Homeowners of Oak Crest / Acorn Residents, Inc.

Jill Chambers, Vice President, Lot 234, 440-318-4738

Welcome to the New Year! We hope everyone had a wonderful Holiday season. Due to our HOA bylaws, our January meeting will not be held until January 23, 2023, at 7:00 p.m. The election of two board members will take place at that meeting. We will also be collecting $10 dues, per lot, for the year. This money covers expenses such as our filings; the audit, which is done by an accountant; office supplies and other necessary expenses. The balance is added to our legal fund, which would be needed if it ever comes to the residents buying the park. Your active (paid) membership allows you to vote and voice your thoughts at HOA meetings. New people bring new ideas, new perspectives and new energy to any endeavor, so please consider volunteering, if asked, or check the back page of The Messenger for vacant activity leaders.

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents Club, Inc.

Annette Watts, President, Lot 504, 843-457-9599

By the time you read this, I will be retired from the position of President of the Activities Committee. I would like to thank everyone who supported us along the way. I began on the Activities committee with Nancy Barboza about seven years ago. For the last five years, I was President. I will miss being involved with the committee, but look forward to supporting the new blood in charge.

Karen Stancick will be a great President. She has so many good ideas and I encourage you to give her your full support. She has a great crew behind her and welcomes new volunteers. They are coming up with fantastic ideas and it looks to be like a fun-filled year.

My heartfelt thank you to each and every one of you who supported me during my time as President.

Sincerely, Annette

Activities Committee

Karen Stancick, Activities Chair, Lot 205, 610-349-7614

Welcome 2023! As Chair of the Activities committee, I am committed to helping make your New Year one of the best years possible! Whether you participate as an attendee or a volunteer, know you are always welcome to be a part of the goings-on in your community. My attitude is “The more the merrier!” If you have an event or activity idea, please give me a call or put it in the “activity idea” box in the Clubhouse. If you have a talent you would like to share, please, please, please, let me know! We try to keep costs as low as possible and are always looking for entertainment recommendations.

In addition to checking the calendar, know that we begin the year with the Pancake breakfast from 8:30-10:00 a.m. on January 7, where we will be selling $3 tickets to the January 21 dance. Music will be provided by Bandstand. Drive in Movie night will be Sunday, January 15, 6:00 p.m. The movie will be announced soon.

I hope you are enjoying the sand and surf of sunny Florida, as news from back home reminds many of us of the slipping and sliding of snow-covered highways, driveways and parking lots!

Oakcrest-Acorn Residents Canadian Club

Suzanne Thrasher, Secretary, Lot 356, 727-581-2642

Happy New Year! We wish everyone in the Oakcrest-Acorn community good health and much happiness throughout 2023. Welcome back to those Canadians who travelled home for the holidays, and welcome to those just joining us.

Our numbers have dwindled over the last few years. Many Canadians have left the community for a wide variety of reasons. If anyone knows of new Canadians in the park, please let me know.

The January 16th, 2023 Canadian Club meeting will be our first event. It will be a Potluck Dinner followed by a meeting/discussion on ‘the way forward’. The meeting starts at 530 p.m. I will contact members via email in early January, to get an idea of the numbers attending and food ideas.

Meanwhile, enjoy the Florida sunshine!

HUMANA HEALTHY FOOD BAGS & LUNCHEON

Hopefully, everyone who went to the “All the Fixins’ Luncheon”, sponsored by Humana, had a good time and a good meal. We will keep you informed if similar events are offered in the future.

The Humana healthy food bags will resume on January 27, 2023. This will always be on a first come – first served basis, with cards being passed out starting at 2:30 and bags given at 3 o’clock.

MANY THANKS

On behalf of the community, I would like to extend our thanks to Annette Watts and her team for all of the time and energy that was devoted to Oakcrest/Acorn to make so many events happen successfully. It is not an easy job, yet she did it with hard work, grace, and many volunteers throughout the years. You know who you are, even though many of us don’t. To quote Mother Theresa “None of us can do great things. Only small things with great love.” Thank you, Annette.

WHAT? NO WATER!!

True story: I looked out in the yard and my neighbor was bent over with a black cape on, and her husband was washing her hair with reclaimed water?! The water was shut off, due to a main water line leak. The timer was up on her hair color. It had to come off. So, hubby took her outdoors and saved the day! She & I laughed when she told me the story. Sometimes, that’s all you can do!

Note to self: Keep a couple gallons of water for emergency purposes-like rinsing color out of hair.

FOCUS ON: LIBRARY

Thanks to Jill Chambers, our library is well stocked, well maintained and well-used! When Jill put out a call for volunteers, several of us signed up to be trained, in order to keep the shelves in order. Current magazines, without address labels are appreciated. They are frequently borrowed by sunbathers and returned in a few hours. Due to shelf space, there are no cookbooks.

Go ahead, be an optimist

M.J. Ryan, life coach and author of The Happiness Makeover, says that it's possible for just about anyone to revamp their thinking. "Training your brain is like training a puppy," she says. "It wanders everywhere, but you need to keep bringing it back to the upside."

So the next time things don't go your way, try not to fall into your usual way of thinking. If you get steamed over small things, like waiting in a long line, the next time it happens tell yourself that this is a great opportunity to stand still and close your eyes while you wait. Or keep a magazine with you and read about something you are interested in so that you don't feel like you are wasting your time.

It might surprise you how little changes can make you feel better in a big way.

A few packing dos and don'ts for the frequent traveler

If you're required to travel for your work, you might want to remember this: The root word of "luggage" is "lug." So it's a good idea to buy the right size suitcase and pack lightly.

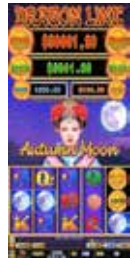

The largest bag that is allowed as a carry on is a 22 - inch tall suitcase. If you don't have to check any bags, you'll save time and hassle at your destination. You'll want to look for one that has a retractable handle and wheels for convenience as well. Recessed wheels are also a good feature, because they're less likely to cause a problem when you check your bag or try to fit it through security devices.

When you're packing it's good to keep in mind that most people usually overestimate the amount of clothing and products they will need on a trip. Try to cut back on what you take. Doing so will cut back on the chaos and discomfort of traveling. For instance, you might want to buy a travel-size bottle of combined shampoo/conditioner. Take small amounts so you won't have to deal with unwieldy and potentially leaky bottles. It's also a good idea to pack anything that could possibly leak in heavy-duty zip-lock bags. Additionally, you should try to pack these bagged items away from any clothes that could come into contact with them. You might also want to purchase a plastic-lined cosmetics bag that can easily be taken to the bathroom with you when you travel.

Savvy travelers also know that buying and packing items of clothing that have the intentional wrinkled look can save time and hassle and keep you looking great while you are on your trip. When you actually put your clothes into your suitcase here's a good regimen to follow. Put your underclothes in first. Lay flat items on the bottom and line the edges of the suitcase with items like rolled socks or bras. Layer your daily wear on top of these items, and last pack in your finery like ties and scarves, etc.

Camping with Holmes

Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson are going camping. They pitch their tent under the stars and go to sleep. Sometime in the middle of the night Holmes wakes Watson.

“Watson, look up at the stars, and tell me what you deduce.”

Watson says, “I see millions of stars, and if there are millions of stars, and if even a few of those have planets, it’s quite likely there are some planets like Earth, and if there are a few planets like Earth out there, there might also be life.

Holmes replied: “Watson, you idiot, somebody stole our tent!”

Winning bumper stickers

- I get enough exercise just pushing my luck.
- My wife keeps complaining I don’t listen to her ... or something like that.
- Sorry, I don’t date outside my species.
- Laugh alone and the world thinks you’re an idiot.
- When you do a good deed, get a receipt, in case heaven is like the IRS.
- I took an IQ test and the results were negative.
- Give me ambiguity or give me something else.
- If at first you do succeed, try not to look astonished.
- If at first you don’t succeed ... blame someone else and seek counseling.
- How many roads must a man travel down before he admits he is lost.

A technology lexicon for ruralities

Here’s a little techno-jargon from the boonies:

- Backup — what you do when you run into your girl-friend’s angry ex-boyfriend.
- Bug — that’s why you’re calling in sick.
- Byte — what your dog done to the mailman.
- Chip — something in a field you try not to step in.
- Terminal — time for a visit from the undertaker.
- Crash — when you show up to a party uninvited.
- Digital — counting with your fingers.
- Fax — what you lie about when you get pulled over.
- Hacker — somebody who’s been a longtime smoker.
- Mac — a delectable fast food.
- Megahertz — how your head feels after too much Jack Daniels.
- Modem — what you have to do when the grass gets too high.
- Screen — helps keep the bugs off the porch.

An experiment with apricots

There was once a young psychology student who was serving in the army and decided to test a theory he had. He drew KP duty and was assigned the duty of passing out apricots at the end of the chow line.

To the first few soldiers who came through the line he asked, “You don’t want any apricots, do you? Ninety percent of the soldiers said “no.”

Next, he tried a more positive approach, “You do want apricots, don’t you. This time about 50 percent said yes, they wanted the apricots and took them.

Finally, he tried an approach based on a selling technique known as “either/or.” This time he asked his question this way: “One dish of apricots, or two?” In spite of the fact that the soldiers obviously did not like Army apricots, 40 percent of the soldiers took two dishes, and 50 percent took one.

Do what you can for those you can

A Zen monk was seen by his disciple by the sea, where the tide had washed ashore hundreds of starfish. It was clear that they would soon die from exposure. The monk was tossing the starfish, one at a time, back into the sea, in a slow and meditative manner.

“Why are you bothering?” the disciple asked the monk. The young disciple looked at the large number of starfish that were succumbing. “It won’t make any difference.”

The monk stopped for a moment, and looked down at the starfish in his hand. “It will to this one,” he replied.

Great irony

Human beings who are almost unique in having the ability to learn from the experience of others, are also remarkable for their apparent disinclination to do so.

— Douglas Adams

On airports

It can hardly be a coincidence that no language on Earth has ever produced the phrase, “as pretty as an airport.” Airports are ugly. Some are very ugly. Some attain a degree of ugliness that can only be the result of a special effort.

— Douglas Adams

On perspective

The fact that we live at the bottom of a deep gravity well, on the surface of a gas covered planet going around a nuclear fireball 90 million miles away and think this is normal is obviously some indication of how skewed our perspectives tend to be.

— Douglas Adams

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.
