Home Owners Association Update

Jill Chambers

As we start the second month of the year, I hope everyone is feeling well and enjoying the sunshine. There will not be an HOA meeting this month, but if you need to pay your $10 dues (per lot), please drop them off at lot 253 or lot 335.

Board members are volunteers and trying to do their best for all of us at Oak Crest/Acorn, so please keep that in mind. I encourage you to visit Facebook often and check the bulletin board to keep updated. There is a suggestion box at the clubhouse for your ideas and thoughts, which are most welcome. Communication is encouraged and phone numbers for each of us is listed in the Directory.

We have a new slate of officers and I would like to welcome Rhonda Gillispie to the Board. You can check the inside front and back covers of The Messenger, for names, lot numbers and phone numbers of HOA Board Members and many other Volunteers. The next HOA meeting will be March 13, 7:00 p.m.

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents' Club, Inc.

Karen Stancick, President, Lot 205, 610-349-7614

2023 is off to a great start! Committees are filled; activities are being planned; and I am growing into my new position as the President of the Residents' Club. Expect fun times!

There was a lot of talking and laughing and ideas shared at the Pancake Breakfast, so the Activities Committee would like to get your thoughts through surveys that should have been delivered in your mail tube by now. I encourage you to fill them out and return them. If unable, give one of us a call and we'll pick yours up.

Please keep your Monthly Messenger, especially the calendar inside, as a reference to time and places of activities, as well as contact information for the volunteers in charge. Your team of volunteers is working hard to bring you activities that are affordable, entertaining and enjoyed by many. If you have an idea or would like us to pursue an activity, please put a note in the suggestion box, located near the bulletin board. We realize that not every event is for everyone, but we're making an effort to get residents involved in their community—your community---my community---our community!

Activities Committee

Co-Chairs, Marianne Olsen and Roberta Zanol

As new co-chairs of the Activities Committee, Roberta and I would like to introduce ourselves. We have both served on the activities committee previously; Roberta as co-chair; myself, as a committee member. Roberta runs LRC on Friday nights and has helped with Bingo for many years. I was welcomed with open arms last year, and told my experience as an Activities Director at an assisted living facility would be put to good use.

Roberta and I enjoy giving back, especially by bringing people together. We look forward to working with fellow committee members: Karen Stancick, Jill Werner, Barbara Ramsey, Laurie Stone, Kim Klein, Teresa Mench, Yvonne D'Angelo, Maureen Dunham and Debbie Casey.

The 'Best Decorated Holiday House' award was won by Shari Samples and Joe Fisher, 227 Basket Oak. Their original and creative Florida-style Christmas display was a standout! Thanks to everyone who decorated, one couldn't drive in or out of our community without getting into the Holiday Spirit. Your efforts are appreciated by all of us. And, thank you to all who rode in the golf cart parade this year.

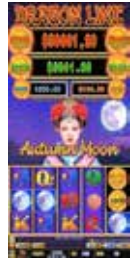

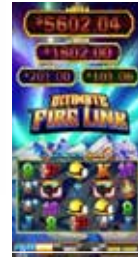

The Breakfast turnout was fantastic for our first effort as a new team! Thank you so much for your support. Next breakfast is scheduled for February 4.

A few more dates for your calendar:

- BYOB event on Saturday, February 18. Details to follow on bulletin board and Facebook
- Drive-in Movie night February 26 at the Pavillion
- Carport sale is March 11. For more info or to help, call Jill DiMaggio, 443-741-5304

WE ARE FLORIDA'S #1 RETIREMENT COMMUNITIES PARTNER!

Oakcrest-Acorn Residents Canadian Club

Suzanne Thrasher, Secretary, Lot 356, 727-581-2642

The choosing of a romantic partner began on St. Valentine's Day in the Middle Ages. It was believed that birds began mating on that day. Yet, there doesn't seem to be evidence that Saint Valentine, an early Christian, who was martyred by the Romans, had connections to either birds or romance. In the 1800's, stories abounded that the roots of St. Valentine's Day reached back to Rome and the festival of Lupercalia on the 15th of February. Despite the day's mysterious and puzzling roots, it is obvious people have observed St. Valentine's Day for centuries. We wish everyone a Happy Valentine's Day!

The Canadian Club Dinner and Meeting will be Monday February 20th at 5:30 p.m. in the clubhouse. BYOB as always. If you meet Canadians new to Oakcrest/Acorn, please extend an invitation to them. Tickets for Guests are $5.00 per person.

FERAL CATS IN PARK

Feral cats have once again become a nuisance. Here is the procedure for capturing:

- Arrange to get a trap (that is ready to use) from the office
- Trap cat(s) (preferably set & caught overnight, Sunday-Thursday)
- Call office for removal (during office hours only-earlier, the better). Cats should not be kept over the weekend in traps

ST. PATRICK'S DAY LUNCHEON—SPONSORED BY HUMANA

Humana will be sponsoring a buffet luncheon for 100 lucky residents, to be determined by a lottery drawing, on March 9, 2023 at 1:00 p.m. Lunch will be at the clubhouse and we have been requested by Humana, to wear green!

Lottery tickets will be located below the bulletin board and we ask that you fill out one per household, listing the residents in your household who will be attending. The box and tickets will be available February 21 through March 1st. Tickets will be drawn March 2 and a sheet with lot numbers chosen will be posted on the bulletin board; or you can text 440-318-4738 to check if your name was drawn. If your name is drawn and you cannot attend, please text that number to let us know, so we can give your space to someone else. These luncheon tickets are in high demand!

Unfortunately, there will be no home deliveries. If you are a shut-in and your name is drawn, please arrange for someone to bring your lunch to you.

On the fragility of opinions

A very long time ago, far away in another land, there lived six blind men. They had all been blind since birth. Mostly, the six spent their days sitting around inventing tall tales to see who could tell the best story.

One day, the six men fell into a great argument. The subject of their argument was the elephant. There were many tales throughout the land about the great elephant, but because none of the men had actually seen an elephant each of them had their own idea of what the beast was like.

The men hired a young guide to lead them in find-ing an elephant to settle the dispute. The blind men followed along, each one placing his hands on the back of the man in front of him, and in this way they made their way single file along a narrow forest path.

It wasn't long before the group came across a great elephant. The six became very excited. They decided that each man should take a turn at exploring the ele-phant's shape and form.

The first man fell against the side of the elephant and said, "My, the elephant is like a great and sturdy wall."

The second man grabbed hold of the tusk of the elephant and said, "My, the elephant is smooth and sharp, like a wonderful spear."

The third man approached the animal and grabbed on to the trunk and said, "My, the elephant is exactly like a snake."

The fourth man grabbed hold of the elephant's great leg and said, "My, the elephant is round and stur-dy, just like a tree."

The fifth man reached out and grabbed hold of the elephant's ear, "My," he cried out, "The elephant is just like a fan."

The sixth man reached out and grasped upon the elephant's tail and said, "My, the elephant is exactly like a rope."

And so, the men continued arguing, even more loudly than before, each arguing for his opinion of what the elephant was like. And even though each was a little right—all of the men were more than a little wrong.

At my age, when I order a three-minute egg, they make me pay in advance.

The most important ingredient

It was well known that Abraham Lincoln often slipped out of the White House on Wednesday nights to listen to the sermons of Phineas Gurley at New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. The president tried to slip in and out of the services unnoticed—so Gurley often left his study door open so the president could listen to his sermons privately. One night, Lincoln showed up and took his seat in the minister’s study and propped the door open a little wider so that he could hear what the preacher was saying.

An aide later asked Lincoln what he had thought of the most recent Wednesday night sermon.

The president thought for a moment and then replied: “The content was excellent ... he delivered with eloquence ... he put work into the message ...”

“Then you thought it was an excellent sermon?” the aide asked.

“No,” Lincoln answered plainly.

“But you said the content was excellent ... that it was delivered with eloquence and it was the fruit of hard work,” the aide said.

“That’s true,” Lincoln said. “But Dr. Gurley forgot the most important ingredient ... He forgot to ask us to do something great.”

A stone in the road

Once in a foreign land, a king had a boulder placed in the middle of a well-traveled road. Then the king hid himself from view, and watched to see what would happen.

Wealthy merchants whom the king knew well saw the boulder and stepped around it. Courtiers came and when they saw the boulder they walked around it as well.

It came to pass that many people criticized the king for not keeping the road clear, but no one in the kingdom did anything to get the giant stone out of the road.

One day, a peasant came down the road carrying a load of vegetables. When the man saw the stone, he laid down his load and commenced in trying to move the stone. After a great effort, the peasant finally was able to move the boulder. When the peasant went back to the road for his vegetables he noticed that in the place where the stone had been was a beautiful red purse. The peasant picked up the purse and saw that it was filled with many gold coins and a note from the king saying the gold was for the person who moved the boulder from the road.

Moral: What other men see as an obstacle can be an opportunity for the man who faces it head on.
