Garbage has been a real nightmare again. DON'T stack bags on top of lids, beside or in front on the ground. Please don't overfill with the lid flipped back. The city will NOT take it. Management id=s the one who is pulling it off so the city will take it You will be fined for doing it and we will find out who you are.

Please keep your dogs on leashes There have been many complains of people letting their dogs run off leash. There has been two serious incidents regarding this matter. One dog was seriously injured by another and another where one dog was killed. Both happened when dogs were off their leashes. It is a park violation to have dogs off their leashes and also please remember to walk your dog in the park sections and clean up their poop. This applies to service animals as well.

If you see 2 males and a female walking around with a clipboard in the park, they are code enforcement. They were and are checking up on car ports and back yards. They have already written up several of these violations. So, clean up your car ports and backyards and quit hoarding!! It is a safety concern and makes the rest of the park look bad, it even effects those trying to sell their homes when neighbor carports and backyards are an eye sore.

And yet again: Please stop feeding feral cats, we now have a problem with racoons coming in to eat also. They are urinating everywhere around them and the smell is just awful. Let's be respectful and considerate of our neighbors, NO one wants to be around that smell 24 hours a day.

FROM THE EDITOR

FOUR PEOPLE

This is a story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody.

There was an important job to be done and Everybody was asked to do it. Everybody was sure Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done.

JUST SAYIN'

Jeanne Hunter

JUST SAYIN'

My doctor asked me if any of my family suffered from mental illness. I said no, most of them seemed to enjoy it.

Three of my kids are adopted. It would have been four, but nobody would take the last one.

Need some financial advice? My grandson told me the quickest way to land on your feet is to miss a couple of car payments.

What do you call a cow with no feet? Ground beef.

Just in case the rest of the column bores you, reread the beginning.

So, this month I went to Disney World with my daughter, son-in-law and grandson. If our wallets were sponges, Disney could squeeze every last drop of water from them. Remember when you got a ticket book with coupons from A to E? A was a great ride, E not so great and the letters in between corresponded to how much fun the ride was. We usually had E tickets left, but you could bring them the next time in case you wanted to go on the not-so-great rides even more.

Then they switched to an entry ticket so you could ride whatever you wanted all day long. We quickly discovered the joys of multi-hour lines while being serenaded by the cries and howls of toddlers bored out of their minds. It was a great way to lose weight though as the pounds melted off in the Florida summer heat and humidity. We planned for weeks to wring every ounce of enjoyment out of our day trips to Disney, getting up before dawn so we could be there at the gates when they opened. First stop inside, the old saloon restaurant to get reservations. Then, with maps in hand, straight to our favorite, 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea, followed by Mr. Toad's Wild Ride. Back then, Disney was the Magic Kingdom and a section called Epcot (which Walt planned on turning into the Experimental Prototype City of Tomorrow, or EPCOT). We stayed until the parade and/or fireworks and then crawled back to the car for the long ride home.

The kids passed out in the back seat and we adults wished we could.

Well, times have changed. Now there are four totally separate parks, Magic Kingdom, Epcot, Hollywood Studios and Animal Kingdom. Each park has themed sections you could probably spend a day exploring. We stayed at a hotel on the property and the Disney bus took 20 to 30 minutes to get to the individual parks. I think Disney World could become our 51st state.

You can't just go to Disney anymore. Now you buy your tickets ($109 Florida resident special) in advance for specific dates, once you have your tickets, you go to a calendar that shows you which parks have openings for the dates of your tickets. Then you choose one park for each date. You can get a park hopper ticket for more money. This does NOT mean you can move around parks when you want. You can go to the one other park you chose at 2:00 in the afternoon. You can get a special "after dark" ticket to go from 8:00 to 11:00 at night for only $149. Really!?!

Now you have tickets and reservations. Think you're set? Oh, you are so naive. You might want to buy magic bands to wear on your wrist starting at $29. They open your hotel room and get you in the park and do other things I never mastered.

Next up is magic genie+. You can buy these each day after midnight for $25 per person. The price varies by $5 or so depending on if Disney thinks it can get more that day. At 7:00 am, you can get on your Disney Experience app on your phone and book one ride or show to go on. This puts you in the Lightning Lane instead of the 2 – 3-hour line (one ride had a line with a 6 hour, 5 minute wait – imagine that with a toddler). Each park has one very new, popular ride. At 7:00 am, you can book this ride for an additional price of $17 - $25 EACH, depending on how Disney feels that day. You still following all this, using your calculator to total costs?

The first night I woke up at 4:00 am and decided to get the magic genie+ since I was up. The app wouldn't work, so I was going to call the front desk. Room phone was dead. I got up and got dress and went to the front desk. The front desk person said it was a glitch in the system, but I suspect it was a glitch in me. She got me all set and I went back to bed with the alarm set for 6:55, ready to get on some rides. At 7:00, the app wouldn't let me in. Once again, to the front desk. At 7:10 am, there were no more spots available on the big ride, the Star Wars ride, the ride that would earn me Grandma points big time. A guy behind the desk said, "Well, we do have 100,000 guests," with a customer service smile. I pondered possible ways to wring his neck that would not ruin our vacation and get me arrested. I was able to get another Star Wars ride for 1:35 that afternoon. Then we had to wait for 3 hours after using the magic genie+ to book something else.

There may be more to this story next month, but for now, I'm done. I really think they should have a class to teach you how to go to Disney now.

VERY INTERESTING FACTS !!

Dead Penguins - I never knew this!
Did you ever wonder why there are no dead penguins on the ice in Antarctica?

Where do they go?

Wonder no more !!!

It is a known fact that the penguin is a very ritualistic bird which lives an extremely ordered and complex life. The penguin is very committed to its family and will mate for life, as well as maintain a form of compassionate contact with its offspring throughout its life.

If a penguin is found dead on the ice surface, other members of the family and social circle have been known to dig holes in the ice, using their vestigial wings and beaks, until the hole is deep enough for the dead bird to be rolled into, and buried.

The male penguins then gather in a circle around the fresh grave and sing:
scroll down

"Freeze a jolly good fellow."

"Freeze a jolly good fellow."

You really didn't believe that I know anything about penguins, did you?

It's so easy to fool OLD people.

FOR MANUFACTURED/MOBILE HOME OWNERS ON RENTED LOTS

Our accomplishments are numerous and include the creation of Florida Statute 723, "The Florida Mobile Home Act", which safeguards your rights as homeowners on rented lots in Florida.

Most recently we've successfully lobbied for the extension of The Mobile Home Tie-Down Program for 10 more years.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

You asked for it and YES It's coming back!!!!

The Variety show will be held at 7pm, Saturday March 4th. Dress rehearsal will be at 10 am that morning. We are in need of people to be in the show. Dance, sing, do a skit, anything you can think of to entertain us. Don't be afraid it's just for fun. Sign-up sheet will be up in the clubhouse.

Don't delay, secure your spot today.

COACHES CORNER

Guidelines for Shuffleboard Scorekeepers

To prepare the blackboard, place the initials of both teams at the top of the board. In the first half the visiting team initials will be on the left and the home team initials will be on the right., on both sides of the board in the second half the initials will be re-versed.

Place a heavy line just below the 6th frame line and cross off the area below that line.

When all 6 frames have been played, the scorekeeper should erase the figures in the first 4 frames and place a heavy chalk line just above the 4th frame line so that all play-ers can tell where the 10th frame is,

When the two top frames are scored, erase the two frames below, including the white line just below the 4th frame line.

When the 10th frame is scored, an arrow should be placed below the highest score. All the space I have, more on scorekeeping next month.

Letter To The Review

The sun is shining, the grass is green, and it's a new year. Maybe Mary Tyler Moore is tossing her hat with joy. Can you imagine if most Bay Ranchers felt that way?

How do I (and you, dear reader) know we don't? Let me count the ways.

On second thought, let me skip that step. It will only make me feel worse. Because what I really want is to feel better, to focus on what is working, like those folks who are letting us know when it's safe to take over our garbage, or warn us that the water will be off, or that Duke Energy knows about a burned out streetlight, or remind us that management takes orders from the owner, and the proposal that residents of the northern section of the park pay for their share of a new mailbox is just that: an initial proposal.

Those examples are reminders that some Bay Ranchers DO toss their hats with joy.

But there is absolutely no doubt that negativity is rampant here, extensive enough that people we have elected to do certain jobs get so worn down, they can't finish their terms. How much do we owe Paige Andrews for hosting the holidays for us, which maybe everyone but her enjoyed? How can we thank her?

The answer may be in the parable of the starfish: a man walking along a deserted beach saw a boy bending down, picking up starfish from the beach and, one at a time throwing them back into the water. The man asked the boy what he was doing. The boy replied, "I am throwing these starfish back into the ocean, or else they will die through lack of oxygen.

"But", said the man, "You can't possibly save them all, there are thousands on this beach, and this must be happening on hundreds of beaches along the coast. You can't possibly make a difference."

The boy smiled, bent down and picked up another starfish, and as he threw it back into the sea, he replied, "Made a difference to that one." And maybe the first starfish to save is ourselves.

By acknowledging when our negative thoughts and feelings are getting the best of us and trying to figure out why, fixing it if we can or trying to find a new way to think about it.

By remembering that what other people do doesn't cause negative feelings. Blaming or griping about them doesn't make anyone feel better and goes nowhere. Maybe they could use some help.

Our park has been through this before and, yes, it was awful then, too, but we did come out the other side. Circumstances are different this time, but with effort from all of us, we will see the light at the end of the tunnel and march towards it.

Crock Pot Meatloaf ..

Try it once, and you'll never go back to your old way of cooking it! So Moist ..

Ingredients:

- 2 lbs ground beef
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 3/4 C milk
- 1 tsp salt
- 2 tsp pepper
- 3 slices bread, crumbled or torn into small pieces
- 1/2 C diced onion
- 1 envelope dry Ranch Dressing mix
- 1/2 C ketchup

Directions:

Mix eggs, milk, salt, pepper, and bread crumbs. Allow to soften (about 20 minutes). Combine this mixture with ground beef, onion, ranch pack, and ketchup. Mound in a greased crock-pot. Cover the top of the mixture with additional ketchup. Put the cover on and turn crock-pot on high for 15 minutes, then reduce to low and cook for 7 hours.

Garlic Bread Pizza

Ingredients

- Frozen garlic toast
- Pizza sauce
- Shredded mozzarella cheese
- Pizza toppings of your choice optional

Instructions

- Bake the garlic toast on a baking sheet according to the package directions, just until golden brown.
- Top the garlic toast with pizza sauce, cheese, and the pizza toppings of your choice. Tip: go light on the pizza sauce as too much sauce will soak into the bread and make it soggy.
- Place the baking sheet of garlic toast pizzas in the oven and broil for 2-4 minutes, just until the cheese is melted and beginning to brown. Tip: watch the pizzas closely during the broiling as they can burn quickly.
