FROM THE EDITOR

We are already in February of 2023! I am your new editor of our monthly media! I'm excited to be doing this. I will be looking for interesting articles, resident spotlights, pet spotlights, and any other interest you may have that I can help with. Please send any articles, suggestions or photos to me at LindaIITSmedia@gmail.com or stop by Lot 73. If you would like to be highlighted (spotlight) in an upcoming edition, please let me know. See you all soon!

Thank you,
Linda Olone - lindaIITSmedia@gmail.com

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The February Board Meeting will be held on Tuesday, February 7th at 7pm. We are asking members to please mark your calendars and attend this meeting in person if possible. For both February 7th and March 7th IITS HOA Board Meetings, we need members in attendance to vote on issues put forward by the Board. We cannot move forward without members present to vote.

Thank you to those who have renewed their memberships for the new year. If you haven't already, please renew your membership for 2023 in order to vote. We have held the cost at $15 per home in order to keep paid memberships accessible to all homeowners in IITS. You can renew your membership at the meeting or by contacting any Board officer. Our contact information is in the front cover of this publication.

Finally, I want to personally thank all of the generous IITS HOA members who stepped up and volunteered to help with the New Year's Eve Party at the clubhouse. It was a huge undertaking and a great success because neighbors cared enough to chip in, work together and make it a great evening of fabulous food, entertainment and friends.

Challenge Your Mental Health

Managing mental health for older adults is just as important as managing it at any other stage in life. As you age it's common to see a decline in memory or mood due to many contributing factors. However, it's possible to push off the decline in mental health that some older adults face.

to your Mind

As you age, it's important you continue to challenge your mental health by:
playing sudoku, mahjong, Bingo or cards trying new hobbies like, tai chi, qi gong, yoga, or pilates staying up-to-date with current events through the internet or apps
Activities like these have the ability to stimulate the mind and connect people with the world around them, which improves memory and overall mental health.

Today's Inspiration

“I’ve learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.” —Maya Angelou

“Laughter strengthens your immune system, boosts mood, diminishes pain, and protects you from the damaging effects of stress. Nothing works faster or more dependably to bring your mind and body back into balance than a good laugh. Humor lightens your burdens, inspires hope, connects you to others, and keeps you grounded, focused, and alert. It also helps you release anger and forgive sooner.” reference: “The Benefits of Laughter”

Humor

Two women were eating at a restaurant one morning. Ethel noticed something funny about Mabel's ear and she said, "Mabel, did you know you've got a suppository in your left ear?"

Mabel answered, "I have? A suppository?" She pulled it out and stared at it. Then she said, "Ethel, I'm glad you saw this thing. Now I think I know where my hearing aid is."

A woman was standing at the railing of the cruise ship holding her hat on tight, so that it would not blow off in the wind.

A gentleman approached her and said: "Pardon me, madam. I do not intend to be forward, but did you know that your dress is blowing up in this high wind?"

"Yes, I know," said the lady, "I need both hands to hold on to this hat!"

"But, madam, you must know that your privates are exposed!" said the gentleman in earnest.

The woman looked down, then back up at the man and replied, "Sir, anything you see down there is 85 years old. I just bought this hat yesterday!"

On the fragility of opinions

A very long time ago, far away in another land, there lived six blind men. They had all been blind since birth. Mostly, the six spent their days sitting around inventing tall tales to see who could tell the best story.

One day, the six men fell into a great argument. The subject of their argument was the elephant. There were many tales throughout the land about the great elephant, but because none of the men had actually seen an elephant each of them had their own idea of what the beast was like.

The men hired a young guide to lead them in find-ing an elephant to settle the dispute. The blind men followed along, each one placing his hands on the back of the man in front of him, and in this way they made their way single file along a narrow forest path.

It wasn't long before the group came across a great elephant. The six became very excited. They decided that each man should take a turn at exploring the ele-phant's shape and form.

The first man fell against the side of the elephant and said, "My, the elephant is like a great and sturdy wall."

The second man grabbed hold of the tusk of the elephant and said, "My, the elephant is smooth and sharp, like a wonderful spear."

The third man approached the animal and grabbed on to the trunk and said, "My, the elephant is exactly like a snake."

The fourth man grabbed hold of the elephant's great leg and said, "My, the elephant is round and stur-dy, just like a tree."

The fifth man reached out and grabbed hold of the elephant's ear, "My," he cried out, "The elephant is just like a fan."

The sixth man reached out and grasped upon the elephant's tail and said, "My, the elephant is exactly like a rope."

And so, the men continued arguing, even more loudly than before, each arguing for his opinion of what the elephant was like. And even though each was a little right—all of the men were more than a little wrong.

The most important ingredient

It was well known that Abraham Lincoln often slipped out of the White House on Wednesday nights to listen to the sermons of Phineas Gurley at New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. The president tried to slip in and out of the services unnoticed—so Gurley often left his study door open so the president could listen to his sermons privately. One night, Lincoln showed up and took his seat in the minister’s study and propped the door open a little wider so that he could hear what the preacher was saying.

An aide later asked Lincoln what he had thought of the most recent Wednesday night sermon.

The president thought for a moment and then replied: “The content was excellent ... he delivered with eloquence ... he put work into the message ...”

“Then you thought it was an excellent sermon?” the aide asked.

“No,” Lincoln answered plainly.

“But you said the content was excellent ... that it was delivered with eloquence and it was the fruit of hard work,” the aide said.

“That’s true,” Lincoln said. “But Dr. Gurley forgot the most important ingredient ... He forgot to ask us to do something great.”

A stone in the road

Once in a foreign land, a king had a boulder placed in the middle of a well-traveled road. Then the king hid himself from view, and watched to see what would happen.

Wealthy merchants whom the king knew well saw the boulder and stepped around it. Courtiers came and when they saw the boulder they walked around it as well.

It came to pass that many people criticized the king for not keeping the road clear, but no one in the kingdom did anything to get the giant stone out of the road.

One day, a peasant came down the road carrying a load of vegetables. When the man saw the stone, he laid down his load and commenced in trying to move the stone. After a great effort, the peasant finally was able to move the boulder. When the peasant went back to the road for his vegetables he noticed that in the place where the stone had been was a beautiful red purse. The peasant picked up the purse and saw that it was filled with many gold coins and a note from the king saying the gold was for the person who moved the boulder from the road.

Moral: What other men see as an obstacle can be an opportunity for the man who faces it head on.
