Park News & Resident Messages

One Blood Drive at Honeymoon MHP
A message from Rich Gropp: I received an email from One Blood giving me the stats on how much blood was donated from our park in 2022. We gave 32 pints for the year. That has helped save 96 lives in the Tampa area. I would love to thank everyone who donated and have hopes we can have a better year in donations for the year 2023. Thank you all for your contributions. - Rich Gropp

A message from Ron Borsh: we donated 1,009 pounds of food to Dunedin Cares Food Bank in the name of the Residents of Honeymoon Mobile Home Park. They responded with a letter of appreciation. Hopefully we can do even better in 2023! Thanks to everyone who gave throughout the year. - Ron Borsh

Neighborhood Watch Talk

From Ken Simms Honeymoon Park Neighborhood Watch Coordinator.

Car Burglaries:

Pinellas County Sheriff’s Office had advised that recently over one weekend, 29 car burglaries occurred in one community alone. Of the 29 cars only 2 were reported to have been locked. Criminals are looking for opportunities this time of year. Please take the time to always lock your vehicle, and do not leave any packages or valuables in full view. Shopping bags, backpacks and boxes, all look like they could contain valuable goods to a burglar.

Natural Disaster Scams

In the wake of hurricane Ian, numerous new scams have surfaced, attempting to advantage of the unfortunate people affected by the damaging effects of the hurricane.

Here are some tips to help avoid natural disaster scams that include identity theft schemes, disaster-relief payments, and solicitations for fake charities. Please use caution if you encounter any of the red flags listed below, particularly when the contact is unsolicited or you do not recognize the contact:

Government Disaster Assistance Organizations

- Unsolicited calls asking for financial account information: Officials with government disaster assistance agencies, such as FEMA or the Small Business Administration (SBA), will never call or text requesting personal or financial account information.
- Fees associated with applications for disaster relief payments: There are no fees to apply for or receive disaster assistance from FEMA or the Small Business Administration.

Post-Disaster Insurance Scams

- Unsolicited calls or visits from contractors and home improvement companies: After disasters, fraudsters may pose as contractors or representatives for home improvement companies that partner with insurance companies. If you are contacted by someone matching this description, never give them your policy numbers, coverage details, or personal information without first verifying their identity.

Disaster Relief Charity Scams

- Fake charities: Fraudsters can create fake charities to solicit funds during and after natural disasters. Always check the legitimacy of the charity through their official website or visit the National Association of State Charity Officials at <https://www.nasconet.org/>

Common signs of fraud:

Regardless of the type of fraud you may encounter, there are some shared characteristics to watch out for:

- Sense of urgency: Fraudsters often require immediate action to avoid negative impacts. Before providing any information, contact the company or agency they represent through a more secure or verified method.
- Request for personal/financial information: Fraudsters want to gather more information on their potential victims, such as address, social security numbers, account numbers, insurance policies or PINs. Never provide information to an unsolicited contact. Instead, contact the company or agency they represent through a more secure or verified method.

- Grammatical errors: Fraud-related communications often contain grammatical errors such as using a word incorrectly, using the wrong tense, misspelled words, or missing/incorrect punctuation.

Christmas Luncheon at the Clubhouse

From Gary Smith: I would like to thank everyone for coming out to enjoy the Christmas Dinner in the Clubhouse!! We served up a very nice dinner and enjoyed meeting with many Park Residents and Guests to celebrate the Holiday Season. Please remember that just a handful of us Board Members and Fellow Residents spend many hours in the days and weeks prior shopping for the food, preparing it, serving it, and cleaning up afterwards to make these events possible. It's always greatly appreciated when the Park Residents acknowledge these facts and even offer to pitch in with items such as the clean up afterwards. Together we can continue to enjoy these good times!! 🎅🌲👍

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
