.

Social Club Committee notice per bylaws:

Voting for officers and directors will be at the annual meeting on February 11. Please consider if you would like to run for an office or for the Board of Directors. You need to be a member of the social club to do either. If you wish to vote in the elections, your membership dues must be paid by January 31. No exceptions. Please contact Becky Collins or Carolee Kingsbury to pay your annual Social Club membership fee of $10. Memberships end December 31.

Social Club Board of Directors Nominating Committee

The chairperson is Nancy Bucko. If you would like to volunteer to be on this committee or take on a role on the Social Club Board, which is rewarding and lots of fun, let Nancy know with a letter of intent. Reminder, you will need to be a member of the Social Club to vote. The election will be February 11 at 8:30 am during Koffee Klatch at the clubhouse. After the votes are counted, the general meeting will be immediately following, and new board directors and officers will be sworn in at that time. Please contact Becky Collins or Carolee Kingsbury for memberships.

An experiment with apricots

There was once a young psychology student who was serving in the army and decided to test a theory he had. He drew KP duty and was assigned the duty of passing out apricots at the end of the chow line.

To the first few soldiers who came through the line he asked, “You don’t want any apricots, do you? Ninety percent of the soldiers said “no.”

Next, he tried a more positive approach, “You do want apricots, don’t you. This time about 50 percent said yes, they wanted the apricots and took them.

Finally, he tried an approach based on a selling technique known as “either/or.” This time he asked his question this way: “One dish of apricots, or two?” In spite of the fact that the soldiers obviously did not like Army apricots, 40 percent of the soldiers took two dishes, and 50 percent took one.

Do what you can for those you can

A Zen monk was seen by his disciple by the sea, where the tide had washed ashore hundreds of starfish. It was clear that they would soon die from exposure. The monk was tossing the starfish, one at a time, back into the sea, in a slow and meditative manner.

“Why are you bothering?” the disciple asked the monk. The young disciple looked at the large number of starfish that were succumbing. “It won’t make any difference.”

The monk stopped for a moment, and looked down at the starfish in his hand. “It will to this one,” he replied.

Great irony

Human beings who are almost unique in having the ability to learn from the experience of others, are also remarkable for their apparent disinclination to do so.

— Douglas Adams

On airports

It can hardly be a coincidence that no language on Earth has ever produced the phrase, “as pretty as an airport.” Airports are ugly. Some are very ugly. Some attain a degree of ugliness that can only be the result of a special effort.

— Douglas Adams

On perspective

The fact that we live at the bottom of a deep gravity well, on the surface of a gas covered planet going around a nuclear fireball 90 million miles away and think this is normal is obviously some indication of how skewed our perspectives tend to be.

— Douglas Adams

Growing into a new life

There was once an old and unhappy woman who lived alone in a small house. Her life had been fraught with many disappointments. Her husband had left her with two small children to raise, her children had grown and gone off to college and rarely visited — and she didn't have much money.

One day she noticed that a tiny stick of a tree had pushed its way up from underneath the house's crawl space and had threaded through a small hole in the floor. The old woman took note of the tree, but didn't think it would be there long, because it was weak and somewhat sickly looking.

Every day the woman checked on the sapling and expected to find that it had died. She was surprised to see the little tree clinging to life, despite that it did not have an ideal environment.

Now, the old woman began to bring a little watering pot and a bit of plant food for the tree. She also got a friend of hers to come and remove some of the boards of the floor and build a little frame for the tree so that it would have room to grow. And it began to grow and unfurl in ways that the old woman could not have imagined earlier. It grew so healthily that eventually the old woman had to tie up some of its new branches to help support it until it got bigger.

The little tree grew so beautifully in the light by the picture window in the woman's living room that she brought in a circle of chairs and took to inviting people in so that they could enjoy her tree with her.

People stopped by to ask about the tree, and the old woman told the story of the tiny tree that pushed up out of the crawl space and through the tiny opening in the floor. The old woman made friends with some of these visitors, and she no longer felt lonely. She spent the rest of her life planting trees around her little town and they grew like no others. She always gave them plenty of love and encouragement — especially to the seedlings that looked like they were not likely to make it. And her life was rich and full because of it.

What you should worry about

Some people are worried about the difference between right and wrong. I'm worried about the difference between wrong and fun.
