Social Committee Tidbits

Mary Gilmore

It's February and our park is almost full. Our residents, both long time and new, are participating in the many offered activities. This is the way you meet your neighbors and friendships are begun or renewed. Boca Ciega has earned the reputation of a good park to live in by the actions of its residents. If a person's health situation changes, then friends and neighbors help out. If a neighbor finds that they have a water leak under their home, folks are there for support and help. If foxtail palms are planted, residents know that the palms must be watered by a hose that is on for a couple of hours a day at just a little trickle. That's the way it works at Boca Ciega.

Our holiday dinners at our hall were well attended. If you went away hungry, it was your own fault. Turkeys and hams were baked, appetizers of shrimp, cheese and crackers, and fruit and vegetable trays were prepared. Residents made a wide variety of delicious side dishes, salads and desserts. Our hosts for the Christmas dinner were Lucy and Don Bocchinfuso and they were helped by Lore and Rob Bocchinfuso and Patti and Dave Williams.

Our park looked festive for Christmas. Many residents decorated their home and also helped to decorate the entrance to our park, the front island, the pool area and the clubhouse. After the holidays, we had to take the decorations down and store them away. The residents who helped were Sandi Mousseau, Greta Samples, Sue Pranger, Marti Boyd, Ingrid Eby, Lore Bocchinfuso, Virginia Fuchtman, Mary Gilmore, Janice Troyer, Liz Martin and a few elves who were at the pool and helped take the fence decorations down in a matter of seconds. But wait a minute. Who set up our beautiful hall Christmas tree and took the tree down after the holidays? The same man who prepares our hall for Bingo and restores order to the tables and chairs after an event at our hall. Thank you Jon Bender for all that you do behind the scenes.

A year ago, Sue and Rex Pranger and Rita and Doug Sutton began a yearly event called the Peoples' Choice Award given to the resident who is voted to have the best Christmas decorations in the park. Sue thanks all who participated by decorating their homes and all who voted in 2022. Here are the results.

- 1st place: Betty Cerny #42
- 2nd place: Rita & Doug Sutton #127
- 3rd place: Erv & Marlene Winczewski #29
- 4th place: Marti & Darby Boyd #59
- 5th place: Virginia Fuchtman #27
- Ingrid & Dennis Eby #114
- Rose Baldwin #73
- Arleen & Doug Downs #113

Next December, the wooden Christmas tree with two decorated ornaments from 2021 and 2022 will be placed on Betty's front lawn honoring her 2022 Peoples' Choice Award.

On New Year's Eve, an impromptu get-together was held at our hall. Folks brought food, snacks and pizza to share with others and their own beverages. Part of the evening was simply folks meeting one another for the first time or families out for the night or friends out to welcome in 2023. Some folks stopped in for a short time and others stayed to play the dice game LEFT/CENTER/ RIGHT. I don't know how many lasted to midnight. Photos of those who had fun playing that evening are on page 15.

Those who didn't make it to midnight:

Yours truly, Greg Huettig, Joe Shetler, Mary Shetler, Bob Lieving, Sandi Mousseau and Natasha Mousseau

The Boca Ciega Poker Run was held on Sunday, January 8th. There were 104 participants. Each participant paid $5 to receive a poker hand. All participants received a plastic bag containing a list of five homes that they were to visit and receive a sealed envelope with a playing card inside. We were told not to open the envelope, but to bring all five envelopes to the pool area to hand them in to be opened and the resulting poker hand to be judged.

The homes that were visited, in no particular order, were our neighbors:

Terry Maegdlin, Ann Martin, Joy Khoshabjian, Rose and Dale Lenss and Kat and Bob Lieving. All had treats for us to enjoy. It was a beautiful day to be outside. All participants were to gather at the pool to find out who held the winning hands. All monies collected were handed out to the winners. The top 10 winning hands were held by:

1. Lore Bocchinfuso: 3 Jacks
2. Mary Gilmore: 3 Tens
3. Karen Mace: 3 Fours
4. Karen Parr: 3 Twos
5. Rose Lenss: 2 Aces & 2 Queens

7. Joni Love: 2 Aces & 2 Fours
8. Larry Charette: 2 Kings & 2 Threes
9. Donna Tosh: 2 Queens & 2 Fours
10. Tom Hopkins: 2 Jacks & 2 Fours

Our hosts for the Boca Ciega Poker Run were Susan and Rex Pranger, Doug Sutton, and Liz Martin. You all did a great job.

Debbie Hughes did a fine job of covering the Poker Run and has displayed her photos in an eye catching layout on a bulletin board in our clubhouse. Check it out for yourself.

Well folks, I'll be retiring from this job in February. It's been a good run. There are many new people in our park and it's time for someone else to put their own twist on writing an article for our newsletter and being the secretary of the Social Committee.

Sincerely, Mary Gilmore

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Welcome New Home Owners

Rose Baldwin

We are so happy that you have decided to become part of the Boca Ciega community! We welcome you and encourage you to share with us any interests, ideas or suggestions you may have for future events.

Please help us to continue to provide the residents with interesting activities by volunteering for one of our many committees.

Our community is only as strong as the members who participate.

Please feel free to contact anyone in our newsletter if you need help or information about our park.

Also, please visit and register at our website
www.bocaciegaresidents.com

And now let me introduce our latest new owners:

JOE AND MARY SHETLER - in Lot 95

Joe and Mary are from Lancaster, New York. They have three children, Cassandra, Parker and Alexander and three grandchildren. Their two sons live here in Tampa and their daughter is in New York.

Joe is retired from New York Throughway. Mary is a Certified Public Accountant and she continues working on line from her Florida home. They both love sporting events, bike riding and reading.

I thank our new owners for sharing this information with us. Welcome Joe and Mary to our Boca Ciega community.

Thank you!

Upcoming Social Event -Sunset Dinner Cruise

Boca Ciega has reserved a limited number of seats on the Calypso Queen Cruise Ship sailing out of Clearwater Beach on Sunday March 26, for a 2 - 2 ½ hour sunset cruise, along the Florida coastline. Boarding at 5:30 p.m. and sailing at 6:00, it will cruise the inter-coastal and Gulf waters until around 8:30. The cruise includes beer, wine, rum punch and soda, a scrumptious Tropical Island buffet dinner, with dessert, coffee and tea and hopefully a beautiful sunset.

We will start selling for this event after the Meet & Greet social on Jan. 15. Seats will be on a first come first served basis and when all spots are sold, we may try to increase the number of seats (if available - although unlikely). Seats will be available on a limited time basis as firm numbers must be given to the Cruise line well before the sailing date.

The cost for this event is $50 per person which includes a 10% service fee (tip).

You may wish to tip more, but is not required.

Don't be disappointed, buy your tickets early.

Tickets will be sold by Judy and Santo in unit 33 and Deb and Gary in unit 131

Loving wife, mother, and grandmother

She was a kind and loving soul with never a harsh word for anyone. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. She is survived by her brothers, George and Roger, her sons, Michael and Eugene and his wife, Lynn, and her grandchildren, Samuel, Jessa, and Morgan. She had her first great-grandchild on the way. She is joining in glory her husband, Otto, her brother, Kenny, her son, Jeff, and her grandson, Mitch.

*Peace I leave with you,
my peace I give unto you:
Not as the world giveth, give I unto you.
Let not your heart be troubled,
neither let it be afraid*

John 14:27

GABRIELE ERASMI

It is with great sadness that the Erasmi family announces the loss of its 'paterfamilias', Dr. Gabriele Erasmi, who passed away on January 7th, in his 81st year. As a young man, Gabriele exchanged his native Trieste for New Haven, Connecticut, where, on a Fulbright scholarship, he enrolled as an undergraduate at Yale University. From there he ventured further west to Minneapolis to pursue his doctoral studies in Classics at the University of Minnesota. Finally, it was Hamilton that claimed him when in 1971 he accepted a teaching position in the Department of Romance Languages at McMaster University. Gabriele was a born academic. He was endowed with a sharp intellect and an enquiring mind and throughout his long career at McMaster, he fostered in his students both knowledge and love of Italian language, literature, history, and culture. Such was his contribution to the intellectual life of McMaster that on his retirement in 2003 the Faculty of Humanities established in his honour The Gabriele Erasmi Travel Scholarship to Italy. Gabriele's contribution to the cultural life of Hamilton was no less noteworthy. As President of the Dante Alighieri Society of Hamilton and as the Vice-President of the Famiglie Giuliano Dalmate, he worked tirelessly to create opportunities for the Hamilton community to enjoy and appreciate the rich artistic, musical, and literary heritage of his native Italy. His efforts were celebrated in 1997 when he was named the Italo-Canadian Man of the Year by the Sons of Italy organization. Gabriele Erasmi was a supremely generous man, generous of his knowledge and wisdom, generous of his time, generous of his friendship. First and last, however, 'la famiglia e tutto' was his motto, and it was his wife Ida, his sons Alessandro, Manfredi, Manrico, and their wives and children who occupied that special place at the centre of his life. Ave atque vale, amicissime Gabriele! Sit tibi quies iucundissima. A visitation will be held on Thursday, January 12, 2023 from 2-4 p.m. at the Bay Gardens Funeral Home, 947 Rymal R. East, Hamilton. A funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday, January 13, 2023 at St. Ann's Church, 11 Wilson St. West, Ancaster. A private interment will follow. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Diabetes Canada or to the Canadian Lung Association.
