HOME MAINTENANCE

We would like to thank all those residents that responded and complied with the notices that were sent about home washing. For the month of February, we will be focusing on trimming and gutters. Of course, we are also looking at your entire lot. A special thank you goes out to those that we didn't have to send a notice in the last few months. We appreciate you keeping Sugar Creek looking fabulous.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Rules are in place for a reason. We have a beautiful park and would like to keep it this way. We all CHOOSE to live here! There are no "seasonal" differences in rules, they are the same all year long. If you need a copy of the rules or need to go over the rules again, please come to the office and I will be glad to assist you.

PARKING

The rule is: When your vehicle is not in use, park in your carport. If you are going to be in and out and park on the street during the day, or you're cleaning out your carport, park in front of YOUR home, not your neighbors'. Be considerate of others. Do not leave your vehicle on the street when you are not home. We have firetrucks and ambulances that need to get in, without having to maneuver around vehicles.

CLUBHOUSE FUNCTIONS

We all have the privilege of using the clubhouse and attending functions. We are all here to enjoy what Sugar Creek has to offer. Every resident is permitted into the clubhouse; therefore, we give out keys to the residents. If something is unfair or a danger to others in the clubhouse, pool, or anywhere in the park, we ask that you come to the office and report it. If you feel the need to confront a situation, please do it with dignity. Residents do not need to be scolded or embarrassed in front of others.

HOME SALES

We often have people come to the office telling us Sugar Creek is a desirable community and we have an ongoing list of people who want to buy a home in our park, so thank you to our residents for making Sugar Creek a friendly and welcoming environment for all. If you are considering selling your home, just let Daniel or Vicki know and we will use the resources at our fingertips to sell your home quickly and for a great price. We are here to help: 727-586-2002.

Happy Valentine's Day!

IN MEMORY OF RITA DROLET

From Robert Drolet

I wish to thank you all for all the thoughtfulness and caring of the passing of Rita. I remember the times she would be painting cards for someone hoping it would bring joy to them. I can see that it did. She enjoyed teaching what she knew. She loved being around people. She loved learning so she could pass it on. Though she is not here, she is here in my heart.

My son gave me a pillow that said,

“Because someone we love is in HEAVEN,
there’s a little bit of HEAVEN in our home”

I love her dearly. Thank you. Bob

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

One of the greatest love stories of all time

In 1845, Robert Browning was an unknown poet and playwright when he first read Elizabeth Barrett's volume of poetry titled Poems. He was 32 years old.

Elizabeth Barrett was a well-known poet—and an invalid. She was 39 years old.

Browning was so moved by her poetry that he wrote to her “I love your verses with all my heart, dear Miss Barrett...” The two then commenced writing more than 600 letters to each other during the next 20 months.

According to The History Channel's Web site, Elizabeth had suffered from the time she was a teenager from a painful condition that caused uncontrollable spasms of pain and breathing difficulties. She had been a shut-in and a spinster for years. Elizabeth's father was a very controlling, wealthy man who had forbidden all of his 12 children from ever marrying.

Browning began to court Barrett, but at first she did not take him seriously, thinking that no one would be genuinely interested in her romantically. But Browning was ardent in his desire for Barrett. However, Barrett refused to see Browning for several months. Elizabeth found it hard to trust Browning's intentions because she had been isolated for so long and because she questioned the treatment of women inside the institution of marriage. But despite these almost over-whelming obstacles, Browning continued to court her with passion.

Finally, with the encouragement of Browning, Elizabeth left the room where she had spent the previous six years of her life. She began to go outside and live an active life again, and she cut back on the morphine and opium the doctors had prescribed for her painful condition.

In 1846, Barrett married Browning in a secret ceremony (to hide the fact that she was defying her father). When her father found out, he disinherited Elizabeth.

The couple left for Italy in the week after their marriage—and they spent the next 15 years together productively writing. Their courtship inspired some of the most beautiful and romantic poetry ever written.

The most famous line of her poetry was from her courtship period with Browning published in her Sonnets From the Portuguese, it reads, “How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.”

Elizabeth died in her husband's arms in 1861.

A fun chocolate tidbit

Here's a fun fact from the Chocolate Manufacturers Association. Folks at the CMA say that champagne and sparkling wines don't pair well with milk or dark chocolate. The reason? Apparently the acidity in these libations reacts to chocolate and causes a tart taste. The CMA suggests pairing champagne and sparkling wines with white chocolate and red wines with dark chocolate.
