FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,

Dear Valued Residents,

We are now into March already! How time flies!

We will be having our next Resident Meeting at the clubhouse on Wednesday, March 15th at 6pm. We have many topics to discuss at this meeting so it would be great if you can attend. One of the topics to discuss is monthly events. Your feedback and input on how we approach future events is very valuable. We don't want to schedule events that the majority of residents have no interest in, so you can see just how much your opinion on this counts. Please, if you can make it to this meeting, we would appreciate it very much.

This monthly courier is a valuable tool in communicating with you and we really need your help to ensure delivery continues. This courier is designed to be delivered by residents and, although a few have volunteered to help deliver, that is only one part of the process. The process of putting each into a door hanger does take some time and, unfortunately I do not have a lot of free time to complete this task.

Lastly, We really need one person with a computer & email capabilities to contact Monthly Media at 727-484-7488 or email them at newsletter@monthly-media.com. Another part of this is putting in various information that pertains specifically to Crystal Lake, so someone to edit these and send back to Monthly Media is also very important. If you have some free time, it would be greatly appreciated if you contact them at the above phone number or email.

Our goal is to make Crystal Lake a more active community. We hope you can help us to achieve this goal.

Sincerely,

Tom Grimsley

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Make yourself laugh

If you're feeling blue or grouchy and you want to change your mood, here are a few suggestions for ways to get yourself laughing.

- Do something you normally do in a completely different way. For instance if you're right handed try eating with your left hand.
- Start a humor collection—it could be jokes, quotes or just something you find amusing.
- Pay attention to children—they usually do and say things that give us perspective on ourselves.
- Buy gifts for people you know at a garage sale. —adapted from www.allenklein.com

10 ways to tell a redneck has been working on a computer...

1. The monitor is up on blocks.
2. Outgoing faxes have tobacco stains on them.
3. The six front keys have rotted out.
4. The extra RAM slots have Dodge truck parts installed in them.
5. The numeric keypad only goes up to six.
6. The password is "Bubba."
7. The CPU has a gun rack mount.
8. There is a Skoal can in the CD-ROM drive.
9. The keyboard is camouflaged.
10. The mouse is referred to as a "critter." —from computerhumour.com

How to plan an adventure

If you're in need of an adventure, then you'll want to think about the following suggestions.

- To figure out what kind of adventure you want to go on, listen to your own desires. Once you know what your desires are, set your goal for your dream trip. Start a savings account to take the trip. Make a promise to yourself that it's going to happen—and it will.
- Overcome your fears. That's part of what going on an adventure is all about. Prepare yourself so that you can handle potential problems that could occur on your particular trip. Do your homework.
- If traveling alone is too intimidating for you, join a group. There are lots of tour groups, wilderness courses, etc. Check out the Internet. There are lots of services that get everything ready for you. All you have to do is show up and start your adventure. —adapted from Organic Style

You need a contractor— now what?

If you're remodeling your home and you need a contractor, what's the best way to go about getting a good one? Here are a few tips to help you find a quality contractor to transform your home.

- Ask your friends and acquaintances. Ask anyone who has had work done recently and find out if they were happy with the results. If they were, get the contractor's name. You also might get in contact with real estate agents in your area. It's likely they'll know who's reliable and who's not.
  - Make a list of what you need to have done, and be specific. Give model numbers and brand names of what you want installed. Write up the time frame you expect.
  - Get bids from at least three different contractors. Get the contractors' license numbers. Make sure you get license numbers for subcontractors who might come into the picture later as well.
  - Don't automatically go for the lowest bid. That contractor could be inexperienced or he may not know how to do the job correctly. Watch the high-end bids as well—they may be trying to take advantage of you. Do your research and you'll make the right choice.
  - Make a payment agreement before the work starts. For instance, you might put an initial deposit down of 30 percent to 40 percent.
  - Make yourself available to answer questions the contractor might have. This will prevent delays in the completion of the project. If things change during the course of the work—put the changes and the agreements concerning compensation, etc., in writing. Keep communication flowing and you'll end up with a result you love.
- adapted from Cooking Light

Looking good for the camera

Do you want to improve how you come out looking in a snapshot? Here are a couple of suggestions.

- Make sure the photographer is shooting the picture from an angle that is slightly higher than you are. This angle hides features such as slack chins and emphasizes your cheekbones.
- Don't face the camera straight on. Turn slightly. Most people look better photographed at a slight angle. — adapted from Self

Some tips for raising your healthy lifestyle quotient

---

For improving overall health—try the following tips from Ann Kearney-Cooke, author of Change Your Mind, Change Your Body.

- Follow a good diet. Eating a diet that promotes emotional health may help reduce the possibility of back pain and other problems.
  - Exercise. Short exercise sessions boost brain chemicals that make you feel good. It can help release your anger.
  - Appreciate your accomplishments. Don't forget to take stock of your achievements. Sometimes the world and the people closest to us forget to do this. Doing it for yourself ensures a healthy self-image.
  - Allow yourself your emotions, but don't get stuck in them. If you have a disappointing or frustrating experience, let yourself feel it, but put a time limit on it, so you don't tread water in the land of frustration.
  - Let the small annoyances in life go. Don't let things like traffic and minor insults control how you feel during your day.
  - When you are feeling stressed, connect with a friend and do something distracting.
  - Recognize your emotions. If you deny your negative emotions, they often flood the mind with even more power. Recognizing your emotions does not mean acting on them. It is usually helpful to write about your negative emotions, and then try to learn something from them.
  - Recognize how your life experiences have colored how you now see the world. If you react inappropriately because of some emotional baggage, recognizing it is the first step to being free of it eventually.
  - Don't overcommit. When you over schedule yourself, you deplete your inner resources, and it will be more difficult to deal with the everyday stresses that life is sure to throw your way.
  - Get enough sleep. A good night's sleep helps us cope with stressors. If you find yourself going over the edge quickly, you might be sleep deprived.
- adapted from Natural Health

Does the thought of starting a new exercise program make you cringe?

If you've been thinking or talking about starting an exercise program but you just can't get started, you might want to think about exercise in a new way. Some people think that if they don't exercise at least 30 minutes or more, they might as well not do anything. But that's just not true.

Start off by exercising in the morning before you go to work—shoot for 10 or 15 minutes. Once you get into the groove of your routine you can expand it or not, depending on your preference. A lot of people put off starting a program because they feel like they just don't have the time. But when you're talking about 10 or 15 minutes it's a lot easier to get started.

Eventually you can shoot for two 15 minutes sessions per day. One before work and one after. You'll likely be surprised at the results. — adapted from Self

I always wanted to be somebody, but now I realize I should have been more specific.
—Lily Tomlin

—Woody Allen

Eagles may soar in the clouds, but weasels never get sucked into jet engines.
—Attributed to both Jason Hutchison and John Benfield

I'd never join a club that would allow a person like me to become a member.
—Woody Allen

—Albert Einstein

The four building blocks of the universe are fire, water, gravel and vinyl.

Positive thinking

Three men set out on a journey. Each carried two sacks around his neck—one in front and one in back.

The first man was asked what was in his sacks.

“In this one on my back,” he said, “I carry all the kind deeds of my friends. In that way they are out of sight and out of mind and I don’t have to do anything about them. They’re soon forgotten. This sack in front carries all the unkind things people do to me. I pause in my journey every day and take these out to study. It slows me down, but nobody gets away with anything.”

The second man said he kept his own good deeds in his front sack. I constantly keep them before me,” he said. “It gives me pleasure to take them out and air them.” “The sack on your back seems heavy,” someone remarked to the second traveler. “What is in it?”

“That’s where I carry my mistakes,” said the second man. “I always keep them on my back.”

The third man was asked what he kept in his sacks. “I carry my friends’ kind deeds in this front sack,” he said.

Said an observer, “It looks full. It must be heavy.”

“No,” said the third man, “it is big, but not heavy. Far from being a burden, it is like the sails of a ship. It helps me move ahead.”

Added the observer, “I notice that the sack behind you has a hole in the bottom. It seems empty and of very little use.”

To which the third man replied, “That’s were I put all the evil I hear from others. It just falls out and is lost, so I have no weight to impede me.”

Guess which of the three travelers finished first in their journey through life? —from IdeaBank

On watching your pennies

It’s a well-known fact that Andrew Carnegie had a liking for accountants.

One Sunday, when Carnegie was just a small boy, he went to church.

While he was attending Sunday school, his teacher called upon him to tell the class a quote he knew from the Bible.

Carnegie quoted a well-known Scottish proverb instead: “Take care of your pennies and your pounds will take care of themselves.”

The Sunday school teacher told Carnegie that while his proverb was a good one that it wasn’t in the Bible.

To which young Carnegie answered: “Well, it should be.” —
