UPCOMING EVENTS

In March we have the Volunteers Luncheon on the 29th. All Volunteers throughout the year -- please sign up in the Clubhouse so we may give you a proper thank you!!!

There's not a lot going on in April at deadline time – but we do have a presentation in the clubhouse “How You Can Protect Your Assets” by Andrew Gracy, Eldercare Attorney, on Tuesday, April 11, at 1:00 pm. Please feel free to join us for some good information.

Easter Dinner --- is yet to be determined. Looking for volunteers to help out. We will post notices as soon as we know something.

The final Social Club Board Meeting – until November – will be on April 10, 7 pm.

Spring Sing Chorus Concert – Sunday, April 2, 3:00 pm, at the Dunedin Community Center – free admission, donations accepted! Always a nice event!!

RESULTS FROM FEBRUARY / MARCH EVENTS

The White Elephant Sale was a huge success!! Thank you to Jerry & Roger Santerre for heading up this gigantic undertaking – and thanks to all the volunteers who helped out. You don't know how much we appreciate all of you!!! The resident 50/50 winner was Mark Doran on Friday – and the 50/50 winner on Saturday was Rita Teeter. Congrats to you both!!

THINGS I’VE LEARNED

from your Editor JoLynn Kendzora

DO NOT use Mr. Clean Magic Erasers on wall paint that has a satin or gloss finish. It will dull the finish (like real fine sandpaper would) and you will have to repaint the wall. Trust me ... I had to repaint!!

SPECIAL NEEDS STICKERS – Pinellas County Sheriff Bob Gualtieri has started a “Respond With Care” initiative, letting first responders know when they are approaching someone with special needs. If you have a special needs person in your home, or know of someone who could benefit from having this sticker, please contact PSCO’s Crime Prevention and Community Awareness Unit at 727-582-2222 to apply for a sticker.

FOR MANUFACTURED/MOBILE HOME OWNERS ON RENTED LOTS

Our accomplishments are numerous and include the creation of Florida Statute 723, "The Florida Mobile Home Act", which safeguards your rights as homeowners on rented lots in Florida.

Most recently we've successfully lobbied for the extension of The Mobile Home Tie-Down Program for 10 more years.

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,

FUNNIES

by Al Szynski

“A new study from Harvard says you can reduce the risk of a potentially fatal heart condition by eating six bars of chocolate a week. Yeah. It reduces the chance of heart attack because once you give up being in shape, you have way less stress.” – James Cordon

A rookie police officer took his first ride in a cruiser with an experienced partner. A call came in telling them to disperse some people who were loitering. The officers drove to the street and observed a small crowd standing on a corner. The rookie rolled down his window and said, “Let’s get off the corner, people.” A few glances, but no one moved, so he barked again, “Let’s get off that corner. . . NOW!” Intimidated, the group of people began to leave, casting puzzled stares in his direction. Proud of himself, the young policeman turned to his partner and asked, “Well, how did I do?” “Pretty good,” chuckled the veteran policeman, “especially since this is a bus stop.”

During an act by a ventriloquist, a man stood up and yelled, “Hey! You’ve been making enough jokes at people’s expense. Cut it out!” “Take it easy!” the ventriloquist exclaimed. “They’re only jokes!” “I’m not talking to you. I’m talking to that little jerk sitting on your knee!”

While shopping for vacation clothes, a husband and wife passed a display of bathing suits. It had been years since she had even considered buying a swimsuit, so she asked her husband’s advice. “What do you think?” she asked. “Should I get a bikini or an all-in-one?” “Better get a bikini,” he replied. “You’d never get it all in one.” He’s still in intensive care.

Did you hear the rumor going around about butter? Never mind, I shouldn’t spread it.

A rector and one of his parishioners played golf weekly, and the rector usually lost. One day, the parishioner tried to console him by saying, “I’m sure you’ll get your satisfaction when I pass away and you do my burial service.” “What satisfaction?” the rector replied. “You’ll still be in the hole.”

Today, temperatures are expected to reach 127 in Death Valley. But it’s a dry death.” – Stephen Colbert

A teenager who had just received her learner’s permit offered to drive her parents to church. After a hair-raising ride, they finally reached their destination. The mother got out of the car and said, “Thank you!” “Anytime,” her daughter replied. As the woman slammed the door, she said, “I wasn’t talking to you. I was talking to God.”

Lawyers are the only people who can write a 10,000 word document and call it a “brief”.

I threw a boomerang a few years ago. Now I live in constant fear.

For 30 years, an employee arrived at work at 9 a.m. on the dot. He’d never missed a day and never been late. So when on one particular day 9 a.m. passed without the man’s arrival, it caused a stir. The boss, looking at his watch and muttering, came out into the corridor. Finally, at exactly 10 o’clock, the employee showed up, clothes torn, his face scratched and bruised. He limped to the time clock, punched in, and said, “I tripped and fell down two flights of stairs in the subway. Nearly killed myself.” His boss said, “And to roll down two flights of stairs took you a whole hour?”

I hated my job as an origami teacher. Too much paperwork.

“Hey you! Pull over!” shouted the traffic cop, who fined a woman $75 for not wearing a seatbelt. She went home feeling sick, fearing her husband would see the checkbook and ask what happened. Then inspiration struck, and she wrote in the check register, “One pullover: $75.”

Did you hear about the restaurant on the moon? The food’s great but there’s no atmosphere.

How Mickey Mouse was born

The legacy of Walt Disney is now a $20 billion media giant. It includes film studios, TV networks, publishing houses, famous theme parks and hundreds of retail stores.

Disney was the last of five children born in 1901 to parents who lived in Chicago. Disney became enamored with drawing and started a company with his brother Roy to try and build an animation business. Disney was barely making it financially.

On a long train ride back from a disastrous business setback in which he lost the rights to a character he had created, the idea came to Disney to create another character based on a mouse that scampered across his drawing board. This idea blossomed into the character of Mickey Mouse.

Later, when Disney spent an unprecedented $1.5 million to produce the masterpiece Snow White, critics and naysayers dubbed the project “Disney’s Folly.” However, the animated film became the most profitable ever released and set Disney on the path of creating animated classics, and he became known as the father of the animated-film genre. — adapted from the Los Angeles Times article “50 people who most influenced business this century”

The devil’s secret weapon

There is an old-time fable that the devil once held a sale and offered all the tools of his trade to anyone who would pay their price.

They were spread out on the table, with each one labeled — hatred, malice, envy, despair, sickness, sensuality — all the weapons that everyone knows so well.

But off on one side, apart from the rest, lay a harmless looking, wedge-shaped instrument marked “DISCOURAGEMENT.” It was old and worn looking, but it was priced far above all the rest.

When asked the reason why, the devil explained: “Because I can use this one so much more easily than the others. No one knows that it belongs to me, so with it I can open doors that are tightly bolted against the others. Once I get inside, I can use any tool that suits me best.” — from IdeaBank

On vision

I had an almost intolerable awareness that every morning began with infinite promise. Any book may be read, any idea thought, any action taken. Anything that has ever been possible to human beings is possible to most of us every time the clock says six in the morning. On a day no different from the one now breaking, Shakespeare sat down to begin Hamlet.

Believe in yourself

The night before Douglas MacArthur took the entrance exam for West Point, he was very nervous. At the time, his mother offered him some sage advice. She told her son not to lose his nerve and that he needed to believe in himself, because if he didn't no one else would either. She also told her son that even if he failed, he would succeed in knowing that he had done his best. With this bit of wisdom MacArthur tackled the exam — and when the results came back he finished in the No. 1 slot. — adapted from The Speaker's Library of Business Stories, Anecdotes and Humor by Joe Griffith

A problem-solving legend

In 333 B.C., the famous Macedonian general Alexander and his army arrived in Phrygia to spend the winter. According to Greek legend, a farmer named Gordius became king of Phrygia by fulfilling a prediction made by an oracle that the next king of the country would ride into the public square on an oxcart. In gratitude, Gordius tied his cart in the temple of the oracle's god, using a knot so intricate that no one was able to untie it, though many tried. A legend arose that whoever untied the "Gordian Knot" would rule Asia.

When Alexander the Great encountered the challenge of the Gordian Knot, he was fascinated. He studied the problem.

Finally, in a burst of inspiration (or was it frustration), Alexander pulled out his sword and sliced the knot in half, solving the complex problem with a simple solution and becoming part of the legend himself. He and his armies went on to capture and rule more territories in the ancient world than anyone who had gone before him. This included Asia, although in Alexander's day that extended only as far as India.

Sometimes, the best way to solve a difficult problem is to slice away some of the complexities with a single stroke, despite opposition and advice to do otherwise. — adapted from IdeaBank

On men

If men can run the world, why can't they stop wearing neckties? How intelligent is it to start the day by tying a little noose around your neck?

— Linda Ellerbee

My ancestors wandered lost in the wilderness for 40 years because even in biblical times, men would not stop to ask for directions.

— Elayne Boosler

Daily

April Fools' Day. April 1. A tradition that began in France in 1564. April 1 used to be New Year's Day, but it was changed to Jan. 1 that year. People who insisted on celebrating the old New Year date became known as April fools, and it became common to play jokes and tricks on them.

Reconciliation Day. April 2. Columnist Ann Landers suggested in 1989 that this day be set aside for writing that letter or making that phone call to mend a broken relationship.

Earth Day. April 22. First observed in 1970, Earth Day was an attempt to accelerate the transition to renewable energy worldwide. The efforts continue. For more information, browse www.earthday.net.

Take Our Sons and Daughters to Work Day. April 27. A national public education campaign sponsored by the Ms. Foundation in which children from ages 8 to 12 go to work with adult hosts. For more information, browse www.daughtersandsonstowork.org.

National Arbor Day. April 28 A day to honor plants and trees. For more information, browse www.arborday.org.

The unexpected and the incredible belong in this world. Only then is life whole.
