IT'S THAT TIME OF THE YEAR AGAIN TO THINK ABOUT GETTING PREPARED FOR HURRICANE SEASON:

---

More information will be coming. Keep an eye on the Scuttlebutt, e-mail, facebook, and the weather channels.
BEING PREPARED FOR A HURRICANE:

Hurricane season begins June 1st and ends November 30th , more or less. We in mobile homes are in the area known as ZONE A. This designation means we must evacuate from our homes when/if a hurricane is expected to come to our area. Evacuation may be to a friend's or relative's home in a safe zone, going North and or inland or to a designated shelter. If you require assistance with transport during the emergency, arrangements can be clarified through the citizen's information center 727-464-4333 PRIOR TO THE NEED. Forms will be available to be completed then submitted to appropriate people at the EOC. This number is only available once the hurricane threat is posted. Paper pamphlets are being printed and will be available.

To get updates on any storm it is suggested you sign up to receive emergency notifications by phone text or e-mail at www.pinellascounty.org/alertpinellas.

To find updates on preparedness before, during and after the storm sign-on at www.pinellascounty.org/emergency.

If you have a pet you can contact www.pinellascounty.org/animalservices.

Information on general preparedness and live updates during emergencies can be seen from the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) and found on Spectrum 637, WOW! 18 or Frontier 44.

TO LATE TO MAKE THE APRIL ISSUE:

DANCE

Dances:

The last dance of our season, the “Spring Fling” saw a sell-out crowd of 120 residents enjoying the music provided by Kris Pierce, a new musician to our park. To benefit residents who are likely to have been supporting the dances throughout the season, the Social Club returned all ticket sale money via a drawing. Fourteen lucky residents received between $25 – $35 in the drawing.

A final tally of participation at the six dances show that 589 tickets were sold over the past season which means that on average, dance attendance was just under 100 participants.

Be sure to put November 16, 2023 on your calendar for the first dance of next season.

St. Patty’s Dinner:

The dinner was catered by J&T Fresh Catering, who provided a traditional Irish dinner. The food was delicious, and over 80 tickets were sold. This was a great Irish celebration!

BINGO:

The season end has arrived. Hopefully next season more of our residents will come out to enjoy a night of socialization and win a bit of money at the same time. Information for next season, Bingo is played every Wednesday with 7:00pm being the start time. Please arrive early to purchase your cards. Cards are $1.00 each. See you in October.

QUIPS:

Everyone was thinking it...I just said it!
On your mark...get set...go away!

The optimist expects it to change

HERE'S WHAT'S COOKING:

Best Darn Ham Sandwiches;

2 -12 packages of sweet Hawaiian rolls ( the small dinner roll looking ones), 1 ½ lbs of Virginia ham (NOT honey ham), 12 slices of Swiss cheese, 1 stick of real butter, 2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce, 1 tsp. garlic powder, 1 tsp. onion powder, 1 tsp. poppy seeds (optional).

You will need two 9x13 pans. Place the bottoms of 12 rolls in each pan. Place ham (about 2 shaved slices or so) on the rolls. Cut the cheese slices into 4 parts and place 2 small pieces on each sandwich. Put the dinner roll tops on. In a sauce pan, mix butter Worcestershire sauce, onion powder, garlic powder and poppy seeds. Wait until all butter is melted and then brush the melted mixture over the ham sandwiches. Cover with foil and let sit in fridge for 1 hour or overnight. (If you want to bake them right, you can). Preheat oven to 375 degrees and bake for 15 minutes or until cheese is melted. Serve. They are hot and even at room temperature.

Bringing out the best in others — naturally

If you've ever had anyone appreciate you for your natural abilities, you'll appreciate the story of the flower seed principle.

Try to think of every person as a flower seed: He or she already has the disposition to become something amazing and beautiful. But each seed will become only a certain kind of flower.

In the workplace, you overhear a manager say—"I think that sunflower over there has some potential, and I think with a little training he could become a really great long-stemmed rose."

The truth is that a sunflower seed is only going to produce a sunflower—and how beautiful the flower becomes often depends on how it is nurtured.

But in the workplace what often happens is someone in charge brings in some information to try and teach the sunflower how to try and become a long stemmed rose. The sunflower is encouraged to have lunch with and network with the roses, in the hope that one day, he too can become one of them. Before the sunflower goes to bed each night, his boss tells him to say over and over to himself, "I am a beautiful long stemmed rose."

And so do you know what the sunflower becomes.

He does not become a rose—certainly not. No. He becomes the world's most insecure sunflower. Because no one has ever noticed his own innate beauty and the gifts he has for the world. Because for a long time everyone has been telling him it's not OK for him to be who he is.

The best thing anyone can do for someone else is to try and find out what that person's nature is. And then once you find out what that person's nature is you ask yourself, "What can I do to cultivate the person's natural talents and abilities?"

A true leader would say: "Here's a seminar on how a bunch of beautiful sunflowers got together and did something wonderful. Here's a place where you can go and network with other sunflowers."

That is how you help someone tap their true potential, which is what good leaders do. First you find out what kind of seed the people already have inside and then you help them grow into what they were naturally meant to be.
