Home Owners Association Update

Bob Campbell, President

Hard to believe it is March already. Just a reminder that our next HOA meeting will be on March 13 @ 7:00 p.m. With that in mind, the Board would like to encourage you to attend the meeting and share any ideas you may have about how we can better serve your interests. During the upcoming weeks, we will be focusing on improving our communication methods with you and Park Management; increasing our membership; updating our by-laws; and developing an effective strategy to minimize any future rental increase; and dealing with any other changes to the Prospectus/Community Guidelines which may arise. We believe our strength and effectiveness as a Board comes from you, the Oakcrest/Acorn residents, and we look forward to addressing your interests and concerns. Don't forget to pay your annual $10.00 HOA fee if you have not done so. If you are not a member and want to join, just contact any of us listed on page 2 and we will gladly assist you. We look forward to seeing you at the meeting!

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents' Club, Inc.

Karen Stancick, President, Lot 205, 610-349-7614

It appears that we survived our little blast of Winter weather and Spring is just around the corner! A big thanks to our residents and volunteers who helped make February's breakfast such a big success! The tremendous response to the Breakfast Surveys helped us move in the right direction to improve our menu. There are more changes to come!

We are working with the office to secure a commercial size washer and dryer for the laundry room. Debbie agrees that would be a big help for residents with oversized items, such as bedding. Keep an eye out for updates.

Please keep your monthly Messenger, especially the calendar inside, as a reference to time and places of activities, as well as the contact information for the volunteers in charge. I ask your understanding regarding the accuracy, delivery, and content of the Calendar. Some activities are every week; Some activities are every month; Some activities are every other week; and some activities are added and deleted each month. Times change, details change, and the Newsletter deadline is the 10th of the month! We cannot control the type size or the size of the blocks on the calendar. There are abbreviations and on occasion, more activities than will fit in a block. It really is complicated and our hands are tied when it comes to the design of The Messenger. So, please be understanding and see it for what it is—a completely free publication that requires a lot of effort from your team of volunteers, who are doing the best they can do in terms of scheduling, editing, copywriting, delivery, etc. The Messenger serves sixty different communities. Understand that each community sends in their changes and copy. The publisher needs time to put each specific edition together, including the paid advertising, and send to the printers for production and distribution to each Mobile Home Community. Thank you for your patience, understanding and appreciation.

Activities Committee

Co-Chairs, Marianne Olson and Roberta Zanol

The First Community Breakfast Buffet was a great success! We served 108 breakfasts, which is a great turnout. Thank you to everyone who volunteered and attended. The next breakfast is Saturday, March 4, from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. We sure hope to see you there.

Other activities this month are:

- Family Game night on March 25, 6:30 p.m. If you have a favorite game, please bring it to share.
- Carport Sale, March 11 from 8:30 – 1:30 p.m. RAIN DATE: March 18, same time.

If you have questions, please call Jill DiMaggio @ 443-741-5304

Oakcrest-Acorn Residents Canadian Club

Suzanne Thrasher, Secretary, Lot 356, 727-581-2642.

ATTENTION CHAMPS: Prepare to defend your title

Canadian Club Members: Mark your calendars for Monday, March 20, 2023. The Annual Olympics festivities will get underway behind the Clubhouse at 3:30 p.m. Don't forget to wear your 'red and white', bring a lawn chair and your favorite beverages. BBQ snacks will be served and it's BYOB, as always.

IF YOU ARE CONTACTED TO HELP WITH SET UP, PLEASE BE AT CLUBHOUSE @ 3:00 P.M.

Please feel free to bring visiting guests or family to this extremely fun event. If they are over 12, the cost is $5.00. The "Olympics" will be followed by a short general meeting; our picnic dinner (Pizza and ice cream); and the awarding of prizes to our winning Olympians. Hope to see you there!!!

Oakcrest / Acorn-Neighborhood Watch

Larry Arnold, RitaRich45@gmail.com, 727-224-4317

We are in need of someone to take over the Neighborhood WATCH Program, since we will be leaving Oak Crest/Acorn at the end of March. We currently have several volunteers who are doing an excellent job of deterring unwanted activity from our community. More volunteers are needed and will be welcomed, including a committee chair. We strongly believe that being seen around Oakcrest/Acorn does deter problems. Volunteers can drive their own carts or they can use the Park's Neighborhood WATCH cart.

If you can help your community by being Chairman of this important program, or if you would like to volunteer to be a part of the group, please contact Debbie in the Office.

HUMANA FOOD BAGS

Humana will be providing Healthy Food Bags on Friday, March 24, the Fourth Friday of the month. Tickets will be distributed at 2:30 p.m. and distribution begins at 3:00 p.m. One bag per household is permitted. If you or someone you know is unable to come to the Clubhouse, please let us know, via text to 440-318-4738, and we will try to drop a bag off to your house.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY LUNCHEON—SPONSORED BY HUMANA

 Humana will be sponsoring a buffet luncheon for 100 lucky residents on March 9, 2023 at 1:00 p.m. Lunch will be at the clubhouse and Humana has requested we wear green! Invitations will be by lottery, as before.

Lottery tickets will be located below the bulletin board and we ask that you fill out one per household, listing the residents in your household who will be attending. The box and tickets will be available February 21 through March 1st. Tickets will be drawn March 2 and a sheet with lot numbers chosen will be posted on the bulletin board; or you can text 440-318-4738 to check if your name was drawn. If your name is drawn and you cannot attend, please text that number to let us know, so we can give your space to someone else. This luncheon is in high demand and there shouldn't be any empty seats. Not everyone gets to go.

Unfortunately, there will be no home deliveries. If you are a shut-in and your name is drawn, please arrange for someone to bring your lunch to you.

COMMUNITY is UNITY with the SHARING ZONE

Chrissy Horner, 727- 400 1935

The success of our Community Sharing Zone is dependent on the generosity of Oakcrest/Acorn residents—to both give and to receive. The following items would be greatly appreciated: rice, black beans, pasta, sauce, cereal, tuna, and other high-protein foods. Dry goods (paper towels, tp, napkins) are also welcome. Food with expired dates will not be accepted.

Hours are Thursday from 7 – 8 pm and Saturday 9 – 10 a.m. Hours are subject to change and time changes will be posted on the Oakcrest/Acorn Facebook page, when possible.

COMMUNITY CARPORT SALE- No early Sales, please.

Our community carport sale is March 11, 8:30 to 1:30 p.m. The rain date will be the following Saturday, March 18, same time. There is going to be an abundance of advertising this year that will list both Acorn and Oakcrest addresses. Signs will direct shoppers to the back gate and to Acorn, as well.

The Resident’s Club will be offering a light lunch and bake sale in the Pavilion next to the Clubhouse and it would be appreciated if you would spread that information to your customers. Let’s get busy with Spring housecleaning and take advantage of this opportunity to make a few dollars.

If you have questions, please call Jill @ 443 741 5304.

Positive thinking

Three men set out on a journey. Each carried two sacks around his neck—one in front and one in back.

The first man was asked what was in his sacks.

“In this one on my back,” he said, “I carry all the kind deeds of my friends. In that way they are out of sight and out of mind and I don’t have to do anything about them. They’re soon forgotten. This sack in front carries all the unkind things people do to me. I pause in my journey every day and take these out to study. It slows me down, but nobody gets away with anything.”

The second man said he kept his own good deeds in his front sack. I constantly keep them before me,” he said. “It gives me pleasure to take them out and air them.” “The sack on your back seems heavy,” someone remarked to the second traveler. “What is in it?”

“That’s where I carry my mistakes,” said the second man. “I always keep them on my back.”

The third man was asked what he kept in his sacks. “I carry my friends’ kind deeds in this front sack,” he said.

Said an observer, “It looks full. It must be heavy.”

“No,” said the third man, “it is big, but not heavy. Far from being a burden, it is like the sails of a ship. It helps me move ahead.”

Added the observer, “I notice that the sack behind you has a hole in the bottom. It seems empty and of very little use.”

To which the third man replied, “That’s where I put all the evil I hear from others. It just falls out and is lost, so I have no weight to impede me.”

Guess which of the three travelers finished first in their journey through life? —from IdeaBank

On watching your pennies

It’s a well-known fact that Andrew Carnegie had a liking for accountants.

One Sunday, when Carnegie was just a small boy, he went to church.

While he was attending Sunday school, his teacher called upon him to tell the class a quote he knew from the Bible.

Carnegie quoted a well-known Scottish proverb instead: “Take care of your pennies and your pounds will take care of themselves.”

The Sunday school teacher told Carnegie that while his proverb was a good one that it wasn’t in the Bible.

To which young Carnegie answered: “Well, it should be.” —

Some tips for raising your healthy lifestyle quotient

For improving overall health—try the following tips from Ann Kearney-Cooke, author of Change Your Mind, Change Your Body.

- Follow a good diet. Eating a diet that promotes emotional health may help reduce the possibility of back pain and other problems.
 - Exercise. Short exercise sessions boost brain chemicals that make you feel good. It can help release your anger.
 - Appreciate your accomplishments. Don't forget to take stock of your achievements. Sometimes the world and the people closest to us forget to do this. Doing it for yourself ensures a healthy self-image.
 - Allow yourself your emotions, but don't get stuck in them. If you have a disappointing or frustrating experience, let yourself feel it, but put a time limit on it, so you don't tread water in the land of frustration.
 - Let the small annoyances in life go. Don't let things like traffic and minor insults control how you feel during your day.
 - When you are feeling stressed, connect with a friend and do something distracting.
 - Recognize your emotions. If you deny your negative emotions, they often flood the mind with even more power. Recognizing your emotions does not mean acting on them. It is usually helpful to write about your negative emotions, and then try to learn something from them.
 - Recognize how your life experiences have colored how you now see the world. If you react inappropriately because of some emotional baggage, recognizing it is the first step to being free of it eventually.
 - Don't overcommit. When you over schedule yourself, you deplete your inner resources, and it will be more difficult to deal with the everyday stresses that life is sure to throw your way.
 - Get enough sleep. A good night's sleep helps us cope with stressors. If you find yourself going over the edge quickly, you might be sleep deprived.
- adapted from Natural Health

Does the thought of starting a new exercise program make you cringe?

If you've been thinking or talking about starting an exercise program but you just can't get started, you might want to think about exercise in a new way. Some people think that if they don't exercise at least 30 minutes or more, they might as well not do anything. But that's just not true.

Start off by exercising in the morning before you go to work—shoot for 10 or 15 minutes. Once you get into the groove of your routine you can expand it or not, depending on your preference. A lot of people put off starting a program because they feel like they just don't have the time. But when you're talking about 10 or 15 minutes it's a lot easier to get started.

Eventually you can shoot for two 15 minutes sessions per day. One before work and one after. You'll likely be surprised at the results. — adapted from Self
