Cookbook Club News

With cultures as diverse as Spanish, Moroccan, Greek, Turkish, Italian, Southern French and Middle Eastern, the Mediterranean is a fascinating area for curious cooks and eaters.

The cuisines that ring the Mediterranean are built around vegetables, fruit, and whole grains, flavored with olive oil, spices and fresh herbs, with meat and dairy in moderation.

Residents of this region enjoy lower rates of diabetes, lower blood pressure and less cardiovascular disease when compared to other developed countries and food researchers have linked their good health and longevity to their diet.

This month we are highlighting The Mediterranean Cookbook that celebrates healthy eating with over 100 regional recipes. Inside this cookbook, you will find:

- Over 50 simple recipes ready in 30 minutes or less
- More than 30 healthy soups and stews that comfort and nourish
- 35 light and flavorful meat dishes and refreshing seafood recipes
- Over 40 nutritious snacks and salads that are both healthy and satisfying

If you would like to join our get-together in March:

1. Review the recipes from The Mediterranean Cookbook (it's in the Activities Room in the Clubhouse)
2. Pick a recipe and enter your selection on the sign-up sheet
3. Prepare your recipe
4. Bring it with you to the CBBC tasting party at the Clubhouse. Your foodie friends in Pointe West look forward to seeing you! Questions? Contact Barbara Hyle at 978-257-0899.

St Patrick's Day Trivia

While St. Patrick's Day is now associated with wearing green, parades and beer, the holiday is grounded in history that dates back more than 1,500 years. The earliest known celebration was held on March 17, 1631, marking the anniversary of the death of St. Patrick in the 5th century. Learn more about the holiday's history and how it evolved into the event it is today.

- ✿ The Real St. Patrick Was Born in Britain: St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, was born in Britain near the end of the 4th century. At age 16 he was kidnapped by Irish raiders and sold as a slave to a Celtic priest in Northern Ireland. After toiling for six years as a shepherd, he escaped back to Britain. He eventually returned to Ireland as a Christian missionary.
- ✿ There Were No Snakes Around for St. Patrick to Banish from Ireland: Among the legends associated with St. Patrick is that he banished snakes from Ireland. Snakes never occupied the Emerald Isle in the first place. There are no signs of snakes in the country's fossil record. And water has surrounded Ireland since the last glacial period. Before that, the region was covered in ice and would have been too cold for the reptiles.
- ✿ Leprechauns Are Likely Based on Celtic Fairies: The Leprechaun is commonly associated with St. Patrick's Day. Belief in leprechauns likely stems from Celtic belief in fairies. In Celtic folktales, leprechauns were cranky souls, responsible for mending the shoes of the other fairies.
- ✿ The Shamrock Was Considered a Sacred Plant: The shamrock, a three-leaf clover, has been associated with Ireland for centuries and was considered a plant that symbolized the arrival of spring. According to legend, St. Patrick used the plant as a visual guide when explaining the Holy Trinity.
- ✿ Corned Beef and Cabbage Was an American Innovation: The meal that became a St. Patrick's Day staple across the country was an American innovation. While ham and cabbage were eaten in Ireland, corned beef offered a cheaper substitute for impoverished immigrants. Irish-Americans living in the slums of lower Manhattan in the late 19th century and early 20th, purchased leftover corned beef from ships returning from the tea trade in China. The Irish would boil the beef three times—the last time with cabbage—to remove some of the brine.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
